A telegram was received here last Monday announcing that J. B. Sanford had been killed in a wreck at Litchfield Ill., last Sunday evening. Later particulars bring the information that Mr. Sanford was engineer on the Limited, a fast Wabash passenger between Chicago and St. Louis, and that when near Litchfield the train ran into an open switch, derailing it and burning six of the eight coaches. Eighteen lives were lost and about 40 passengers injured. Mr. Sanford was a former employee of the D. & M., and was familiarly known here as Birney Sanford, and was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. George Cullam, of Tawas township.

At the beginning of the ninth inning the score was 8 to 5 in favor of East Tawas, but the local boys run in three, tying it. The East Tawas boys came back with three in the tenth, while our boys were unable to get more than one, leaving the score 9 to 11 in favor of the East Tawas team. Tom Dean for the D. & M. and Ed Butzloff for the locals both pitched a steady game. This makes two games won by East Tawas, and future games will create a lot of interest as the locals are determined to even up matters.

TAWAS CITY MICH., JULY 8, 1904.

The advocates primary reform in the republican party were thoroughly and completely defeated at the state convention last week. It now remains to be seen whether or not they will "take their medicine." The chances are that most of them will climb into the machine band wagon.

The census bureau issued the final bulletin on the negro population of the United States, which shows a total of 9,204,531, including Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico. The report indicates that between 11 and 16 per cent of the negro population have or are believed by the enumerators to have some degree of white blood.

The latest estimate of the population of China is based upon a census, taken by order of the Imperial government, for the purpose of reassessing taxes. It gives to China proper, including the eighteen provinces, 407,737,325 people. Manchuria is credited with 8,500,000, Mongolia with 3,354,000, Tibet with 6,430,000 and Chinese Turkestan with 426,000 making a grand total of 426,447,325.

Thomas F. Woodcock, editor of the Wall Street Journal, told the bankers at the Minnetonka meeting that a panic has got to come about once in every so often and there is no way to help it. What we can do however is to prepare for it when the signs of the times indicate a recurrence. From all appearance we are in line for another commercial smash, according to the cycle theory. It would seem as if the financial wisdom of the country ought to be able to discover a way to avoid the periodical wreck.

As Modern Fable.

From Chillicothe, Mo., there comes a story with a moral that is applicable elsewhere than in the "show me" state. The tale may not be true, it reads almost too good for veracity to predominate, but it is worthy consideration none the less. No person really believes that Aesop's Fables were based upon actual happenings, yet a life modeled on the morals of these fables will certainly pass the examination in the last analysis.

Parading the Chillicothe streets one evening recently was a pretty Chillicothe girl, on flirtation bent. She was probably one of that great class of girls whom nature endowed with good looks, which art enhanced and which man complimented until the girl's head was in a fair way to keep a sharp look-out behind her. Such girls are not confined to Chillicothe, Mo. by any means. As this girl walked about the streets of her home town, instead of washing the dishes at home or waiting until her beaux should come to her, she encountered a middle-aged traveling man and immediately that spark of affinity which flashed between the girl who flirts and the man who is in a receptive mood kindled an acquaintanceship between the two. They walked together and as they rambled on the man inquired the whereabouts of the home of his new friend. As they approached it he asked that he be taken in and introduced to her mother. To this the girl objected, saying she did not care to appear before her mother with a stranger, as to whose perfectness she was not positive. Whereupon the man seized the girl by the arm and forcibly presenting her before her mother, said:

Madam, your daughter flirted with me on the streets this evening and I have brought her home to you. She doesn't look like a bad girl, and she is altogether too young and pretty to be on the streets alone at night. I have a daughter of my own about her age and I would thank any man for doing what I have done tonight, and so would her mother. Take good care of your daughter and don't let her walk the streets at night, and teach her the evils of flirting.

There's the whole story without adornment and with little comment necessary. The curtain drops on the scene. Either one of two things happened; the man was shilted for his pains and indignantly ordered to leave the house, and the girl is either flirting on the Chillicothe streets today or practicing what Rudyard Kipling calls "the oldest profession in the world;" or the man was thanked, the daughter spanked and a summary end put to that nocturnal street ambling and flirting which can have but one inevitable end.—Exchange.

C. E. Convention Closed.

The annual convention of the state Christian Endeavorers closed at Orion Friday after a most successful four day's session. The principle feature of Friday's meeting was the election of officers as follows: President, Fred W. Chamberlain, of Detroit; first vice president, Anthony Plune, of Grand Rapids; second vice president, Rev. J. M. Rogers, of Marquette; corresponding secretary, Edward T. Lindsay, of Saginaw; secretary, Miss Emma Crosson, of Saginaw; treasurer, W. S. Hammond, of Ludington; junior superintendent, Rev. Carl S. Jones, of Chelsea; missionary superintendent, Miss Jeanette Manley, of Grand Rapids; press superintendent, Arthur S. Randall.

