The latest swindle being worked on the farmer is this: A smart business fellow who learns who is contemplating using paint, and represents himself as an agent for an eastern paint factory, and agrees to send ten gallons of paint to be paid for in five years, and the farmer signs the order—and pays the note when it comes due.

Rattled headed horses are often the product of rattled headed drivers. Horses of any mental characteristics are, by many drivers, declared to be rattled headed, when in reality they are remarkably good headed, and the "wheels" are really in the head of the driver. A good headed race horse is usually the pupil of a good headed race driver.

A Remedy for Insomnia.

An efficacious remedy for obstinate cases of insomnia is to lie flat upon the back and inhale and exhale deep, long breaths; take thirty or forty of them, then turn on one side—preferable the right—and sleep will come before you know it, unless you have the pernicious habit of taking your work to bed with you. The facility with which we can rest and recuperate from great fatigue, either mental or physical, depends greatly upon our power of dismissing thought and encouraging a state of vacuity. It is a question of habit, but one which is in everyone's power to acquire; and of so great value that it is worth more than a slight effort to win.—From "Sanitarian," in Demorest's Magazine for May.

TOM REED's advertising department is much better managed than either that of Harrison or McKinley.

If a little of the speed with which the Senate disposed of the Bering Sea bill could be used in the tariff the people would rise up and call the Senate blessed.

THE Hon. Chauncy Depew, announced himself a candidate for the presidency, while at St. Louis, one day last week, and withdrew next day. Probably Chauncy had a bad dream that night.

THERE is no discount on Senator Walsh's principles. When asked to define them, he said: "I am favor of all democratic measures." We regret that some of his democratic colleagues are not as explicit.

THINGS in congress are coming to a pretty pass when it becomes necessary to impose fines on the members in order to secure a quorum with which to do business. It would appear that congressmen believe they are sent there to obstruct rather than transact the people's business.

HILL's opposition to the tariff bill ought to be an impressive lesson to honest democrats on the folly of trying to buy off treachery by reason. Was not the fundamental principle of free collars and cuffs ruthlessly sacrificed in order to placate New York senators? And haven't they stowed away the collars and cuff subsidy in their wallets and gone at the bill with a two-edged knife after all? And so we lose collars and cuffs and honor all alike.—Louisville Courier Journal.

ALTHOUGH the east is sectional and grasping, we still have faith that the democratic party will come out all right. It is accustomed to bad leadership. But the country cannot be well governed except by the application of Democratic principles. Without them our form of government could not have been established. The country owes everything to the fundamental principles of Democracy. Sometimes democratic leaders forget or ignore them, as in slavery times, and then the party suffers. Sometimes the welfare of the masses is neglected in the pressure of special interests for advantageous legislation. This hinders tariff reform. This has led to unwise action on the money question. Nevertheless, democratic principles are immutable, indestructible, and will assert themselves in the future as in the past, but the Democracy cannot win victories by consenting to be a mere appendage of eastern plutocracy.—Jackson Patriot.

THE faster its politicians in New York commit hari kari the better it will be for democratic principles. On April 9, the date of his tariff speech in the United States senate, David B. Hill voluntarily adandoned democratic principles, and is today the dearest specimen of humanity in American politics. He has power to do harm, and for the reason his course is regrettable. Benedict Arnold's treason occurred in New York; Aaron Burr was a New Yorker; David B. Hill completes the list of infamy. He had an opportunity to rise above the provincial politics of his state and become a national leader, but has thrown it away, and only plutocrats and protectionists exult over his apostasy. The triumph of reform may be further off because of his action, but it will come; and if the New York faction destroy the democratic party, some other political organization will take up its vital principles and become the successful party of the people.—Jackson Patriot.

GIVE TOM REED A SHOW.

