CERVERA'S DEFEAT.

Our Citizens Celebrated the Event in a most Entusiastic Manner Tuesday Evening.

The glorious news of the American victory over the Spanish forces in Cuba and the destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet was received with great enthusiasm by our citizens, and Tuesday morning it was decided to celebrate the event by a mass meeting that evening. Considering the short notice the greatest crowd ever seen here gathered at the court house Tuesday evening. It is estimated that over two thousand people were in attendance.

At 7:30 exercises were opened by the ringing of the fire and church bells and the firing of canons and anvils, which was followed by a fine display of fire works.

The crowd was so large that not more than a third of them could get into the court house and so two meetings were held—one in the court room and one on the court house lawn. Addresses were made by Charles A. Jahraus, Col. George A. Loud, Judge Simpson, Rev. Osborne, Rev. Wye, and M. J. Connine. The addresses were all of the patriotic order and most heartily received.

Iosco county may well be proud of the fact that she had a representative with Admiral Dewey, at Manila, and while Mr. Loud does not lay claim to be an orator, his description of that wonderful battle cannot fail to interest and thrill every American. Mr. Loud brought back with him several reminders of that eventful 1st day of May, among which was the shell of the first shot fired at the fortifications at the mouth of Manila Bay. This shot was fired by the McCullough, the revenue cutter on which Col. Lodd was. In his remarks he gave many interesting facts that were not in the newspaper reports of the fight.

The celebration was a grand success.

HEMLOCK.

(Received too late for last week.)

Mrs. John Watts is very sick.

Daniel Low has commenced cutting hay on the Patrick farm.

Threshing machine men when passing a field of wheat cannot help but smile.

Mrs. McMillin is staying at the home of her son R. Tompkins for a short time.

W. M. Mason and others have hay cut and in the barn some earlier than last year.

Quite a number of our young people talk of celebrating at Sand Lake this Fourth.

John Dempsey's barn was partly demolished by lightning by Wednesday evening's storm.

Daniel Low, Jr., has got home from McKinley where he was working in the lumber woods.

Frank Chambers, is fixing up his threshing machine so as to be one of the first to tackle wheat threshing.

Miss Laura Tompkins is home to spend the Fourth, from Thompson's farm, where she has been for five or six weeks.

Mart Long had a logging bee a short time ago and twelve acres was logged. That is the kind of young men to have in the neighborhood.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

By Local W. C. T. U.

One of the questions that will be asked at the Judgement Day, is this: "How did you vote?"

Hon. John D. Long says of intoxicating drink: "It is the dynamite of modern civilization."

In accordance with a plan to honor the memory of Francis E. Willard, the National Temperance Hospital and Sanitarium of Chicago, will soon be known as the Francis E. Willard National Temperance Hospital.

Many of the letters from home to the soldier boys should warn them against the use of strong drink and should press upon them the appeal of parent sister, brother and beloved ones not to yield to the temptation to drink.—Michigan Christian Advocate.

The state W. C. T. U. in recognition of the hospitality extended the convention at Saginaw, sent one hundred copies of Gospel Hymns with words and six copies with music for the leaders, to the 33d Mich. Vol. Co. D., which is composed of Saginaw boys. Chaplain Sage writes they are appreciated.

At this end of the nineteenth century it is a shame and a national disgrace that an army saloon—for that is what the "canteen" is—must be provided by the nation to tempt our boys in blue and that no one in authority cares enough about it to try to abolish it.

Nothing less certainly can be said of it (intemperance) than that it is a great vice, and in an extraordinary degree the parent and concomitant of other great vices. Doubtless, more than other vices, this unfits the mind for cultivation or growth of any plant of virtue. It strikes a blow, a deadly blow, at once on all its capacities and all its sensibilities. It renders it alike incapable of pious feelings, of social regard, and of domestic affection.—Hon. Daniel Webster.

General O. O. Howard says: "Ever since the prospect of sending an army to our southern border and probably to Cuba, has been made apparent to me, my mind has reverted to the necessity of letting every officer and soldier know that alcohol will not help the digestion, and that alcoholic drink will be the best possible means to produce unfitness for service, unfitness to endure the miasma of swamps and the dangers from yellow fever."

RENO.

