BLACK DRESS GOODS

Are apparently the same everywhere—they are not,

Ten cents a yard difference in price may cover a multitude of sins, or which you are only made aware when the cheap black dress turns rusty and its quality is no more.

We have studied the black dress goods question, and experience tells us that seekers of quality will pay for it. We have black goods of quality, and you are not asked to pay a single penny more than is right.

42 inch black Cheviot, all wool, 59c per yard.

50 inch black Cheviot, very fine 89c per yard.

54 inch black Cheviot, extra weight, $1.00 per yard.

Its hard to find a better wearing or a more stylish suit cloth than a good black Cheviot.

TAMISE—Soft clinging light weight wool stuff; very popular for summer wear, 50c and 85c.

MELROSE—A peculiar seeded effect which is very durable and a great seller.

42 inch $1.00 Silk Warp Melrose, $1.50.

PRUNELLAS—in all qualities. They wear like a firm, heavy old fashioned serge, but they are new and stylish, at $1.00, $1.25, $1.69 and $1.75. 42 to 48 inches wide.

BLACK ALABATROS—We have a fine one at 50c.

SATIN DeCHINE—A substitute for taffeta silk—will wear better—is just as pretty and very much cheaper. 46 inches wide. $1.00 per yard. Heavy black Meltons for walking skirts, from 45c to $1.75 per yard.

A Newspaper's Enemies.

A newspaper without enemies is hardly deserving of friends. The vicious and lawless never like a bold, fearless paper and every self respecting editor should be glad of their enmity. There are other newspaper foes, however, who are far more troublesome and consequently more to be feared. First and foremost is the man who owes a newspaper an honest debt and will not pay it. Then there is the ambitious mortal who wants an office and complains because the newspaper cannot consistently champion him; he is pretty likely to become an enemy. The man who wants to shape the policy of a newspaper and is not allowed to do so, is a sure enemy. But the meanest man of all is the one whom the newspaper has befriended and who deliberately condemns the sheet after securing from it all the assistance he possibly can. Then newspaper can to some extent respect an open and avowed enemy, but an ingrate is beneath contempt.

Common Sense.

"Fine sense and exalted sense," says Addison, "are not half so useful as common sense." Learning and genius are most excellent and desirable things; but the practical unpretending man, gifted with plain common sense only, is far better equipped for the battle of life than the scholar or genius without it.

The scholar may dream and theorize and raise up beautiful visions of the ideal state to which it is possible for man to attain; the genius may discover hidden secrets of nature, chain the lightning, and reach out even to other planets; but, without common sense, the faculty which reduces visions and hypotheses to practical solutions of the problems of everyday life, the greatness of their natural gifts would be of little avail, so far as real progress is concerned.

A story is told of a nobleman who had a rare collection of precious stones. At great labor and expense he had secured diamonds, pearls, rubies and other gems, from almost every country in the world. "And yet," he said, while showing his treasures to a friend, "they yield me no income." "Come with me," replied the friend, "and I will show you two stones which cost me but five pounds each, yet they yield me a very considerable annual income." He led the owner of the gems down to a mill and pointed to the two toiling, gray millstones.

No matter what treasures of knowledge you may have stored away in your brain, or how numerous and varied your talents; unless they are backed by that sturdy common sense which knows how to marshal your forces and practically apply your knowledge, you will always be at the mercy of circumstances, dependent upon others, perhaps, for the necessities of life. There is a volume of meaning packed in the pithy old German proverb, "Keep your eyes fixed on the stars, but do not forget to light the household candles by the way."

Rousseau, who wrote some of the finest work that have ever been published on the training of children, left his own five children to be cared for by a founding asylum. He could not keep his household candles lighted. Beethoven, who, it is said, had no conception of the cost of the most ordinary articles of wearing apparel, once sent three hundred florins to a merchant in payment for a half-dozen shirts. A certain learned professor, on being asked by his wife to order some coffee from the grocery store, was completely at a loss when the clerk inquired how much coffee he should send. "Well, really, I don't know," he said, "but I should think a bushel would be enough!"

Although we are apt to regard common sense as one of the most ordinary and common place of all endowments, it is in reality one of the least common. People are constantly making mistakes, losing ground, and hindering their own progress for lack of a little common sense. Instead of acquiring it by experience and observation, they go stumbling on, spoiling their chances of success, blaming circumstances or environment or fate for their misfortunes, when, in reality the responsibility rests entirely with themselves. They are blind to the value of common sense.—Success.

