Circuit Court.

The regular August term of circuit court convened Tuesday morning, Judge Simpson presiding. The calendar contained seven criminal, eight civil and six chancery cases. The first case taken up for trial was that of the people vs. Arthur F. Dudgeon, for the willful neglect of official duty. This is the case wherein Mr. Dudgeon refused or neglected to spread the taxes assessed in AuSable township. The case occupied the attention of the court Tuesday and the most of Wednesday. It was then given to the jury who, after twenty minutes deliberation returned a verdict of guilty.

The next case taken up was that of the people vs. George Tompkins and James Hamilton charged with interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duties. It appears that these men assaulted Village Treasurer G. H. Cosgrove, of Oscoda while he was attempting to attach a team to secure the payment of taxes. The case was given to the jury Thursday afternoon and they found Tompkins guilty as charged and no cause of action against Hamilton.

The appeal case of W. G. Pierce vs. Phillip Rosenthal was tried Thursday and a verdict given in favor of Rosenthal.

Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON Aug. 1st 1898.

While there is some criticism of the terms of peace offered Spain, in answer to its request, and which the French ambassador acting as Spanish Minister, has accepted, the general impression is, that on the whole, the administration has acquitted itself very creditably in handling this matter as far as it has gone. The terms require Spain to withdraw its troops at its own expense from Cuba and Porto Rico; to pay all just claims of Americans for property destroyed in Cuba; the U. S. explicitly disclaims any responsibility whatever for bonds issued by Spain and secured by its revenues from either Cuba or Porto Rico, a decided check to the scheme which certain Americans have been trying to work in behalf of the European holders of that class of Spanish bonds; and the final disposition of the Philippines is left open to be settled as we may see fit. One man's guess is about as good as another as to what will be the next step of the tricky Spaniards. Any other country might be counted upon to follow the recommendations of its accredited minister, but Spain cannot be counted upon to do anything.

Commissary General Egan of the army is out in an interview replying to a letter written by R. B. Roosevelt, a New York lawyer, charging that there was either "shameful incapacity of infamous dishonesty" in the commissary department, and that neither enough, nor proper food had been furnished the men at the front. Egan's reply is what the boys call "hot stuff;" he calls Roosevelt several kinds of a notoriety hunting liar, and says his letter was "a low libellous, scandalous vilification of honest men."

Surgeon General Sternberg admits that although more than 5,000 of Gen. Shafter's men are now down with the fever, that he thinks the worst is yet to come. The only consoling thing about the situation is the small number of fatalities among the fever patients, but the disease may assume a more malignant type at any time.

When General Miles landed at Porto Rican port that was not the one the administration expected him to land at, there was considerable growling in administration circles, and even talk of Miles being censured for not having obeyed orders, but as soon as the news of his successful occupation, without loss of life, of much territory including a number of towns, it was denied that any such talk had been indulged in. "Nothing succeeds like success" you know. Had Miles met with any reverses, he would at once have been a scapegoat.

Representative Davey, of Louisiana, whose vigorous presentation of facts acquired during a stay of one week in the camp at Miami, Fla., caused the war department to issue orders transferring the troops from point to Jacksonville, does not mince words in describing the condition of those troops and expressing the opinion that somebody was blameable for the mismanagement which he said had debilitated and disheartened hundreds of the men. To show that he had not exaggerated the situation. Mr. Davey pointed to the official record of nine hundred men on the sick list at one time in a camp of two brigades, calling attention to the fact that the men being from Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas, were practically all immunes, so far as climatic conditions were concerned. One would suppose that canteens would be one of the first things provided for soldiers in a summer campaign, yet when Mr. Davey arrived in camp he found that there was only one canteen for seven men, and when he left, a week later, there were half of the men without canteens.

