Prospecting for Copper or Other Minerals. Other News Items.

About nine years ago an effort was made in our village to secure a flowing well, and while at work three small veins of copper ore was discovered. One at the depth of 80 feet, the second at 90 feet and the third at 104 feet. This mineral has also been discovered at other points in and near the village, and many of our citizens believe it exists here in paying quantities. Through the efforts of John W. Curtis, outside capitalist have been interested and the Whittemore Mining Co., organized, and on Wednesday of last week Mr. McIntosh and an assistant came here with a steam drill and began sinking a test shaft, with view of making a thorough investigation of the mineral deposits hereabouts. If copper, coal, gypsum or any other minerals are located in paying quantities it is the intention of the company to push minning operations.

The company is backed by sufficient capital to develop and carry on the business to a successful termination, and that there is mineral here to develop is firmly believed by all who have investigated. Mr. McIntosh is a man of many years experience in mining and after an examination gives us much encouragement.

George D. Armstrong was in Saginaw this week.

The "Neyer Sweats" have much difficulty in keeping cool these warm days.

Rosco Johnson and wife of Turner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clate Davis.

The Cuban fever is causing much sickness in this locality, and Dr. McIntosh is busy most of the time.

In the absence of W. A. Sperl, postmaster Cataline has little trouble in being our champion fisherman.

A new porch is being built around the Drummond house, which adds much to its appearance and is greatly appreciated by the "Sons of Rest."

Murphy & Cataline have purchased Maynard Butt's stock of general merchandise and will be ready to attend to the wants of the public in a few days.

Harry Price came down from Oscoda, Monday and bought a horse of Dr. Wakeman, for his delivery wagon. Harry says that his new grocery store at that place is doing a fine business.

Whittemore June 5, 1900.

Decoration day was observed here with appropriate ceremonies. At one o'clock the citizens and school children met at the school house where teams were waiting to convey them to the cemetery in Reno. Here we listened to a short program of songs and recitations by the children of the various schools, after which we were treated to a fine address by Hon. A. E. Sharpe, of East Tawas; following this came an original poem by our townsman, Mr. E. Dutton.

There was not as large an attendance as usual owing to the fact that some one had sent word out into the country that no services would be held, but all who did attend pronounced it the best ever held here.

On this thirtieth day of May
Our anniversary day
We are met again to pay
Our homage to our nation's honored dead
With offerings of flowers
We spend a few short hours
In paying tribute over each well remembered head.

While life with us is fleeting,
We with living friends are meeting,
And extend to each a greeting,
In this silent city of the dead,
With our banners raised on high:
And our faces toward the sky,
We praise Him by whose loving hand
We have been so safely led.

We deem it yet a pleasure
With this unshaken measure
Their dear memories to treasure
Who have dared their lives to give—
Our beloved land to save.
Who undying fame have earned,
What the thousands never returned,
But are resting now beneath the sod,
In many a southern grave.

Yet the foemen made us feel
That they were worthy of our steel,
Then why should we vouchsafe to them
A heritage of shame?

While remembering still the foe
Who dealt us many a blow
Magnanimity we show
Wherever one of them is laid beneath our northern sky;
For whenever we strew with flowers
The graves that we call ours,
We scatter blossoms on their graves and o'er them leave high.

But not only o'er the brave
Who have died our land to save
But with flowers will we pave
The paths that lead to other mounds that cover those we love.
For from all our homes have flown
Some loved one we have known
Whom with joy we hope to meet again in that bright land above.

Then let us strew the ground
And every grassy mound
Wherever may be found
The resting place of loved ones who are gone to day,
And while the years are fleeting
We'll extend this yearly greeting
And laden with returning flowers repeat it o'er and o'er.

And when our days are ended
And our graves with theirs are blended,
There shall be to us extended
The fitting tribute we extend to those we love to day
And while the world shall stand
May our beloved land
Never forget to memorize the thirtieth day of May.

OBITUARY.

Died, at the home of his father, Ambrose Schill, in East Tawas, Tuesday, May 29, 1900, Joseph William Schill, aged 25 years.

