Mr. J. O. Whittemore returned from his extended trip outside on New Years eve. He left his son George, who accompanied him, at Franklin, Ky., and we are pleased to state that he has much improved in health since his departure, having gained three pounds in weight.

Fred says XX economizes the truth, in that the "Frenchman" was German and the farmer a myth. Unless some peace maker steps in and "smooths the wrinkled front" of affairs at the other end of the village there will undoubtedly be blood shed.

Annual meeting of the Iosco County Agricultural society will be held at the court house in Tawas City on January 12th 1885 at 2 o'clock p. m., when the officers and trustees for the ensuing year will be elected. It is hoped that all members of the society will be present.

E. V. ESMOND, President. S. G. TAYLOR, Secretary.

"Now, sir," said the prosecuting attorney, pompously, "you are a railroad man, you say. Now, sir, let's see how much you know about your business, sir. What motive, sir, has your company for running trains through the city faster than the ordinances decree?" "What motive?" "Yes sir, what motive? Come, sir." "Why, locomotive, I should say." The witness was fined for contempt of court.—Ex.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the Congregational Church was fairly well filled last Tuesday night to hear the Rev. Mr. Hooke's lecture on London. The entertainment, in regard to the music and the address was an excellent one and a splendid beginning for the course. The many objects of interest in London were clearly and intelligently pictured out by the speaker who evidently is perfectly acquainted with the subject.

Despite the dull and backward winter a considerable amount of logs are going into the East Branch this year, a large portion of which will be brought to the Tawas. The following parties are now at work: Pratt & Dease, will put in 6,000,000; John Brown 10,000,000; E. V. It is said that the surest way to become popular is to take an interest in and pay considerable attention to all the homely old maids in a community and amaze the children. Probably no young man in East Tawas is more firmly rooted in the affection of the little children of that community than Daniel Leveland—of course this is one a prestige with their elder sisters. It is said that he can find genuine pleasure with a doll baby and in fact can handle a doll and sing a lullaby to one that is as good as dead. Being blessed with this faculty he has for some time been devising a scheme by which he could give a pleasant afternoon with the children. Having settled on a plan he issued a list of invitations to all the little ones to come to a grand doll party at his residence of R. E. Pratt on Saturday the 31st inst, all but doll dolls and the one having the two best dolls to be awarded a prize. Between forty children were present, bringing their dolls all of which were
