One contented with what he has done stands but a small chance of becoming famous for what he will do. The man who inserted a few lines of local advertising last fall with the expectation of hearing from them the remainder of his life might as well close his store and begin wrestling with perpetual motion.

A reporter of a Petosky paper while walking through the street of Cross Village the other day heard what he supposed to be several revolver shots discharged in rapid succession. Thinking that he had discovered a sensational article for his paper he hastened to investigate the matter. M. MURPHY.

You can make one horse do the work of two horses by putting roller bearings on your carriage or wagon. But you ask: "Where can such bearings be obtained?" The truth is that while there are no less than a thousand different patents on roller bearings, the public has not yet become sufficiently educated up to their advantages to create a demand, and roller bearings for common vehicles are hard to find. The racing sulky with its roller bearings is setting people to thinking in this direction, and in a few years we will look back on the old style friction axle with as much contempt as the wheelman does now on the old velocipede.—The Inventive Age.

The half year meeting of the Presbytery, of Saginaw, will take place at the Presbyterian church, lake shore, on Tuesday and Wednesday the 19th and 20th inst. On Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the retiring moderator, Rev. On Wednesday the Presbytery will meet at 8:30 a. m. for devotion, and the remainder of the day will be spent in the consideration of business. On Wednesday evening there will be a popular meeting when the following will speak: Rev. A. F. Bruske, D. D., principal of Alma college, upon, "Our College;" Rev. W. F. Irwin, D. D., of Westminster church, West Bay City, upon "Our Country for Christ;" Rev. C. E. Bronson, Saginaw city, "The foreign missionary" and Rev. W. F. Jones, Alma, upon "Temperance." The meetings are open to all and the general public is specially invited to the meetings of Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The Presbytery of Saginaw has thirty-three ministers and forty congregations. According to Presbyterian policy the teaching elder or minister stands upon a footing of equality and the Presbytery is made up of one minister and one ruling elder from each congregation. THE croakers have been flooded out by the big attendance at the World's Fair. This is as it should be.

THE more the country knows of Grover Cleveland the plainer his resemblance to Andrew Jackson becomes.

COMMON sense is a good weapon to fight a panic, be it financial or pestilential; it will win nine times out of every ten.

A GOOD receipt for easing the financial condition of everybody: Pay what you owe and be lenient with those who owe you.

THE minister who preaches ruin, desolation and riot from his pulpit is delinquent in his duty, both to his Master and to his congregation.

IF Kansas can keep in a political whirl all the time with only the men voting, what may not be expected when lovely woman joins the procession?

PRESIDENT Cleveland has no chronic disease and his health is perfectly good with the exception of an occasional attack of violent newspaper lying.

WHILE suspensions are in order, speculation in articles of food, and immigration should not be overlooked. Both might be suspended with beneficial results.

THE whole theory of the government is founded upon the idea that the majority rules. Why then this "kicking" over the prospect of majority rule in Congress?

"CORPORAL" Tanner isn't saying anything about ex-president Harrison's great love for the old soldiers, although the place where the toe of the Harrison boot struck has healed up long ago—cured by pension fees.

NO ISSUE was more prominent in the last campaign than tariff reform, and none was better understood, and appeals from republican newspapers will not prevent the democrats in Congress reforming the present one-sided tariff.

THE new Chinese minister evidently has no intention of springing retaliation upon us, as he has leased for a term of years quarters for the Chinese legation at Washington. Chinamen understand bluffing "alae samee likee Melican Man."

THE world's search-light is again turned upon the young German Emperor, whose recent actions appear to threaten France once more. Let the war begin; the United States can furnish the commissary and quartermaster's stores for both armies.

SECRETARY Carlisle got rid of the notorious John I. Davenport, temporarily at least, by firing him out of the rooms he occupied in the New York City post office building. Later on Congress will doubtless finish the work by repealing the election law under which he was appointed.

THE Wilson tariff bill will be drawn closely upon revenue lines. It is not possible at this time to estimate the total reductions that will be made, but it can be said that the principal changes will be in the interest of the mass of the people, special attention being paid to schedules covering the necessities of life.—N. Y. World.

FROM all parts of the country come the encouraging news of the starting of mills and factories, and everying points to an era of prosperity which our country has not had for some time. What the republican calamity howlers will do for argument after the democrat congress has revised the tariff and the country begins to recover from the effect of McKinleyism, remains to be seen.

TOM REED certainly displayed a monumental "gall" when he sneeringly referred to the manner in which the state of West Virginia was created. West Virginia has one fatal defect, in Reed's eyes—it always goes democratic, although its makers thought it would always be republican.

PUBLIC sentiment is rapidly growing against Congressional filibustering. When the people elect a majority of Congress they expect that majority to legislate. When the minority is given an opportunity to express its reasons for opposing legislation it has all the rights to which it is entitled.