It is a chestnut with whiskers on it to say the civil service commission is a humbug, but in view of the fact that these truly good men, who draw big salaries for professing goodness, have just officially reduced a clerk in the employ of the commission one grade, for alleged inefficiency, and that this same clerk as a witness before the senate civil service committee some months ago, had testified to methods in use by the commission that even mugwump would not call reform, it seems necessary to say it again.

There are plenty of men in Washington who make no bones of calling the printing of Grosvenor's tissue of misrepresentations in a belated issue of the congressional record, after his request for permission to print it was refused by the house, as downright dishonesty. Secretary Kerr, of the democratic congressional campaign committee says the committee regards the printing of the speech, under the circumstances, as a disgrace, and while on the subject he added: "Unanimous consent was refused him by the house and the management of the record was at fault for allowing it to appear in that publication. The speech will not be of any great value as a campaign document. The very circumstance under which it has appeared discredits it. Democrats have been loyal to the war. We have favored support for the army and navy, but we did not agree to the saddling of an unnecessary bonded debt upon the country. Grosvenor's speech will be challenged everywhere it is circulated."

The Chief Burgess of Milesburg, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of house keeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. Dr. G. S. Darling.

Bay City, July 27th, 1898.

AN exchange says wool is in demand. Sure thing. The fall campaign will soon be on and the republican politicians want it to pull over the eyes of the voters.

SENATOR BURROWS has that sublime confidence of retaining his seat which soothes the breast of a tenderfoot during his first attempt to ride a bucking broncho.—Ann Arbor Democrat.

BILL DINGLEY is exerting himself these days to raise sufficient enthusiasm to cover up the fact that his tariff bill is failing in its effort to raise sufficient revenues to meet the ordinary expenses of the government.

A REPUBLICAN newspaper has figured out a "beautiful balance sheet" in which the large exports of 1897 cut an important figure, and of course, are credited to the Dingley tariff. But the increase in American exports was due to and increased demand for American food products, at increased prices. In the increase of prices Joe Lieter played a much more important role than Bill Dingley.—Et.

ALL the Crump ring in this section can find after all of his work in congress, and which they are trying to use as a lever to get him nominated for a third term is that "he was all right on the war question." Show us a democrat even in congress or elsewhere who is not all right on that question. Yes, that is all the Deuel faction can find in favor of the miss-representative of the Tenth district.—Harbor Springs Republican.

That's right. We are all right on the war question. We are all right anyway, its only a matter of personal difference. But when it comes to putting up an ex-Canadian barkeeper like Crump, without brains enough to go in when it rains, just because the party took him up four years ago, because he was a "know-nothing" A. P. A., and the exigencies of politics made him available, and has been forced to keep him or lose their hold on the office, it is time to kick. But don't kick, and then turn around and swallow him. He is no good; he is the mere tool of a few would be bosses in Bay City, who failing to beat him in the caucuses with a Bay county man, are now using him as a cat's paw, while they sneer at him all the time.—Cheboygan Democrat.

JUSTIN R. WHITING of St. Clair has been nominated for governor by the allied forces of the Democratic People's party and silver Republican party. He is a man of character and ability. He has served his district in congress, and while there showed unmistakable evidences of being a man of the people as against the puppets of organized greed. Mr. Whiting is a successful business man, having the full confidence of the people. He is a student in political affairs, and has the necessary experience to make a wise and capable executive. He will have as his political opponent, without a doubt, the present incumbent, Hazen S. Pingree. As between the two men, Mr. Whiting is in every sense the broader, the more capable and, above all, the more honest. He does not pose as a second Lincoln, but if elected will pursue a course more in line with economy and equality than Pingree can possibly follow. While crying reform, Governor Pingree has been the most expensive and reckless governor the state has ever had. Whiting, on the other hand, can be safely trusted to promote those principles which are so necessary for the proper maintenance or economy in state affairs. He is a man, not a braggart, an honest exponent of right rather than a hypocritical charlatan whose every line of action accrues to self aggrandizement and pernicious bossism.—Pontiac Post.

"By Thy Words Thou Shalt Be Condemned."

