Marshal McEltheron, of East Tawas, informs us that there was no arrest made in the case of James Howey, the Cheboygan Salvation Army man, mention of which was made in our last issue. Marshal McEltheron found the man selling War Cries on the street and ask him to pay a license as is required by the city ordinance. Howey demurred but when threatened with arrest finally compromised by paying 50 cents. The marshal was entirely justified in his actions, as it was only a proper performance of his duty.
Isaac Swales died at his home in East Tawas last Sunday, after an illness of three years from that grim destroyer, consumption. The deceased was 26 years of age and has grown from boyhood in this locality and has a large circle of friends whose sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. Besides the young widow and two small children, he leaves a mother, four brothers and three sisters to mourn his death. The funeral was held from the East Tawas Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. C. Kay officiating.
The cry put up by the Gazette last week over the defeat of the D. & M. team by the Tawas City team is sickening to say the least. The team of that city was composed, with possibly one exception, of regular members of their club, as was also the team of this city. Both are regularly organized clubs using players who are not residents of the towns they represent and it is fair to suppose that both clubs played the best ball they were capable of on that particular day. Another game might result in a victory for the East Tawas boys, but if it does there will be no cry put up by the boys from here.
C. V. Hicks. Domestic Machines,

Owing to the lack of advertising the races at the fair grounds last Wednesday, under the auspices of a party of Alpena horsemen, were very poorly attended. A number of good horses were in attendance, but owing to the small attendance only a part of them started.
The Tawas City ball club went to Turner last Saturday and met their first defeat of the season, the team from that village winning by a score of 6 to 1. It was a shut-out game up to the ninth innings when Emil Norstrum landed on one for a home run. The boys are offering no excuses for their defeat and are well pleased with the treatment received while there. A return game will be played here in the near future.
Miss Harriet P. Stark, dramatic reader, and Miss Sadie Wadley, vocal soloist, both of Detroit, will give an entertainment at the court house this Friday, evening, under the auspices of Grip Tent K. O. T. M. M. Miss Stark is well known in this city, having favored our citizens with her readings on several previous occasions, always giving excellent satisfaction. Miss Wadley comes highly recommended and an evening of genuine enjoyment is promised. The admission will be 10 and 15 cents.
District Deputy Head Counsel W. G. Davey, of the M. W. A., is completing arrangements for the organization of the Huron Shore Association of that order. Preparations are being made for a big picnic to be held at Tawas Beach during the last week in August, at which time a permanent organization will be completed. The exact date will be announced within a few days. Every effort will be made to make this one of the banner gatherings of the year. The Modern Woodmen are becoming very strong in this section of the state, it being one of the most popular and best fraternal insurance orders in existence. The new organization will be composed of all the local camps on the D. & M. Ry. and its branches, including Bay City and Cheboygan.
Last Saturday afternoon considerable surprise was occasioned by the closing of the doors of James Hamilton's general store by his creditors Edward McCann and George Hager, of Detroit, representing the wholesale houses are now here and taking an inventory of the stock. Application has been made for the appointment of appraisers and the exact condition of affairs will be known within a few days. The best information obtainable indicates that the action of the wholesale houses was unnecessary and had they given Mr. Hamilton a reasonable extension of time he would have pulled through all right. As matters now stand it is generally believed that matters will be adjusted and that he will resume business within a few days, as the indications are that the assets are sufficient to more than cover the liabilities.
For Sale—One mare with colt, 3 milch cows and 3 spring calves. For particulars call on or address JOHN RUEL, near county farm, Tawas City, Mich.

TAWAS CITY, MICH., JULY 28, 1905

A law enacted by the state legislature at its recent session provides that all boys who are pupils of the public schools shall be excluded from tobacco stores and billiard rooms, the penalty for an offense under the new statute being placed at a fine of not less than $25 or imprisonment.

You can ask your local merchant to pay the freight, to show the goods, to let you sort out what you like, and to wait for his money until Gabriel blows his last trumpet. But when you send to Chicago you plank down the coin of the realm and take what is sent you without a murmur. So with the country doctor. You pay cash to medicine shows, to fakirs and robbers but the doctor who lives among you and spends his time building up the country is expected to get his living from the bank or go without. Why not stand for the right.

