Pneumonia Can be Prevented.

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of lagrippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive to that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Rem-

Death Record.

Chief Wilbur of the division of vital statistics of the secretary of state's office, has completed the compilations of deaths occurring in Michigan during the year 1900. The compilation shows that the total number of deaths in Michigan last year was 33,820, the rate per thousand being 13.9 as compared with a total of 33,159 and a rate of 14.1 for 1899. Of the total number of deaths in 1900, there were 1,433 still births, 6,542 children under one year old, 2,562 between 1 and 4 years, 8,754 of persons 65 years old and over. The number of deaths from the principal causes was as follows: Pulmonary tuberculosis, 1,816; other forms of tuberculosis, 562; typhoid fever, 860; diphtheria, 383; croup, 153; scarlet fever, 267; measles, 307; whooping cough, 198; pneumonia, 2,799; diarrheal diseases under 5 years of age, 2,524; cerebrospinal meningitis, 402; influenza, 490; puerperal septicemia, 190; cancer, 1,406; violence, 1,756.

The Country Editor.

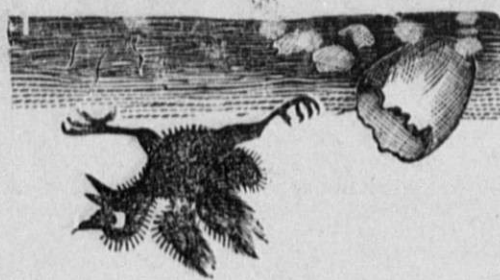

One of the highest tributes ever paid, if not the very highest, to a most deserving class of people, is that of Senate Eugene Hale, of Maine, to the "country editor." In discussing the subject of postage on newspapers the Senator from Maine remarked of the country editor.

"He is a packhorse of every community, the promoter of every laudable enterprise, the worst underpaid laborer in the vineyard. Counting his space as capital, he gives more to charity, his means considered, than any other member of society. He is a power in politics, a pillar of the church, a leader in the crusade for better morals. He is preeminently the friend of humanity. Lie upon line, paragraph upon paragraph, day by day, he is embalming in cold type facts from which the Herodotus, Tacitus, Sismondi, Macaulay of the future will write the history of our times. He fully chronicles our advent into the world, briefly notes our uprisings and our downfalls, and sorrowfully records our exit.

"We are all more or less, generally more his handiwork, and the creature should not be ungrateful to his creator. Without his generous and enthusiastic labors most of us, would never have been here; and, when tired of us, most of us will return to private life amid rural scenes propitious for secret meditation and silent prayer. Working night and day during the campaign, when the election is over and in time comes for the distribution of the loaves and fishes now vulgarly called 'pie' by some strange lapse of memory he is generally forgotten."—Ex.

That Case of Pox.

EAST TAWAS, Feb 18, '01.

I wish to say a few words about it, as I think I can at least set myself right in the matter, and prove that ye redheaded editor has either got to take back what he has said in his diarrhoea words and constipation of ideas or acknowledge by his silence that he has lied. First I have a letter from my brother I wish to comment on which comments will appear through the letter in parentheses.

FLINT Mich., Feb. 11, '01

Dear Brother,—

I see by the East Tawas paper that Mr. Jackson is giving you the racket in good earnest. Is there no way to set him up in the line of a report? I see by the Tawas City paper that you have the best of the bargain. (I think myself that I have got the best of bargain.) I would ask the red headed editor to oblige you by putting that in his paper. (I would not ask him to publish anything, for tetter would not enough see it, circulation is to limited.) I guess he has no love for you by his talk. I would come up with him if it took ten years. (It will not take me ten years to get even I think that what he sees in this paper will be a settler.) Then old doctor Goodale, the old fool, (Dr. Goodale is not a fool, he only consulted the wrong spirit.) I presume he never saw a case of small pox in his life. One would think by the red headed editor that you was in very poor repute in that county and city. (As to my repute I have nothing to say, I manage to pay my debts and I have no unpaid for printing press to slander people with.) Its a mean thing for such a man to undertake to ruin your standing in the state. If I was sure of my premises, I would take him slander. (He is to well known in this county to ever mention slander. What he would say through the columns of his effusion would not change any opinion.) And collect about 1,000,000 of the skunk. And then he is the leading light in the Methodist Episcopal Church. (Yes he is a Methodist and hell is overflowing with just such as he.) And no doubt a Mason. Oddfellow etc. etc. (A Mason. No he is not and I would guarantee that he never could be one here at least. And I I would promise to stay away when the ballat was spread, for I do not think there would be black balls enough to go around. I. O. O. F. I think ditto.) Curse such a man. However do as you think best. Yet if it was me, I would sit up nights to devise ways and means to kill him. I mean as far as his influence goes. (I do not have to sit up nights or spend any time to kill his influence what I have already said is more time than he is deserving.) Perhaps he has none. Yet the people who do not know, will believe him. (The people all know him around here.) Let me hear from you on this small pox case.