There was a large number of people at Taft on the Fourth to celebrate.

Mr. Edney Latter returned home on the 4th from Duluth where he has been since last fall.

Miss Anna Latter and Lucy Vance were thrown from a swing on the 4th. Miss Latter's lip was badly cut.

While engaged in building the bowery at Taft Mr. Kenneth Anderson cut his leg badly. Dr. Wakeman was called to dress it.

Mrs. Thos. Cooper Sr. and Mrs. Thos. Cooper Jr. were throwd from their vehicle on the 4th and were badly jarred but no bones were broken.

On Sunday July 3rd, at the Baptist parsonage Reno, by J. J. Renno, Mr. George Moore and Miss Laura Graham were joined in marriage. Both of Hale.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The mean temperature for the week ending Saturday, July 2, 1898, 68.0 degrees, was exactly normal. The beginning of the week was cool and cloudy, but the last three days were warm, the temperatures on Friday and Saturday ranging in the vicinity of the nineties. The highest temperature, 96 degrees, occurred on July 1st and 2d. The coldest temperature, 44 degrees, occurred on Monday.

The average total precipitation, 0.37 of an inch, is about half the normal. The precipitation was very unequally distributed, some places in the upper peninsula and north-eastern parts of the lower peninsula receiving showers of an inch or more, while many stations in the southern and western part of the lower peninsula had no rain.

The sunshine has averaged 52 per cent of the possible amount.

Generally the weather conditions during the past week have been favorable to crops, haying and harvesting. Haying is now well along and the crop has been generally secured; in the southern counties haying is about finished, while the upper peninsula it is just commenced. The general verdict regarding the hay crop is that the yield is rather light—good from new meadows but poor from the old. The harvesting of wheat and rye has been quite general in the three southern tiers of counties and in the extreme southern part of the state some of the farmers have all of their wheat in shock. In the more northerly counties the harvest will be quite general during the coming week. Wheat has been damaged in some sections by heavy winds and hard showers, but as a whole, the wheat prospects for this year are very flattering; wheat heads are nicely filled and the berries are plump. Buckwheat is nearly all sown and the seed bed which received it, is in splendid condition. Oats are heading nicely but are rather short. Corn has made rapid progress during the week, is well cultivated and generally in splendid condition. Early potatoes are in bloom and are moderately free from bugs. Beans, peas, garden truck and pastures are in good condition.

ALABASTER.

How did you enjoy the Fourth?

Sewel Avery spent the Fourth at Detroit.

Joel Culham, is calling on old friends in Alabaster.

Miss Ella Kenny, of Canada, visited relatives here Sunday.

Messrs G, Frazer and T. O'Brien spent the Fourth at Bay City.

Quite a number of our young people spent the Fourth at Alpena.

Miss Hulda Remnell, of Oscoda, visited Miss Lizzie Johnson here this week.

Miss Allie Brennan and Miss Tressa Shaver of Tawas called on relatives here Wednesday.

The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White was quite ill this week. Dr. Gates is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDonald and daughter Katy, of Roscommon, spent Sunday with relatives here.]

The barge M. T. Green and schooners St. Peters and Ruben Dond loaded plaster the first of the week.

Master Spencer Milstrip of Bay City arrived in town Wednesday for a visit with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Anderson.

The Western P. W. of this place have this week adopted the tea hour system of work. Eleven hours having been the practice before.

"An Original Idea."

Next Tuesday evening the citizens of the Tawas will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the most refined and pleasing entertainments that has ever been given in these cities. Under the auspices of Iosco Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Labadie will give one of their pleasing entertainments. The entertainment will be given at the lodge rooms, over Dillon's drug store. A recent issue of the Chicago Journal contains the following: "Mr. Labadie, as Festus, impersonates Richard 3d, in his wooing scene, with Mrs. Labadie as Lady Anne, and the second part is the trial scene, of the 'Merchant of Venice.' A prettier or more eloquent Portia never pleaded for the unstrained quality of mercy than Mrs. Labadie. She is a beautiful woman, with a full, deep voice of singular purity and charm and a gentle womanliness of manner. Her court scene is the perfection of art. Mr. Labadie's presentation of Shylock is as notable.

