TERMS: $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

OFFICE: Lake St., Dupraw Building.

HOME HAPPENINGS.

Hay is selling readily for $16 per ton here.

We have a few matrimonial events slated.

Andrew Murphy has 25 tons of timothy hay pressed for sale.

Fred Baro has been assigned a position on the long timber train for Barney Mills, as conductor.

We should celebrate the 4th of July. Let us get up a tearing time and make the wild eagle scream.

Supper and ice cream social at Town Line M. E. Church, Tuesday June 9th. Supper will commence at 8:30 p. m.

Where are you going the 4th? is one of the daily topics. We would say spend your money at home and subscribe for the HERALD.

Mr. Benjamin C. Elce, farmer, Alabaster, and Miss Sarah Ecker were married by Rev. A. C. Kay at East Tawas, Tuesday June 3rd.

Wm. Drager and son, of this city, have one of the latest styles of hay presses, and they are doing a large stroke of business in this line.

Six minutes is the length of time it took C. H. Smith, barber, to shave and cut a gentleman's hair, from AuSable, one day last week.

There will be a temperance entertainment at the Wilber M. E. Church, Wednesday evening June 10. An ice cream supper will also be served.

Monday June 1, '91, the W. S. & L. company made a record for their capacity, lifting 250 barrels of salt and cutting 90m feet of lumber in 9 hours.

The Peoples Press, of Rogers City, Vol. 1 No. 1 lies upon our table. It is a spic sheet, edited and published by Samuel Phelps, whom we wish the very best of success in his new venture.

John O'Brien, of this place, has purchased a large number of fine fat cattle, also a lot of sheep and spring lambs. Mr. O'Brien is killing daily and supplying the meat markets of both Tawas.

A. G. VanWey, prop. Bay Side hotel, is decorating the front room of his hotel. W. M. Webster is the wood carver and C. T. Raymond the decorator, which adds much to the appearance of the interior.

Ice cream social. The young ladies of the Presbyterian Church will serve an ice cream social in the basement of the Presbyterian Church on the evening of Saturday the 13th inst. All are cordially invited.

Birney Sanford, who had called to Ionia to the sick bed of his father, a few days ago, has returned and informs us that his father had a stroke of apoplexy but is now fairly recovering and doing as well as can be expected.

Rev. A. C. Kay will preach in the Presbyterian Church, Lake Shore, on Sabbath morning at 10:30. Sermon on the Dispensation of the Grace of God, and communion immediately after. In the evening he will lecture on "Sarah, a mother, a wife, the mother of Israel."

Chas. Katterman, our city painter and decorator, has just completed the residence of Thos. Curkin's house, in section 24, 22-7, by putting a fine coat of paint on the outside, and otherwise decorating the same in a most artistic manner. This residence has an appearance now worthy of public notice.

C. D. Bennett is at Tonawanda, N. Y.

A. G. VanWey is building a carriage-house for his carriages.

Capt. C. Phelps, of the barge Agnes, made this office a call today.

The steam yacht Burch will give an excursion to the Point to-morrow.

At the home of Richard Coulters, Tuesday, twin girls. All doing well.

John Dunn, city councilman and A. W. Jahraus, of AuSable, were callers at this office to-day.

Mrs. Nelson Bean returned Tuesday from a visit with her daughter in the south part of the state.

Mr. John Anderson, township clerk of Alabaster Tp., made this office a pleasant call the fore part of the week.

Geo. Rhoades, son of Chas. Rhoades, of this place, is in the employ of the National Express Co. on the D., G. H. & M. Ry.

Dr. G. S. Darling left yesterday to visit his daughter at Flint, and to attend to other business in the southern part of the state.

Another consignment of carts and buggies has been received by W. H. Adams, agent for the Bay City Buggy Works at Alpena. Mr. Adams is a hustler.

The East Tawas correspondence was for last week's issue, consequently last week's and this week's "topics" appear in this issue.

The ladies of the Congregation church will give a strawberry and ice cream social in the rooms next to the post office, next Tuesday evening.

A. F. McDonald, of AuSable, superintendent of the poor, is at Mt. Clemens to better his health. He passed through here a few days ago on the Alpena Express.

Antoine Wardle and family have moved into the Whittemore house at the post office. Mr. Wardle is going the short-haul writing at the Bay Side Hotel for the present.

