Beginning January 1, 1903, all cards of thanks, resolutions of condolence, obituary poetry, published in these columns will be charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line.

A like charge will also be made for notices of all socials, entertainments, etc., which are given for the purpose of raising money, and for which an admission fee is charged.

This new rule may appear harsh, but when we tell you that during the almost ten years that we have published the Herald, we have contributed over $1,000 in free advertising to the churches, schools and societies of the Tawases besides paying each for tickets to most of same ontertainments, you can easily see that we have done fully as much as the average man toward supporting these institutions, and we now feel that it is time we began to look out for our own business and family. Confronts many people at the present time.

A man sits with disheveled hair, his hands deep in his trousers pockets, a far-away stare in his eyes, totally oblivious to his surroundings. His spirits are 10 below zero. His groans disturb the neighbors. Listen !-- you can hear him cry.' "What shall I get her for Christmas? What shall I get her Christmas" Your heart goes out in sympathy for the poor fellow when you see the misery he is undergoing. But look! What has happened. His groaning ceases, he comes face to earth, the world once more assumes a rosy hue. "I have it," he cries! "I will go to Davis, Kishlar & Co. They will have what she wants and will help me out of my dilemma." He shakes hands with himself.

How his face beams as he comes away from the storehis arms full of packages-and what makes him all the more happy is the fact that he still has money left.

We have helped others. We can help you.