The deceased was born at Brantford, Ont., in 1874 and came to East Tawas with his parents when about ten years of age. He attended the schools of that city until seventeen years of age. At an early age he developed much ability as a musician, and became one of the best trombone players in this section of the state, his services being in demand in the best bands and orchestras in Bay City Saginaw, and other places. He was a member of the Third Regiment band of Bay City, for a number of years.

About three years ago the deceased contracted an abdominal disease, and two years ago last February was taken to a Detroit hospital, where a difficult surgical operation was performed. After eighteen weeks in the hospital he returned to his home, but never regained his health. About ten days previous to his death he was attacked with chills, and soon became delirious, gradually growing worse until death came to relieve his patient suffering. During his entire illness he was ever cheerful and hopeful, never murmuring. He was universally liked by his large circle of friends, and acquaintances, who regret his untimely death and unite in sympathy with the bereaved family.

The funeral services were held from the residence, Thursday afternoon, of last week, Rey. H. F. Shier, of the M. E. church, officiating. The City band, the AuSable band, and the Arbetier society, of which the deceased was a member, attended. John and William Schill, of Battle Creek, and George Schill, of Detroit, uncles of the deceased, were present, besides about twenty friends from Oscoda and AuSable, it being one of the largest funerals ever held in the Tawasess.

Many beautiful flowers were upon the bier, among which was a large floral hepp from the members of the City Band.

GOSSIPS.

There are two classes of people who are thoroughly to be detested. Certainly there are many people who fail to stir our admiration and enthusiasm, but of all the people living, those to be the most heartily dispised are sheep-thieves and gossips. Of the two, of course the former is, and of right ought to be, most respected among fair minded and christian people. Speaking of thieves we say, "There is honora mong thieves," but referring to a gossip, Dryden says, "For my part I can compare to nothing but the sun; for like him she takes no rest, nor ever sits in one place but to rise in another."

There are two abuses of gossips, those who gossip merely through a desire to have something to say, and those who do it in a malicious spite. That is to say, they who appreciate their own utter unworthiness, and for that reason they do lower the standard of manhood, so that they will not appear to be so far beneath the standard themselves.

A gossip and a thief are equally thieves for while a thief will steal our property, a gossip will, what is still more valuable, that which we have earned by years of upright conduct, our good name, and 'a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.'

We should be very careful about believing what we hear from "the long tongued, babbling gossip," for if we give their stories credence it will encourage others to believe them, which makes us, in fact, accomplices of the foulest and most dastardly class of human beings (shall we say?) that was ever put upon God's green earth to corrupt by their dirty disgraceful, dastardly, damnable lies. We cannot pray that when they are called to account for their charges they have made upon their fellow beings that they will be dealt more leniently with then they dared to deal with their unfortunate victims.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face and the best doctors could give no help; but now her health is excellent." Electric bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils, and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney, and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Dr. G. S. Darling and J. E. Dillon, druggists. Guaranteed.

Neglect is the short step so many take from a cough or cold to consumption. The early use of One Minute Cough Cure prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures all throat and lung troubles. Children all like it and mothers endorse it. Dr. G. S. Darling.

JUST A WORD.

Since the first of January we have mailed a number of statements of subscription accounts, to delinquents from which we have received no replies. We also have a few advertising and job work accounts which are past due, and unless all such accounts are settled before July 1 next they will be forwarded to the collection agency for collection, with instructions to be sued at once. We cannot afford to spend postage without receiving even a reply. It is not our desire to crowd anyone, but money is necessary to run our business. We always dislike to make these announcements in our columns, and for that reason this notice will not appear again. If you fail to respond to this, do not complain when the collector write you. THE PUBLISHER.

A Suggestion in Road Building.

Splendid educational work is being done by the department of agriculture of the federal government for the improvement of road construction in the United States. The plan has been to study out the question of what constitutes a good road and why good roads are needed and then proceed to spread the information among the people. Pamphlets are issued and object lessons in road building are given annually in every state in the union. A small stretch of excellent roadway is constructed simply for the purpose of showing how the work should be done and demonstrating its value. These object lessons in road building were begun in 1894 and have done much to stimulate interest in the good-roads movement.

