I take this opportunity to announce to my patrons that I have removed my store from the building next to VanWey's hotel to the store building formerly occupied by M. E. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. THEY ARE GOOD PILLS. Dr. G. S. A Letter from Fred Wilkins. Now in Cebu.

CEBU, MARCH 31, 1899.

DEAR MOTHER:—I suppose you will be wondering what has become of me. This is the first chance I have had to write and so could not let you know sooner. We are on an island about 400 miles south of Manila, called Cebu. It is not nearly as large a place as Manila, nor quite as nice a place. There are very few white people here, not more than 200 in all. We have been here only one month, but we are good and sick of it already. I tell you a fellow gets sick of seeing nothing but black faces. Everything seems to be quiet and peaceful here just now. There are two war ships here, the Boston and Petrel, and we have a force of 320 men, while the insurgents have about 20,000 men. Pretty big odds if there is any trouble. I think we are perfectly safe for a while yet at least, out the trouble is you cannot tell anything about the suckers, they are liable to come in any night.

My chances for getting out of the service seems to be getting smaller every day. This trouble with the natives is liable to last two or three years and as long as it lasts there is not much chance of one getting out. We are in pretty bad shape for clothes just now. When we left Manila we only took one suit with us and one change of under-clothing, and if we have to stay here three or four months we will be pretty ragged and dirty.

They were having quite a hot time of it in Manila when we left there. I was only on the firing line twice and under fire once. I have never had a chance to kill a nigger yet and it does not look as if I would get one, as they run away as soon as a fight starts. They seem to be afraid some of us will get hurt, but I think our commanding officer, Major Goodall has what they call "cold feet," or in plain English, he is a little afraid of bullets. If the niggers were to attack us here we will have a chance to see what kind of stuff he is made of.

There is very little to tell of here for we cannot get out to see anything except once in about eight days and then we cannot go outside the city limits and there is nothing to see but niggers and nigger sharks. Once in a while you see a pretty good looking native girl, but they are very rare, the most of them are dirty looking and they all go bare-foot. You can walk along the streets here and see three or four hipers setting on the corners begging for pennies. The mail has just come in and I received a letter from Eli Grise and Will Bunker. They seem to be very sick of soldering for Uncle Sam. They tell me there is about six inches of snow down where they are and they want to know if we have any here. It makes me laugh to think of snow here, why I am sweating like fun just from writing this letter, and I am wearing just as few clothes as the law allows. You can sleep the coldest nights without any covers over you, in fact all the bed and bed-clothes we have is a blanket and the floor, and we are lucky to get that instead of the bare ground.

Those two letters are the first ones I have received since I came here. I was pretty much ticked to receive them. Well I have written all I can think of this time, probably the next time I write I can tell of a "scrap" here. I see by the papers that they have a map of the positions of all of the regiments. If you get one of them you can find the exact position of the 23d, and now I will close for this time as I will have to answer the other letters. With love to all enquiring friends,

I remain your son,
FRED WILKINS,

Death of Mrs. Margaret Bannan.

After a short illness, Mrs. Margaret Wray Bannan, wife of our esteemed citizen John Bannan, died at the family residence in this city, on Thursday evening, May 11. The ailment was gastritis and heart failure.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Bannan was a devoted member.

The deceased was born in Ontario, Nov. 12, 1851, and was married to Mr. Bannan in 1875, at Galt, Canada. One year later they came to Michigan, and 13 years ago to Tawas City. The family took up their residence in this city eighteen months ago, the daughter, Miss Mabel Bannan, having been engaged as a teacher in our city schools.

Besides the husband, and the daughter Miss Mabel, a son, Ray, is left to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and a loving mother. One child, a little girl, died in Tawas City a few years ago, and the remains of Mrs. Bannan was buried at the side of this little one in the Tawas City cemetery.

The sorrowing family have the sympathies of many friends.—Gazette.

Death of Mrs. J. H. Larkin.

Mrs. James H. Larkin, died at her home in East Tawas, Saturday evening, May 13, 1899, after an illness of nearly eighteen months, aged 44 years and 28 days.

