Saturday forenoon's session was held at the High School building. The most important feature of the session was the discussions upon "Teachers' Preparation," by Prof. Hartman, of Oscoda.

The afternoon session also held at the High School, was opened by a class drill by Miss Edyth Walker. The work of her little class showed that their teacher was making every effort to promote their education. The next paper upon E. S. History, "When and How," by Miss Mary E. Heim, brought forth quite a good deal of discussion. The paper itself contained many good methods. As Miss Nina M. Stevens, reader of the next paper upon "School Government" was absent, Supt. Morse, of AuSable, was called upon to give his views upon the subject. Although Prof. Morse is an experienced man and is well posted upon the subject, we think he was rather severe on the school "mams." The discussions which followed were quite spirited, nearly everyone present giving their view on the subject.

The closing paper entitled "The Competet," by Miss Stella M. Gardner, was quite spicy and contained some very interesting news.

After the close of the entertainment a business meeting was held at which it was voted to make an assessment upon ladies of 25c and gentlemen for 50c.

Prof. McDonald was elected treasurer of the association.

The meeting as a whole was a success and those who arranged the program deserve credit for the many interesting and instructive subjects which it contained.

Miss Carrie A. Reynolds, president of the association, was unable to attend owing to ill health and Prof. Osgerby presided at all of the sessions.

New Catholic School at Alpena.

Mr. Chas. O. Rice, the architect, has the plans and specifications for the St. Bernard parochial school building about ready and Rev. Father Flannery has men busy preparing the grounds. We might say the work on the new building has already commenced. It will be a three story building, but the third story, next to the curb roof, will be a half 4x67 feet with 18 feet ceiling. The roof will be slate covered. The building, 62x75 ft., —an 8 room building, besides the basement and this hall referred to—and will be made of brick and stone—stone foundation and rock-faced stone trimmings; and will have a tower in front 80 feet high. The building will cost $10,000, but with the steam heating apparatus if one should be put in—when all is completed it may cost about $12,000. The 4 rooms on each floor will be 24x32, with ceiling 10 feet high and will be divided by two halls crossing at right angles in the center; one hall 14 feet wide and the other 10 feet. There will be two main entrances to the building, through archways 9 feet wide. Mr. Owen Fox has the contract for furnishing the stone. Father Flannery expects to have the building enclosed next fall, and to finish it during the winter and next spring. It will stand alongside of the St. Bernard stone church on the Chisholm street side, with about 20 feet space between the church and school. —Alpena Echo.

WANTED.

Fifty men at the Alabaster Plaster Works to do general labor. Steady employment and good wages.

The Preston National Bank of Detroit.

This bank was established by David Preston in 1852, under the firm name of David Preston & Co. In June, 1887, the present organization was incorporated under the National Bank Act of the United States with the following board of directors: R. W. Gillett, F. W. Hayes, C. A. Black, Wm. H. Elliott, James E. Davis, James D. Standish, H. S. Pingree, A. E. F. White, W. D. Preston, W. R. Burt and John Canfield, and the following officers: R. W. Gillett, President; F. W. Hayes, Vice-President; J. P. Gilmore, Cashier. The capital of the bank is $1,000,000. Accounts of mercantile and commercial houses, manufacturing establishments, private individuals and firms are received, and the bank discounts, approves commercial paper, and loans money on satisfactory names or collaterals, at market rates. With a representative board of directors the needs of those keeping commercial accounts with this bank have careful, intelligent and prompt consideration. It is the desire of the management to make the bank an important and successful factor in the healthy development of the commerce and manufactures of Detroit and Michigan, and thereby promote the bank's interests as well as the general prosperity. Widows and women having separate estates, desiring to transact their own financial business, are afforded every convenience of the bank's several departments, and its officers cheerfully render assistance desired in the matter of buying and selling investment securities, and information upon subjects of business, value of stocks, bonds, securities, etc.
 Special accounts from capitalists, trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, and others having funds in their possession for investment or safe keeping are received, and proper rates of interest paid on moneys so deposited. This feature of the bank's business is conducted on the plans pursued by the large English banks.
 The bank has its own accounts in London, Paris, Berlin, Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Vienna, Amsterdam, Stockholm, Rome, and all the other principal cities of the European Continent. It also issues its own Letters of Credit, available to travelers in all parts of the world, and same may be secured at any time during banking hours, and they have proven a source of great distinction to the Bank. The issuance of Commercial Letters of Credit to merchants and others who wish to make purchases in foreign markets, has also proven one of the worthy and enterprising features of its large and constantly increasing business. It is the only bank in the State prepared to do in its own name, all branches of the banking business. The building occupied is one of the handsomest and best appointed in Detroit, its office accommodations being especially well adapted, and affording every convenience and facility for the transaction of the various details of business of the bank's several departments.

 An observing man who notices things on the street says the first thing a young man does when he sees a friend with a new hat on is to take it off and serenely try it on his own head. When a young lady sees one of her acquaintances with a new bonnet she lifts up her nose and serenely wonders "where she got that thing." —Bay City Times.