The selection of Mr. Witte as the Russian peace envoy is a triumph for liberalism in Russia, but it does not make more certain the ending of the war. In fact, Mr. Witte is just the man to stand out for terms that will not satisfy the Japanese. He is for peace, but he desires a peace that will not be crippling to Russia. Then again, he realizes that he was selected as a second choice by the emperor and he must demonstrate that he is capable of making peace terms a little better than anybody else. He will be a bad man to deal with in the Washington conference.

The lady editor of Penfield, Pa., Press has this to say in her paper:
Show us a woman who acknowledges that she does not like children and we will show you a woman of undeveloped character, mistaken ideas and many disappointments. The company of a little child is one of the most inspiring things in the world. It offers a world of opportunity to be kind to somebody who is weaker. It is a brisk agitator to deep thoughts that are liable to remain dormant all the years. Remember that the trustfulness, the affection the simple attractiveness and open frankness of a child should bring out the best that is in us. Do not repel the advances of innocent childhood nor chill their young hearts by surly and critical treatment.

A lady used the expression "Gee!" the other night, says an exchange. It had never occurred to her that this was taking the name of the Lord in vain, and few of the many who indulge in such sugar-coated profanity realize that they are swearing. What is "Gee," though, but a euphemism for "Jesus?" "Dear me" is nothing but the Latin "Deo Meo" (my God); "For goodness sake" is only "For God's sake"; "For land sake" is "For Lord's sake"; "Drat it" is "God rot it"; "Judas Priest" is "Jesus Christ"; "Golly," "Gosh," "Gorry," etc., are only corruptions of "God"; "damn it" "bash it," "ding it," "blame it," etc. are only variations of "damn it." In short, there is probably not an expression of this sort that cannot be traced back to an oath for its origin. Notwithstanding this, you will every day hear people using them, thoughtlessly, who would be terribly shocked by a genuine oath.

Peace not Endangered.

The Russian commission to the Washington peace conference has started from Paris. It will include Mr. Witte and a large party. The Japanese commission has already reached the United States and will be in Washington in a few days. There is nothing to indicate that the demand of China will interfere in the plans of the commissioners. What complications may follow a failure on the part of the commissioners to agree to an open door in Manchuria cannot be foretold. It is known that China is becoming bolder, that a great army is being formed, that the nation is progressive and that today more than for many years the Chinese nation is determined on maintaining the integrity of its territory. The talk of Mr.

Witte about Russia being far from defeated and ready to carry on the war indefinitely in case the terms proposed are regarded as humiliating is taken to be a part of the necessary diplomatic bluffing to prepare the way for the conference. In like manner the Japanese talk given out is only for public consumption and will have nothing to do with the real peace plans.

Fine for Killing Birds.

A few boys seem to think it is proper to kill and destroy any species of bird at any season of the year. Attention is called to section 20, act 159, of compiled laws of 1897, which reads: "No person or persons shall at any time or in any manner whatever injure, kill or destroy any robin, night hawk, whip poor-will, finch, thrush, lark, swallow, blue bird, brown thrasher, cat bird, wren, marten, oriole, seagull, woodpecker, bobolink, or any song bird or insectiverous bird, except black bird, blue jay, English sparrow and butcher birds.
The term "game birds" used in this act shall be construed to mean all birds named or referred to except those mentioned in section 20. Persons violating any provisions of this act will be liable to a heavy fine and imprisonment."