Barney Mill's long timber camp is in operation at West Tawas, again with Joseph Laloe, the old stand-by foreman. Part of the old crew is on deck, with Tink at the helm.

We are in receipt of a letter from R. H. Budworth, at Detroit, who holds a prominent position with the National Express Co. Mr. Budworth was until recently station agent at this place, where he has many friends.

The summer change in the time table of the D., B. C. & A. Ry goes into effect next Monday. The express going south leaves at 10:12 a. m.; north at 8:34 p. m. There is no material change made in the running time of the accommodation.

Blacksmith shops, machine shops, sledge hammers &c. &c. are among the controversies agitated at the Monitor office and Times office in their past issues, at that peaceful city of AuSable. That's right brothers, everything goes in the time of war.

J. B. Sanford, son-in-law of Geo. Oplund, of this place, has tendered his resignation as fireman on the D., B. C. & A. Ry, which position he has held for several years, to accept a similar position on the C. & W. M. with residence at M. Logan. He departed with his family to-day for St. Louis, where a short time ago he spent visiting previous to his coming home.

The "Mocking Bird" pile has been laid in our bay making our mills and papa says (during days) Wm. Smith is in charge. An experienced mar- brother of the former owned the Casper pulls the shaft at his post of duty. soul of the whistle.

East Tawas Topics.

May 23, 1891.

La grippe has lost its grip on our citizens, but the good old-fashioned mumps is getting in its work.

J. R. Staats has been awarded the contract for the construction of the building for the electric light plant.

The store fronts in the opera house block are being repainted and when finished will look very attractive.

Court Iosco, I. O. F., will hold its annual ball and supper in the opera house on the evening of the 12th of June.

Richard Bros. are putting new sills under their hardware store, building a new sidewalk and otherwise improving their place of business.

A genuine "Uncle Tom's Cabin" party is booked by Manager Davey, Markses, bloodhounds, jassaxes and all. Look out for the big posters.

The memorial services at the M. E. Church were largely attended. Mr. Fern, of West Branch, occupied the pulpit both morning and evening.

The "Uncle Tom's Cabin" party has been farming the early looks of "Doc" Deadman for a day or two. We understand the doctor has several equine patients hereabouts.

The general character of the third house has adopted the "lawyer" style of garment for everyday wear. Joe is a very good counterpart of Hannibal Hamlin - without the brass buttons.

W. Warren, Jr. did a neat little job in dentistry, Thursday afternoon. A vicious dog attacked the old gentleman, and not relishing the idea of the expense and inconvenience of a trip to Paris to consult Pasteur, he simply drew his pop and shot the purps teeth out.

June 4, 1891.

Wm. Wood has returned from Canada. Jno. Dillon, jr. has gone north on the R. R. survey.

Robt. Merrick is recovering from his recent severe illness.

Mrs. T. P. Handy has been visiting friends in Bay City this week.

The prospects for a strawberry crop in this locality are rather slim, all on account of the recent frosts.

The entertainment given by the Women's Relief Corps at the opera house last Saturday night was largely attended and everyone went home well pleased.

The two new houses built this spring by Alva Wood are occupied by Rev. Webb and C. Fuller. Mr. Wood says he could find tenants for thirty more if he had them.

Heddon and Lee, the singing revivalists and temperance recruiting officers, have been drawing large houses - by pardon, we should say crowds - at the M. E. Church this week.

A force of men are engaged putting the wires in the various places of business about town. The street wires and poles will be placed in position near if all goes well and the snowiest of the citizens of East Tawas are to promenade the streets, and glow of electricity on the 10th of July.

The old "company" obligation of formerly occupied by W. Saturday have been moved to 4 Pts. London weigh scales, and a by them. The laid to the dock. When Alexander Lambie reached the pork street depot from Glasgow, Scotland, his sandy hair was long and his chin was decked with a stubby growth of beard. He needed the service of a barber and went into a shop almost opposite the depot and asked to be shaved. This is what the barber did to him: Cut his hair, singed his hair, shampooed him, sea foamed him, shaved him, bay rummed him, trimmed his mustache, waxed it, scented it, combed it, combed his hair, oiled it, brushed the small hairs of his coat, and then presented him a bill for $3.50. Lambie remonstrated at the price but the barber told him it was caused by the McKinley, and Lambie, not being up to the customs of this country, paid the money. Then he told the depot policeman about it. The officer succeeded in making the barber disgorge $2.20, leaving Lambie $1.30 for his services.