The latest feature of this work is the advocacy by the government of the construction of steel-track wagon roads, something quite new in highway construction. An illustrated description of the new road appears in the current number of Pearson's Magazine. The plan is to lay two wide steel rails on the ordinary highways. The road as thus constructed consists of two parallel lines of steel plates or rails, each eight inches wide laid at a sufficient distance apart to receive the wheels of all vehicles of standard gauge. The steel plates or rails have a slight flange on each side deemed sufficient to prevent the wagon wheels from leaving their tracks easily, while not interfering with turning out when the driver desires to do so in order to pass another team or for any other purpose. If one imagines to himself a street car track with the depression on the rail that accommodates the wagon wheel eight inches wide, and the rails set at such a distance apart as to both wheels of the ordinary vehicle, he will have a very good idea of the road in question. It goes without saying that on a road constructed in this manner very large loads can be hauled with great ease. Government experiments showed that one horse could draw on a steel-track road the same load for which it was necessary to use twenty-two horses on the ordinary roads. The track of the steel-track road also furnishes a most excellent bicycle path.

The cost of construction of this kind of road is given as $3,500 a mile where the condition of the road to begin with is very poor. Where the traffic is heavy the economy of such a road ought to offset the expense of construction.

Base Ball Controversary.

In reply to an article in last week's Oscoda Press by Manager Thompson of the C. S. L. M. H. club of that village, Manager Gillooly, of the D. & M. club says that Mr. Thompson never answered his communication, and the natural conclusion was that the Oscoda boys were afraid of the D. & M. team, which they please to term the "scrubs." The C. S. L. M. H. club issued the challenge which was accepted by D. & M.'s. These "professionals" from the upper end of the county should at least try to win back some of the lost laurels of the last two years, and if they have the "sand" to play the so-called "scrubs" they will undoubtedly find them able to play at least an interesting game.

No Tuberculosis.

Some time ago the report was sent the state board of health, by Dr. M. J. Conant, that there were cases of tuberculosis here which he had reason to believe were caused by the use of milk from certain cattle in this vicinity which were afflicted with that disease. At the request of the state board of health President J. H. Brown and Secretary C. A. Tyler, of the state live stock sanitary commission, and the State Veterinarian G. W. Dunphy, V. S., came here to investigate the matter. Among the cattle supposed to be afflicted were those of Henry L. Drake. A thorough test of these cattle was made and no symptom of tuberculosis was found, and Mr. Drake now holds a certificate of the State Veterinarian to that effect.

The Commissioners tested three heard of cattle in this vicinity and found every animal free from tuberculosis, as shown by the tuberculin test. President Brown states that he has looked over many of the cows that furnish milk for our citizens. He says that these city cows present a healthy appearance, generally, and look far better than many of the country cattle. In his opinion, and judging from these three tests of herds containing suspicious cows, there is no danger of tuberculosis, as has been recently rumored. The milk cows of this vicinity compare very favorably with the cows of any section of the state, with few exceptions.

Crop Report.

U. S. Department of Agriculture. Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, Michigan Section for the week ending June 5, 1900, says:

The mean daily temperature for the week ended June 2nd, was 62.7 degrees, or 2.8 degrees above the normal; the average total precipitation was 1.50 inches or 0.69 of an inch above the normal; the sunshine averaged 34 per cent of the possible amount.

General and ample rainfall during the past week has greatly improved all vegetation; in the southeast portion of the lower peninsula the showers in many cases were excessive and did some damage in washing out corn and flooding low fields; upon the whole the week has been a very favorable one. Oats, meadows and pastures are greatly improved and the prospects for a good hay crop are almost assured; old meadows are light, but the spring seeding is generally quite heavy. Oats are in fine condition. Corn has germinated rapidly, is making good stand and much of it in the southern counties is now being cultivated. Early potatoes are coming up and being cultivated and late potato planting is well advanced. Rye is heading rapidly and generally promises a fair yield. Peas and barley are doing well. Sugar beet seeding is about completed and thinning and cultivation have begun. Wheat is heading but the Hessian fly, which is now hatching, out has begun its spring work and is doing great damage; wheat has deteriorated considerably during the past week and many farmers are now plowing it under for bean ground and summer fallow. Much ground has been prepared and bean planting has been in progress. Strawberries are ripening fast in the southern counties and promise a plentiful crop. Apple, peach and pear prospects continue generally good, but many reporters say that cherries and plums have not set so well and will not be so plentiful as expected earlier in the season.

