THE FAIR,

Next Week's Exhibit Promises to be the most Successful Held in Years.

The officers of the Iosco Agricultural Society are making a special effort to make the 24th annual fair the most successful ever held. The premium list has been thoroughly revised and modernized, and offers many more attractions than in former years. Thursday has been set apart as "Soldiers and School Day," and all soldiers, scholars and teachers are invited to attend.

The races promise to be very exciting. On Thursday occurs the three minute trotting and pacing race. There are a number of very good horses entered for this race. The colt race will also be held on this day and promises to be the best race of the fair. There are a number of fine colts, (all owned in this county) now being fitted for this race and much rivalry is manifested by their owners. On Friday will occur the free-for-all trot and the farmers race, also the gentlemen's bicycle race, in which several speedy bicyclists are entered. A purse of $5 is also offered for the most graceful lady bicyclist.

Floral hall will contain many new attractions, and as a whole the prospects for a successful fair are very bright. It is to be hoped that every resident of the county will attend and to the success.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

By Local W. C. T. U.

It is impossible for those who are not in pursuing the ways of sin to conceive how many agencies satan is employing to corrupt the minds and morals of our young people. It must have been a shocking revelation to the parents of children attending grammar school No. 78, in New York City, when they discovered that the keeper of a candy shop just opposite the school house, had been selling what is known as whiskey drops to their children or several months. A whiskey drop is a fine confection coated with chocolate and contains half a thimbleful of the strongest liquor. Nothing could be devised which is better calculated to awaken an appetite or drink. It appears that for many weeks parents had noticed that their children were drowsy without cause. Eachers reported that during school hours they often fell asleep over their studies. This condition of affairs caused investigation, which led to the arrest of Abraham Goldman, proprietor of the candy store referred to. At last accounts Goldman was locked up on charge of violating the Excise Law. His punishment at best will be but normal and infinitely out of proportion to the awful work he has been doing.

God give us men! A time like this demands Great hearts! strong minds; true faith and willing hands.

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor, men who will not lie;
For while the rabble, with their thumb worn creeds

Their large pretensions and their little deeds;
Wrangle in selfish strife—lo! Freedom weeps.

Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps.

HOLMES,

The Chief Burgess of Milesburg, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of house keeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. Dr. G. S. Darling

ISAAC S. MINTHORN

Is the Candidate for State Senator from the 28th District.

The democratic senatorial convention for the 28th district was held at the court house in this city last Tuesday, and Hon. Isaac S. Minthorn, of Oscoda, was unanimously nominated. Mr. Minthorn is one of the most highly respected residents of Iosco county. Although a candidate for the state legislature four years ago, he has never been an office seeker. Now, as four years ago, he accepts the nomination only at the earnest solicitation of his friends. He has ever been an earnest worker in the ranks for the success of the great principals of democracy and has ever been ready to sacrifice personal interests for the success of what he believes to be right. He is an earnest student of the living issues of the day, and without doubt, one of the best posted and most able men in this section of the state. If elected to the upper house of the legislature he would prove a tower of strength in the enactment of laws of interest to farmers and laboring men of the district and state. He is a man of sterling qualities, and all who know him respect and admire him. If the voters of the 28th district know what is to their best interests they will cast their votes for Isaac S. Minthorn for State Senator.

The following senatorial committee was elected for the ensuing two years: Chairman, L. J. Patterson, Tawas City; Secretary G. S. Stout, Lake City. One member from each county as follows: Alcona, G. W. LaChappelle, Harrisville; Crawford, I. H. Richardson, Roscommon; Clare, A. R. Canfield, Clare; Gladwin, J. E. Spencer, Gladwin; Iosco, Fred R. Oullette, East Tawas; Missaukee, F. O. Gaffney, Lake City; Ogemaw, James Campbell, Campbell Corners; Oscoda, S. Z. Durkee, Mio; Roscommon, Eugene Kiely, Roscommon.

What 20 Cents Will do.

By sending the above amount to The Detroit Free Press, Detroit Mich., they will send you The Twice-a-week Detroit Free Press, from date of receipt of your order until January 1, 1899. This special reduced rate is given to introduce the paper to new readers. The Twice-a-Week Free Press is a clean up-to-date family newspaper, and everyone should take advantage of this special offer. The greatest value ever offered for 20 cents. Send in your order at once.

An Important Work.

The Detroit Evening News, with the characteristic enterprise of that paper, is preparing a very elaborate historical and biographical review of the state of Michigan, to be entitled, "Men of Progress of Michigan."

