“WHOM the gods would destroy they first make mad.” Whom the republicans would destroy among the democrats they flatter.

THE Detroit riots came to a peaceful end Monday morning when the work of laying water pipes was resumed under a police guard.

THE democratic party has weathered too many storms to be frightened by the loss of a few municipal elections. The “hard times” will soon be over and then democracy will have clear sailing again.

IF the statesmen at the National Capitol were aware of the sentiment of the country condemning them for withholding legislation which the people have demanded they would have much more cause of fear than they have from the approach of Coxy's Army.

WHEN the members and wealth of men who have grown rich by cause of protection, on goods manufactured by them, and at the expense of the consumers, it is not to be wondered at that they make their influence felt in the halls of congress. But we doubt their ability to purchase the votes of democratic senators.

THE presidents of New York banks are never inclined to take an over bright view of the business situation. Therefore when one writes as follows it is an unquestionable good sign of returning prosperity. “Improvement appears on every side. The clouds have lifted. The skies have cleared and there is warrant for confidence. The business turning-point has finally been reached.”

“WITHIN five years,” says Edward L. Wakeman, “I have tramped along 3,000 miles of British roads. Each time I step my foot upon their broad, firm even surface, every drop of American blood in me tingles with shame at the thought of the mud pikes and bottomless road sloughs of our own splendid country rich, great and strong enough to match the roads of Europe without a week's delay.”

THE Lake Superior copper producers are again at their old trick of selling copper to foreigners cheaper than to Americans—the difference being about 7 per cent in favor of the former. The tariff in copper alone makes this possible, free reimportation of that sold abroad being of course prevented. Thus in the markets for copper manufacturers our tariff laws are being used to handicap American producers and help along the foreign competitors—Springfield Republican.

THE executive committee of the Republican National League met at Washington yesterday to take an invoice and make arrangements for the political campaigns of the near future. With Joe Manley in practical command and Tom Reed posing as the head of his party in the country generally and in the house particularly, those aspiring politicians of the g. o. p. who do not live in Maine will have to rely on the efficacy of flank movements and the demoralizing effects of ambuscades.—Free Press.

YEAR after year the demand for the abolition of the United States is growing stronger. It is growing because each year the senate shows itself an enemy to the interests of the people. Never was this fact more forceably demonstrated than by the present senate. The manner in which this body treats financial and economic questions proves that it is the strong hold of plutocracy. It is composed almost entirely of monopolists or their agents. While it may be several years before it is accomplished, the United States senate must go.

THE CENSUS.

The State census is to be taken in June of this year. The law seems to be every explicit, but as it is not in the hands of very one, there is much inquiry as to its provisions. The inquiries relate mainly to the appointment of enumerators, and are all answers by the first section of the census law, which is act 178 of 1893. It provides:

1st. The enumerators and assistants shall be appointed after the annual township meeting, and on or before the first Monday in May.

2d. That they are to be appointed by township boards in townships and common councils in cities.

3d. That if not appointed before the first Monday in May, the appointment is to be made by the Governor. And.

4th. That enumerators are to be appointed for each assessment district.

It is clear from the above,

1st. That appointments made before the annual township meeting are illegal.

2d. Appointments by any other than boards in townships and common councils in cities are illegal.

3d. Appointments after the first Monday in May can be made by the Governor. Enumerators and assistants are to be appointed before the first Monday in May. In case a sufficient number of assistants are not appointed before that date, the additional number required must be appointed by the Governor.

4th. Enumerators and assistants are to be appointed for each assessment district. If a township, a city, or a ward is divided into more than one assessment district, each district is to have one chief enumerator, and such number of assistants as may be necessary to complete the census within the time prescribed by law. Neither an incorporated, nor an unincorporated village, can have an enumerator unless it constitutes a distinct and entire assessment district. In other words, where the township forms one assessment district, there will be one chief enumerator for the entire township, including the villages within such township. An assistant may be appointed to take the census of the village or villages under the supervision of the chief enumerator, or the chief enumerator may take the census of the village, and the assistant the census of the country.

