The names of the prize winners in Grinnell Bros. "Word Contest" were Miss Alice E. Bradford, of Bay City, who succeeded in winning the $450 piano. The Silver Chimes organ was won by Miss N. McLarty, of Saginaw. The firm says the contest was decided in strict accordance with the published rules and every list was carefully examined so that all contestants were treated in an absolutely fair and impartial manner. They do not state the number of correct words formed from the eleven letters contained in the two words "Grinnell Boths."

Your attention is called to the change in the advertisements in this issue and also to the new ones. The merchants of our city appreciate your trade and take this means of telling you of any bargains they may have to offer and also to announce the arrival of new goods which are placed at your disposal and inspection. By closely watching the columns of this paper you will learn the names of our business men who invite you to deal with them and you can rest assured that they will treat you right. A merchant who does not care enough for your trade to ask you to visit his store and who does not inform you of the many bargains he may have to offer is hardly worth your patronage. The progressive merchant will always let his customers know of the arrival of new goods at once, and the way for our merchants to do this is through the columns of this paper which goes into almost every home in the county.

Monday forenoon Granger Hill was stricken with a form of aphasia. This is a cerebral disease in which the patient is unable to utter any proposition though his occasional distinct pronunciation of words shows that his condition is not due to a difficulty in the mechanical art of articulation. Mr. Hill's manner and gestures plainly show that he understands anything said to him, and that his thinking capabilities are not interfered with, though he is quite unable as yet to give expression to his thoughts by speech, but, although totally blind, he can make his wishes known to some extent by gestures. When the attack came on he was talking to someone over the telephone and was suddenly unable to proceed. Dr. C. W. Newkirk, of Bay City, was called in consultation with Dr. Fitzgerald. It is thought that Mr. Hill's recovery will be a matter of some time, but a complete cure is looked for eventually.—Oscoda Press.

Our Schools.

After seven years at the head of the schools of this city Prof. A. A. Ellsworth has announced that he will not accept another term, and the school board has engaged Prof. C. B. Chaffee, of Coleman. We understand that Prof. Ellsworth will attend the U. of M. at Ann Arbor, next year. There will probably be several changes in the staff of teachers for next year, although all have been tendered their position again. We have been informed that Miss Ramage will attend the state normal at Ypsilanti, and that Miss Warner has declined a re-appointment.

In speaking of Prof. Chaffee, the Coleman Independent says: "Prof. C. B. Chaffee is not to remain in charge of the Coleman schools after this term. This announcement will cause deep regret among all who are interested in the upbuilding of our schools. Our school board is not to blame as they gave an unanimous vote for the retention of Prof. Chaffee, but he can 'do better' is the simple reason why he is going. During the past four years Prof. Chaffee has been at the head of our schools and under his management great work has been done in the advancement of our schools. 'It is too bad Prof. Chaffee is to leave' is the expression heard on all sides. He goes to Tawas City and right here we want to say that the Tawas people have secured the services of one of the best school men in the state. Prof. Chaffee and his estimable wife will be greatly missed in Coleman not only in school but in church work. They will leave here with the best wishes of our people."

A Mineral Exhibit.

The high schools of this country have recently received a communication from the Michigan College of Mines at Houghton, stating that it has undertaken to make up a number of collections or sets of mineral specimens to be loaned to the schools. One of these sets is to remain for a definite time in a school, after which it is to be passed on to another school that may have filed an application for it.

The Michigan College of Mines is required by law to keep a collection of the rocks and minerals of the state, and these subordinate sets which are to be circulated among the high schools are prepared auxiliary to the parent collection at Houghton. By this means the college proposes to do what it may to stimulate among the people an interest in minerals and rocks, especially as they occur in Michigan.

These collections, which will rotate among the high schools, are not for the use of the pupils alone, by any means. On the contrary, it is the desire to get the citizens outside of the schools interested in them, and to have the public as widely as possible examine them and become familiar with them.

TAWAS CITY MICH., MAY 11, 1906

There are many striking examples of the value of good roads. Wherever roads have been permanently improved it is found that there has been a very great increase in value of the adjacent property.

The most disgraceful sight one ever sees in this town in a number of young boys, not yet in their teens, with cigarettes in their mouths. A boy behind a cigarette is a fit subject for the reform school.

That the present law taxing mortgages is wrong and results in double taxation is conceded. That it is a detriment to the advancement of the state is pretty generally admitted, and that it should be repealed by the next legislature there is no doubt.

When Boss Atwood, with the help of Tom Marvin, the latter a member of the state committee, can defeat a proposition looking to a more popular choice of United States senators in Michigan, the Lansing Journal thinks that it is high time for the people to get on their swatters.

A bill has been introduced in congress, to prevent congressmen from sending furniture by mail under their frank. That bill should not pass, for a generous government should permit any congressman to lend his frank to a constituent who wanted a move instead of forcing the poor man to pay rent.

The next legislative session will be one of the most important held in years, because of the vital pending matters, thinks the Grand Rapids Press. There must be railroad legislation, primary reform legislation, a revision of the game and fish laws and provision made for a constitutional convention. But all will be pushed into the background because of the scramble for one office (United States senator) which could easily be disposed of by the people if they were given the chance.