There seems to be a vast deal of unnecessary apprehension among democrats in the house of representatives lest the Hon. Thomas Brackett Reed be nominated by the republican party for president of the United States. Rather than worry about his possibility democrats should cheerfully join in the earnest effort of Mr. Reed to get the nomination. Certainly the democracy of the west would welcome his candidacy. Out her Tom Reed's sectionalism is recognized and estimated at its true value. We still remember a speech he made in Boston in which he said apropos of tariff reduction:

And let me tell you right here that there is no state so deeply interested as the state of Massachusetts: If it were not for its condition I should say: "Let these men try it. Let us have the lesson of free trade burned into the quick; and then let us have peace." But when Massachusetts sits around the mourn for eternity; for if they are once destroyed the omnivorous west will do the manufacturing for the country. You have the start; you have the power; you have the prestige. You can keep it or you can throw it away; and the only way in which you can keep it is by making the voice of the majority of your people to be heard, and to be heard across the country. [Applause.]

As the leader of the republican majority in the nouse Mr. Reed is fighting a tariff policy which may enable the "omnivorous west" to acquire those industries which Fall River and Lynn now monopolize. When he comes to ask the votes of westerners for his advancement to the presidency he will find this frank confession of his still remembered.—Chicago Times.

THEY GET WORK.

While Coxey's army is marching eastward to carry its complaint of unemployment to the capitol another army is pouring westward in at unending stream. This is the army of immigration, which lands in the various immigration bureaus and disappears at once in the various walks of life.

There is a clearing house for such of the newcomers as are in search of work, and it is a commentary on the army which Coxey is leading that there is no congestion in the rooms of the immigrant free labor bureau. Work is found for those who want it almost as soon as they arrive. This has not been the case throughout the winter, but it is so now.

Other signs are not wanting that better times are here. On all sides can be found evidence that the worst part of the depression is over. The numbers applying for charity are daily becoming less, and managers of employment agencies say that the demand for out-of-town help keeps pace with the supply.

It is noted as an encouraging sign that there has been a great falling off in the number of free tickets distributed for the restaurants of the Industrial Christian Alliance. Most all of those who patronize the restaurants now are working people, who pay for the food they get.

A reporter for the New York Times visited a dozen pawnshops, and in each of them the proprietors said that at unusual number of articles, especially artisans' tools, were being redeemed. That fact is regarded as significant and one of the most encouraging signs that could be had.

Officers of the free immigrant labor bureau, situated in the Barge office, say that they are now hard pressed to keep pace with the demands of employers. Numerous applications from all parts of the country are daily received, and the demand on the bureau for farm labor is now very large. In the western section of this state especially there seems to be a dearth of farm laborers. In March the institution found employment for 900 immigrants.—New York Times.

A NUT FOR REPUBLICANS TO CRACK.

While the republican machine politicians of Michigan are shouting over the unimportant victories which they claim they achieved in the state last Monday, perhaps it might be well for them to glance back over their shoulders and take a look at the scandalous condition of affairs ta the state capitol at Lansing, where the most infamous political corruption of the generation has been in constant practice since Gov. Rich and his party assumed control of affairs in 1893.

The board of state canvassers have been summarily removed for fraudulently tampering with the election returns relative to the salary amendment. The board of state auditors allowed claims in favor of the auditor general and other officials that were exorbitant and unjust. Salaries of clerks in the several departments were increased without warrant. New offices were created in order to appease the appetites of howling demagogues. Scores of extra clerks were hired merely for the sake of giving employment to worthless loafers who could not otherwise earn a living. And now comes the news that August W. Lindholm, deputy secretary of state under Jochim, has stolen over $2,000 of state funds and skipped to his native land, Sweden. These are all fact; yet the howling politicians of the republican ilk dare to raise voice in defense of the republican party.

During the two years that Edwin B. Winans was governor of Michigan, his administration was characterized by honesty and strict economy. There was no raising of salaries; no creation of unnecessary offices; no boodling; no baseball club whose expenses were paid at the expense of the state; no state officers or clerks obtained money that they did not earn. Thousands of dollars in taxes were saved the people of Michigan. Yet the republican liars misrepresent Gov. Winans and his administration, with the result that John T. Rich is to-day governor of the state, while the majority of the officers who were elected on his ticket have been removed from office in shame and disgrace.