"Mr. and Mrs. Labadie have presented their duologue before clubs and church societies and have found fields of exceptional interest away from the dramatic stage. They adapt scenes from Shakesperian plays, and present portions of such dramas as 'Virginius,' 'Ingomar,' and 'Pygmalion and Galatea, which gain rather than lose, by the stripping of all stage environments.

Annual School Meeting.

The annual school meeting of Fractional School District No. 7, Tawas City and Tawas Township, will be held at the high school building in Tawas City, on Monday, July 11, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of transacting such business as may properly come before it. The attention of the qualified voters is called to the following provision of the Public Acts of 1897:

Sec. 8, Chapter XXV, General School Laws of the state reads in part as follows: "Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not be mandatory on districts that are furnishing free text-books for use in the school or schools of the district or that may, at the annual school meeting, or at any special or general election in the years eighteen hundred and ninety-seven and eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said district determine to furnish free text books for use in the school or schools of the district, and it shall be the duty of the school board of the several districts that have not previously adopted free text-books to submit the question of the adoption of free text-books to the electors of the district at any annual school meeting or special or general election during the years eighteen hundred and ninety-seven and eighteen hundred and ninety-eight under the conditions and provisions of act number one hundred and forty-seven of the Session Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine. And provided further, That the provisions of this act shall not be mandatory on any district which shall at any annual, special or general election during the years eighteen hundred ninety-seven and eighteen hundred ninety-eight determine, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said district voting on the subject not to come thereunder."

While a majority vote of the electors of the district is required to adopt free-text books, only a majority vote of those present and voting upon the subject is required to carry the proposition "not to come thereunder."

Director.

SOME of the richest corporations will take as much pride in evading the war tax, as the average citizen will in paying his share.

AN exchange says: If a man counterfeits a dollar and passes it, so prison he goes. But if a corporation counterfeits millions, calls them "stock" or "capitalization," the dear people call them "property" and pay taxes on them, while the counterfeiters go to congress, into cabinets, to Europe, and ultimately to—some warmer climate,

THE two greatest naval battles in the world's history have been fought between the United States and Spain, and both won by the American navy. The most remarkable thing in both—Admiral Dewey's victory at Manila, and Commodore Schley's victory off the coast of Cuba, is the fact that each of the Spanish fleets were completely annihilated while the American loss in both battles was one man killed and less than a dozen wounded.

Loud For Congress.

For the past two months one or two local papers in this district have been busy booming Col. George A. Loud, of AuSable, for the republican nominee for congress in this district, but the close friends of Mr. Loud have insisted that he was not a candidate and would not accept the nomination. Things seem to have changed. A prominent republican of the county informed us Wednesday that after a discussion of the subject with a number of the leading republicans of the county, Mr. Loud had decided to go after the nomination and that from now until convention time Mr. Crump must keep hustling if he wishes to succeed himself for another term. Mr. Loud's friends propose to leave nothing undone to secure the nomination for their man.

While it is our opinion that the next congressman from the tenth district will be a silver man, we are willing to admit this much, if the district is to be represented by a republican Col. Loud will certainly be an improvement over the president incumbent.

Still on War Path.

The Anti-Pingree push in the Republican party has, ostensibly at least, "thrown up the sponge," and even such irrecantables as Edwy C. Reid of the Allegan Gazette are now tumbling over each other in their haste to get into the Pingree wagon. But the "old man" has not by any means "let up" in his war upon the republicans who, at the called session of the legislature, killed his corporation tax bill—otherwise known as the Atkinson equal-taxation bill—in the senate. In his letter of June 23, which is now being sent out from Lansing by tens of thousands, the governor urges republicans to see to it that candidates of the legislature are pledged specifically to vote and work for the Atkinson bill, as under a mere pledge of favoring "equal-taxation" they would be able to kill such legislation by dividing their votes between rival bills and still claim to have fulfilled their pledge.

On the back of the letter is a list of the seventeenth senators who voted against the Atkinson bill, followed by the question, "Is your senator in the foregoing list?" Despite the cry of "Peace, peace," which has of late come from the camp of the erstwhile blatant anti-Pingree republicans, there is evidently anything but peace, and the coming republican caucuses and legislative conventions are likely to be productive of interesting developments.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, July 4th, 1898.

