Mrs. C. C. Smith, of Black River met an Awful Death last Saturday Morning.

Word was received here last Saturday that Mrs. C. C. Smith had been run over and killed by a switch engine, at Black River. The particulars as since ascertained are as follows: Mrs. Smith was riding to the station on her wheel to take the train for Gustin, which was already at the depot, and it is supposed that in her the switch engine, which was backing up, or thought she had time to cross car struck her wheel first, knocking her down, the engine passing over her and mangeling the body into an unrecognizable mass.

The scene of the accident was only a few rods from the depot, and the accident was witnessed by the passengers of the south bound train, among whom was her husband who was at the station to see her leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were formerly cent of the possible amount. residents of this city, and were well and favorably known. Besides her their terrible loss.

school last week with a picnic on the lake shore.

Miss Shippy and Miss McCasey had a picnic at Smith Creek on Decoration Day. Miss McCasey's school closed that day.

Reading Circle at Tawas City next Saturday. Certificates of membership and work done will be granted at this meeting, the last of the year.

State Sup't. Hammond has issued a fine guid for institute work. It will be distributed soon. He asks renomination from his party, and deserves it for his work for the rural schools. His "Manuals and other helps" for teachers have been much appreciated, and he will get the re-nomination all right.

The public school of this city will give an entertainment on Friday (this evening,) at the high school for the purpose of raising money for the commencement exercises. This entertainment will consist of readings, songs and recitations, and about one hundred fine steroptican yiews of Cuba, the U. S. Navy, prominent men on each side of the war question, and a number of fine comic pertures. This is not the set of views used by Mr, Osborne at the entertainment at the M. E. church, but a new set just completed by Mr. Stephenson. Most of the views are new ones. maps of this series are especially fine and ample opportunity will be given to study the positions of our fleets at this time. The new light, acetylene, will be used in this work. The pictures will thus be made much brighter and some time will be spent in explaining the method of making the Calcium Carbide, and the way the gas is got out of it. Admission ten and fifteen cents. All school children will be admitted for ten cents. Other children under twelve will admited at same price.

The mean temperature for the week ended Saturday, June 4, 1898, 91.1 degress, was 0.4 of a degree above hurry Mrs. Smith either did not see the normal. The first 3 days of the week were cool and deficient in temperature; the last 4 were warm with a ahead of it in safety. A long timber | daily excess. The warmest temperature was 91 degrees on Saturday, and the coldest was 29 degrees on Monday. Light frosts are reported but they did no damage.

> The rainfall averaged only 0.12. The normal is 9.68 of an inch. Showers were quite general on Wednesday but the rest of the week has been generally without rainfall.

The sunshine has averaged 72 per

The week's weather has been generally favorable to all crops and for husband she leaves five children to the progress of farm work, although mourn her untimely death. The be- there is beginning to be a need for reaved family have the deepest sym- more rain. The early part of the patry of their many friends here in week, with its cool nights, delayed crop growth, but the abundant sunshine and higher temperatures of the last four days have pushed crops forward very fast. Wheat is generally in very fine condition and promises to be a fine crop; it is generally heading and in the sourhern part of the state is already beginning to turn yellow. Corn is coming up nicely, has made a good stand and shows a strong, healthy growth; its cultivation is becoming general in all counties of the lower peninsula. Bar-Miss Dunham's school has about ley and early potatoes are up and look good. Late potatoe planting has been rushed and the crop will all be in the grotnd during the coming week. Bean planting is also general and many reports indicate that a larger acreage than usual will be planted this year. In the extreme southern counties early planted beans are coming up. Rye is heading in all parts of the state. Reports regarding the hay crop indicate that the yield this year will be lighter than last; old meadows especially are rather light. Clover is in blossom and the new seeding is doing well. Reports regarding curl leaf on peach trees are still discouraging: a number of correspondents say that although the fruit has dropped considerably, that the warm weather is bringing out new leaves and that there is still considerable fruit left on the trees; there is no doubt, however, that curl leaf has shortened the peach crop materially. Other fruit prospects continue fine. Oats have made considerable improvement and are now in a fairly promising condition.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVEN TION.

To the Democratic Electors of the State of

The Democrats of Michigan will meet in state convention in the city of Grand Rapids on Wednesday, June 22, 1898, at 12 o'clock noon for the purpose of nominating party candidates for the following state offices: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor-General, Attorney-General, Commissioner of State Land Office, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Member of State Board of Education. The convention will also transact such other business as may come before it.