A resolution was adopted providing for a state field secretary and as soon as the $600 necessary for the expense is raised such an officer will be appointed. A vote of thanks to Miss Caroline Parsons, of Kalazamoo, who declined a re-election as corresponding secretary was passed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cullis, of Prescott, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Williams on Monday. Mrs. Clarence Stockhouse, of Albany, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Campbell. A. Simon is all smiles as a natural consequence. The Prescott band has improved greatly since its last appearance here, and with the six young ladies in their pretty uniforms, made a fine impression. During a thunder store last Thursday afternoon the dwelling of Adam Cataline was struck by lightning. Some of the family were shocked but not seriously, although the stove was blown to pieces and considerable plaster torn off. The races on the 4th were good. Frank Bronson took first in the running race, and Fred Kelly, second. In the trotting race, Dr. Voorhes came out with his chestnut pacer and settled things, Joe Smith getting second. Ambrose Schill, who has always been a favorite with the ladies here, owing to his smiling face and pleasing manners, got a damper on it after the game on the 4th, and felt very sad over the defeat of his pets. Never mind, Ambrose, you will have better luck next time. The ball game between the A. S. Leaders, of East Tawas, and our team on the 4th was won by a score of 14 to 21. Eddie Norstrum, catcher of the Leaders had his collar bone broken by a collision, and his brother, Emil was injured by being hit on the head with a ball, while John Robbins, another of the visiting players suffered a severe sprained wrist.

Alabaster Dust.

Harry Morley is spending the week with his aunt at East Tawas. The Band Boys' dance last Monday evening was a decided success. Mr. Whitney, of Flint, was the guest of Mrs. M. Sheldon, last week. Mrs. Olson, of Munising, was called here by the serious illness of her father, John L. Benson. If the steam shovel will pick up the rock, it will be used in place of the laborers in the quarry. The pupils and many friends of Mrs. Marion Sheldon gave her a pleasant surprise party last Saturday. P. A. English, of Grand Rapids, one of the managers of the company, inspected the plant here this week. The school children played the "Heavenly Twins," last Monday evening to an appreciative audience. Mrs. Jesse Corner and children, also Kin McPhee, of AuSable, were guests of D. D. McDonald, last week. Last Thursday evening, Miss Fitzpatrick was tendered a surprise party by her pupils, who left many tokens of friendship to remind her of the happy occasion. John L. Benson sustained serious injuries last Friday by falling while at work on his new barn. He fell about 20 feet, and besides three broken ribs, received internal injuries.

Shippy, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitesides, of Prescott, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. W's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmith. Mr. and Mrs. H. Sylvester and two children, of East Tawas, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. S's father, Mr. A. Lake. Misses Alice Saunders and Maude Shippy left for Big Rapids last Saturday where they will attend the Ferris Institute during the summer.

South Branch.

Mrs. Jennie Patrick spent part of last week in Tawas. John Martindale went to Tawas Wednesday morning. Highway Com. T. J. Mudgett is hustling the work on the roads. L. A. Ewing expects to move his family to their new home this week. The Gleaners here have a new set of officers of whom Mrs. Clara Stewart is chief. Henry Goodale and wife, of Tawas, are the guests of their daughter Mrs. John Martindale. John Martindale sold his pet bear, Mollie, to Frank Traver, for $25. It was one of the attractions on the 4th. Eugene Berry and wife are entertaining their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wildish, of Saginaw for several weeks. Lawrence Healy and his sister Vina, from Glennie, spent last Saturday with Mrs. Frank Berry, while on their way to Rose City to spend the Fourth. A union Sunday school was organized at the new hall last Sunday with Albert Schrieb as superintendent. The hour of meeting will be 2 p. m. South Branch Grange is dealing in Paris Green, having bought 100 pounds, which will be sold to patrons at contract prices and can be had by calling on Frank Berry, Sec'y. The South Branch base ball team played at Lupton last Friday, the score standing six to seven in favor of Lupton. Competent judges tell us the game was well played and very close. Our boys expect to play the Rose City team here July 12. South Branch Grange held a pleasant meeting in their hall last Saturday evening. They are considering a Grange rally for some time in August and intend inviting all Patrons within reach to join them in a good time. Next meeting July 16.

HOW WE SPENT THE FOURTH.

It rained—as usual on the Fourth. Charlie Guilford went to Fremont. Miles Doane was home for a few days. Mrs. Martin Doane, of Rosecommon, visited at S. E. Doane's. The Taber family enjoyed the day fishing on Marbled lake. R. J. Aldeaton, of St. Charles, visited his parents and other friends here. Charlie Berry went to Brant, Saginaw county. He may stay some time. Mrs. Rose Crockett entertained her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Harrington, of AuGres. Two deputy sheriff's and some constables were on the grounds, and order prevailed. Dr. Cowie and wife entertained their brother, George Grimore and wife, from AuGres. O. H. Olderton, Earl Harrington and Dr. Cowie each had stands and each did a thriving business. Two wagon loads of young people from Glennie, and a carload from Lupton spent the day with us. The shooting match did not materialize. Those most anxious to compete backed out when they found how many good marksmen they would have to compete with. In the sports, Will Herron's team won the drawing match, John Martindale's the trotting race, John Becraft, of Lupton, the running race, Frank Traver the foot race and jump. The South Branch lucky nine played the national game with the Glennie team, with their usual luck. We did not learn the exact result, but it was a good game, and our team was way ahead.