C. L. HOWELL.

DETROIT & MACKINAC RAILWAY CO.

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

EAST TAWAS, MICH., Feb. 13th, '01.

Dr. D. C. Howell,

Health Officer, City.

Dear Sir:—Referring to the matter of you bringing into this city from Emery Junction, a man broken out with small pox. Had I been in the city at the time I would not have allowed the man brought here; but had him returned from whence he came, Rose City.

As the Physicians at Rose City pronounced it a case of chicken pox, and would probably have treated it as such had the man been returned there, it would have resulted in the spread of the disease to a considerable extent. I think possibly the course pursued by you was the better one, as it probably prevented the spreading of the disease, at least to some extent.

Up to the present time, sixteen days after the man was quarantined here, there has no case developed in this city, and trust there will be none.

As to my belief as to the case being smallpox. I have not the least doubt about it being a genuis disease, although very mild. From information I have been able to secure in regard to this case it appears that at the time the young man left his home in Vassar, Mich., his house was placarded with a Small Pox card, and that some three or four members of the family have had the same disease.

With another similar case of this kind I would not advise you to bring the party into East Tawas; but turn him over to the authorities of the township where he is found.

Yours truly,
C. W. LUCE Mayor.

EAST TAWAS, MICH., Feb. 12, 1901.

To whom it may concern:—I hereby certify that Dr. Howell consulted with me regarding the case of small pox he has been treating and caring for, and from the symptoms and conditions given me by him from day to day I can truthfully say that his diagnosis of the case was correct. I have had a large experience in treating cases of smallpox in Canada where the disease is nearly always prevalent and I have no doubt that this has been a mild case of smallpox, or what is known as the discrete form.

Theo. O. Gates M. D.

WHITTEMORE, 2.11, 1901.

To whom it may concern:—I hereby certify that in connection with Dr. D. C. Howell examined case on train at Emery Junction on the 28th day of Jan. 1901 and the diagnosis made by me was that of Smallpox in a mild form.

I base my diagnosis on the fact that I have seen several cases of smallpox in the city of Montreal where the disease has been quite prevalent.

Yours truly,

J. McIntosh M. D.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH MICH.
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.
LANSING Feb. 18, 1901.

Dr. D. C. Howell.

Health Officer of the city,
East Tawas, Mich.

Dear Doctor:—Your special final report relative to the outbreak of smallpox is before me for which please accept thanks. I have no doubt but that the disease is Smallpox of a mild form which is now present in this state and also in several others. The disease in Arabela township, Tuscola Co., is smallpox and has been so pronounced by several physicians, and another case from the same family is at Pontiac and is pronounced smallpox at that place. I angled to know that you took active measures for the restriction of the disease, for these mild cases of smallpox, may and do sometimes cause cases of the most severe form. It must be remembered that adults seldom have chicken pox.

Very respectfully,
Henry K. Baker,
Secretary.

I perhaps could say something in my own behalf but I do not think it necessary or prudent.

D. C. HOWELL.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Democratic county convention, to select four delegates to represent Isosco county in the Democrat State convention to be held in Grand Rapids, on March 6, 1901, will be held at the Court House, in Tawas City.

ON MONDAY MARCH, 4, 1901.