According to the rule adopted by the democratic state convention held in Detroit in 1880, and since followed, every county in the state is entitled to one delegate for each 500 votes cast for governor at the last general election, and one additional delegate for a fraction of not less than 250 votes. But each county is entitled to at least two delegates. All delegates must be residents of the county which they represent.

The delegates from each congressional district will meet in caucus at 10 o'clock on the morning of June 22 at quarters to be hereafter designaled by the state central committee, and will select persons for recommendation to the convention for service upon the several committees of the convention.

Each district will be entitled to one vice-president of the convention and one assistant secretary, and one member on each of the committees on credentials, permanent organization, and order of business and resolutions.

The secretary of each county convention is requested to foward to the secretary of the state centeral committee at Lansing by the earliest mail, after the delegates to the state convention have been chosen, a certified list of such delegates as are entitled to seats at said convention from their respective counties.

County chairman in calling county conventions to elect delegates to the state convention, are requested to include in the business to be transacted by the county convention (in all counties where applicable), the election of delegates to the congressional and state senatoral and representative conventions, when called. All electors who approve of the Chicago platform of 1896 are invited to participate in the Democratic primaries under this call. FRED A. BAKER, FRANK L. DODGE, Secretary. Chairman.

To the Democratic Electors of Iosco County: The Democrats of Iosco county will meet at the court house, in the city of Tawas City, on Friday, June 17, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing five delegates to attend the state convention at Grand Rapids, June 22, 1898. Also delegates to the congressional, senatorial and representative conventions yet to be called; also to elect a county committee for the ensuing two years, and such other business as may properly come before the convention. All electors who believe that silver should be restored to its time honered position among the money metals of the world, are invited to participate under this call.

The several wards and townships in the county will be entitled to delegates under this AuSable City-

More than a million men and women have had their wages reduced since the election of "The Advance Agent of Prosperity." Among the latest to realize what the "sound money" victory really meant are the 225 girls employes of the Western Knitting works at Rochester. A dispatch from Rochester May 20th reports a riot caused by a sweeping reduction of their wages, the girls rotten egging the business manager who advise the reduction, and compelling him to seek the sheriff's protection .-Petoskey Democrat.

F THE bill, to permit volunteer soldiers in the field to vote at congressional elections wherever they are stationed, has been favorably reported to the house, from the election committee. The report says. "The justice and propriety of permitting our citizen seldiers in the field to exercise their civil rights as voters dur .. ing their military service will be con-many of the best of our citizens of all participation in civil government."

Goldbug Financiering.

During the five years previous to 1892, the national debet was reduced from $1,146,014,100, to $585,029,330. which made an annual average reduction of $112,198,974. If the debt had been paid at the same rate for the five years from 1892 to 1897, it would have been reduced on the 1st day of July last to $24.045,560, and it would have been altogether wiped out more than six months ago. The change of policy occured at the Cleveland Republican extra session of 1893, at which time all laws recognizing silver as a money metal were wiped from the statute book, and since which time there has been no new money of either silver or paper put in circulation, and the bonded debt has been increased on account of contraction of the circulating medium over $262,000,000 paid off by the Union Pacific railroad, and is now, and was on the 1st day of July last, $847,365,130.

The republican gold bond revenue bill proposes to add $500,000,000 more to the national debt. If this can be done without the slightest excuse or necessity for it, bonded slavery will have made great progress by reason of the war with Spain. The reasons why the bondholders and gold monometallists want both bonds and contraction are (1) bonds are safe investments, and (2) contraction enhances the purchasing power of money and bonds which are money futures,-Silver Knight Watchman.

Mexican Dollars.

Since we have heard so much about the value of the Mexican dollars the following from the Chicago Tribume will be of interest:

Colonel Amos S, Kimball, quartermaster of the department of the east, brought 250,000 Mexican dollars for use of the army invading the Philipines.

He paid 46 cents for each of these dollars, their regular market price in New York. When they are used in the far east they will be worth nearly twice as much as the American silver dollar would be. So it will be seen that the purchasing power of the $25,-000 will be double their cost.

The Mexican dollar is practically the standard coin in the Oriental trade ouiside of India. It is the coin commonly used and practically the only one used in Japan and China and in the east Indian Islands. The Chinese especially have the highest regard for the Mexican dollar and in the Philipines there are many more Chinamen than all the foreigners put together.