It is their purpose to make this work authentic and complete. It will include portraits and sketches of such citizens as have aided and are aiding in the growth and development of the state. Newspaper men, and those familiar with our state affairs, have long felt the want of a work of this character, as it has been practically impossible heretofore to obtain such information regarding prominent Michigan men outside of Detroit as this book will cover.

The state is fortunate that The Evening News has seen fit to take this work upon itself, and is thus assured of its high quality.

Dated at Tawas City, Mich., Sept. 19, 1898.
M. MURPHY, Secretary. L. J. PATTERSON, Chairman.

THE Republican press during the past week contained many articles predicting the resignation from the army at an early date of Col. Wm. J. Bryan. They should possess their souls in peace. Colonel Bryan will not ask to have his regiment mustered out of the service, neither will he resign his command until a treaty of peace between the United States and Spain has been ratified. Colonel Bryan is a patriot and entered the army for active service and will remain until the armies of Spain have evacuated Cuba and Porto Rico, after which he will not be expected to remain in the service for the purpose of doing police duty for President McKinley.—Silver Knight-Watchman.

THE long delayed letters on Silver in Mexico, penned by Perry F. Powers, of Cadillac, who went to the President Diaz's domain at the expense of the Michigan Republican Press Association, are a disappointment all around. In presenting the same the republicans have been straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel. Mr. Powers, so far, has been dealing in glittering generalities—he steers clear of the main point, and that is the purchasing power of silver, and tells us, as we already know, that the mints of Mexico coin free all silver brought to them, but in the same breath hits his party a heavy blow by adding that there is no rush to that market of the white metal—silver producing countries do not dump their silver into Mexico! Mr. Powers's letters, though dry, are quite polished, but do not get at the kernel of the nut. If he will give a comparative statement of the purchasing power of silver in Mexico as compared with silver in the United States, he will place the question in such a shape that the common, every-day man or woman can grasp the situation, and follow the discussion with profit. But we venture the assertion Bro. Powers will not adopt that mode of warfare, for the reason that leaving out the goods of high price, made so by the protective tariff, the general prices in Mexican silver, for Mexican goods, compare very favorably with prices in American silver for American goods, as before shown the readers of this paper. Mr. Powers could make his lectures far more interesting and intelligent if he would show the relative purchasing power of silver in domestic products.—Big Rapids Herald.

Free Text Books.

We notice that in nearly every county in the lower peninsula there has been a struggle over the question of free text books in the public schools. In a majority of cases the decision has been against the proposition. Just why the people who favor free schools, free heat to warm them, free teachers, free desks, blackboards, globes, maps and other paraphernalia of the schoolroom, should vote against free text books, is something we cannot understand. Certainly they are a necessity, just as the other things mentioned are—even more so—in the acquirement of an education, and the proposition to furnish them free to schools stands on precisely the same ground as free schools themselves. It must be remembered in considering this question that free schools are maintained not as a charity to the scholars, but as an absolute necessity for the maintenance and security of our system of government. That system is based upon the intelligence of its citizens, and their ability to understand and perform the duties which devolve upon them as citizens. For its own protection, therefore, the government of the United States must see to it that those who control its destinies—the people—are educated sufficiently to deal with public questions which come up for solution in an intelligent manner. Therefore, education is made the corner stone of a republican system of government. It must be placed within the reach of every child, that it may be competent to perform the duties of citizenship. A free school becomes useless to a child that does not have the means of acquiring the knowledge which it is maintained to furnish. Books are as necessary as the school building or the teacher. The question of cost should cut no figure in deciding such a proposition. If it does, then the teacher or the school house may be eliminated also on the ground that they cost too much. Every child is entitled to an opportunity to acquire a common school education, and if the lack of proper text books nullifies this right, then the community that refuses to supply them is doing both an unwise and an unpatriotic act when it votes not to furnish them. This is the way the matter strikes us after giving it full consideration, although we know it is not the popular view at present. But we can remember when free schools were not very popular, either.—Michigan Farmer.

Wedding at Whittemore.

Wednesday evening, the 21st, Miss Violet May Smith, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wismer, so prominently known through their business relations in Whittemore, was united in marriage with Mr. Burr R. Hall, a young man of a family honorably known by all for many years. The service was conducted by Rev. A. Waterbury, in the Forester Hall, in the presence of a large gathering of citizens and visiting friends, who came in response to the three hundred invitations given out.

Numerous and varied presents to the happy couple came by those who attended, and to all the marriage feast was spread upon a table which could accommodate forty guests at a sitting.

Mr. George L. Wakeman and Miss Ethel Luella Pringle were companions of the bride and groom, but could by no means do the congratulations for the whole company, for nearly all "stood" with the couple who so conspicuously stepped within the bonds of matrimony. The good wishes of all the people accompany their entrance into the married state.