OUR whole fiscal system is out of order and, back of it, there is scarcely a sound limb in the body politic. The banks suffer from a loss of popular confidence; the people suffer from a loss of banking credit. Very much less disparity of money values would be enough to account for this, to say nothing about the decline of the staples and the bursting of the booms, the floods in the South and the debts in the West. Everywhere unequal burdens are imposed. A system of unjust taxation, feeding the few out of the toil of the many, has piled up disproportionate wealth on the one hand and widespread poverty on the other hand. The masses of workmen are no longer permitted to hew their own wood and to draw their own water, but before they can do either they must pay tribute to the protected classes, while the myriads of farmers, who sow and reap in order that all may live, have everything they produce priced in a free trade market under the gold standard and everything that they have to buy taxed to the moon to insure profit, to favored domestic enterprises. Thirty years of republican misrule tell the dreary tale.—Courier-Journal.

The Ratio Of 16 to 1.

AT this time when the money discussions are the order of the day, it is well enough to be provided to answer any question on that subject that may arise. One of the simplest things relating to our coinage, and the one that is perhaps the least understood, is this question of ratio between gold and silver. Here is an explanation of the whole enigma taken bodily from the law which makes the ratio provision; "That the proportional value of gold to silver in all coins which shall by law be current as money in the United States shall be as 16 to 1. * * * That is to say, every sixteen pound weight of pure silver shall be of equal value in all payments with one-pound weight of pure gold."—St. Louis Republic.

Three Republican Opinions.

NO one who watches the drift of legislation at the Capitol last winter will be at all surprised at the Lansing news of Friday; and the antics of that nondescript body were such as to attract as general attention as a mule under canvas. The organs of the same caliber, although they criticised its worthlessness during the session, but are upholding it now under the swinging of the party lash, have frequently of late, also under the lash, sneered at the opinions of Attorney-General Ellis, will withhold their sneers in this instance, the opinions coming from quite another direction.

An act passed by the late lamented for the purpose of having a string to the labor votes provides for the inspection of all factories by the state Commissioner of Labor. The original bill was drawn by the Attorney-General, but such an intensely partisan Legislature as that of 1893 would never be guilty of such lack of party fealty as to pass a bill written by a Democratic pen, so it was amended, and the amendments of the Legislature of 1893 were like patches upon a pair of new pantaloons. The Commissioner of Labor, whom Gov. Rich appointed to execute the functions of the act, has discovered that a section put on as a patch is in conflict with a section of the original bill and there are other inconsistencies in it that nullify the act. This, however, will not in the least impair the usefulness of the "law", since its purpose was to catch votes and create a fat office for another of the faithful. The commissioner's duties under this act-with-a-hole-in-it, will consist in drawing his fat salary aforesaid. The commissioner has discovered no conflicting sections in the compensation clause.

The second opinion is by Secretary of State Jochim, also an unimpeached Republican, and in it ex-Supreme Justice Cahill, whose loyalty to the party is unquestioned, fully concurs. Senator Turnbul, a Democrat, introduced a bill providing for the incorporation of Happy Home Clubs of America, a temperance organization auxiliary to what is slangily denominated that "jag cure". The Secretary now refuse to file the articles of association of such clubs or organization created by special acts in conflict with the Constitution. Senator Turnbul will ask the Supreme Court to pass upon the soundness of this opinion of the Secretary of the State, and pending such decision the organs should, in common courtesy, suspend their sneers at the opinions of all state officials, else they may find themselves in contempt of the Republican supreme bench, and that would be somewhat embarrassing.

The third "grind" at the imbecility of the late unblamed touching upon its cupidity as well, and comes in the nature of a rebuke from the Governor. His excellency interposed no vetoes to the wild extravagance of the Legislature, nor to the great number of unnecessary officers created. In the opinion of the Governor, and this is also a stalwart Republican opinion, function of the Legislature closed with the creation of the officers; his the duty and the pleasure of filling them. According to the Governor, and it isn't at all likely that he has overstated it, no less than three of the members of the would-be-forgotten are now applicants for the positions and salaries they assisted to create, and the Governor now finds it his duty as well as his pleasure to inform them that the Constitution prohibits any member of a Legislature from holding any position of enolument or trust under the laws they helped to make, until one year after the expiration of their terms of office as members of such Legislature.

The agony of a dollarbuckeas he sees all this pap going to the maws of friends of the Governor, who had no part in its preparation, is terrible to witness. Their "opinion" is in order, and it would make very interesting week-day reading.—Free Press.

Crop Report.

