The Globe Publishing Co., of Chicago has had two men working in this county among the teachers for the past week, in the interest of the Ridpath Library of Universal Literature. The teachers will find it a work of merit, and a good investment.

Not enough examination questions were sent to this county this time so the commissioner can send the teachers a set, so we print a few of the papers in this column. The people will no doubt be interested in the kind of an examination the teachers have to pass.

ed back to city for 1897

Moved by Ald. Rollin and supported by Ald. Waterbury, that the report of the committee on settlement with city treasurer be accepted. Carried, all voting yes. A communication from Frank Dewey and Frank Emmerson, relative to a telephone franchise was read. Moved by Ald. Murphy and supported by Ald. Dove, that the communication be laid on the table for future consideration. Carried, all voting yes. Moved by Ald. Waterbury and supported by Ald. Phelps, that the council adjourn. Carried, all voting yes.

M. MURPHY, L. J. PATTERSON. Mayor. City Clerk,

A Communication.

To the Supervisors elect of Iosco Co: GENTLEMEN -It has been a custom for a long period of years to call a special meeting of the board of supervisors for the purpose of organizing soon after the annual election; many have the impression that this is absolutely necessary. This is not the case. You can make your assessment just as well and organize at the regular meeting in June, and save the expense or at least a part, to the taxpayers of this county. Our finances of the county are anything but good. the expenses have increased rather then decreased. The county tax is a heavy burden on all classes. I beheve that it is our duty to avoid and curtail all expenses possible. No call should be signed unless the importance is such that the county would loose more than gain. Trusting that you will give this your carefull consiceration, I remain yours truly, G. C. ANSCHUEIZ,

Supervisor Tawas Twp. Dated, Tawas Twp., April 5, 1898.