"I think DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the finest preparation on the market for piles." So writes John C. Dunn, of Wheeling, W. Va. Try it and you will think the same. It also cures eczema and all skin diseases. Dr. G. S. Darling.

The state board of health has just issued an elaborate "Directory of Michigan Health Resort." The book contains 142 pages, is printed on fine paper profusely illustrated with excellent half tone cuts. It is really a work of art. The work will be distributed among sanitarians and prominent public-health men throughout the United States. It contains a fine article on the advantages of Tawas City as a desirable health resort. A limited number of copies of the work can be secured by the citizens of Michigan by sending six cents in stamps to the secretary of the state board of health at Lansing.

Help the Cause.

There has never been a political campaign that equalled in importance that of the one to be fought this fall. The republican party, backed by the money power of this country and Europe, is alert and aggressive. Flushed with the victory of two years ago, it will seek by every means in its power to maintain its supremacy.

Democrats must be up and doing. They must wage an unceasing war upon their enemies. In no better and effective way can this be done than by the circulation of good, sound democratic newspapers. The publisher of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, the great national democratic weekly, will send to every new subscriber for three months a copy of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH for ten cents. If you are not already taking the great political weekly, send in ten cents at once and receive the paper during the coming campaign. You should not only do this yourself, but you should induce all your friends to join with you. By a little effort you can easily raise a club of ten or twenty subscribers.

GEORGE KOENIG

The well known German grocer has just received a large stock of new goods, which he cordially invites you to call and inspect. You will find his store crowded with one of the finest and best lines of Staple and Fancy Groceries, Glass Ware, Granite Ware, Bazaar Goods, Etc., ever exhibited in the Tawas.

He wants your trade and will treat you right in order to get it. You will find his prices the lowest that good goods can be purchased for.

Give him a call and be convinced that these statements are facts.

GEORGE KOENIG,

Tawas City, Michigan.

PINGREE'S RUINOUS RULE.

Its Effect Upon the City of Detroit, Reckless Extravagance Which is Only Exceeded by HIS STATE ADMINISTRATION.

Figures for Farmers and Taxpayers to Read and Reflect Upon—Taken from the Official Records of the City of Detroit—An Explanation of Where Mr. Pingree Gets the Money With Which to Carry on this Campaign.

If the people of Michigan had known the facts concerning the result of Pingree's rule in the city of Detroit they would never have invited a similar career of reckless extravagance in state affairs by electing him governor. They believed him to be honest and incorruptible, a friend of the people and an enemy of extortion and fraud. They are beginning to realize that the wastefulness and misappropriation of funds which characterizes the Pingree administration means a large increase of taxation, and threatens the prosperity of the entire state. Under the circumstances the following facts from the official record of the city of Detroit will be of importance to the voters of the entire state.

DOUBLING UP TAXATION.

When Hazen S. Pingree began his career in Detroit in 1890 the tax levy for the previous year was $2,236,463.54. When he laid down the scepter in 1897 it was $3,640,878.19, an increase of $1,404,414.65, nearly double the previous amount. See controller's report, 1897-98, page 711.

(The figures here given in comparisons are from the controller's report for 1888-9 and the controller's report for 1897-8. Mr. Pingree was first elected in 1889, and hung onto the mayoralty until March 1897, when the Supreme Court decided that one man could not hold the two chief offices of the state.)

People have sometimes wondered how Mr. Pingree has been able to keep up political campaign work year in and year out, when it was understood that the corporations have not been backing him. The exposures in the State House, showing that the postage on his campaign documents and the money for his political telegrams was taken from the public treasury, have partly answered this question, and an examination of the salary lists during his administration in both city and state will shed further light upon it. Instead of employing clerks at his own expense to run his campaign bureau, and paying his "pluggers" out of his own pocket, he has put them on the salary list and created useless offices in payment for political services.

SWELLING THE SALARY LIST.

The expenses of the mayor's office in Detroit had previously been $2,700. Under him they rose to $6,214 in 1896, besides printing, special police officer, extra clerks, telegraph bills, etc., which brought the total annual expense of the mayor's office up to more than $20,000. (See controller's report, 1896-97; general fund and report, 1897-98, page 595.)

The salaries in the receiver of taxes office prior to the Pingree administration amounted annually to $15,690. Under his rule they rose to $26,412. See controller's report, 1888-89, and controller's report, 1897-98, page 596.)