Eolah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. VanWey, was born in Ingham county, Michigan April 15, 1855, when two years of age she moved with her parents to Saginaw, and twenty-six years ago came with them to Tawas City. She was married to James H. Larkin December 28, 1881, and for several years has been a resident of East Tawas. The funeral services were held from the East Tawas Baptist church Monday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. Wye, of the Episcopal church. The remains were interred in the Tawas City cemetery. The deceased leaves a large circle of friends besides her sorrowing relatives to mourn her loss.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, desire to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends, for assistance and sympathy extended us during our recent bereavement in the illness and death of our daughter and wife, and to assure them that the kindness shown us is fully appreciated.

THE Reina Mercedes, the only Spanish warship captured at Santiago which has been saved, will start for this country within a few days. It is hoped that she will prove more seaworthy than was the Maria Teresa, and that she will arrive at her destination in safety.

THE disappointment felt in administration circles over the failure of the expected surrender of Aguinaldo to materialize is so acute that it cannot be hidden, and officials who have been so glib for several weeks past, in predicting the speedy finish of Aguinaldo, can not now be coaxed to talk about the probabilities over there at all.

NINE lives were lost by the foundering of the schooner Nelson off Grand Marais in a furious gale Saturday afternoon. Among those lost were the wife and child of the captain. The captain, Andrew Hagney of Toledo, was the only person who reached shore from the ill-fated craft. The Nelson was owned by the Mitchell Transportation Co. of Bay City, and was bound for Lake Linden, laden with coal.

THE American people would be glad to see Russell A. Alger elected to the United States senate if that is the only way to get him of the War Department, but wherein has he shown those qualities of statesmanship that should belong to the man selected for that high office? However, that is about the last question ever asked a candidate for the senate nowadays.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Don't expect everybody to be your friend in this world. There are people who would sooner see you make a flat failure in life than succeed. There are people whom you have put yourself to trouble and expense to serve who would sooner speak evil of you than good; merit is not always appreciated even by one's kith and kin. Remember that in this world, if you have burdens laid upon your shoulders to bear them patiently and in silence. The "approving conscience," at least, will be an ever faithful friend; a monitor we can always afford to heed in sunshine or shadow.

AN earnest protest now goes up from the hundreds and thousands of drummers throughout the country who are being thrown out of employment by the formation of trusts. When a trust is formed all the smaller manufacturing concerns go out of business as a matter of course, and thus the traveling salesman loses his place. But what will their protest amount to. The ins can't say much, and all the kicking the outs can do will not amount to anything. They are simply in the same condition that the operators are when factories have been shut down—their occupations are gone and it's no telling when the evil is to be remedied, if ever.—Farmers Guide.

Lacks the Price.

In an interview Saturday on the senatorial race between McMillan and Alger, Gov. Pingree said:

"A senatorial campaign hasn't got anything to do with politics these days. It's simply an auction sale, and the one who bids highest gets there. I don't know whether Alger will beat McMillan out, because it's simply a matter of who's got the most money to put into the deal."

When it is suggested that the governor himself might enter the race Pingree replied:

"Me enter the race? Why, bless you, I couldn't pay the entrance fee if I sold every dollar's worth of property I have. I don't know how Alger is fixed, but he must know what he is going up against. Once before I asked him to enter the race against McMillan, and he asked me if I knew what that meant. I told him no, and he said it would mean a quarter of a million of dollars. Well, since that time the price of legislative votes has gone up."

Last Friday night some vandals twisted every one of the young maples in front of M. E. Friedman's place on Mathew street, loose. It is time that the officials took some step to stop the wholesale destruction and defacing of property by a lot of contemptible young bums that spend most of their time in this way.

During the severe thunder storm early Wednesday morning the Ottawa Life Saving Station was struck by lightning and badly damaged. Fortunately no one was injured although several persons had narrow escapes. The building was set on fire and Captain Small and his able crew had much difficulty in subduing the flames and saving the building. It is estimated that the damage will reach $500.

The daily paper of last Saturday contained a dispatch announcing that Gov. Pingree had issued a pardon, for William B. White, who was sent from this county to Jackson prison for life, in May 1884. Fifteen years ago this month White, Reynolds and Katterman were convicted of the Shultz murder, the circumstances of which are well known to all most every person in this locality, and it is not necessary to review them at this time. The pardon of White will not receive popular approval in this county.