The Secretary of State issued the following crop report Sept 8:

The drouth now prevailing in southern Michigan is without a parallel. There has been no general rain since about the 22d of June. Light showers have afforded only temporary and local relief. The average total rainfall in June was below the normal, and there was a further deficiency in July. Complete returns for August have not yet been received, but the weekly bulletins of the State weather service indicate that the average rainfall for August was about one-half the normal.

At Lansing an accurate record of rainfall has been kept at the office of the State board of health since and including 1879. This record shows a total rainfall in July of this year of 0.98 of an inch, and in August of 0.73 of an inch, a total for only two months of only 1.71 inches. The least amount recorded for the same months in any former year was 2.61 inches in 1887. The average for the two months in the fourteen years previous to 1893 is 5.91 inches. Compared with this average the deficiency in 1893 is 4.20.

At the State Agricultural College in 1884 the rainfall in July and August amounted to 1.65 inches. The least amount recorded for the two months in any year since 1864 previous to 1893, is 2.39 inches in 1887.

The severity of the drouth has been greatly increased by bright sunshine. There was very little cloudy weather during July and August. The percentage of sunshine is uniformly reported in excess of the normal.

Of course it follows that crops of all kinds have been seriously injured. Corn is being cut to save the fodder. The potato crop will be light. Meadows and pastures are dried up, and in many cases are believed to be ruined. Clover sowed this year, except in the most favorable located fields, is entirely killed out. Ploughing for fall wheat, except on the lighter soils, is practically impossible. It now seems probable that the wheat area of this State will be greatly reduced, on account of drouth as well as low price.

Threshers' returns of about 65,000 acres of wheat threshed, secured by correspondents, show that the average yield per acre in the southern counties is 15.77 bushels, in the central 14 bushels, and in the northern 11 bushels, indicating a total yield in the State of more than 24,000,000 bushels, or 15.33 bushels per acre.

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed by farmers since the August marketed by farmers is 1,248,869. Of this amount 519,709 bushels were marketed in August. Adding the amount now reported marketed in July to the amount previously reported for the twelve months ending with July, gives a total of 14,822,056 bushels marketed in the wheat year, 1892-3.

Management Of Cream.

The following directions were given by the principal of a dairy institute in England in the course of a series of lectures on the proper management of cream and the churning of butter: It is generally necessary to mix the cream of two or three days together for churning. These creams should be kept apart until brought together for ripening, because the casein in those which had been properly acidified would churn rapidly, and others would not and there would come a loss of fat in the buttermilk. Therefore it is necessary to hold the old cream back so as to bring each day's cream together at as equal a quantity as possible. After the main part of the cream has been separated it is useless to continue churning with the hope of obtaining the balance.

In ripening cream it is necessary to give a lower temperature while the cows are feeding on grass and succulent foods than when feeding on hay, grain and other dry foods. This was because of the different of the relative proportion of the solid and liquid fats. The success and economy of churning depend in a great degree on skill and judgment in ripening the cream. Every butter-maker should make a special study of this point.—N. Y. World.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

It is stated that the expense of running one of these boats from Detroit to Mackinaw is over $1,000. The Mackinac is able to accommodate all the business from now until the close of the season.

The Drummer Didn't Wait.

A story is told by the state press of a printer who walked into a business house in a Michigan town to ascertain if the proprietor desired anything in the way of advertisements, and noticed a drummer standing by the counter with his sample valise ready to open. "Anything you want to say in the paper this week?" said the printer to the business man behind the counter. "No," said the business man, "I don't believe in advertising." The drummer waited until he was half way to the door, then slowly taking up his sample valise, remarked: "Well, that lets me out. I do not care to sell on time to any man, who, in this age, does not believe in advertising. When I want to strike up a trade with a dead man I'll go to the graveyard and swap

A RECEIVER ASKED FOR.

The D., B. C. & A. R. R. said to be Insolvent.

The Detroit, Bay City & Alpena R. R. Co. is alleged to be insolvent and application has been made to Judge Swan, in the United States Circuit court for the appointment of a receiver.

Several days ago Russell & Campbell filed a bill against the road, but it was taken out of the clerk's hands as soon as filed and did not become public until Monday morning, when Mr. Campbell appeared before Judge Swan and made a formal motion that a receiver be appointed. He was accompanied by Don M. Dickinson, while E. W. Meddaugh and Henry A. Harmon appeared on behalf of the railroad company.

Mr. Campbell read a statement from Roswell G. Rolston, president of the Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., trustee under a mortgage of the Detroit, Bay City & Alpena railroad, dated Jan. 1, 1893, and the deed of further assurance or supplementary mortgage dated June 7, 1887. Mr. Rolston said he had received a written request on behalf of the holders of $1,600,000 of the funds outstanding and secured by the mortgage, setting forth the fact that default had been made in the payment of coupon interest upon the bonds for a period of 60 days and over, and asking that the mortgage be foreclosed and a receiver appointed to sell the property. Mr. Rolston, through Mr. Campbell, asked for the appointment of M. L. Scudder, of Chicago, Ill., as receiver.

