The Issue in a Nutshell.

It is not simply the question whether Fred M. Warner or Woodbridge N. Ferris is the better man, but whether the people of the state of Michigan shall submit to have the railway corporations select their governors for them.

It is no secret that Gov. Bliss was selected by the railway managers, and their companies are credited with having contributed $100,000 or more to secure his nomination and election. In return all his important appointments were made to the satisfaction of the railways.

Thus really a few great corporations exercise today the powers which the constitution of the state contemplates that the governor shall exercise and the nominal governor is a mere puppet in their hands.

The same men precisely who were active in procuring Bliss's nomination are today pressing Warner's candidacy. What other conclusion, therefore, is possible but that he stands for a continuation of railroad rule.

It is quite impossible to see how any self-respecting American citizen can consistently cast his vote for him.

The issue very plainly is: Shall the railways or the people govern Michigan? In the face of so great an issue it is puerile to talk of party fealty. Let us first of all be American citizens and show our loyalty to the great principle of government by the people.—Evening News.

That Manly Speech.

For weeks there's been within my reach

"Fred M. Warner's manly speech,"
From Muskegon to Harbor Beach
The newspapers that doctrines teach
Republican, just howl and screech
Of "Fred M. Warner's manly speech."

Each paper, in the boldest way,
Presents the heading in display,
From week to week and day to day,
Like one who but one theme can preach,

I wonder what it's all about,
And why the papers don't cut out
This "manly speech" once in awhile;
They ought to know it makes us smile
"This 'manly speech' in boiler plate,
That has grown old and out of date,
But they hold to it like a leech,
"Fred M. Warner's manly speech."

They talk about the Ferris wheel
Till it would make you dizzy feel,
But surely there is no such "spiel"
That fairly takes you off your heel
And makes your very liver bleach
Like "Fred M. Warner's manly speech." Rose City Review.

After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Next Tuesday the voters of the state of Michigan will be called upon to decide whether or not they want two years more of Atwood-Bless-Navin-Doherty-Burd & Co.'s machine rule, and railroad domination of state affairs, or whether they are sincere in their demand for primary reform and direct nominations. If they are in favor of a continuation of "bossism," dishonest state government, and machine manipulated caucuses and conventions, they will vote for the machine ticket headed by Fred M. Warner. If they want honest state government and direct nominations of all officials they will vote for W. N. Ferris and the democratic nominees for state officers and members of the state legislature. It's up to the people to decide, and the indications are that they have already decided to oust the machine, and will do so next Tuesday.

Hon. W. N. Ferris,
Democratic Candidate For Governor.

The voters of the 10th congressional district never had the opportunity of electing a man to represent them in the hall of congress with the ability of Hon. S. P. Flynn. He is a selfmade man, who has by study become familiar with matters of state and by his selection the district may be represented by a man who is qualified to take his place among the brightest and most able of the many brilliant men in congress. His voice will ever be found advocating the rights of the people against the greed of the corporations.

Stephen P. Flynn,
The Democratic Nominee for Congress from the 10th District.

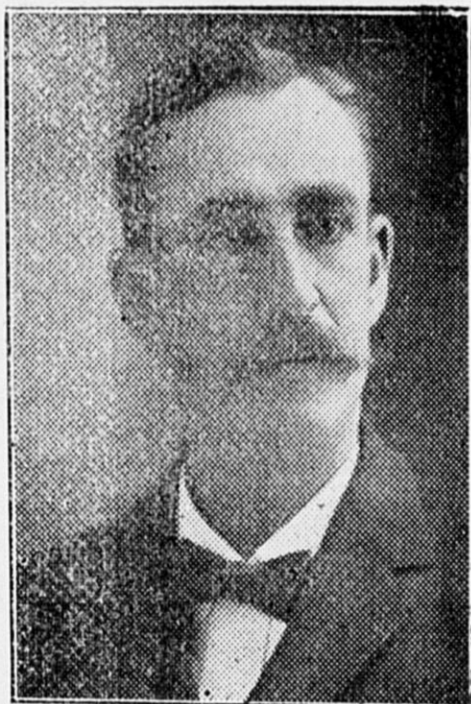

Justin K. Mead, the opponent of "Bell-cow" Doherty, will vote and work for the enactment of direct nominating law. He will not be "assistant general passenger agent" for the Pullman Palace Car Co. He will represent the people of the 28th district. He will not represent corporation interests. Do you want him or do you want the man who has disgraced this district for the past four years? You must decide by your vote next Tuesday. "See Doherty" stay at home!

George D. McKay, for judge of probate, is a candidate in every way qualified and worthy of your vote.

It is said that one republican office seeker when out in the townships grows so eloquent in his plea for vote that he weeps great sacrificial tears.

Hundreds of honest republicans who are opposed to the machine rule in their own party, will be found in Isoco county next Tuesday, voting for W. N. Ferris and the democratic state ticket.