At 10 o'clock a. m. This convention will also nominate a candidate for county commissioner of schools, and such other business will be transacted as may properly come before it. The several townships and city wards will be entitled to delegates as follows:

Alabaster 2, AuSable 3, Baldwin 1, Burleigh 5, Grant 1, Oscoda 5, Plainfield 2, Reno 1, Sherman 1, Tawas 4, Wilber 1.
AuSable City—1st ward 2, 2d ward 3, 3d ward 1.
East Tawas—1st ward 2, 2d ward 3, 3d ward 2.
Tawas City—1st ward 2, 2d ward 2, 3d ward 2.

Geo. C. ANSCHUTZ, L. J. PATTERSON,
Chairman. Secretary.

Air That may Be Seen.

The quivering of the air above a ridge of open ground on a hot, still day is a phenomenon that is not generally understood. The same thing may be seen over a hot stove. As the quivering is visible only above a hot surface, but as heat is not perceptible to the eye that explanation is not satisfactory. Heat is, of course a factor in the case, but it serves only to make the air visible, for it is the air that we see. The quivering is caused by the upward passage, close by each other, of small currents of air of different temperatures, in which the rays of light are irregularly refracted. It is the irregular refraction that makes the currents visible.

Get a Cement Factory.

A dispatch from Prescott to the Saginaw News of yesterday says.

Messrs. Loranger and Johnson, of Bay City, and E. A. Worthington and Walter G. Brigg, of Chicago, were here this week, accompanied by E. P. Walling, of Philadelphia, Pa., designer and contractor of cement factories. They have decided to erect the factory at the village of Prescott, the nearest point to the best marl beds in the state. The factory will have a capacity of 1,500 barrels of cement daily. It will cost about $350,000. Operations towards its construction will commence at once. The deal for the Key-Stone quarry was consummated Tuesday for $3,500.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUSES.

The democratic electors of the various wards, of Tawas City will meet on Friday evening, March, 1, 1901, at 7.30 o'clock, at the following named places, for the purpose of electing two delegates from each ward, to attend the county convention, March, 4, 1901.

If a man wants to fill his cup with anguish until it is running over just let him try to please everybody for awhile. If he goes into politics he is called all manner of names and if he stays out he is called unpatriotic. The only way a man can please everybody is when he turns his face to the wall and expires, then the people hang around him and say things that would make him scream with joy if his poor deaf ears could only hear.

The Club.

A very popular club now-a-days is the Ladies' Pedro Club of Tawas city. Being really correct in every particular, they even call themselves after the Round Vozen club of Ladies' Home Journal fame.

The first meeting was held at Mrs. Garber's. A very pleasant time was enjoyed and an elaborate spread partaken of. The club was organized and a few suggestions made as to the game and refreshments. After the game a short sleigh ride was indulged in through the kindness of Mr. Garber and even tho it was impossible to take him into the club, yet "Tommy" was voted a jolly good fellow.

Last week the club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Darling. A very exciting game was played and Mrs. Wakeman was fortunate enough to secure first prize which was a beautiful little cream and sugar set.

Miss Jahraus was also fortunate in securing as consolation prize a musical instrument commonly known as a jew's harp (we understand she made new use of it, as she called up some of her friends next morning and played for them over the phone).

Lunch was served in the dining room and proved to be not the least enjoyable part of the evening, judging by the length of time spent at the table.

At the business part of the meeting a few rules were laid down limiting the price of prizes and the number of things served for lunches.

This week the club was entertained by Mrs. Shien and Miss Walker, at Mrs. Shien's residence. After a pleasant evening, it was found that Mrs. Zeiter had carried off the first prize in the shape of a very handsome lace doily and Mrs. Wakeman seeing that she could not come out first as last week, took the other prize, a small book which was labeled, "What I know about Pedro" and which contained nothing but blank paper.

As souvenirs of the evening each one had a decorated score card cut in the shape of a butterfly.

The only sad thing that has occurred since the club began, was an event of the last evening when the crowd had collected it was discovered that each one had forgotten to notify a favorite member, who lived at some distance, that the club met Tuesday evening instead of Wednesday. Miss Murphy consented to act as substitute for the evening club adjourned to meet next week with Mrs. Wakeman.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. Dr. G. S. Darling.

THE FARM CORNER.

Newsy Items Gathered From Many Sources.

FARMER AND THE CITY.