Rockefellerism's Baneful Influence

Ida M. Tarbell, in her character-study of the Oil King in McClure's Magazine says: Rich indeed should be the returns to the public for what it has cost to build up a fortune like Rockefeller's. But what has Mr.
Rockefeller given the public in return for the code of business principles he has taught it, in return for the havoc their enforcement has cost, in return for the hypocrisy and cynicism he has fostered? A great business organization—one of the greatest the world has ever seen—a demonstration of the possibilities of combination. True, but to build his organization he was obliged to perpetuate and expand, secretly, by force, bribery and trickery a vicious business system the country at large was striving to overthrow, and whose perpetuation and expansion has brought us into one of the most serious public situations since the civil war. Has that paid? He has built hospitals and colleges and endowed schools. True, and those helped have become his open apologists, by taking what they call the "large view" or the "charitable view" or by deliberately shunning a consideration of the subject, quietly not seeing in it a topic for discussion. Does it pay to have those who are entrusted with the very sources of our intellectual and moral life blinded or silenced to the ethical quality of the practices of our daily life? Will it pay our colleges to put over their doors the teachings of one of our present-day moralists. "Never discuss politics or religion if you would succeed."

He has led a life devoted to charity and the church. True. And the principles of the religion he professes are so antagonistic to the principles of the business he practices that the very world which emulates him has been turned into hypocrites and cynics under his tutelage. Not only has charity been tainted by the hypocrisy of his life, the church itself has been polluted and many a man has turned away from its doors because of the servile support it gives to the men of whom Mr. Rockefeller is the most eminent type. Does all this pay?

There is no shirking the answer. It does not pay. Our national life is on every side distinctly poorer, uglier, meaner for the kind of influence he exercises. From him we have received no impulse to public duty, only lessons in evading it for private greed; no stimulus to nobler ideals, only a lesson in the further dedication of gold; no example of enlarged and noble living, only one of concealment and evasion; no impulse to free thinking, only a lesson in obscuring vital ethical issues by dressing them in the garbs of piety and generosity. None of those higher things which the public has a right to demand from the man to whom it permits great power are returned to it by Mr. Rockefeller. For Mr. Rockefeller has none of these things to give. He has nothing but money, and never was there a more striking example of the impotency of money! He has neither taste nor cultivation, ideals nor potent personality. He is not a great man, not a human man. He is a machine—a money machine—stripped by his overwhelming passion of greed of every quality which makes a man worthy of citizenship. He has not made good. He cannot make good.
It is not in him. He has nothing the aspiring world needs. On the contrary, that for which he does stand is a menace to our free development in commerce, but, vastly more important our free development in citizenship and in morals.

To Avoid Being Struck by Lightning.

Fatal accidents reported from the country over in this year of thunder storms indicate that Americans are grossly ignorant of the fact that lightning has its preferences among places in which to strike.

Like everything else in nature, the electric fluid follows lines of least resistance. Nearly everything is better for its purpose than the air itself, and in its flight from the clouds to earth any tree will be taken rather than keep to the atmosphere. The human body is a still better conductor than the tree, and lightning, having been attracted to the tree, will leap to the bodies of all near by.

Water has more attraction than solid earth for lightning, and the banks of water courses, ponds and lakes are therefore always dangerous. Ends of piers projecting into the water are particularly likely to be hit by thunderbolts.
So are sheds covered with corrugated iron.

An ordinary house is the best place to be when lightning threatens. If one is caught in a severe storm the safe, if disagreeable, course to take is to lie down in the middle of a field, never to run under a tree.

Mortality of Michigan During June.

The total number of deaths returned to the Department of State for the month of June was 2,304, a decrease of 306 from May. The death rate was 11.4 per 1,000 population, as compared with 12.5 for the preceding month.

By ages there were 396 deaths of infants under 1 year, 121 deaths of children aged 1 to 4 years, and 700 deaths of elderly persons aged 65 years and over.

Important causes of death were as follows: Tuberculosis of lungs, 176; other forms of tuberculosis, 26; typhoid fever, 28; diphtheria and croup 31; scarlet fever, 10; measles, 11; whooping cough, 7; pneumonia, 98; diarrheal diseases, under 2 years, 72; cancer, 129; accidents and violence, 223; of which number 61 were deaths from drowning.

There were 14 deaths from smallpox in Ogemaw county and 13 in the city of Grand Rapids.

There were 4 deaths reported from tetanus, 1 in Hillsdale, 1 in Monroe county, and two in Grand Rapids.
This number may be noted for comparison with the number of deaths returned from this cause for the following month as the result of fourth of July accidents.