The voters this year have an opportunity of showing their "love for the old soldiers" by casting their vote for Francis C. Baker, a man in every way qualified to fill the office of register of deeds.

The financial affairs of this county will be in safe hands if H. Eugene Nunn is on next Tuesday chosen as the next county treasurer of Isoco county.

A vote for George C. Anschutz for county clerk is a vote for a man who has helped in more ways than one to develop Isoco county. He has grown to manhood here and is one of the sturdy pioneers who have helped to develop our country. He is a taxpayer and has the interests of the county at heart. Can you do better than vote for him?

"Bell-cow" Doherty has not visited this section of the 28th district during the campaign, in fact he appears to be "laying low" and saying nothing in hopes that notwithstanding his rotten record in the state senate for two terms, he may again be elected if the voters forget he is on the ticket. The honest republicans of Isoco county are thoroughly disgusted with him and he will be cut by hundreds of them next Tuesday.

The voters of Isoco county can make no mistake by electing Albert W. Black to the office of prosecuting attorney of this county next Tuesday. He is a young man who is bound to be a success at anything he undertakes. By his own efforts he has at the age of 23, successfully overcome all obstacles and passed a highly satisfactory examination before the state board of examiners and been admitted to the bar. What better evidence do the people need of his ability to make a successful prosecuting attorney.

Senator Alfred J. Doherty of the 28th senatorial district is one of the republican machine bosses. He is chairman of the senate railway committee and has charge of the dispensing of the Pullman Car company's free passes. All legislators have to apply to Doherty for Pullman car passes. Last year the state tax commission certified that the Pullman Car company in 1901 paid a tax of $6.45 on taxable property, the estimated valuation of which is $3,000,000. In Wisconsin the Pullman Car company paid last year taxes of $3,501, in Ohio it paid $5,806.41, in Indiana it paid $5,078, and yet in Michigan, where its business is certainly as large as it is in any of the three states named, it paid in 1901 the great sum of $6.45, and last year it did not pay a dollar of taxes for any purpose. —Grand Rapids Post.

FARM FOR SALE—120 acres, 65 under cultivation, good house; two large barns, and 60 bearing fruit trees. Situated four miles from town. Can be had at a bargain. Enquire of L. J. Patterson.

If the voters of this county elect William West sheriff next Tuesday—and we have every reason to believe that will be the result—the affairs of that important office will be conducted on an economical basis and will have much to do in cutting down county taxes.

We find the following in the Albion Mirror, which, white not much of an argument is of such an embarrassing character as to make a political spouter tear his hair: "One of the assumptions of the republican party is: 'A party fit to govern must have convictions.' The republican party is well fitted; it has convictions—Tom Navin, Frank Andrews, the military officials who stole the soldiers' clothing, etc. Yes, sir, if convictions are qualifications, the republicans are indeed well fitted. The only trouble is that a machine governor pardoned or paroled the "convicted" before they had served their time, and in some instances appointed them to responsible official positions."

A RED-HOT ROAST

Handed Out to the Machine by William Alden Smith.

HIS WARNING TO HIS PARTY

Strongly Urged Legislature to Pass a Law For Direct Nomination of All Candidates.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 19.—In view of the fact that Wm. Alden Smith has glibbed back and is now lined up with the machine bosses for a spurious brand of primary reform, to be applied in spots only, the following newspaper interview which he gave out in this city on May 19, 1903 will be interesting reading now to his friends and others. At the time he gave it out State Chairman Diekmans and others high up in the party were appealing to the state senate to pass a genuine primary law, such as had been promised in the two preceding state conventions. Said Wm. Alden: "All factions of the Wisconsin legislature have agreed upon a sweeping reform in the primary election law of that state, so that the governor, state officers and congressional candidates, as well as United States senators, shall hereafter be chosen by direct vote of the people. This reform was promised at the last Wisconsin state convention, and the legislature has added much to its credit by this action. Michigan Republicans made equally emphatic promises in the two last state conventions and are bound by every consideration of morality and public decency to redeem them. PUBLIC SENTIMENT FOR IT. "I have taken no part in the past convention discussions, but feel bound by our party declaration, and would be sorry indeed, to see the legislature adjourn without giving the people this reform. Michigan was the birthplace of the Republican party; let it not be the burial place of broken promises. "Public sentiment will sustain the legislature in the passage of the Colby bill, and I have no doubt whatever, from the experience of other states that its principles would be wholesome as a party measure. "The statement that the general primary law of Minnesota is not a success is untrue, as telegrams just received by me from Gov. Van Sant and United States Senator Nelson and Fred C. Stevens, member of congress for the city of St. Paul, testify: St. Paul, Minn., May 18, 1903.—To Hon. Wm. Alden Smith: Our primary election law providing for county, city, legislative, judicial and congressional candidates has proven wholesome and effective, and is generally popular. S. R. VAN SANT, Governor of Minnesota. Alexandria, Minn., May 18, 1903.—To Hon. Wm. Alden Smith: On the whole the law has proven satisfactory, and what the people wanted. As a rule, results have vindicated the law. NELSON, U. S. Senator, Minnesota. THE PARTY'S DUTY. William Alden Smith, continuing, said: "Is it possible the opponents of primary reform hope to perpetuate a political machine to subvert the selfish interests of any particular candidate for governor or United States senator. I greatly desire our party to be honest with itself, and will quickly forego any personal ambitions which may in any way enter into the prompt fulfillment of our party pledges. If the friends of Senator Burrows in the state senate will pass the Colby bill with its provision for the nomination of United States senators by direct vote of the people, I will support his candidacy, even with a referendum attached for re-election. If no honest effort shall be attempted to faithfully perform our promises to the people and we are to be humiliated and disgraced by senatorial incompetency, IT WILL BE OUR DUTY TO WAGE CONTINUED WARFARE AGAINST OUR LEADERSHIP, IF WE ARE TO HAVE A CONTEST BETWEEN A FEW SELF-CONSTITUTED BOSSES AND THE PEOPLE. EVERY REPUBLICAN IN OUR COMMONWEALTH WILL BE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO TAKE HIS POSITION."