From which it appears that the law does have something to do with the yalue of money. The Mexican dollar is not the standard of the United States and it does not pass for its face value. In the east it is the standard and, lo, it is worth nearly twice as much at the American silver dollar. Odd isn't it?-Kalamazoo News.

This illustrates another point that has been set before the people for day of hearing. years, but which they seemed upable

If thy neighbors' hens offend thee by scratching up thy garden, forgive them for they are after bugs, not your plants, and plant it over again, even unto the twentieth time, if you fail to catch them and wring their necks; if your hens scratcheth up your neighbor's garden don't get offended if they returneth not at night unto the cover of their coop, but forgive them and buy more hens, but keep them shut up. That's loying thy neighbor as thyself.

Whenever anybody pours into your ears some piece of scandalous gossip, says an exchange, remember there are two sides to a story, and ask your self what the motive of the teller may be. It will often be found that the scandalmonger has some personal grudge to satisfy, or point to gain which has led to outrageous embellishment of the original incident. Usually too, the person whose habitual discourses and conversational stock in trade is bitter and malevolent gossip, is a good person to avoid. Generally speaking the person who will villify a neighbor to you will villify you to a neighbor.

We talk about hard times, and yet we spent last year nearly $1,000,000, 000 on liquor to pour down our throats. If only this immense sum could be directed to the purchase of other commodities (articles needed by the wives and children of men who waste their money in drink), every mill and every shop could be opened and every idle man could be put to work. # Dehorning Cattle.

Dr. H. H. Lamson, of the New Hampshire College Experiment Station, in a recently issued bulletin discusses the question of dehorning cattle, and also the prevention of the growth of horns in calves. He fayors the latter course as being the more humane, and because it avoids the disagreeable features of dehorning matured animals. The horns of cattle, he explains, consist of two parts of different origin: the outer horny shell is a growth derived from the skin; the inner part, or pith consist of bone, and is the outgrowth of the skull. At the birth of the calf each of these parts is undeveloped and only exists as a possibility, but they at once begin to grow, and in a short time the young horn can be felt as a slight elevation or button.

The horn tissue develops from the skin just as do hoofs and claws in the lower animals and nails in human beings. There is a zone in the skin about the base of the horn known as the matrix, from which new horn-cells are constantly being formed, the older parts being pushed on. If we destroy the periosteum from which the bony part of the horn is formed and the matrix from which the horny part is formed, we prevent the further development of the horn. In removing horns which are already more or less developed, as in dehorning mature animals, the cut must be made deep enough to include the matrix or the stump of the horn will continue to grow. It may not be out of place here to remark that there is no danger of cutting into the brain cavity, as at this point it lies yery deeply. The openings frequently seen on removing the horns are only empty spaces with which the frontal bone is honey-combed.

In calves the growing points of the horns are small in extent and can be destroyed with little trouble. In our experiments we have made use of caustic potash. Caustic potash, so called, is a pure form of the same substance which constitutes the potash sold in cans for soap making and cleansing purposes. It is in the form of white sticks, in diameter about the size of an ordinary lead pencil. As its namindicates, it is a powerful caustic, rape idly destroying the skin and other tissues if kept in contact with them In this property lies its value as a preventive of the growth of horns. When properly applied it destroyes the matrix or growing point of the horny tissue and the underlying periosteum from which the bony pith grows.

Warning Against the use of Ethereal Extracts in Summer Beverages

The May bulletin of the State Dairy and Food Department just issued; calls the attention of proprietors of soda water fountains, dispensers of summer drinks, and the public in general to the all to common use of ethereal or artificial extracts in the preparation of these beverages. Since September 1st, 1897, the sale of these extracts has been prohibited in Michigan, and under the work of the department's inspection force they have largely disappeared from the shelves of the retail trade.

These extracts, the most common of which are pineapple, raspberry, straw. berry and banna are manufactured from ethers, are collored to imitate the fruit desired and contain no part whatever of the fruits whose name they bear.

As an example of the mind's influence upon the taste, it has been proyen in the department's laboratory that a person blindfolded will pronounce the same ether an extract of strawberry or raspberry if told it is one or the other.

The ethers themselves are rank poisous and even in such small quantities as found in the so called extracts are injurious to health. There is no excuse whatever for their use because fruit juices are easily obtained, though a trifle higher in cost, while these extracts are a cheap worthless and decidedly dangerous substitute.

The department is taking steps to apprehend and prosecute dispensers of summer drinks who make use of these ethereal extracts in the preparation of their beverages.