A BLUNT YOUNG PRINCE.

European papers say that the nine-year-old Prince Paul, son of the new king of Serbia, is the enfant terrible of his father's court. The sanguinary coup d'etat by which the fate of the former king and queen was sealed is especially an object of his curiosity, and he has often embarrassed King Peter by his questions on the subject. Recently during a reception at the palace he almost brought his parents to the point of despair. Among the guests there was the chief regicide, Colonel Mistich. When he was introduced to the little prince the lad refused to hold out his hand and said, "So you are the one who murdered King Alexander?" Mistich turned pale and tried to change the subject, but Prince Paul continued calmly: "Oh, I know it all right. It was not a very heroic deed."

Where He Hitched His Horse.

A farmer who drove into Iola, Kan., some time ago found all of the hitching racks in town full, so he tied his horse to an empty box car standing on a sidetrack in an alley. A few minutes later a switch engine coupled on to the car and started up the alley. The hitch strap in this instance was a rope, and it was tied around the animal's neck. The horse did fairly well until he encountered a telephone pole. The buggy was demolished there. The engine kept on going, so did the horse, until another telephone pole was reached; then the horse tried to go on one side and the engine and car on the other. The animal's neck was broken. Now the farmer wants damages.—Topeka State Journal.

The Sensitive Czar.

Though trained of course as a soldier, the czar lacks the temperament and the tastes of one, while so sensitive is his heart and so little calculated to resist even a description of the horrors of a battlefield that on the occasion of his coronation, when so many of his poorer subjects were crushed to death on the Khodynskoi plain at Moscow, he was afflicted with a severe attack of jaundice. Nicholas is as gentle as his mother, from whom, more than from his herculean father, he has inherited his temperament and physique, and certainly no one ever looked less what destiny has made him—the absolute ruler of over a hundred and twenty millions of his fellow creatures—than does Nicholas II.—London Mail.

Verbs Wanted.

Popular verbs are wanted for several operations introduced by modern science. The X rays, the Finsen treatment for lupus, the operation of radium for cancer—what are the words for these? A man is guillotined or hanged, his leg is amputated, he is trepanned. What is he when he is rayed, Finsened, radiumed? The world still wants a wireless word. Marconigram, which was suggested, seems to have died a natural death. What is the synonym for telephone when one speaks over the instrument to which a phonograph is attached? Nor has the public finally agreed upon a verb for travel by automobile.

French Life Senators.

Unless fresh appointments shall be made, of which there appears to be little likelihood, the class of French life senators must soon become extinct. The youngest of the ten life senators is seventy years and the eldest ninety-two. M. Wallon, who is the father of the house as well as father of the constitution, was born in 1812. Then follow in order M. Gouin, born in 1818; M. d'Audiffert-Pasquier, in 1823; M. Cazot, in 1824; M. Magnin, in 1824; M. Berthelot, in 1827; M. de Marcere, in 1828; General Billot, in 1828; M. Berenger, in 1830, and M. Herve de Saisy, in 1833.

Expensive Family History.

There can be no doubt that a family history is a good investment. I noticed in an Edinburgh catalogue that no less than £155 is being asked for the twelve histories, totaling twenty-nine volumes, which the late Sir William Fraser compiled, and the bookseller describes this as an "exceptionally moderate price." The fact is that the Americans are buying up everything dealing with family history, and thus the prices increase in a most remarkable way.—London Tatler.

The St. Bernard Dog.

St. Bernard dogs seem to retain their life saving instincts even in this country. A large specimen of that breed was recently seen at Keene, N. H., making a great fuss over what appeared to be an old coat partly buried in a snow bank. At last some one investigated the coat and found that there was a man inside of it who was almost dead from the cold. As soon as the dog saw that the man was to be properly cared for, he went on his way in peace.

Sherman Shots.

Well, the 4th is past. What comes next? Martha and Annie Drager, of Tawas City, visited friends here last week. Lizzie Nash, of East Tawas, returned home Monday, after a weeks visit with Martha Schroeder. Lester Decker and wife, of West Branch, were guests at the home of W. H. Pringle Tuesday. Miss Alice Gregory and friend, of Bay City, spent Sunday at the home of Miss Gregory's mother. Our people who went abroad for the 4th were pretty well divided between Tawas, Whittemore and Bay City. About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pringle from Oscoda, Townline, Sherman, Whittemore, Prescott and Glover, spent the 4th at their pleasant home, where religious services were the order of the day. Married, at the home of G. A. Pringle, on Sunday last, Walter E. Goodwin and Miss Rhoda May, both of Burleigh. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pringle, Elder Grant, of Glover, officiating.
