AROUND ABOUT US.

Wilber Maccabees will build a new hall this spring.

Judge Nelson Sharpe, of West Branch, has been re-nominated for judge of the 34th circuit, and will have no opposition.

It is reported that the big heading factory at Rose City will soon be in operation again, providing satisfactory arrangements as to taxation can be made.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Dr. G. S. Darling.

Bay City hotelmen have a poor opinion of legislative junkets. They were told to prepare dinner and supper for the party of 30. They did so and still have it on hand, as the junketers never showed up.

If you have a cough, throat irritation, weak lungs, pain in the chest, difficult breathing, croup or hoarseness, let us suggest One Minute Cough Cure. Always reliable and safe. Dr. G. S. Darling.

The Maccabees at Hale Lake are preparing to build a fine new hall this spring. They have their lot purchased and will commence work on building soon. They gave a dance last Friday night at which they cleared over $11.60.

J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., conductor on electric street car line, writes that his little daughter was very low with croup, and her life saved after all physicians had failed, only by using One Minute Cough Cure. Dr. G. S. Darling.

The Union ticket in Plainfield was nominated Monday night as follows: Supervisor, Leander Gardner; clerk, John J. Love; treasurer, S. B. Yawger; highway commissioner, Charles D. Love; board of review, Frank Buck; school inspector, Seth McKeen.

Not one child dies where ten formerly died from croup. People have learned the value of One Minute Cough Cure and use it for severe lung and throat troubles. It immediately stops coughing. It never fails. Dr. G. S. Darling.

The following is a partial list of the nomination made at the republican caucus in Tawas township Tuesday: Supervisor, Norman Murchinson; clerk, Malcom McLeod; treasurer, W. E. Laidlaw; justice, F. E. Hayes; highway commissioner, Herman Fusheldt; board of review, John Preston; school inspector, Lafayette Colby.

A fire in Esserville Wednesday morning totally destroyed Frank Trudell's saloon and the residence of S. A. Duplanty. The loss on the saloon and contents is $3,000 with insurance of $1,900. The loss on Duplanty's house and contents is $2,000, with insurance of $1,100.

Saginaw sportsmen will stock the forests in the vicinity of that city with Mongolian pheasants. Next month they will set loose thirty pairs of the birds, and in three years these are expected to increase to at least 30,000 or 40,000. The birds will be of much benefit to farmers, as they are very industrious in destroying bugs and insects that eat grain and fruit.

It is expected that the sub-contracts for the West Bay City sugar factory will be let by the Baltimore contractors Friday or Saturday of this week. The blue prints of the plans for the big plant have been received by the local office.—News.

For frost bites, burns, indolent sores, eczema, skin disease, and especially Piles, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stands first and best. Look out for dishonest people who try to immitate and counterfeit it. It's their enorsement of a good article. Worthless goods are not imitated. Get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Dr. G. S. Darling.

The Peoples' caucus in Tawas township made the following nominations last Monday: Supervisor, Geo. C. Anschuetz; clerk, Malcom McLeod; treasurer, Richard Tompkins; justice, Frank Wood; highway commissioner, Moses Kehoe; school inspector, Chas. W. Force; member board of review, Ruben Osborne; drain commissioner, Daniel Krumm.

J. D. Hawks, president and general manager of the Detroit & Mackinac railway, was a visitor to Bay City yesterday. He said his company was preparing to make Bay City a proposition with regard to the erection of a new depot. He wants Bay City to live up to its promise to give the Detroit & Mackinac the east half of Washington park, and $25,000 in cash. It is likely that the Detroit & Mackinac will unite with the Flint & Pere Marquette company in the erection of a passenger station on Jefferson street, across Fourth avenue.—West Bay City News.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, lagrippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitts and lung troubles are to be guarded against, noting "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is one infallible remedy for lung throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you. Dr. G. S. Darling.

Who Did It?

A Lansing dispatch to the Detroit Tribune of yesterday contains the following:

H. B. 453—Gillam, providing for one voting precinct in Tawas City, instead of three. Passed the senate and gone to the governor.

What are the provisions of this bill? What will be its effects? Who interested themselves in getting it passed? When does it take effect? and many other interesting questions will now be asked.

Democratic Caucuses.

Notice is hereby given that the democratic electors of the various wards of Tawas City will meet in caucus at the following named places, on Monday evening, March 27, 1899, at 7 o'clock, standard time, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the various ward officers and electing five delegates from each ward to attend the city convention:

FIRST WARD—Prescott's old store building
SECOND WARD—Store building formerly occupied by Mrs. Hurbart.
THIRD WARD—City hall.