The division of territory in townships may be made by the township board, and in cities by the common council, but in case it is not so made, then it is the duty of the chief enumerator to make such assignment of territory.

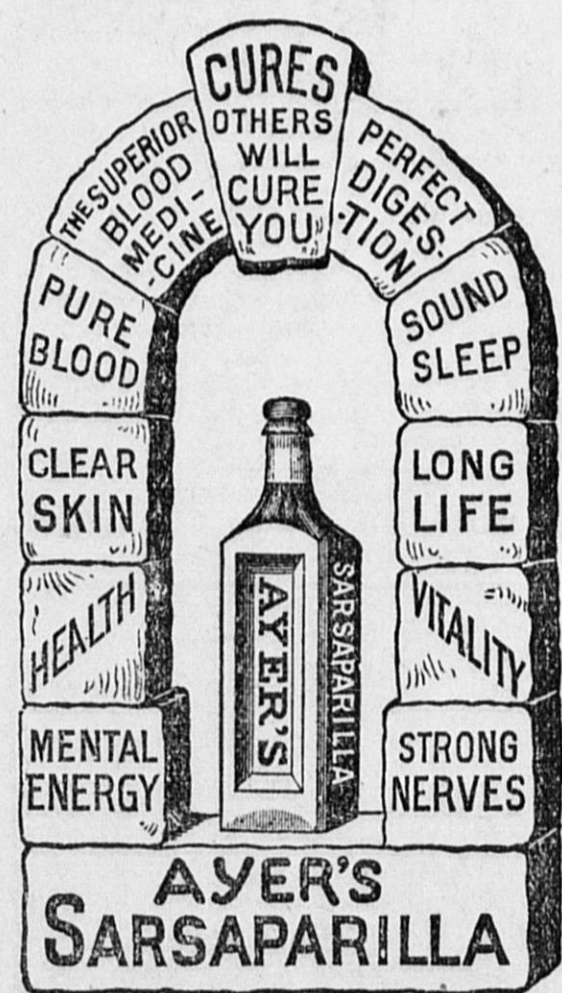

BETWEEN THEN AND NOW.

It would profit any well wisher of the state to sit down and think over carefully the difference between then and now, the difference between the administration of Governor Winans and the administration of Governor Rich. There is abundant data for the independent voter and for the partisan, data so plain that he who runs may read. The difference between the two administrations is so marked that it is difficult to see any reason why any one would wish a continuation of the present one, or the continuation in power of the party responsible for the administration of Governor Rich.

There is nothing which comes more closely to the attention of any one than any measure or conditions which effect the pocketbook and on this score alone Michigan would be more than justified in throwing overboard the party responsible for the conduct of public business in this state for the past year and more, since it was handed over by Gov. Winans. The tax rolls tell in eloquent form the story of party management of affairs in Michigan and there is such a wide difference in favor of the democratic as compared with the republican that selfishness alone would dictate a return by the people to power of the party which under Governor Winans gave the state the most economical administration since the republican party assumed control. Every tax payer in the state has abundant proof of this in the receipts given him by the tax collector for the past three years. An economy so marked that it shows in the tax receipts given throughout the state is the kind of economy that talks.

The efficiency and honesty of the Rich administration stands in an unenviable light as compared with that of the preceding one and the trial in progress of ex-Secretary of State Jochim as plainly as possible indicates the difference. “I never had anything to do with directing the work of the department. I never interfered in any way.” So said the ex-secretary in his own defense. He certified to the people that the constitutional amendment increasing his own salary had been carried when in fact it had been heavily defeated. According to his own testimony he was a figurehead. The work under Gov. Winans was honest, clean and effective. These features were especially noticeable in the management of the various state institutions and contrasted with the condition of affairs in the same institutions to-day afford a striking illustration from which the people can reason out their own conclusions. Having reasoned out they should vote next fall accordingly, and if they do so vote, an economical and efficient democratic administration will replace the one to disappear on January first next.—Muskegon News.

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

“For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 150 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day.”