On behalf of the railroad company Mr. Meddaugh protested against the appointment of Mr. Scudder. He thought if a receiver was named it should be Gen. Alger, who had been president and general manager of the road ever since it was first built.

Don M. Dickinson remarked that there had been considerable feeling between General Alger and the large bondholders represented by Drexel, Morgan & Company of New York. Charges would undoubtedly be made reflecting on the road.

Judge Swan announces that he would take the matter under consideration. He might decide to appoint some other person instead of either General Alger or Mr. Scudder. In regard to the latter he questioned whether the court should appoint a man outside of the state and beyond its jurisdiction.

"The trouble simply is," said he, "that the road has not been able to pay the interest on its bonds. Business was very bad during '91 and '92, but it began to pick up last spring and had it not been for the general financial depression the road might have pulled through without going into the hands of a receiver."

"How about the charges of mismanagement made by Mr. Dickinson's clients?"

General Alger smiled sadly.

"That refers" said he to a misunderstanding which can be easily explained. The firm of Alger, Smith & Co. are building a road from Alpena north through Alpena and Presque Isle counties. About 35 miles has already been graded and some track laid. On the line of the Detroit, Bay City & Alpena there was 15 miles of steel which belonged to our firm and had been merely loaned the road. We needed the steel for the new road we are building, and took up its equivalent in rails from the Detroit, Bay City & Alpena. There has also been some disagreement about a stipulation we made in selling our Alpena county road to the Detroit, Bay City & Alpena, providing that our timber from that region should be hauled a certain reduced price."

The two justices of the peace, Franklin Pierce and W. H. Wilson are proving to be successful fishermen. They caught one fish that weighed 24 pounds 11 ounces. It was a large muskallonge fish. Grover Cleveland desired that the people should go fishing until the depression and financial stringency would be discontinued, so says H. M. Loud to his men. Consequently our worthy justices obeyed orders and were continually fishing at the famous lakes west of here. But friends Frankie and Bill you may soon hang up your fishing tackle for the times will soon be better than they were in 20 years under republican administration. The former gentleman is and always has been a radical democrat, while the latter used to be a four ply republican, but who has now a tendency to be a democrat, as he is entirely ashamed of the republicans for resorting to their holding the democrats responsible for the financial difficulties under republican laws.

THE FLINT & PERE MARQUETTE RAIL AND WATER LINES offer the public a way to reach Chicago, that for comfort, far surpasses the all rail lines, to say nothing of the difference of fare in its favor, an item well worthy of consideration.

Passengers are landed in Chicago in the morning after a night's refreshing and invigorating rest in a commodious state room on a first-class steamship. The experienced traveler need not be told of the advantages of a rail and boat route, for summer travel, over the all rail route with its crowded, dusty sleeping cars, and very little thought on the part of the inexperienced, will convince him of the same. Ask you local ticket agent for rates and time of trains.

A young lady dropped a pocket book last night from the boat deck into the river. She was on her way home from Chicago and Mackinaw and strange to say the book sank to the bottom. Talk about southern lawlessness! The Otsego Herald says: One morning last week C. L. Sherman, of Dover, found tied to his door knob a paper notifying him to leave the town before September 15, and threatening to blow him and his family up with dynamite, burn his buildings and kill his cattle if he failed to leave, the notice being signed by "The North Dover Boys." The officer replied that there was not, and no danger existed. Sweeney then walked along quite cheerfully.—Bay City Times-Press.

is again under arrest, on a charge similar to that on which he has twice before been charged. The charge against Wier is that while treating Jennie Lixie, a 16 year old girl, he represented to her that it would be necessary and beneficial to her to have sexual intercourse with a man. It is to be hoped that the beast in human form will this time get his just deserts and spend some time in state prison. It has cost Isosco county several thousand dollars to conduct the previous suits against him, but he has always succeeded in escaping what he richly deserved. He is out on $800 bail.

An exciting scene was witnessed on Second street, near the Alpena Banking Co.'s office this forenoon. A young man rushed from a butcher shop, carrying in his hand a basket of bologna sausage. After him in hot pursuit came the butcher and two or three others. It was thought at first that the young man was starving and took the sausage to appease his hunger, but he ran into a place of business and tried to exchange the sausage for—not bread but beer. The butcher arrived in time to prevent the exchange, however, and the young man went into a well-filled pocketbook and paid for liquor refreshments for the butcher and his friends.—Pioneer.

BALD HEADS

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If there are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

"Skookum" contains neither mercury nor oil. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads. Keep the scalp clean, healthy and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap.
