Notice to Subscribers.

On April 1, next the subscription price of the Herald will be advanced to $1.50 per year, payable strictly in advance. This advance is caused by the increased cost of paper and other material, and to meet extensive improvements which we contemplate making at that date. After careful estimate we find that printing a country newspaper at $1.00 per year is a losing proposition and will not permit of improvements.

Until April first all subscriptions, either in advance or those now due, will be received at the rate of $1.00 per year, but after that date $1.50 will be required. It will be to your advantage to pay at least one year in advance before that date.

The second annual banquet of the Citizens' Social Club of the 23rd Judicial Circuit was held at the Elliott The new law which went into effect hotel, Oscoda, Wednesday evening This organization is composed of the professional and business men of the 23rd judicial circuit comprising the counties of Iosco, Alcona and Oscoda, and is the outgrowth of social gathering held at the time of the judicial convention which nominated Judge Connine last year. It is wholly nonpolitical and non-sectarian, and it object is to bring together at least once a year in a purely social way the business men of the three counties.

> In response to the invitations sent out, 58 gathered Wednesday evening in one of the most enjoyable occasions that could be wished for. After ample justice had been done to the excellent dinner served by Landlord and Mrs. Elliot, a feast for the mind was presented under the direction of President Taylor, who acted as toastmaster. to the affair, but time and space will not permit, suffice to say it was an oc- already formed.

Twelfth District C. E. Convention.

The annual convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the 12th district was held at the Congregational church, Alpena, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 23, 24 and 25, and though the attendance weather may receive this information of delegates from the societies throughout the district was not what might have been desired, the convention was a very successful and inspiring one.

The Alpena societies had spared no pains to entertain the delegates and a very entertaining program had been prepared for the occasion. Those in charge had secured for the convention the services of Rev. R. H. M. Augustine, of Sandusky, Mich. and E. T. Lindsay, of Saginaw, corresponding secretary of the Michigan Union, both very able speakers and enthusiastic Christian Endeavorers.

On Friday evening a short program was carried out after which a reception was tendered to the visiting delegates and a general good time enjoyed.

Saturday forenoon occurred the regular business session, reports, appointment of committees, etc. The nominating committee in its report which was given at the evening session recommended the following officers for the ensuing year, which were endorsed by the convention;

Saturday afternoon several five minute talks were given on various subjects, followed by a round table conducted by E. T. Lindsay. In the eyening Rev. C. Wendling Hastings, of Tawas City, preached a very interesting and able sermon on "Christian Endeavor Eyangelism," followed by Rev. Augustine in a short talk on the Clark Memorial and E. T. Lindsay on "Millions for Endeavor." Sunday morning Rev. Augustine preached an excellent sermon in the Presbyterian church, while Miss Pearl Williams, pastor of the Friends church at Onaway and E T. Lindsay conduct the services at the Congregational church. In the afternoon a men's meeting was held at the Presbyterian * w. H. CARSON church in charge of Rev. Augustine and a children's meeting at the Congregational church conducted by Mrs Dillenbeck, of Whittemore, both very largely attended.

In the evening at 6:30 a union meeting of the young people's societies of the city, of all denominations, was held, led by Mrs. Latham, of Alpena, who presented in a very interesting manner the life and work of Dr. Neesima, the great Japanese missionary, that being the Christian Endeavor topic for that date. Following this was the convention sermon, preached by Rev. Augustine, and a general consecration service to close the conven-

Revising The Constitution.

There are some thing to be considered before voting on the question of the re vision of the constitution If it shall be decided to call a constitutional convention, it will cost the people directly nearly $100,000 before a new constitution can be framed. People Themselves to Blame

Many a time has it been said already -but until the lesson is thoroughly earned the truth cannot be too often repeated-that the guilt of misgovernment lies not with corrupt politicians, but with the people themselves. The political knave, like any other knave can do no harm unless there be opportunity and the opportunity in this case is afforded by the indifference of the citizen or by the citizen's fatuous devotion to his party. It is this kind of a man who has made the name politician less than honorable, by neglecting his own political duties. It is right, and it should be most honorable, for a man whose tastes and abilities urge him in that direction, to become a politician, and if such a man could always feel sure that public opinion would sustain him in doing right, there would be small temptation for him to do wrong -Philadelphia North American.

Direct Nominations Schedule For 12, or in which any party votes against direct nominations on June 12, nominating conventions will be held by that party as heretofor.

> Independent voters cannot participate in the nominations of any existing party without taking oath that they intend to support that party's

> Supreme and circuit court judicial districts are exempt from the operation

All political districts existing wholly within the boundaries of Wayne, Kent, Muskegon and Alpena counties are exempt from the operation of this

The representation of each county in the state convention of any party shall be appointed by the state central committee according to the vote cast in that county for that party's candidate for governor in 1904.

Primary election ballots for the republican party shall be white; for the democratic party blue; and for the prohibition party red. Different colors must be designed for other parties by the election commissioners.

Names of candidates shall be printed on primary election ballots first in alphabetical order; then the positions of the names shall be changed as often as there are candidates for any nomination, and to give as even division of ballots on this basis as possible.

Any person who wishes to have his name printed on the party ballot as a candidate for a nomination under the direct voting system, must first file with the proper officer a petition signed by a number of the enrolled members of his party equal to 2 per cent of the votes cast in that district by that party for governor in 1904.

Soliciting votes or "plugging" within 100 feet of a voting booth is prohibited; and primary day is declared an election day within the meaning of the act governing the liquor traffic on such occasions.

This act applies to all congressional senatorial, representative, county and city districts. A plurality is necessary to nominate.