The question of farmers moving to town will admit of considerable discussion, but we take the side in favor of staying on the farms, says W. W. Young in The Prairie Farmer. There is no place on earth that man may enjoy more freedom, more fresh air and better "grub" than right out on a quarter section of land located at a convenient distance from good markets. What is there more enjoyable than looking among bunches of swine, selecting the ones you think nearer your ideal, or watching calves or colts play in the lots, frisking about and enjoying the sunlight? What is nicer than to see a hen with a flock of young chicks all of one color scratching for bugs, etc., each one busy and seeming to enjoy itself to a very high degree. What farmer does not love to see crops growing from the time they first peep above the ground until the final stage of maturity is reached? People of ripe old age may take more enjoyment in living in town, where everything is more handy, where they have their mail more regular and where they are not burdened with the cares of a farmers life, but even this class might derive more real pleasure on the farm, where there is more quiet, than in town, where there is more or less generally more, noise and a general hustle and bustle.

Another point in favor of living on the farm is the rearing of children. Notice if you will the strong probabilities of city boys getting into bad company and forming such habits as their parents would blush to have them become acquainted with. While the lads of the country do not come in contact with so many of these things, yet they find out enough sometimes to do them a great amount of harm. We would not try to elevate ourselves above our friends in town, but we do believe children are more apt to form habits through evil associations in the alleys and back streets of a town life than is probable in connection with a farm life. We do not consider ourselves authority on this subject, but simply write our thoughts in connection therewith, hoping it may cause some one to pause before leaving the farm in an effort to better his condition in the world. The farmer feeds the world. Just think! All the multitudes of earth live from the labor of the so called "hayseed," and why should we think ourselves above such work? So I would say, stay on the farm.

UNLEACHED WOOD ASHES.

Prof. H. W. Mumford of the Agricultural College, is of the opinion that the farmers of the state generally do not appreciate the value of bleached wood ashes as a fertilizer. He says that these ashes are not alone valuable in furnishing potash, as they contain from one to two per cent of phosphoric acid, considerable carbonate of lime and a small amount of magnesia. They also have a desirable effect upon the mechanical or physical conditions of light sandy or gravelly soil, unquestionably giving more benefit upon light soil than upon heavy clays. Ashes are especially valuable in old meadows, and can be advantageously applied in the spring as the grass begins to start. They are also valuable as a fertilizer for peas, beans, corn and root crops. Prof. Mumford says he has procured the best results when desiring to apply ashes to cultivated crop, by sowing them broadcast after the land has been ploughed.

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases. Dr. G. S. Darling.

REARING DAIRY CALVES.

No definite amount can be given as an inflexible rule to govern in feeding all calves, as some will consume and assimilate twice as much as others without any manifestation of evil results.

Watchfulness and caution should be the safety valve and governor, and especially so until the calf begins to eat freely of some nutritious fodder.

I have never found any roughness to equal properly cured clover hay for any kind of young stock, and especially is this true of young calves. When they have become old enough to eat freely of dry feed it is advisable to discontinue the feeding of the ground oil cake in the mill, and mix it with a quantity of crushed oats, as this will not only be supplying their rations in a less condensed form, but will provide a needed balance as well.

There is special necessity for caution in feeding young calves on skim milk and nutritious grain feeds when they have access to fresh grass in early spring. It is far better to keep them on dry forage with their milk ration until they attain an age least susceptible to scours. The fresh young grass, growing rapidly as it does in early spring, does not contain solid matter enough to make up for the loss of the grain ration if it be discounted, and if the calf can still be induced to eat his usual amount (which is doubtful) the neutralization is nearly always sufficient to produce evil results.

Most dairymen who rear their calves find the fall of the year the most profitable time in which to have their cows fresh, and this one item is not the least among the many that contribute to make this practice advisable.—Geo. H. Howley in Prairie Farmer.

DOCTORING SICK FOWLS.

Prevention is better than cure, and the surest remedies are, greater intelligence, faithfulness and cleanliness. The symptoms and remedies with poultry are similar to those with animals. The circulation of blood in fowls is rapid, as shown by their high temperature. A very little medicine or a very little disease soon affects the entire system. Hens do not need harsh drugs and doses, and unless treated early in a disease, medicine avails nothing. It is rarely that a letter about sick poultry can be answered in time to do those particular fowls any good. But let the question come, they may save the health and life of other birds and flocks.

