The maple called "bird's eye" promises to be as much sought for as the high priced cabinet woods, walnut and cherry. Let us not see a repetition of folly as witnessed a few years ago in the Ohio and Missouri river valleys in making fence rails of fine walnut trees. The owners of maple have been forewarned, which is the same as being forearmed against such wanton destruction of timber value.

THE republican legislature is bound to make places for its satellites. A son of Senator Fox had been promised a position as page, but Speaker Tateum had to give it to another. There was nothing in sight for young Fox, so the legislature kindly made a berth for him by creating the position of messenger to the attorney general. There was no necessity of a messenger. Mr. Ellis, the democratic official, had not asked for a messenger, and if he had he should have been allowed to choose his own servant. But the republicans must pay off their politieal debts, and so young Fox will araw his salary for doing nothing. Oh, yes, this is a reform republican administration. Petoskey Demo-

The HERALD does not, however, belive the republican party in this judicial circuit is pauperized in regard to judicial timber its readers believe. We would be sorry to cast such a slur on the republican attorneys of this circuit. We have two in our mind now, either of whom have "attained fully as much prestige" as has Mr. Connine, who have been honored as frequently by the residents of their respective counties, and who are both as well qualified as regards legal ability, judgment, moral character and gentlemanly deportment as is Mr. C. If the republican attorneys of Iosco county are as poor sticks as the Monitor hints, it not considering them even worthy to be thought of as possible candidates for judicial honors, would it not be wise to let Mr. Connine remain where he is? In the event of his election as cucuit judge-which is a very farfetched supposition-where would the county procure a prosecuting attorney to succeed him? Of course a good one could be procured from the democratic ranks, but that would be rather humiliating to the republican party. The voters will spare it that humiliation, however.

A YOUNG MAN'S CHANCE.

Dusiness Men Never More Willing to Put Large Trusts Upon Their Shoulders.

A mother who now sends out a son into the business world launches him at a time when the chances are all in favor of a young man. Business men were never more willing to put large trusts upon the shoulders of young men than they are to-day, says the Ladies' Home Journal. "Young blood," as it is called, is the life of the modern business world, and is everywhere sought. In New York the demand for the right kind of young men in all capacities is far greater than the supply, and what is true of New York is true of all the large cities. Bear in mind, however, I say the right kind of young men, and by that classification I mean young men who are willing to work, and work hard. The day of the young man who works by the clock, eagerly watching for the hour when the office shall close, has gone by, even if it ever existed. Hundreds of young men are energetic in a new position until its novelty wears off, and then become mere machines whose places can be