The national Republican league at Omaha, on the 14th of July, 1898, unblushingly repudiated all their sham pretences that they were in favor of bimetalism in any form. They said: "We are uncompromisingly in favor of the maintenance of the single gold standard."

A party which has secured the demonization of silver by continuous declarations that they were in favor of bimetalism now admits that its whole career on that subject has been a base falsehood. The American people are in favor of the use of both metals. The Republican party is in favor of the use of only one. The American people are in favor of a supply of money which will maintain stability of prices. The Republican party is in favor of gold because it will depress prices and enhance the value of bonds. The American people are in favor of justice and an honest measure of value. The Republican party is in favor of injustice and a shrinking measure of value. The American people are in favor of an independent financial policy. The Republican party is in favor of the English gold standard and opposed to everything American. The American people are patriotic. The Republican party confesses in the resolution above quoted that it is unpatriotic, in favor of the rich against the poor, in favor of increasing the value of money and of bonds and decreasing the value of property.

We thank the Republican party for pleading guilty and acknowledging that it is opposed to everything it has advocated in the last thirty years in regard to finance. We are glad that out of its own mouth the Republican party is condemned as a falsifier. No condemnation could have been equal to the condemnation which the Republican party by its authorized agents has pronounced, and the American people will never believe them again when they say they are bimetalists. The votes they get hereafter they will have to get as monometalists, as extortionists, as stock jobbers, as enemies of the welfare of the masses of the people.—Silver Knight Watchman.

Republican Co. Convention.

The republicans of Iosco county were supposed to meet in convention at the court house last Tuesday, but it was very evident that the convention(?) had been previously held. The meeting was called to order by C. R. Jackson and C. S. Pierce, of Oscoda, was made temporary chairman, and Joseph Wilcox of Oscoda, temporary secretary. After the appointment of the usual committee a recess was taken until after dinner. On re-assembling the temporary officers were made permanent. The report of the committee on credentials showed full delegations from AuSable, Oscoda, East Tawas, Tawas City and one or two townships. No delegates were present from Tawas, Alabaster, Sherman, Wilber or Plainfield.

The committee on resolutions presented a set of resolutions endorsing Albert Pack for United States senator, W. A. French for commissioner of the state land office, McKinley's administration and the St. Louis platform. They also contained some reference to Pingree, Crump and several other distinguished gentlemen.

When it came to the election of delegates a new scheme was introduced and a committee consisting of Col. Loud and Arthur Pack, with two or three other gentlemen to fill up, were appointed to select delegates to the various conventions. The committee chose the following: State—G. A. Prescott, C. S. Pierce, M. J. Connine, Maynard Butts, C. R. Jackson.

Congressional—G. A. Loud, Temple Emery, William Nesbet, A. E. Sharp, George W. Mount.

Senatorial—Arthur Pack, C. A. Jahraus, George Sutherland, W. L. M. Blakely, Charles Curry, W. H. Warren, Collie Johnson, C. E. Wilcox.

Representative—J. W. King, W. E. Wilson, J. E. Dillon, L. H. Dupraw, J. G. Demmick, W. H. Simpson, Benj. McCausland, E. Laidlaw, V. E. Rix, John Law, Robert Richards, Joseph Wilcox.

It would be a safe bet that if Pingree or Crump had to depend on Iosco county for the nomination that they would get left.

The saddest thing about the entire meeting was when it came to the election of the county committee. C. R. Jackson, who has held the position as chairman was retired and C. S. Pierce elected. The nearest thing to thanks that the retiring chairman got was a vigorous "reast" from an Oscoda delegate for some supposed neglect of duty. This is only an incident which shows how a man's sacrifices for a noble(?) cause is sometimes appreciated.

The convention was Harmony with a big H.

Hog Cholera.