The machine orators should get together. Oat r Colgrove is said to be opposing primary reform in toto; Mr. Townsend in another region favors reform, with reservations; Mr. Glidden in another portion of the state is telling how dear and desirable are the present type of caucuses and conventions; Senator Alger insists that the machine will pass the kind of primary reform law the people want, and Fred Warner declares sometimes that he is and sometimes that he isn't, sometimes that he does and sometimes that he doesn't; Congressman Gardner at Alpena the other night made a blunder in opposing reform whereas most of the Republicans up there are in favor of it. And so it goes. None of the machine orators are candid, and few of them sincere. It has come to be a case of anything to save the machine and the candidates of the machine.—Hillsdale Democrat.

Commenting on the results of the recent trial of primary reform in Wayne county the Detroit Tribune says: "In every instance where public sentiment was appealed to, where a moral issue, an issue of good government presented itself, the voters made unequivocal reply. Not one of these three ends, the utter defeat of that intolerable machine blatherskite, 'Pop' Goodell, the swift rebuke of the use of money in the Newberry interest, the upholding of Prosecutor Hunt, or the defeat of the alderman who pawned his badge of office, could have been accomplished were the voters tied, hand and foot, by machine delegates trading in convention. Primary reform was expected to do this. And it has done it. And done it so decisively that the traitor and the corrupter may well say: 'D—n primary reform!'"

The republican rally held in the hall Monday evening was well attended and a half dozen of the county officers and candidates spoke. The young men of our town ought to be commended for their good conduct on hallow'en, nothing being disturbed so far as we have learned. A supper and reception were given Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong in the Town hall Wednesday evening by the Grangers previous their leaving for Canada. Mike, the pet crow of the Alda boys, has disappeared. Charles Smith has disposed of his farm in this township and is visiting at Lupton and Rose City. Alex. Anderson is the proud possessor of a fine team of young horses, purchased at the Smith sale. Let every voter in Reno go to the booth and give William West a complimentary vote for sheriff. He is a honest farmer and would be a credit to the county. Don't forget to vote for "Billy." Actions unbecoming certain young boys, apparently beyond the restraint of their parents, have become so flagrant and bold that it is hardly safe for visitors and others unacquainted with the country to leave anything loose or unprotected about their buggies while attending meetings or other business. The reformatory is a fit place for these characters.

E. expect to give an entertainment in the near future. One feature of the entertainment will be a temperance play entitled, "Aunt Dinah's Pledge." W. A. Spurl and wife are in town for a few days. They are packing up their goods. He expects to spend the winter in Minnesota and Mrs. Spurl will remain in Bancroft to care for her mother who is dangerously ill. The regular monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Eli Dutton, Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the unusual amount of business brought before the society a special meeting will be held at the same place on Thursday, Nov. 10, at 2 p. m. A combination of Halloween and small boy, nearly resulted in a serious accident last Monday night. Some one removed the steps from the hall during the time of the social, and on coming out Mrs. N. J. Miss Blanche Hazen, having spent the past two months at Hale, returned to her home near Pontiac. Mrs. Joseph Charboneau is very much improved in health and able to be out after her long illness. Miss Della Shaver was called to East Tawas last Saturday to attend the funeral of her little nephew. The democratic nominees of the county will hold a political meeting Saturday evening at the Town Hall. Mrs. Ezra Armstrong, who has been spending the past month with Ohio friends and relatives, returned home last Tuesday. The Hale Lake Cornet band gave a party at the hall last Friday evening. A very good crowd attended and an enjoyable time was had. Judging from the displacement of rags and other articles to numerous to mention, the young Halesites must have been exceedingly busy long into the small hours of Monday night. Wood and family who went to the state of Washington about a year ago, are glad to welcome them as residents of our town again. Disastrous Wrecks.