And that is not all. Right here in Escanaba, where our people are thoroughly acquainted with the facts, the very men who managed the late campaign for the republicans should be in the penitentiary for outrageous dishonesty instead of being allowed their freedom. It is not necessary to mention any names. But as long as the people allow themselves to be humbugged and hoodwinked by such rogues, perhaps it is just as well to give them a full measure of the stuff which they have just bought and paid for.—Escanaba Mirror.

Five million whitefish are to be planted in Lake Huron this week near Sand Beach.

The Michigan Equal Suffrage association will hold its tenth annual convention in Grand Rapids, May 8, 9 and 10.

H. Egabroad, editor of the Sebewalrg Blade, and well known among the news-paper publishers of Michigan, died Sunday of a complication of diseases. He was 71 years old.

Many rise in the morning with a headache and no inclination for breakfast. This is due to torpidity of the liver and a deranged condition of the stomach. To restore healthy action to these organs, nothing is so efficacious as an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills.

A. B. Wood, of Saginaw was found dead in his barn Tuesday having hanged himself. He would have been 76 years old this week. Mr. Wood was at one time state senator and had been prominent for many years in other directions. For some time he has been despondent over financial reverses.

Four Saginaw lumber pillars, Julius Schultz, August Witt, Charles Tank and August Korlein, were running a lumber tram car. The tram gave way, and all fell 20 feet. Schultz was badly injured internally, Tank received a terrible injury to his back, Witt's leg was crushed, and Korlein escaped without injury.

The Mackinaw division of the Michigan Central railroad is doing more business than it has ever done before at this season of the year, both in local and through traffic. Extras are being run every day on the account of the heavy shipment of grain from the northwest to the seaboard, besides they are busy handling forest products along the division.—Cheboygan News.

Charles W. Thayer, the trusted young blood who did up the Bay County Saving bank was up before Judge Maxwell Saturday and pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny and embezzlement. Thayer was without funds and the court appointed an attorney for him who looked over the ground carefully and saw no show to clear the prisoner and advised him to plead guilty, he was sentenced to five years in the Detroit House of Correction.

Little Pearl Smith, of Petoskey, is a heroine, if she is only 11 years old. Her little brother cut off two of her fingers with an ax. She tried to knife away a partially severed portion, but failed. Then she bit it off. Her 8-year-old brother remembered something he had learned at school and bound the fingers high up, preventing loss of blood. Then the little girl changed her dress and walked to a doctor's office.—Evening News.

The longshoremen of Bay City gave up the fight with Lumberman Peters Tuesday, and he had a crew of fifty men from his mill at work loading the Saginaw. The result is likely to be disastrous to the union as other lumber shippers will probably follow Peters' lead and refuse to pay the forty cents per hour which its members demand. Longshoremen have controlled the loading of vessels there for years, the last trouble they had, being a kick against the contract plan of loading in which they came out ahead.

Frank Crawford, of Crawford's Quarry, Presque Isle county, died suddenly Monday night under most suspicious circumstances, evidently from the effects of narcotic poison. Drs. Erskin and Larke were in attendance and a portion of the contents of the stomach are sealed up for analysis. Crawford's wife says he came home stating that three men from the country had met him near the house, and giving him two or three drinks of whiskey, or brandy, from a bottle, and that it was the bitterest liquor he ever drank. He does not appear to have given the names of the parties. An inquest will be held Tuesday.

Last week Silas Doane, postmaster of South Branch, this county, was arrested by United States officials and taken before Commissioner McMath, at Bay City, charged with embezzling postoffice funds. His shortage is placed at $300. Postmaster Doane claims that he can clear himself of the charge and that the shortage can be proved to be the work of his assistant Reiley now awaiting trial at the next term of the United States court for embezzlement of money order funds from the same office. He gave bonds for his appearance at the next term of court. Mr. Doane has many friends in the county who hope he will be able to vindicate himself when brought to trial.—West Branch Democrat.