Prior to Pingree the total legal department consisted of a city counselor, at $2,000; the city attorney, at $2,500, and an assistant city attorney, at $2,000, a total of $6,500. Mayor Pingree changed all this to a corporation counsel, at $5,000; chief assistant, at $3,000; assistant, $2,500; three lesser assistants, at $1,800 each, $5,400; one chief clerk, $1,200; one clerk $1,000; messenger, $300, a total of $18,400. (See controller's report for 1897-8, page 596.)

Even this enormous increase is only a small portion of the additional burdens imposed upon the taxpayers in his one department, for it does not include special counsel, who were invariably hired for the innumerable suits in which Mr. Pingree involved the city. In one suit alone Mr. C. A. Kent was paid $20,500 for an opinion which proved to be contrary to the ruling of the United States courts, and Mr. Benton Hanchett was paid $15,300 more for doing his best to bolster up this unfortunate opinion. The loss to the taxpayers of Detroit by absolutely useless litigation provoked by Mayor Pingree was enormous, some competent judges placing it at nearly, if not fully, one million dollars.

ONE DEPARTMENT AS A SAMPLE.

As an illustration of the manner in which Mr. Pingree makes other people pay his personal obligations, take the health department of Detroit. Before Pingree was mayor the department was conducted by only three paid officials, but when Mayor Pingree's oard, appointed by him and with himself as an ex-officio member, was in control, the pay roll contained an average of eighty names, and at one time reached a grand total of ninety-two!

Besides this outrageous increase in the number of officials, the other expenses of the board were enormously increased, and the taxpayers cannot yet tell the full amount that this one branch of the Pingree machine cost them, some of the claims being still pending.

PROOF THAT PINGREE'S ADMINISTRATION WAS A DIRTY ONE.
Before Mr. Pingree became mayor the janitor work at the city hall was done at a cost of $2,755.50; under Pingree it rose to $6,688. (See controller's report, 1897-9, page 598.)

This is more than is paid for the janitor work in the three largest buildings in Detroit, and the expenditure of this large sum to clean up after Mr. Pingree and his appointees seems to prove conclusively that his was not a clean administration.

The general road fund was $186,000 the year before the advent of Mayor Pingree. For his last year it was $273,976. (See controller's report, 1897-8, page 607.) This fund and others for sewers and repairs are the ones most used to control votes. The taxpayers paid only $85,000 for sewers before the Pingree captured the city, while they cost $169,352 the last year of Pingree's rule. (See controller's report, 1897-8, page 610.)

FAT PICKING FOR BOODLERS AND HEDDLERS.

But it is in the matter of repaving streets that the political boss is enabled to get in his most efficient work. Large gangs of men are hired for this work, just prior to election, and their manipulation was reduced to a science during the Pingree regime. The year prior to Mr. Pingree's first election the annual expenditure for this work was $82,261. The last year of Pingree's administration the people paid for repaving and "reform" the sum of $814,121 (See controller's report for 1897-8, page 609.)

MORTGAGE THE PEOPLE TO THE MONEY LOANERS.

These are only samples of the enormous increase of expenses in all departments of the city government. Although the taxation was nearly doubled, the amounts wrung from the people by the tax collectors were not sufficient to meet the requirements of the "Pingree Push," and Mayor Pingree mortgaged all of his fellow-citizens to the money loaners of the east.

When he was elected mayor the city was practically free of debt, though $640,024.45 was carried as such in 1888. The total bonds outstanding, according to controller's report, 1897-98, page 594, amount to $4,830,000, on which he computes the annual interest for current year at $194,350. No matter how taxes may be assessed, every dollar of this enormous tribute is paid by the sweat of labor. Every year this immense sum is drawn from the savings of the people of Detroit and sent to swell the hoards of the money lenders of the east, whom Mr. Pingree pretends to oppose.

A FALSE PRETENCE EXPOSED.

When confronted with these facts, Mr. Pingree's defenders usually say that the increased amount of debt and taxation represents municipal improvements, for which the money has been well spent.

If this were true the value of all the property in Detroit would be increased by these improvements. Is such the case?

On the contrary, it is a notorious fact that the value of property has enormously decreased, several of the best and newest blocks having been sold for less than one-third their cost.

The money squeezed out of the taxpayers and borrowed by mortgaging every poor man's home was so recklessly misappropriated that the city derived no benefits in comparison to the additional burdens heaped upon the people. In consequence, property ceased to be remunerative and in spite of its unequalled natural advantages Detroit property is something that nobody wants.

It was a sad thing for the people of Detroit that it took them several years to realize the final result of Pingree's ruinous rule. It will be well for the people of Michigan if they profit by the experience of Detroit before it is too late.