By order of WARD COMMITTEES

City Convention.

Notice is hereby given that a Democratic City Convention for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the various city officials will be held at the city hall, Monday evening, March 27, 1899, at 8 o'clock, and that each ward will be entitled to five delegates.

E. D. SCHERMERHORN,
Sec'y. City Committee.

THE Oregon has arrived at Manila. It should have a quieting effect on the situation there.

THE Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Detroit July 5-10, bids fair to be a great success, and at least 60,000 people are expected.

MR. MCKINLEY is one of those favored sons of fortune. Mr. Reed consented to recognize him Monday without first ascertaining his intentions.—Tribune.

OF the eighty-three school commissioners in Michigan, there are: One minister, one editor, a couple of lawyers, a few farmers and sixty-nine school teachers.

THE state of Michigan is now paying for too much unnecessary and useless printing, and the establishment of a state printing office poor piece of economy.

IF the Cuban army had turned out in such force to fight the Spaniards as it did to get a draw from Uncle Sam's treasury on the recent army pay day, it would have licked their old enemy on short notice.—Portland Observer.

THE anti-Pingree senators have a new scheme to beat the old man. They threaten to keep the legislature in continuous session for two years to prevent Pingree from making recess appointments of the men rejected by the senate for railroad assessors.

THE bill now pending in the legislature for a reorganization of the state militia provides for three regiments and one extra battalion, giving the same number of men that were in the old organization. The new regiment will be composed of 1,200 men, instead of 1,000.

IF the state legislature is sincerely in favor of reducing the state expenses along the line of printing, it should shut off several thousand copies of local acts and useless reports, which are now annually shipped to the various counties, and left to lay around the court house, utterly useless.

IN one thing all the army witnesses before the court of inquiry—i. e., those who have eaten it—agree. That is that the so-called canned roast beef injected by Egan into the regular rations was utterly unfit for use in the tropics, or anywhere else as a steady diet.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

ONE of the most death-dealing catastrophes that has occurred in this country in many a day, took place in New York last Friday, when the great Windsor hotel was burned down, and it is estimated that from fifty to seventy-five lives were lost, besides a large number being injured. The fire took place in the afternoon, when the streets were crowded, the St. Patrick's day parade at the time marching by the structure, and the scene was turned into one of wild tumult. Something like twenty-five or thirty people are known to be dead while over forty are still missing,

FOR the past two years the State Pioneer society has been badly handicapped because Gov. Pingree vetoed its regular appropriation bill two years ago. The senate has unanimously passed a bill appropriating $2,500 for the years 1899 and 1900, and providing for reprinting volumes 1 and 2 of the society's reports.

THERE seems to be an impression among certain ones that if the proposition to adopt the county road system in this county carries it includes the bonding of the county. This is a mistake. There is no proposition for bonds. The money to build roads under this system will come from the regular highway tax.

BOTH houses have passed the bill providing for the admission of veterans of the Spanish-American war to the soldiers' home. In order to be eligible to admission the person must either have resided in Michigan for one year previous to the taking effect of the act, have served in a Michigan regiment, or have been accredited to this state.

SUPT. HAMMOND, of the state public schools, under the head of "City School Organization," said business men are needed on the school boards, and not politicians. He would make the superintendent of a city's schools responsible for the success or failure of the educational work and would give him entire management. He declares that, under the present system, the public school is nothing but a political football.

BY one swift move of the tobacco trust there are 250 of Detroit's working people thrown out of employment. Let any goodhearted citizen start a factory for the purpose of giving these same people like work and he would be financially crushed for his philanthropic effort. Trusts are more rapidly approaching absolutism in the industrial field than ever before, yet equal rights to all is a cardinal principle in our scheme of government.—Free Press. Is it possible that the Free Press is regretting the stand it took in '96, when it lent its influence to place the party in power which has aid the trusts in every way possible?

ACCORDING to war department officials, Gen. Gomez will not receive a dollar of the $3,000,000 about to be distributed, entirely on his say so, among Cuban soldiers, by this government. This statement has caused everybody to wish to know where Gomez got his money to pay for his present very extravagant mode of living, in Havana. It is known that previous to his beginning the negotiations with R. P. Porter, who acted as Mr. McKinley's personal representative, which resulted in the agreement to pay $3,000,000 for the disbandment of the Cuban army, Gomez had no money, and that ever since then he has apparently had plenty. Congress did not appropriate a cent to pay Cuban soldiers, but there was an item added to the Sundry Civil Bill by the last congress, appropriating $3,000,000 as an emergency fund, to be expended at the discretion of the President. That is the money that will be used, but if the claim Gomez has got none of it and will get none of it, be true, the source from which Gomez extracted the wealth to pay his present enormous expenses is left a mystery.