John A. Reilly, the young man who was arrested in October last and brought to this city to answer to the charge of embezzlement and forging postal application blanks from the South Branch postoffice in Ogemaw county was yesterday set free to appear on his own recognizance at his trial which comes up in May in the United States court held here by Judge Swan. In his examination which was held by United States Commissioner McMath he pleaded not guilty and was remanded to jail in default of $500 bonds. Reilly was set at liberty upon the counseling District Attorney Lyon, it appearing from the facts in the case which have been investigated since the examination that if Reilly was brought to trial the jury would not indict him. Reilly was charged with forging two postal orders and appropriating the same to his own use.—Bay City Times Press.

An important series of cases were disposed of last week that are of interest to lumbermen generally. They are the issues of sundry plaintiffs against Daniel McCollum et al., transferred from the Iosco county to the Saginaw county circuit court. McCollum is a jobber in Iosco county who put in logs for the Gratwick, Smith & Fryer Lumber Company, Penoyer Bros., and Judge Simpson. The plaintiffs claim a lien of $5,000 on 20,000 pieces of timber in the AuSable run. Judge McKnight granted a motion to quash proceedings. The reasons for granting the motion were first, because the officer seizing the logs had failed to make an inventory of the property seized; and second, because he neglected to serve a copy of the inventory on the defendant and the log owners and after the logs were delivered by the boom company to the owners and carried away. The officer lost his lien, as he allowed the property to pass out of his hands.

Presque Isle County rejoices over an addition to its family of cities. The new born is named Cedarburg and is located on Hammond's Bay at the mouth of Ocqueoc River. The projectors are Edwin Aylford of London, England. E. Nash of Toronto, Canada and F. W. Balsmyder of Chicago incorporated as the Cedarburg Townsite Company. If satisfactory arrangements can be made the two sawmills now at the town will be put in good running order. The company own large tracts of spruce lands in Canada and will establish a pulp mill at the town. Every effort will be made to secure the Alpena and Northern Railroad, but should this be unsuccessful a new road from Cedarburg to connect with the Michigan Central at Lewiston will be built at once. The new town has an excellent harbor a good river and excellent building grounds. These natural gifts combined with her great verdant forests and fine farming country will make Cedarburg a vigorous rival of older Michigan towns.—Alpena Echo.

A Lake City dispatch says: About the middle of February a young German named Henry Holtorf, attempted to commit suicide, near here, by hanging, and was cut down just in time. Being adjudged insane, he was sent to the Traverse City asylum, but escaped from there March 27. While he was confined in jail here, Sheriff Bellby wrote to Holtorf's relatives in Schleswig-Holstein, and has recently received a reply, with a considerable sum of money enclosed, asking that the young man be sent home. It is said he is heir to a considerable estate and a title, in his old home. His insanity takes the form of a hallucination that some person is following him with the intention of killing him. Resistance does not seem to enter his brain, but he thinks only of flight, or self-destruction to be rid of the constant dread. In demeanor he is very shy, and retiring, and in talking he hardly raises his voice above a whisper. He has been in this country ten years, and speaks good English. A reward of $25 is offered by the asylum people for news of his whereabouts.

$3,000.00 A YEAR FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS.

If you want work that is pleasant and profitable, send us your address immediately. We teach men and women how to earn from $5.00 per day to $3,000 per year without having had previous experience, and furnish the employment at which they can make that amount. Nothing difficult to learn or that requires much time. The work is easy, healthy, and honorable, and can be done during daytime or evenings, right in your own locality, wherever you live. The result of a few hours' work often equals a week's wages. We have taught thousands of both sexes and all ages, and many have laid foundations that will surely bring them riches. Some of the smartest men in this country owe their success in life to the start given them while in our employ years ago. You, reader, may do as well; try it. You cannot fail. No capital necessary. We fit you out with something that is new, solid, and sure. A book brimful of advice is free to all. Help yourself by writing for it to-day—not to-morrow. Delays are costly.
