To the Honorable Board of Supervisors: The special committee appointed to "act with the executive officers" of the Iosco County Agricultural Society in collecting an exhibit of fruit and farm products and looking after the same at the State Fair submit the following report:

We met with the officers of the Agricultural Society and elected John Preston president, Henry L. Drake secretary and George W. Mount treasurer of the joint committee. We arranged for and had printed and distributed by mail five bundred circulars among the farmers of hundred circulars among the farmers of the county calling attention to the objects and advantages of a good exhibit.
Subsequently we agreed with Supervisors Anschuetz and Jackson to canvass visors Anschuetz and Jackson to canvass the county soliciting and preparing the articles to be exhibited.

We personally attended the State Fair at Pontiac, distributed circulars and urged the farmers (especially young men) present to come to our county, locate, and make it their home and with pride we pointed to our exhibit as illustrative of what could be done on our farm lands.

our farm lands. We can congratulate your Honorable Body and the residents of our county on the merits of the exhibits which was fully shown by the award of first premiums in the two classes-fruit and farm

We solicit your earnest consideration of the special verbal report of Supervisor Anschuetz, who had the supervision of the final disposition of our exhibit and we believe you will admit that such a disposal reflects a very high honor upon our county by the state officials.

We submit the report of the treasurer of the joint committee and will add that the largest part of our exhibits were passed over to U. L. Dean, superintendent of Agriculture and Horticulture Michigan Board of Managers., World's Fair Grounds at St. Louis.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Iosco County:
Gentlemen: Your committee on buildings, supplies and repairs submit the following as their report of work done by them since last meeting of board. We advertised for bids for repairing basement of court house per instructions of this board and entered into a contract with J. E. Wells to do the work according to specifications, a copy of which is attached to this report, the contract price being $540 which was the contract price being $540 which was the lowest bid. The work is now progressing and will undoubtedly be completed before the beard adjusted. before the board adjourns.

We have purchased 39% tons of coal for the heating plant at $8.10 per ton.

Have had a cement walk laid from front of court house to water closets at cost of 9 cents per sq. foot, total of $53.19.

We found the roof of the jail and eave troughing in bad condition and leaking in several places. We have had new eave troughs put in at a cost of $32.20, a new roof put on portion of jail at a cost of about $29.90, also had the wood work of the jail painted at a cost of $39.20 and have let contract to have eave troughing, iron roof and gutters painted at a cost of $18. We have also had incidental repairs made on windmill, incidental repairs made on windmill, court house, etc., from time to time as the circumstances would require.

Teachers' Association.

An excellent meeting of the Iosco County Teachers' Association was held in the High School room of the East Tawas Public schools Saturday, Nov.

12. Nearly every teacher in the county was present. Those who failed to come missed a lively, enthusiastic educational treat. Interesting papers, ably written, were read, discussed and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. The "Comet" the bright spicy Iosco county teachers' journal, ably edited by Miss Mary Smith, of AuSable, and a corps of assistants, furnished entertainment for all.