FARMERS are farming more intelligently than ever before. They understand better how to prepare their fields for planting, better how to cultivate for the best results, and better how to sell their crops. The farmer is keeping pace with the manufacturer in this respect, and it will not be long that he will accept what is offered for his products without question. He understands the situation too well to let those who buy from him have all the say in marketing his products, and this increased intelligence and business shrewdness will work to his benefit to such an extent that the great exodus from the farms to the city will cease and the tide of population flow the other way. It is no longer a stigma to be called a farmer, and the boy who lives on the farm is now as well thought of as the one who studies for a profession and lives in a city. White hands and untanned cheeks are no longer looked upon as the certain badges of gentility, and the man who labors with his hand and supplements that labor by using his brain to make it more effective occupies as high a place in the affections of the public as any one.

Liquor Legislation.

Lansing, March 21.—The house committee on liquor traffic held an important meeting this morning. Three bills were acted on. Humphrey's local option bill, which provides that votes on local option shall be taken at general and not special elections, and that druggists must report all sales of liquor to the prosecuting attorney of the county, and Nevin's bill making the druggist report feature apply to all counties as well as local option counties, were ordered reported out favorably by a unanimous vote. Chamberlain's bill to increase the liquor tax on certain lines was killed by an unanimous vote. The bill contemplated increasing brewers from $65 to $1,000; wholesale from $800 to $1,800. The killing of the last mentioned bill, about which, for a wonder, there is no taint of bribery, was solely the work of Representative L. J. Burch of Wayne.

 A shrewd old lady cautioned her married daughter against worrying her husband too much, and concluded by saying: "My child, a man is like an egg. Kept in hot water a little while, he may boil soft; keep him there too long, and he hardens."
 "Girls, never marry a man who does not patronize a paper, for it is not only a strong evidence of want of intelligence, but he will prove too stingy to provide for his family, educate his children, or encourage institutions of learning in his community," is the wholesale advice given by one of our exchanges.
 The coming bonnet is said to be a dandy. It will have a cow-catcher in front, a tail board behind, a flower garden on top with a bunch of grass on one side and a bird carcass on the other. The whole will be elaborately banded together with crushed ribbon and topped off with a very loud millinery bill. Easter comes early in the season, so get ready to take your medicine, you fellows who have to whack up.—Ex
 In an ordinary column there are about 15,000 pieces of type. An average Michigan paper sets about 100,000 pieces, to be picked up, right about face and stood right side up with care. These in turn must be replaced in the case, which necessitates the handling of 200,000 pieces of type each issue. Now, if, in the first place, the editor gets the correct information, and if he writes it properly, and if the compositor sets it up right, and if the galley boy knows enough to take decent proof, and if the copy holder is sober, and if the proof reader marks the errors, and if the printer corrects them, and if the make-up gets them in the right place, and if the pressman isn't careless, and if the press doesn't smash any letters—why 'tis easily seen how unnecessary are typographical errors, and how easy it is to run a newspaper.
 A small boy was compeled by his teacher to write an essay on the mouth, says an exchange, and this is what he wrote: "The mouth is the front door to the face; it is the aperture to the cold storage of your anatomy. The mouth is the hotbed for toothache and the bunghole of oratory. The mouth is a crimson aisle to the liver: it is the foundation of patriotism and the tool chest for pie. Without the mout the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth and go down to an unknown grave. It is the grocer's friend, the orators' pride and the dentist's hope. It is the temptation lunch counter, when attached to a maiden, and tobacco's friend when to a man. It puts some men on the rostrum and some in jail. It is the home of that unruly member, the tongue. Without it married life would be a summer dream and a dude would lose half his attractions.

AGRICULTURE.

Pick-Ups.

Thought must be given to feeding land as well as live stock.

The males of all breeding animals should be given plenty of exercise.

Dent corn is fed to remove the dents in the surfaces of domestic animals.

The lazy mind is quite as undesirable or unfortunate as the lazy body.

The best way to exterminate the weed is to carefully sow only clean seed.

To make good oat hay cut when the lower portion of the stalk and leaves begins to turn yellow.

Test your seed corn now. Don't delay this any longer. If it does not grow readily and vigorously get seed that is all right.

Try a little manure on the orchard you have been neglecting so long. If you use barn yard manure, put a half bushel of muriate of potash with every load.—Ex.

If you will pasture your wheat and rye fields the coming fall we would advise that you do not sow clover seed on these fields this spring. It would be a waste of seed and labor.