Racing Machines not Yachts.

Since both of the machines built to compete for the America's cup have developed the same weakness, the suggestion may be renewed that the cup be raced for by actual yachts. Nobody would or could make a pleasure voyage across the Atlantic upon such a craft as the Shamrock or the Constitution. Swiftens was long ago developed at the expense of seaworthiness and of the ordinary uses of a cruising yacht, and now it has evidently been developed beyond the limits of security in a puff of wind off shore. Everything else has yielded to the greatest area of canvas, and now the area of canvas has become such that the mast will not sustain it.—Philadelphia Times.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la-grippe, and find in every efficacious." For sale by G. S. Darling.

The Best Way To Preserve The Teeth.

Nothing is better in the way of preservation for the teeth and the preventive of disagreeable consequences in the mouth, than bicarbonate of soda. Keep a jar of it on the toilette shelf, using a pinch in a third of a glass of water morning and evening with the tooth brush, and rinse the mouth freely. This is the advice of a prominent New York dentist who says the wide use of this cheap and convenient article would almost drive his profession out of business, for he adds, "we dentists have about decided that an absolutely clean tooth structure cannot decay." The soda, it may be added, is one of the best preventives of Rigg's disease, that serious complaint which is found, in embryo at least, in almost every mouth.—Harpers Bazar.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, Cashier of the First National Bank of Waterbet, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by G. S. Darling.

One Christian Scientist has recovered the use of his logical faculties. He has renounced the science because he has noted that in the Woodruff-Eddy trial in Boston, Mrs. Eddy has been excused from attendance because she is to feeble to stand the strain, and the clerk of the First Christian church could not read a document submitted to him because his eyesight is failing. Official reports show that the year 1900 closed the century with the largest coal production ever recorded in the United States and continued the supremacy of the United States among the coal producing countries of the world. Practically completed returns to Edward W. Parker, statistician of the United States geological survey, show the total output of coal in 1900 to have been 267,542,444 short tons, an increase over the preceding year of 13,802,452 tons, or a little more than 5 per cent. The value of this product was $297,920,000, an increase of 16 per cent over 1899. The production in Michigan was 849,455 tons, valued at $1,257,683.

When five cadets were expelled from West Point for gross and persistent insubordination they invoked public sympathy for their blighted careers, and they have announced that they intend to have congress restore them over the heads of the authorities. But ten of their comrades have just been dropped for deficiency in their studies, and nobody seems to have begun any agitation in their behalf, yet a failure in studies is a small matter in determining the quality of an officer compared with a failure in prime military essential of discipline.—New York Journal.

9th. Annual Commencement

Of The Tawas City Public Schools, Will Occur Friday Evening June 28.

The ninth annual commencement of our schools will be held at the Congregational church, Friday evening, June 28. The class of '01 is composed of but two members, Mabel Crandall and Mabel Redhead. The class motto is "As the labor; so the reward," and with this view the young ladies have labored to reap the reward which will fit them for broader fields of work. The class colors are white and crimson. The following is the program arranged for the exercises:

A Poor Wheat Crop.

The Secretary of State issued the following crop report Monday.

The weather during May was cool the temperature in the southern and central counties being from one to two degrees below the normal. The temperature in the northern part of the state was just about normal. The precipitation in the northern part of the state was about one inch below the normal.

The cool weather that prevailed during May was very favorable for wheat and had a tendency to check the work of the Hessian fly. While the weather in April had been favorable for the fly, many farmers had hopes during May that no serious damage would be done, and that eventually a fair crop would be harvested. Others felt that the damage had been done and that it would be noticeable as soon as we had a few days of warm dry weather. The warm weather that prevailed the first part of June demonstrated that the latter opinion was true. Nearly every one of the southern counties report damage by the fly. In some places it is beginning to fall to the ground. The indications, at the present time, are that the crop will be no better than last year. Fields of wheat that escaped the ravages of this pest last fall are reported to have been infested this spring so that the failure will probably be universal.

The average condition of wheat in the southern counties is 64, in the central counties 82, in the northern counties 88, and in the state 72. Those estimates are made by our correspondents on the first day of June, at which time the damage had not become so noticeable. It is possible that if the figures had been made one week later they would be some lower than those reported. One year ago the condition of wheat was reported as follows: Southern counties 40, central counties 56, northern counties 86, and State 49.