A woman may not be supposed to be good authority for remedies for and preventives of diseases pertaining to porkers, yet she may know a thing or two. A German who has had experience with stock says if a poke root is kept in the swill barrel from which hogs are fed every day they will be healthy and will be no danger of cholera. I know persons who do this and never have a sick hog. Poke root has medicinal qualities which keep the system healthy and I am told by those who know that hogs love it and when allowed to run at large will root for it.

A few years ago hog cholera raged in our neighborhood, depleting the herds of hogs to an alarming extent. One man had two fine hogs, one of which took the disease and died, the other one he saved. Procuring a box of pine tar he at once annointed the face of the remaining hog well up between the eyes and around the nose, allowing some of the tar to go into the mouth. He also smeared the inside of the feeding trough with it. This hog lived on and flourished despite the fact that the disease continued to rage, all owing to the efficacy of pine tar. These are simple things to do and while they may not effect cures, may be beneficial as preventives, and if "an ounce of prevention worth a pound of cure" why not use the ounce? In our family pine tar is one of the indispensables. Some day I am going to tell the readers of The Farmer some of the many things it is good for.—Aunt Emily, Maple Farm, Muskingum Co., O.

Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says that for constipation he has found DeWitt's Little Early Risers to be perfect. They never grip. Try them for stomach and liver troubles. G. S. Darling.

A devotee and earnest deacon in a neighboring town wished to show the little people on Children's Day his appreciation of the exercises rendered by them and so bought a bundle of flags for the purpose. He was greatly surprised on unwrapping them to find inscribed across their face the words, "Remember the Maine to—l with Spain" While, no doubt, the words accorded with his convictions, he thought it not altogether prudent to present them to the scholars, so he announced that the presents would be postponed a week.

S. G. Bettes, well-known throughout the state as the "cow-boy evangelist," came into the city Saturday morning in a galvanized iron canoe in which he is making a tour of the world. Mr. Bettes is devoting his time to the advancement of the silver cause, and Saturday evening he addressed a good sized audience and gave them some able arguments in favor of free coinage of silver. He is also laboring for the election of Justin R. Whiting as the next governor of Michigan. With his novel way of campaigning Sam is accomplishing much for the cause.

Have you ever noticed the difference in the blossoms on squash vines? If so, you have seen that at the base some of them, even before they open, a miniature squash has "set." The others (which are in the majority) do not show this. The latter are designated as the male blossoms, and their mission is to furnish pollen to the others so that seed may be produced. Experience has shown that if the male blossoms are picked off the others will mature the fruit just the same, but the seed will be lacking in germinating power. The form of the fruit thus produced will be much more uniform and the quality improved. This same rule applies to cucumbers, melons and pumpkins. Try it.—N. A. Horticulturalist.

E. C. Blanks, of Lewisville, Texas, writes that one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was worth $50.00 to him. It cured his piles of ten years standing. It also cures eczema, skin diseases and obstinate sores. Dr. G. S. Darling.

MEN WANTED AT ALABASTER.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, Michigan Section for the week ending July 30th, 1898.

The mean temperature for the week ended Saturday, July 30, 62.1 degrees, was 3.8 degrees warmer than the normal. The temperature ranged from 1 to 7 degrees more than the normal during the first six days of the week, and was deficient 2 degrees on the last day. Sunday, July 24, was abnormally warm in all sections of the state.

The average total precipitation, 0.66 of an inch, is 0.19 of an inch more than the normal; it was poorly distributed.

The sunshine has averaged 61 per cent of the possible amount.

Although the average total precipitation for the state during the past week is nearly three quarters of an inch, it was very poorly distributed and inadequate to entirely relieve the droughty conditions which have been prevailing for some weeks back.

Throughout the extreme southern tier of counties showers were quite general, and the general benefit to crops was very marked, but in all other counties of the lower peninsula rain is very badly needed. Early potatoes are ripening and being dug, but the drought has greatly shortened the yield.

The editor of the Evans City, Pa., Globe, writes. "One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. I cured my children after all other remedies failed."
