The Arenac county teachers' association will meet at Omer, Oct. 23-24.

Tammany Hall has nominated George B. McClellan for mayor of New York to oppose Mayor Low.

The Bay City Times reports that city free from small-pox on Monday evening, and the Tribune reports five new cases Tuesday morning.

Kalkaska ministers have joined in the growing movement against Sunday funerals and refuse to officiate at such occasions on the Sabbath.

The steamer S. H. Hackly went down during the heavy storm on Lake Michigan last Saturday night. Eleven of the crew of 17 were lost.

Though he is 84 years old, Asa H. Parker is still in active service as probate judge of Ontonagon. He is said to be the oldest judge still on the bench in Michigan.

The big Hecla Portland Cement Co. at Bay City, has gone into the hands of a receiver, and has been closed down. It is claimed that matters will soon be arranged and operations resumed.

W. J. Martin, former division superintendent, of the Michigan Central railroad, and one of the best known citizens of Bay City, died of apoplexy, early Monday morning.

William Cutver has been given a verdict for $15,000 against the South Haven & Eastern railroad for the loss of his feet, which were cut off by one of the company's trains last fall.

It is expected that trains will be running to Port Hope by November 1. That point will then be the terminus of that branch of the Pere Marquette, instead of Harbor Beach, as at present.

Dr. V. H. Worden, convicted of the murder of Silas Burr in the Clare circuit, last Saturday, was sentenced to life imprisonment at Marquette. His wife, jointly accused of the crime was acquitted.

Do not accept a thing as a truth because it sounds plausible; test all things by experience or by what you have observed of the experience of others. In other words, learn to think.

On October 15 the Twentieth Michigan Infantry will hold its annual reunion at Jackson. Of the 1,000 men who went to the front with the regiment it is thought that not more than 200 yet survive.

During the last week of October and the first of November, according to the monthly report of the state game warden, an extra force of deputies will be employed to prevent the killing of deer before the season opens.

Mrs. Martha Verguson, under arrest at Bay City for abandoning her baby, was married to W. O. Bundy, a Mt. Pleasant farmer, and provided with a home for herself and children. Upon taking this step she was released from custody.

By the explosion of a huge copper cylinder in Corning's distillery at Peoria, Ill., Saturday the building was totally wrecked and every person in it, seven in number, were killed. Several persons in the near vicinity were more or less seriously injured by flying debris.

There has been a big second crop of strawberries this year and now the second crop raspberries are coming in. If this thing keeps on there will be two crops of everything each year, and the farmer will be kept so busy making money he will never have time to spend any.

According to the report of Grand Secretary Grant, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, more than 13,000 Odd Fellow Lodges were organized in this and other countries during the past year. The order now has members in foreign countries, but the bulk still remains in the United States.

Ithaca—The Imperial barn burned at three o'clock this morning. Nine horses, buggies, harness, etc., which were in the building were destroyed. The barn was owned by E. W. Voight of Detroit, and the contents by A. K. Taylor, of this place. Loss, $3,000, insured. The Imperial hotel was slightly damaged.

Miss Ruth Bryan, daughter of William Jennings Bryan, was married Saturday evening to William Homer Leavitt, a portrait artist of Massachusetts, at the Fairview, the summer home of the Bryans at Lincoln, Neb. The wedding was a simple affair with about 100 of the intimate friends of the family present. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt left immediately for St. Louis to visit friends and will travel for a time before making their home at Newport, R. I.

In an interview Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore declared that polygamy existed in every state in the union, holding that the present divorce laws were a recognition of Mormonism in a modified form. He declared himself against any kind of divorce law and in favor of a strict application of the gospel teaching. He also contended that the present public school system was imperfect and vicious because of the absence of religious education and recommended as a remedy the adoption of the denominational system of Canada.

The commission of thirty English educational experts which Alfred Mosely is sending to the United States to closely study American educational methods, sailed from London last Saturday. The commissioners have been selected with the greatest care and represent almost every branch of educational activity. They will travel about separately, visiting many of the leading universities, colleges and technical schools of the United States. The public school system will also be closely studied in New York, Boston, Cleveland, Indianapolis and a number of other cities.

The new law protecting human life during the deer season, is now in effect, and it provides that "If any person shoots another and wounds him he is liable to a penalty of $1,000 fine and imprisonment for a term of from five to ten years." This is a good enactment, as any person who is so anxious to shoot a deer that he shoots a man instead, should be given the full penalty of the law. It is not essential that a hunter kills a deer but decidedly essential that he should not wound or kill a human being.

After a residence of nine years in this city Peter Evertz has sold his furniture and undertaking business, and about November 1 will move his family to Alpena, and engage exclusively in the undertaking business. His successor here is John Armstrong, of Lansing, who comes highly recommended as an undertaker. Mr. Evertz has purchased the finest undertaker's outfit in northern Michigan for use in his new location. During his residence here he has made a host of friends who regret his departure, yet join in wishing him success and prosperity in his new home.

Mr. Woodward, one of New York's great orchardists, in giving his experience in the different methods practiced by him in keeping up the fertility of his orchards, says that orchards where he kept his sheep and gave them grain, produced the best apples and were the freest from worms and the net returns were better than by cultivation or any other treatment.

C. V. Hicks, Pianos and Organs.

Oakes-Waller.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the wedding of Miss Harnet C. Waller to Herbert King Oakes, of Detroit, was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waller, 401 Owen street, in the presence of relatives and friends. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Rev. N. S. Bradley, pastor of the First Congregational church performed the ceremony, and Miss Abigail Waller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, Miss Abigail wearing a costume of blue and carrying white chrysanthemums. Frank C. Oakes, of Pittsburg, brother of the groom, was best man. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding repast was served and in the evening the young couple will go for a trip to Colorado, and will be at home at the Effingham, Detroit, about Dec. 1. The bride is a popular and talented young lady, and the groom is a prominent young attorney, of Detroit, being a member of the firm of Shaw, Warren, Cady and Oakes.—Saginaw News. ## New Idea Woman's Magazine.

The Thanksgiving number of the IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE offers a table of contents which is a typical feast of plenty. Prominent among the good things provided may be mentioned an article upon "The President's New Church," by Waldon Fawcett; "Chesnut Dainties for the Thanksgiving Table," by Eleanor Merchant; Henrietta Crossman in "As You Like It," by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow; "Catering," the third paper in a series of "Profitable Industries for Women," by Sarah E. Slater, and a good list of other readable and interesting things from the pens and brushes of well-known contributors. In fact, every number that appears is an improvement on its predecessor, maintaining a high order of excellence.