Cowpeas are going to do much more for the farmer in the way of building up his land than crimson clover in the Ohio valley. Every tiller of the soil should experiment some way with cowpeas the coming season.—Guide.

If you can possibly help it don't buy any farm machinery this spring to be paid for when the crop is harvested. Crops are too uncertain to take such risks on. Get along with what you've got if you possibly can until the crop is made.

It's the same old complaint, "never saw the roads so bad," and away from the pikes and gravel roads it is impossible for farmers to get their produce to market. It's a considerable tax to build roads, it is true, but it's a heavier tax to do without them.—Guide.

The farmer that keeps up the fertility of his soil is always planning how he can best return to the land in the shape of manures or fertilizers the plant food that his crop has appropriated. And the man who doesn't maintain the fertility of the farm, will soon have a farm that won't maintain him.

When animals are being prepared for human food the raising of them upon the manure pile is not to be commended. When swine are kept busy working over the manure heap the exercise does them good and makes them better breeders, but they do much more good to the manure than to themselves.

It costs the farmer a very little more to keep his stock pure than to keep pure-bred mares and grow good grades. The only extra cost in the start is to get females. When stock is pure an extra price can always be secured for the best specimens of the flock or herd and the extra price is what we should all strive for.

Wood ashes are not properly appreciated on the farm as they should be, otherwise farmers would be more careful in saving them up for the crops that need them most. Where wood is burned in the house the output of ashes during the year should be several hundred pounds, and pound for pound they are worth as much as your oats. Then why don't you take the same care of them that you do your oats!

One of the most important things on the farm is a good strong team. A man can't do half his work with a poor team. Where there is anything like regular work for a team, and at least one team can be kept busy on most farms, mules are best. A team of blocky mules, fifteen and a half hands high, make the best farm team for all work, we have ever used.—Farmers Guide.

Don't plow your land too wet. There will be a tendency to hurry in spring seeding and planting, and the breaking of the land takes most time and is rushed along thinking that it won't make much difference if the land is a little wet. It will do to plow any time in winter when the ground is pulverized by freezing but we are not likely now to have any freezing weather, and the plow should not be run only when the land turns up loose, light and mellow.—Ex.

Hiring Farm Help.

The farmer that has to help should secure the very best that is to be had. There is a growing tendency among farmers to hire men who can board themselves, in many instances tenement houses being provided for these married men to live in. Those who have tried this plan speak very highly of it, as married men as a rule are more reliable than single ones who can pack their grip any minute they feel insulted and walk away, and then it is a great relief to the farmer's wife to have no one to cook and do for excepting her own family. It is a good plan to arrange to pay laborers at the end of every week, as there is never any grumbling over time put in, and the man that depends upon his days' labor to provide sustenance for his family likes to have the cash at the end of every week to pay for such supplies as he must have.—Ex.

Growing Calves With Little Milk.

There are so many uses for the skim milk on every farm that we do not wonder if it is often begrudged to the calf, which will take all the skim milk that its dam gives, and if it have no other feed will only be moderately thrifty. The truth is that while some milk seems to be necessary to the calf's well being, it can be made to grow with very little, provided its other food is properly proportioned. Milk alone, says American Cultivator, is very hard to digest especially if all the cream is out of it. A tea made by boiling clover hay of the second growth until most of its nutrition is soaked out of it, mixed with one-third its bulk of skim milk and thickened by boiling a small handful of oatmeal, will be eaten with greater relish than then skim milk alone, and thus leaves some of the skim milk for pigs and poultry, either of which will make better use of it than the calf, so far as profit is concerned. If it is desired to make the calf's coat shine, put a teaspoonful of linseed meal in each mess of porridge of clover tea. This will also help to keep the bowels in the right condition, which is very important, as on good digestion the whole after value of the animal depends. The only danger with such feed for calves that are to be bred for cows is that they will become too fat. If this occurs in calfhood, the thick neck and heavy head will show plainly that the animal is spoiled for a milker.

All that should be expected of a calf up to its first year, is that it be kept thrifty growing. By this time, if a heifer, it will come in heat, and should be bred as early as possible, so as to develop the mammary glands early, and thus increase the tendency to put most of the nutriment digested into the milk pail, instead of fat on other parts of the body. This is better done on a diet in part composed of clover tea, which has the kind of nutrition required to make growth, than it has when the calf is fed mainly with skim milk and other feed is given to supplement its deficiencies. The calf should also be taught to eat dry clover hay as early as possible, and after it is a few months old, oatmeal sprinkled on moistened cut hay should be submitted for the liquid or semi-liquid porridge. If succulent food is required in the calf's first winter it had much better be given in the form of roots or ensilage.