A sick bird gets "off its feed" like large animals. Unless medicine is followed by table scraps and general coddling in food, darning does little good. We better kill sick fowls at once, if we have not grit and grace to continue their nursing. A convalescent person might as well begin promptly on his former diet of meat, potatoes and doughnuts, as a sick bird be expected to eat cold grain and nothing else when appetite first returns.

Had to Conquer or Die.

"It was just about gone," writes Mrs. Rosa Richardson, of Leare, Oregon. "I had consumption so bad that the best doctors said I could not live more than a month, but I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by seven bottles and am now stout and well." Its an unrivalled life savor for consumption, pneumonia, lagrippe and bronchitis; infallible for coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, croup or whooping cough. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Dr. G. S. Darling's or J. E. Dillon's drug stores.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Waranted Syrup of Iar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

EARLY PLOWING.

It is extensively believed that fall plowing has no particular advantage over spring plowing, except that it is "doing spring work in the fall." But it has been demonstrated by many experiments that has a decided advantage in other ways. Yields of spring sown grains nearly always prove larger on fall than spring plowing. The first is a better weed destroyer and conservor of moisture. The more compact condition of the fall plowed soil conduces to better germination of seed and better subsequent growth, largely because it does not dry out so readily. It is also true that early plowing for fall crops is better than late, and in the spring if plowing can be done some time before seeding it is advantage.

LaGripe Quickly Cured.

"In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called the LaGrippe," says F. L. Hewett, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and I have never since been troubled with grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by Dr. G. S. Darling.

FARM NOTES.

Now is the time to haul manure.

Do not delay building a silo another year.

Now is the time to look after your garden seeds.

Plan to put out a nice straw berry bed this spring.

Don't neglect the breeding ewes during the next few weeks.

The well cared for hens are now paying big dividends. Were yours neglected?

Commence now to prepare some articles for exhibition at the fair next fall.

Be sure your wood pile is large enough to last until after the rush of spring work.

Any sudden change in feeding or handling of the cows may result in a loss of milk and butter.

Is your machinery ready for the coming season? If not, you will have no more time than at present to repair it.

Do you know where your seed potatoes are coming from? Look them up now and your chances of securing good ones are better than they will be two months hence.

A good dairy cow should be giving the greatest amount of milk within three months of calving. After that begin to reduce the feed gradually, allowing her to dry up and have a rest of two months each year.

Will Boom His Business.

S. Laval, a merchant, of Dallas, Texas writes: "I thought I would have to give up business, after two years of suffering from general debility brought on by overwork and long hours, but four bottles of Electric Bitters gave me new life. I could rest anything, sleep well and feel like working all the time. It's the best medicine on earth." It's a wonderful tonic and health builder for, tried weak, sickly and run down people. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c at Dr. G. S. Darling or J. E. Dillon's drug stores.

Western rates Reduced.

Greatly reduced one way rates will be in effect from Chicago, Milwaukee and Manitowoc via Wisconsin Central Railway to points in Minnesota, No. Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia each Tuesday, commencing February 12th and continuing until April 30th.

For detailed information inquire of nearest ticket agent, or address H. W. Steinhoff, District Pass. Agent, W. C. Ry., Saginaw, Mich., or Jas. C. Pond, Gen'l Pass Agent, Milwaukee, Wis.

How to Cure the Grip.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by Dr. G. S. Darling.

emissions, Varicocele and Syphilis Cured.

At the age of 15 I commenced to ruin my health. Later on as "ONE OF THE BOYS" I contracted a serious blood disease—SYPHILIS. I was weak and nervous, despondent, pimples, sunken eyes, bone pains, ulcers, hair loose, sore tongue and mouth, drains in urine, varicocele—I was a wreck. I was in the last stages, when a friend recommended Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. A dozen other doctors had failed in curing me. Drs. K. & K. cured me in a few weeks. I am now mentally and physically. I would warn similar diseased men to beware of Medical Fraud. Drs. K. & K. are reliable, honest and skillful physicians.
