STATE FAIR EXHIBIT.

Shall Iosco County Have One That Will Be A Credit To The County?

Whether or not Iosco county will have an exhibit at the state fair at Pontiac, September 7-11, is now up to our farmers. The board of supervisors have appropriated $200.00 to defray expense of such an exhibit, and the executive committee of the Iosco County Agricultural Society are ready to take charge of the same and see that it is taken to the fair and properly displayed. Are the farmers ready to furnish the material? If so, show your willingness to co-operate by supplying the very best your farm produces.

The exhibits are two in number and according to the state fair premium list are as follows:

1st.—For the best exhibit of grain, vegetables and fruit to be shown from Alpena, Montmorency, Otsego, Crawford, Oscoda, Alcona, Iosco, Ogemaw or Rosecommon counties. Prizes, $50, $30 and $20. Grain to be shown in peck lots and straw. Vegetables in half dozen and peck lots.

2nd.—For the best fruit exhibit from the above counties, with Presque Isle and Cheboygan added, prizes the same.

The state fair association have made these special premiums for the purpose of stimulating agricultural production in this section of the state and there is no better or cheaper way for Iosco county to advertise her agricultural resources than to make such an exhibit. That our farmers can and do produce the crops to secure one of these prizes there is no doubt. The committee in charge wishes to hear, at once, from every farmer in Iosco county who will contribute towards this exhibit, as to what they will furnish. Full particulars can be had by addressing Secretary Len J. Patterson, Tawas City. Do not delay, but write or call on him at once, so that the committee may know who they can depend upon.

If there is a director of the Iosco County Agricultural Society in your vicinity see him and he will give you information. By a united effort this exhibit may be made a successful and profitable investment for our county and it is to be hoped that every resident make it a matter of personal interest, and not only contribute, but urge his neighbor to do the same. Each contribute his best and the whole will make a showing that will surprise all.

ZWIEBACK.

"Twice Baked" Bread—Good For the Teeth and the Digestion.

The custom of twice baking the bread is becoming quite a common thing with a great many housekeepers. This is most frequently due to the advice of a physician, for zwieback is a standard remedy for indigestion and beneficial in some kinds of kidney trouble. But the greatest good to be derived from its use is its effect upon the teeth. This should endear it to every mother who has the welfare of her children at heart, as a child can have few better inheritances in the shape of bodily perfection than a set of healthy teeth.

It is said that the habit of eating so much soft, sloppy food is the reason so few have perfectly sound, strong teeth. Even more terrifying consequences are predicted. We are told that if this same practice is adhered to a toothless race will be the result. Though such a catastrophe is highly improbable, we are faced with the fact that the great majority of the people of the present age have not half as good teeth as did their grandfathers. The teeth, like every other portion of the human system, have a given amount of work to perform to keep them in a healthy condition. Food which requires but little mastication deprives them of their appointed tasks and makes them weak.

Consequently children should be given all the zwieback they will eat, and adults, too, will find that the health of their teeth can be improved by its consumption. But of course all this hygienic inducement which is held out would probably prove fruitless if it were not for the fact that the taste for zwieback is an increasing one. Few people who have eaten it, even but a short time, care to go back to common bread, for it seems soft and insipid after the crispness of the re-baked.

The Vienna bread makes the best zwieback, although any other kind of baker's bread will do if this is not obtainable, but homemade bread will not give satisfactory results. In preparing it is a good plan to cut up several loaves in slices of medium thickness. Place them in the oven and allow to remain there overnight, subjected to a moderate temperature for twelve hours. Bread treated in this way will be superior to that which is baked in a quicker oven in a shorter period.—Table Talk.

WATER WORKS.

A Question that should Receive the Support of Every Tax Payer in the City.

The matter of water works for this city has been assuming more definite shape steadily during the past ten days, and the indications now are that at the meeting of the city council next Tuesday evening, action will be taken to submit the question of bonding for that purpose to the people at an election to be held in the near future.

Careful estimates have been made, and there is no question but what a system can be put in at a cost not to exceed $15,000, which will furnish all parts of our city ample fire protection, as well as water for private use. There is every reason to believe that the figures named above will more than complete the work, and the council may not ask for more than $12,000, but we prefer at this time to place it at the outside figure.

The Herald is well aware of the objections of many of our citizens to bonding, but when the question of so small an amount as is here required is considered, the advantages offered are so great that we can see no chance for any taxpayer to oppose the matter. Bonds to this amount can be issued and paid when due without increasing the rate of taxation at all. Besides, ample fire protection will decrease insurance rates to a minimum.

Had the city been supplied with water works the loss at the fire which destroyed the Lutheran parsonage would not have been as many hundred dollars as it was thousands. While we have been fortunate in the past as to large fires, nobody knows when we may have a big one. That our present fire apparatus is inadequate to cope with a large fire there is no doubt, and it is a matter of good policy for our people to secure a good system of water works at once.

A Successful Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the Baptist Young People's Societies of the Alpena district held a most successful rally at the Baptist church in this city Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. There was a good attendance of delegates from all parts of the district and a good program was rendered. Some able papers on "Our committees," and the "B. Y. P. U. as a factor in the church," were read and discussed.

Among the special features of the rally were an address by Rev. B. H. Thomas, of Bay City, on "Preparation for Service." Rev. W. P. Lovett, State missionary Secretary, presented in a very able manner, "What B. Y. P. U. can do for Missions," while Rev. Jay Purden, of the American Baptist Publication Society, gave a common sense address on "The Worker," bringing out some very practical thoughts on Christian work from the physical as well as the moral standpoint.

Other able and instructive addresses were given and discussed, which with the excellent music interspersed furnished a program which gave entire satisfaction and was a credit to the local union.

At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Mayo, Harrisville. Vice-Pres.—Rev. E. Draper, Lincoln. Secretary—Miss Mary Freer, Harrisville. Treasurer—Mr. Potter, Alpena. Junior Supt.—Miss Martha Little, Alpena.

The Orange celebration last Monday brought a large crowd to our village, and all had an enjoyable day. Whittemore was properly decorated for the occasion and ample entertainment was furnished for all. The ball game between Whittemore and Tawas City was won by the former by a score of 16 to 10. Had not the Tawas boys went to pieces in the sixth innings, when the locals scored nine runs, the results would have been different. Aside from this inning it was a pretty game.
