C. H. PRESCOTT & SONS.

Twenty-five dollars for a fifteen-cent buggy shaft spring is the price some farmers in Monroe county are paying. They are put on to a rattling good thing in the way of an agency for the article and give a $25 note as a guarantee that they will turn over the company's share of the funds collected from sales. The supply of goods never arrives, but the note does, and in the hands of an innocent purchaser must be paid.

The latest fad is one dealing with the door key, it has been customary for ladies to hide this necessary bit of metal behind the shutters, or under the door mat, or under the steps, but the latest, at least so the well informed say; is to attach it to a hook fastened to the garter. This is written that young men may know enough to say good night when the young ladies hang around the front gate and seem to want neither to go in the house or stay out doors.

An Owosso woman fearing that her husband was spending his evenings with another lady, followed him to the lodge one night, saw him enter, waited for him to come out, followed again and saw him enter the very house that she suspected. She then went home fully resolved to have trouble, but found her hubby snugly in bed, who insisted on knowing where she had been. She had been following another man, but dislikes to have it mentioned now.

Mrs. Robert Dobson, who shot and killed James Anderson at Harrisville last week, has been examined and bound over to the circuit court on a charge of murder. The widow of the dead man says Mrs. Dobson fell in love with her husband at a camp meeting. The story of Mrs. Dobson's alleged seduction became known to some extent, and Anderson, to square himself with the church, is accused by Mrs. Dobson, of circulating stories regarding her chastity. Mrs. Dobson was dismissed from the church. The plea of the defense will probably be emotional insanity.

Capt. Martin Small, the new keeper appointed for the Ottawa Point Life Saving Station, with his family, arrived Monday, and has taken charge. Mrs. Gardner K. Wilder, of Honolulu, has for a few days past been the guest of Rev. P. Schermerhorn and family. Something over four years since Mr. S. had the honor of uniting Mr. and Mrs. Wilder in the holy bonds of matrimony, at Rochester, Mich., who, after their wedding tour sailed for the Hawaiian Islands. Although Mr. Wilder's people have lived at Honolulu some twenty-five years, Mr. Wilder was educated at Ann Arbor and other colleges in the states, Miss Barnes (now Mrs. Wilder) attending at Ann Arbor at the same time, which afforded an opportunity of acquaintance, the sequence of which was their marriage. Although we have read so much of the troubles in the Islands, of "Queen Lill," as she is familiarly called, of the craters, high mountains, climate, continuous bloom of flowers, etc., it is both entertaining and instructive to converse with one directly from that earthly paradise where the thermometer ranges from 60 to 85, (near the water lines), no heating stoves being necessary. We will make no attempt to reproduce Mrs. Wilder's glowing description of the country, but will simply say in this connection that she thinks that annexation, pure and simple under our constitution can not be, as it would not do to place the elective franchise in the hands of those Japanese and natives who are greatly in majority; the "Japs" being so elated over the importance of their own country would soon cause trouble. She thinks however that some kind of union or protectorate will have to be effected with the states, or the Japanese with help direct from Japan will capture the government. When we come to understand that Mr. Wilder has been in government employ as one of its attorneys (though now in the coffee culture) and his father one of the commissioners sent here at the time they asked to be annexed, and is now speaker in the senate. We will see that Mrs. Wilder's opinion means something. .

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marked in December is 993,569, and in the five months, August-December, 5,689,243, which is 359,519, bushels more than reported in the same months last year. The average price of wheat was 84 cents per bushel; of corn, 23 cents, and of oats, 18 cents, and the average price of hay was $7.73 per ton. The average price of fat cattle was $3.03 per cwt., of fat hogs, $3.02 per cwt., and of dressed pork, $4.03 per cwt. Milch cows were worth $27.72 per head. Compared with Jan. 1, 1896, there has been an increase in the prices of all farm products named in this report excepting corn, oats, hay, hogs and dressed pork. The average increase in the price of wheat is 25 cents per bushel, and of fat cattle, 20 cents per cwt.