No more striking object lesson in America grit and bravery was ever given the world than that by the soldiers and sailors who participated in the terrible, but victorious campaign against Santiago. Gen. Shafter's bull-dog persistency in steadily going ahead regardless of difficulties, natural or man-made, until assured of victory was an indication that his schoolmates made no mistake when they nick-named him "Bull." The number of men killed, wounded, and overcome by the heat is appalling, when the number of men participating in the fighting is considered, but no larger than might have been expected under the circumstances, the thermometer 105 to 125 and several days of almost continuous assaulting of breast works and charging up hill in the face of hot fire from both large and small guns. Admiral Sampson's fleet worked in accord with Shafter's army and helped once more to demonstrate that the American soldier and sailor has no equal on earth in all around staying and fighting qualities.

Representative Bailey, of Texas, has the sympathy of all decent men, regardless of politics, in his effort to uncover the democratic congressman who Representative Grosvenor alleged had told him that he was the author of an editorial slurring at the democrats in the house and making a thinly veiled personal attack upon Mr. Bailey, which appeared in a Washington paper. Grosvenor has so far declined to name the man, although the editor of the paper has joined his request to that of Mr. Bailey that he do so, and added that if any congressman claimed to be the author of the editorial in question, he lied.

Under the provisions of the bill providing for taking the next census, the employes of the census bureau are to be not more than two-thirds from one political party. The new house committee on the census is made up in about the same proportion, eight republicans, four democrats and one populist. Membership on this committee was eagerly sought, as it is supposed that its members will have a little more pull in securing census appointments than other members of the house. The four democrats on the committee are DeVries, of Cal., Norton, of South Carolina, Griffith, of Ind., and MacDowell, of Ohio, and the populist is Ridgely, of Kansas. No appointments under the bill are to be made before next year, so far as any outsider knows, but the haste in some quarters to get the bill through is somewhat suspicious, and it will not be surprising if somebody finds a way to take care of a few friends before that time, at Uncle Samuel's expense.

There has been more swearing since the first of the month on account of the oppressive and troublesome stamp tax than about the extremely warm weather we are having. It is only necessary to stand a few minutes at the paying teller's window in a bank or at the receiving clerk's desk in a telegraph office to be convinced that a revenue stamp tax is about the most obnoxious of all taxes, just as the democrats in congress said when they were protesting in vain against its imposition upon the country. Some persons were simple enough to believe that the telegraph company would pay for the stamp that is required to be affixed to every message sent, but they soon found out differently. Corporations never pay anything that their patrons can be made to pay.

The positive statement from Europe that Germany, France, and Russia had entered into an agreement to prevent the U. S. retaining the Philippine Islands, or turning them over to England after the war is ended, is being extensively discussed in Washington. This particular statement may or may not be true, but that our talk about permanently keeping the Philippines has aroused mutterings in Europe, which may cause future trouble, is known to all. These things are causing it to be asked whether the game is worth the candle. In other words, would the possession of Philippines compensate us for engaging in a war with a combination of European powers? Of course, the average American is ready at all times to resent any European interference in our affairs, and should a combination of powers officially say that we should not keep the Philippines, would favor keeping them anyway then. But would it not be wise for this government to announce in advance of any such notice that it does not wish to keep those islands? Many think so.

No agreement has yet been reached as to the day on which the senate shall vote on the annexation resolution, but is expected that the vote will be taken this week.

Obituary.

Died, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, of Baldwin, Sunday, July 3, 1898, James Sullivan, aged 18 years, eight months and six days.
 The deceased was taken sick about three weeks ago with inflammation of the bowles, which resulted in his death as stated above. James was born in this city, and was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan. He was a student of our city schools and was universally beloved by his large circle of friends and school mates.
 The funeral services were held from the East Tawas Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. A. C. Kay. The remains were interred in the East Tawas cemetery.
 The breaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Care of Sheep.

The sheep never does well when closely confined, even in winter. Its fleece protects it from cold, and it needs rather shelter from rain than anything else.

When sheep are pastured they will always select for their resting places the highest and driest part of the field, not, perhaps, as has been supposed, from hereditary instinct.

age by vermin. The money can be applied to the reduction of indebtedness, if any, or put at interest. It is well to exercise a little thought in the production and marketing of farm products, in order to obtain the best prices for them.