The per cent of wheat sown in the southern counties that will be plowed up because winter killed or otherwise destroyed is 15, in the central counties 10, in the northern counties 12, and in the state 14. The amount of wheat plowed up would be considerably greater were it not that many fields are seeded to clover. The damage by the Hessian fly is, in southern counties 37, in the central counties 14, in the northern counties 9, and in the state 31.

The weather during May was very unfavorable for the corn crop. Much of it was planted late in the month. Corn that was up looked yellow. There were some reports of corn rotting where it was planted on clay ground. The acreage of corn planted in the southern counties, as compared with 1900, is 99, in the central counties 96, in the northern counties 100, and in the state 98. The condition of corn, as compared with an average, is, in the southern counties 69, in the central counties 73, in the northern counties 77, and in the state 71.

The weather during May was favorable for this crop. The condition in the southern counties is 89, in the central counties 87, in the northern counties 91, and in the state 89.

The condition of meadows, as compared with an average is, in the southern counties 93, in the central counties 91, in the northern counties 92, and in the state 92.

The acreage of potatoes planted, as compared with 1900, is 91 in the southern counties, 88 in the central counties, 90 in the northern counties, and 90 in the state. The condition as compared with an average is, in the southern counties 85, in the central counties 86, in the northern counties 95, and in the state 86.

The number of colts in the southern counties, compared with an average, is 91, in the central counties 89, in the northern counties 94, and in the state 91. The number of calves in the southern counties, as compared with an average, is 98, in the central counties 95, in the northern counties 101, and in the state 98.

The acreage of sugar beets planted, as compared with 1900, is in the southern counties 116, in the central counties 115, in the northern counties 87, and in the state 113.

The weather during May was not favorable for fruit. The cool, wet days made spraying impracticable so that the canker worm and the tent caterpillar are doing much damage. There is considerable curl leaf also where peach trees have not been systematically sprayed. The early strawberry crop will be materially shortened by the frosts that have occurred recently. In many cases the fruit blossoms were blasted, thus shortening the crop to a considerable extent.

The Stars and Stripes at Acre.

A good American had been making some soul stirring remarks about the glorious star spangled banner when an Englishman who is pretty well Americanized told a little story apropos: "I remember once to have seen the stars and stripes applauded uproariously on a peculiar occasion. It happened many years ago when the British flag wasn't as popular in the United States as it is now and a party of us Englishmen were at a theater in New York considerably further down town than theaters are now to be found on Broadway. The play was 'Richard I,' and if you remember there is a scene in the play where Richard, after putting his feet to flight in terrific style, mounts the walls of Acre and plants the British colors there. Evidently the management knew the temper of the audience, and felt that even under such circumstances the British flag would not be a good thing, so what did they do but give Richard the star spangled banner, and by all the gods, he took it with him in the charge and planted it on Acre's walls. It was ridiculous, of course, and we Englishmen laughed, but the audience took it quite as the correct thing, and the way the people stormed and shouted and clapped was enough to have made Richard turn over in his grave. Historically it was away off, dramatically it was open to criticism, but patriotically it was a howling success."—Washington Star.

Trigonometry in X Ray Work.

"Few people know," said Dr. J. C. Egelston while performing an operation at the City hospital, "that it takes trigonometry to locate a bullet in the body. But in every X ray operation in which the bullet or foreign substance is deeply imbedded a mathematical computation is necessary to show just how deep the bullet is. The X rays make the flesh transparent, leaving only the bones and foreign substance visible, so that you see just where the bullet is, and yet you don't know where it is. You know its latitude and longitude, so to speak, but those measurements are surface measurements, and you don't know how deep the object is beneath the surface. The point on the surface of the body beneath which the bullet is can be readily located, but how far beneath that point is the bullet?
"This is the question that trigonometry has to answer, and by knowing the answer a great deal of unnecessary cutting may be saved, and what might otherwise be a difficult and dangerous operation may be rendered comparatively safe and easy. If the bullet enters one side of the body, for instance, and lodges within an inch or two of the skin on the other side, the other side of the body would be the one from which to operate."—Kansas City Journal.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED!

No reputable merchant will sell you goods at 20 per cent off from regular prices, unless his regular prices are from 20 per cent higher than usual prices. It is the policy of some to flood the mails with circulars advertising such reductions, but a careful comparison of their "special sale prices" with my regular all-the-year-round prices will convince you that they are simply a cute advertising scheme to catch your dollars, and are not what they seem.