If we are to judge by the thousands of people who are being daily swindled by the numerous get rich schemes that infest the country, the American people are becoming particularly easy. Almost every large city seems to be a fruitful field for the swindler's operations, and the poor dupes almost tumble over each other in their effort to get something for nothing or fabulous returns for a small outlay, which anyone of average intelligence ought to know was a swindle without being apprised of the fact. Aside from this the press of the country is continually warning the people of the dangerous character of those swindling operations and publishing reports of the thousands who have learned by dear experience of the fraudulent nature of so many concerns in which they have intrusted their all. We would say it serves them right were it not for the fact that the victims in many cases are poor people who can ill afford to lose their daily earnings in this manner.

Watson's Magazine for May.

Readers who have often seen Thomas E. Watson accused of being a socialist have an opportunity in the May number of his magazine to judge how utterly apart his ideas are from those of a socialist. He devotes several of his editorial pages to a splendid review of Upton Sinclair's novel entitled "The Jungle," and, while availing himself of the opportunity to say much in favor of the book as a work of fiction, Mr. Watson takes equal advantage of his opportunity to show the defects of socialism. Further he presents some sound opinions on the question of schools and colleges in an editorial entitled, "Common Sense Education;" and the Watson whom so many know as a master of satire is in happy evidence in an editorial about Clark Howell, called "A Georgia Di-Dapper." Other articles are "The Philadelphia Vigilantes," by Reginald Wright Kauffman; "The Solution of the Railroad Problem," by James B. Lloyd; "Common Sense," by W. D. Wattle; "Overcapitalization of Railroads," by William D. Marks; "What Life Insurance Is," by A. L. Benson; "Bucket Shop Gambling," by John A. Boykin. Besides these readable contents, Watson's Magazine provides also the customary departments, of which the most valuable are perhaps "The Educational Department" and "Home Department."—Watson's Magazine, New York, 15 cents.

The frogs have begun to sing. What more welcome sound to the heart and soul than the tuneful melody of the little nocturnal, aquatic webfoot troubadour? The meadow lark for the fields and the robin for the back yard, but for energetic, whole-souled crescendo, for care-dispelling, debt-forgetting enjoyment, give us the frog.

The federal grand jury at Portland, Oregon, which has been investigating government land frauds in that state, has returned 21 indictments against persons charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of 200,000 acres of land. Among these indicted are F. W. Gilchrist, Ralph Gilchrist, Patrick Culligan and James McPherson, all of Alpena.

The publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., whose card will be found in another column, tell us Biggle Cow Book is most elaborately and beautifully illustrated in wood engraving, in half-tone and in color work; and the type, press work and binding are simply superb. Eight of the principal breeds are shown in colors true to life by a first-class artist. No expense has been spared on these portraits, and the result is, remarkably fine. There are twenty-six chapters, covering the whole ground of the dairy. Those on Ailments and Remedies are worth the whole price of the book to any one owning even a single cow. The creamery chapter is up-to-date, and will certainly interest many. It is an up-to-date book, and should form part of the library of every progressive farmer and cow owner in the United States. It contains 144 pages of type matter, and one hundred and thirty beautiful illustrations. It is handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Practical Reforestry.

It is probably not generally known to the people of this county that there is a practical and successful illustration of reforestry being made in this country, but such is the case. A few years ago Carl E. Schmidt the millionaire leather man purchased several thousand acres of plains land in Oscoda township surrounding Cedar lake, nine miles north of that village.

Two years ago he bought over in Wisconsin, in about the same latitude as Isco, 10,000 white pine seedlings, 5,000 red cedar and 2,000 Carolina poplars, and planted them on the 2,000 acres. Ninety-five per cent. of the white pine lived and are now growing vigorously, 99 per cent. of the cedars took root and are thriving; and 100 per cent. of the poplars are doing finely. Mr. Schmidt feels satisfied now that the venture has passed the experimental stage and it is no longer a problem what can be profitably done with the hundreds of thousands of pine barrens in the upper part of the state.

Mr. Schmidt has become very much interested in the reforestry question. He says not only for climatic reasons and to avert disastrous spring floods, such as Grand Rapids had two years ago, but also to save the wood manufacturing industries of Michigan these denuded lands should be reforested in a systematic way. An average of one factory dependent upon lumber for its stock is, he says, leaving the state every week the year around.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, postmaster at River-ton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For twenty years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a serious case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder derangements. A wonderful tonic. At G. S. Darling's and J. M. Wuggazer & Co's. drug store. 50 cents.

THE CUTTER OF TO-DAY

There was a time when the artistic designer, the clever, skilled Journeyman tailor sought the exclusive field, now they seek the manufacturer with a record; the clothing with a name.

The public and not the individual, now receives the benefit of the ingenious Designer's Cutting.

The science of clothes making has swept past the old sweat-shop methods, like the express flying past the old stage coach; it's clothing with brains to-day—clothing with character to it and CLOTHCRAFT is largely responsible for this bettered clothing condition—a condition brought about by the determination to prove the wisdom and profit of wearing high grade ready-for-service clothing.

CLOTHCRAFT garments are to day universally recognized as good clothes without the burden of "good prices."