Death of James Bearinger.

James Bearinger died at St. Mary's hospital Sunday evening from a complication of troubles. He had resided in Saginaw nearly all his life. He leaves a wife, four brothers, Isaac and Elijah, of Saginaw; Frank, of Ely, Minn., and William, Jr., of Imlay City, and two sisters, Mrs. Sugden, of Isoco county, and Mrs. Harrington, of St. Louis. Funeral services will be held at the residence of the family, 423 North Franklin street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to Imlay City for interment tomorrow.—Saginaw Courier. Mr. and Mrs. Bearinger were formerly residents of this city, where the deceased was well and favorably known. The many friends here will unite in extending their heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved widow.

Killed at Knife River.

A telegram was received Monday evening announcing that Al. Hatch, a well known railroad man had been killed in a wreck at Knife River, Minn., where he was engaged as a breakeman. Until about a month ago Mr. Hatch was employed as baggage-man on the D. & M., when he went to Duluth and accepted a position on the Alger, Smith & Co's. road. Last Monday forenoon a log train on which he was working was wrecked and he was so badly injured that he survived only an hour.

His wife and children reside at East Tawas, and the remains were brought here Thursday morning. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

The deceased was about 38 years old; and was well and favorably known. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their hour of sadness and sorrow.

The Presbyterian Sunday school was organized last Sunday with a good membership. Efficient officers and faithful teachers were secured and all who are not attending Sunday school elsewhere are invited to spend the hour there.
Miss Anna Kehoe has accepted a position as teacher in the grammar department of the AuSable schools for the coming year. Miss Kehoe has been a successful teacher in our city school for the past three years and the AuSable school board has made no mistake in their selection.
A farmer from one of the back townships was in Friedman's store one day this week when Harry started the Phonograph on a selection by the Marine band. At the sound of the first note the farmer exclaimed, as he shot out the door, "Gosh there comes the brass band and my team ain't tied."
It seems that a report has been circulated throughout the county that the officers of the agricultural society have cut the races from the program of the fair from next fall. Such is not the case. The purses for the races at the next fair have been increased and races will be given on each of the three days.
Monday evening just as Grip Tent, K. O. T. M. was about to close its meeting, about twenty-five of the Northern Light Hive, captured the picket and then "stormed the castle" before the Sir Knights were able to recover from their surprise. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the ladies evened matters for the recent surprise given them. Ice cream and cake were served.
There has been considerable "kicking," on the part of some because Marshal McRae has stopped horses running at large on our streets, but we believe all good citizens will unite in supporting the Marshal if he will enforce the stock and all other ordinances to the letter. It is to be regretted that law and order in our city has been much neglected in the past and it is time things were changed.

The beauties of Sunday excursions was nicely exemplified when the excursion train returned from Alpena last Sunday evening. It is safe to say that a majority of those thereon were intoxicated. When the train stopped at this station about 10 o'clock our citizens residing in that vicinity were treated to a few moments drunken "jamboree" that would bring a blush of shame to a barroom loafer.
Ride the best. A Rambler.

There is "one woman in the world," who can hold her tongue (for consideration) in the east which will be at the East Tawas opera house this Friday evening, and "My Daughter's Husband" was not slow in seeking her assistance, but unfortunately for Polly, she put some small change in her mouth and swallowed it. She ran crying to the Doctor, "Oh Doctor, I've swallowed a nickel! and the doctor made her 'cough up' two dollars and a half. Plucky girl, she did not miss a performance.
During the heavy fog last Friday morning the steam barge Green ran onto the rocks one mile this side of Alabaster, while attempting to make the dock at that place. In trying to release herself two buckets were broken off her wheel. She was released about 5 o'clock p. m. by a tug assisted by the crew from the Ottawa Point life saving station and towed to East Tawas. She was leaking badly and after temporary repairs went to Bay City where she was placed in the dry dock for repairs. She is owned by the Alabaster Co.
Acting under the opinion of the supreme court, Sheriff Shein has announced that Sunday base ball games cannot be played in Iosco county. The game scheduled for last Sunday at East Tawas was declared off by his orders. While this decision of the sheriff