We do not take this way of humbugging the people into trading with us, as we know it cannot fail to be annoying to have your mail filled with this kind of matter; but we do sell goods at prices that are as low and lower than others can sell the same goods for. Do not be deceived by any sham "sales," but buy of us, and we guarantee satisfaction in both prices and goods. Ask for your coupons on the dinner sets, with each purchase. They cost you nothing

The excursion given by steamer City of New Baltimore on the bay last Monday evening, was largely patronized. We understand that they contemplate running one every week.
Call at Dr. Darling's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

Danger, disease and death follow neglect of the bowels. Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers to regulate them and you will add years to your life and life to your years. Easy to take and never grieve.—G. S. Darling.
There is no longer any bounty for killing English sparrows, the law having been repealed the past winter.
The law cost the state hundreds of thousands of dollars without any noticeable decrease in the number of birds.
George Cook, of Grant, died Thursday night of last week, at the advanced age of 79 years. The deceased leaves a wife and ten children.
The funeral services were held Sunday last and were largely attended.
The remains were interred in the cemetery in this city.
At the M. E. church next Sunday morning at 9.30, will be the Love Feast. At 10 o'clock Presiding Elder, W. M. Ward will preach after which he will administer the sacrament.
Sunday school at 12 o'clock; Epworth League at 6.30, and preaching at 7.30 by the pastor.
A Michigan man has patented a paper berry box which is made entirely of paper and antiseptically treated to destroy disease germs.
Holes are pierced in the sides to admit a free circulation of air. A fortune awaits the man who will invent a box with X-rays attachment, whereby the size and quality of the berries in the bottom of the box may be determined.
A young lady who was discussing the meaning of Bacchanianas applied to a scene of debauchery, said it was a word derived from Bacchus, the god of war. But was that Bacchus's business? He may have caused men to want to go to war, but we do not believe Bacchus was very much of a scrapper himself. He was not exactly a member of the Y. M. C. A., but he did not war enough to speak of.
James Sloan, who has peddled
"Dr. Sloan's Vegetable Compound," hereabouts during the last year, was arrested at his home in Bay City last Thursday by Sheriff Johnson, and brought here on the complaint of having "jumped" a $7.00 board bill at W. W. Brown's. He plead guilty before Justice Kelly Friday, and was fined $25.00 or 30 days in the county jail. He is stopping with Sheriff Johnson.
Miss Celia Martin, of Albaster, and Harry Preston, of Tawas, were united in marriage on Monday last, Rev. A. C. Kay officiating. The happy couple were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin, of Alabaster, Monday evening. The contracting parties have a large circle of friends who will join the HERALD in wishing them a long and happy married life.
William F. Wendt, and Miss Martha H. Lemka, of this city, were united in marriage on Sunday last, at the Zion Lutheran church, Rev.
C. L. Wuggazer, officiating. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. August Lemka. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended the happy couple.
You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active energetic man with a torpid liver when he does not relish his food, or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price, 25 cents.
Samples free at G. S. Darling's drug store.

The degree team from Grip Tent No. 455, K. O. T. M. of this city go to Turner in about two weeks to initiate a big class of candidates, which Deputy Com. W. G. Davy is working up for the Tents at that place and Twining.
Early last Friday morning the oil house at the R. R. shops was discovered to be on fire. The shop whistle blew the alarm, and the men at the shops soon had the hose out and a couple of streams playing on the fire. The East Tawas fire department also responded. The fire was kept from spreading to the other buildings, but the oil house was consumed.
Alexander Barron, died at his home in Albaster on Friday last, after an extended illness from Bright's disease. The deceased was well and favorably known to a large circle of friends in this locality, who join in extending the bereaved family then heartfelt sympathy. The deceased was about 60 years of age.
The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and were largely attended. The remains were interred in Albaster cemetery.
A gay young blade in this town, who thinks he is a ladies' man, asked seven girls to be true to him and go with him to a party. All refused till he got the seventh one. She promised to go. Meantime, she found out that he had asked six girls before he did her, and then she backed out and refused to go. Still that was hardly sufficient cause. Second choice may be undesirable, but seventh is good enough for almost anyone.
As the years go by it is pleasing to note that more farmers write letters on printed letter heads and have their envelopes. It was once thought that no one could do this unless he was engaged in the production of some speciality of breeding some pure blood farm stock. Let the farm be named, and then give that with the name and postoffice address and the business is done. The cost of the printing is but trifling in comparison with its benefit.
The case against James H. Gilling-ham, of Caseville, who was arrested about four weeks ago, charged with fishing with nets of smaller mesh than allowed by law, was tried before justice Kelly and a jury, on Friday last.
Prosecuting attorney Jahraus appeared for the people, while Mr. Gilling-ham was represented by Attorney J.
B. Woodworth, of Caseville. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and the defendant was fined $25.00 and costs, about $20, or 30 days in jail.
Bonds were given and the case appealed to the circuit court.
A little girl in this town had a double. They lived on opposite sides of the street and frequently one was taken for the other and one would be corrected for the misdeeds of the other.
Finally, one day the little girl we are discussing, got tired of the constant mistaken identity and said complainingly to her mamma, I don't see what God made the little girl across the street for. I don't see what He wanted with two little girls just alike." But she did not think to wonder why God had made her. And how like grown up folks that is!
Mr. James Brown of Putsmouth, Va. over 90 years of age suffered for years with a bad sore on his face.
Physicians could not help him. De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently.
Saying money is making money, "A penny saved is a penny earned" is the old way of saying it. The way to save money is to buy where you can buy to the best advantage. Generally speaking, the merchant who advertise persistently are the ones who offer the best bargains. THE HERALD recommends its advertisers to its readers. Are you profiting by their weekly announcement? If so, tell the merchants so. It will do them good to know that you keep up with the times. While thinking of your new spring clothes or furnishings, look through the paper each week and notice what is offered by the leading stores. It will certainly pay you.
"The Doctors told me my cough was incurable. One minute cough cure made me a well man." Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H. Because you have not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and it will cure you. Safe and sure. Dr. G. S. Darling.

W. W. BROWN,
First Ward Meat Market.

SOME REASONS
WHY YOU SHOULD TRADE WITH US!

First--We have one of the best meat boxes in town. Second--We weigh our meat on a Dayton computing scale, where the customer can see how much he is getting. Third-- we buy the best meat purchaseable.
Our pressed meat at a shilling, equals the best factory meats that cost 20c per pound. We have both Chicago and domestic beef.
Give us a two weeks' trial and you will be convinced that we give satisfaction in Bread, Meat, Fried Cakes, Cookies, Pies, Cakes, Oranges, Bananas, Lettuce, Strawberries, Etc.
Good fat veal calves and lambs wanted.

New Grocery Stock!

I have added to my meat business a full line of STAPLE and FANCY GROCERIES, and I solicit your patronage for everything in the line of Groceries, Meats, etc. My stock will be fresh and of best quality at all times, and you can always find what you want.
My prices are as low as first-class goods can be sold for.
Farm produce always wanted.

A WORD FOR THE SILO.
Its Virtues Extolled by a Progressive Farmer.

There are always kickers against the silo. They are two legged kickers, says a correspondent of The National Stockman. I never have had a cow or steer or horse or mule or hog to be on anything but the most friendly relations with my silos, and while I do not permit my own judgment to put on any Mrs. of infallibility I have some cows that in their likes and dislikes are so well established and I feel so much justification for my faith in their reliability that I never think of making an appeal from their judgment. I care not from where the wise men come, from the east or west, to tell me the silo is a fad; that silage is sauerkraut; that it is partly spoiled; that it is unwholesome and will decay the cow's teeth and eat out her internal economy; that not only the taste of it, but the smell of it, is death to horses; that there is nothing in it that the dried fodder does not contain but water, and that I am handling so many tons of that liquid that could be cheaply added in the winter.
And when they have hurled enough figures and statistics and testimonials at me to overwhelm even a stronger man than I am I simply refer the whole matter to the cows, and they always vote in the affirmative.
When we shall arrive at a proper appreciation of the possibilities of the silo not only as an adjunct of the dairy, but as a supplement to the farm as well, then we will understand that we were wise in holding fast to the silo faith, and the kicker—otherwise.
Then the inside fences will go, and the unlimited pasture, except the un-farmable land, will be a memory of the past. Then the product of 25 acres will keep the 25 cows more comfortably and profitably than the 100 acres do now, and there will be 75 acres to devote to other lines of agriculture or to growing the protein for the dairy to the wholesome cutting down of the feed and fertilizer bills.
Then the progressive farmer will not sigh to own all the land joining him, but rather regret that he already has more than he can farm as it should be done.
