The shooting of Sanford White at the Madison Square roof garden, New York, by Harry K. Thaw, a Pittsburgh millionaire, a few days ago has brought out a condition of affairs in New York City that causes a blot on the name of a nation, and while but little sympathy can be extended Thaw, less can be given to the man he killed.

It begins to look as though there would be no fair here this year. Three efforts have been made to get a meeting of the board of directors to set the dates and arrange the preliminaries, and each time a quorum failed to appear. If the men who are directors have not interest enough in the matter to attend meetings they should at least resign and give the society an opportunity to elect some one who has.

Wallace Heath, a well known mill man of Alpena county, met a frightful death in his shingle mill at Killmaster, Tuesday afternoon. He was tightening a bolt near the bolting saw when the wrench slipped and he fell against a belt which threw him upon the swiftly running saw. It is not easy to learn to keep a household account book all at once. A young husband gave his wife a neat little account book prettily bound and designed to be inviting in appearance. He also gave her fifty dollars, and said: "I want you to put down what I give you on this side, and on the other write down the way it goes, and in two weeks I will give you another supply." Two weeks later he asked for the book. "Oh, I have kept that account," said the young matron; "here it is." And on one page was inscribed: "Received from Fred fifty dollars," and on the opposite was this summary, "spent it all."

The appreciation with which our efforts to improve the Herald have been received is most gratifying to us. Many words of praise have been received from our readers, and while there have been a few who think that the advance in the subscription price is more than they can afford, the number who have discontinued their paper is much less than we anticipated. It is with considerable satisfaction that we are able to announce to our readers that the next two or three weeks will see some special features added to the Herald which cannot fail to be appreciated by all classes of readers. That the Herald shall stand at the head of the county papers in this section is our constant aim.

One of our subscribers took us to task this week for failing, as he remarked, to publish all that happened. It was fortunate for this particular individual that discretion occasionally demands the omission of unpleasant items. Should we publish all that is told to us we would be with the angels in about twenty minutes after our papers were mailed. We try to print all items that are news or that will encourage, help or cheer any of our citizens along life's rugged road. We all doubtless would enjoy reading "all the news" when it's about the other fellow, but our policy is to turn over to the gossips the spreading of scandals that only leave sorrows in their trail.

The 4th of July passed very quietly in this city, there being no celebration. A large number of our citizens spent the day at Whittemore, and Tawas Beach, while others went to the various lakes. In the evening many private fireworks were set off. No serious accidents are reported.

A Stabbing Affair.

During the exhibition of VanAmburg's show at AuSable last Tuesday a stabbing affair took place which resulted in the arrest of one of the employes of the circus. As near as we are able to ascertain the facts are as follows:

A young man named Frank Sherman, of Oscoda, was playing one of the numerous fake games, which seemed to be the chief stock-in-trade of the circus, when he discovered that he was being cheated out of his money. He made a grab for the $10 bill, and as he and the man running the game were pulling for the money another employe of the circus came up behind young Sherman and stuck a knife into the fleshy part of his hip three times for the purpose of making him let go of the money.

Sheriff Curry and Deputy Johnson were on the grounds and soon rounded up a man giving the name of W. C. Dugan, who was identified by Sherman as the man who used the knife. He was brought to this city Wednesday morning and locked up in the county jail on the charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder. The hearing was held before Justice Henniger, of Oscoda, yesterday afternoon.

Young Sherman was quite badly injured, one of the cuts at least penetrating to the bone.

The work of the first session of the 59th congress may be summed up as follows.

Session lasted seven months. Twenty-seven thousand six hundred bills were introduced. About 4,000 new laws enacted, 300 of which are public in character. The appropriations for the session approximate $875,000,000.

Most important bills enacted: For the regulation of railroad freight rates and the business of common carriers generally. Providing for rigid inspection of all meats and meat products offered for sale by packing houses. Fixing standards of foods and drinks and empowering the secretary of agriculture to see that adulterated or misbranded goods do not enter into interstate commerce.

Creating a new state of the territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory, and permitting Arizona and New Mexico to come in as one state.

Congress adjourned last Saturday evening. The present congress has accomplished a large amount of important legislation.

The postmaster general has kindly granted permission for mail carriers to deliver in automobiles. Now if he will take one more step and provide the automobiles and a chauffeur the carriers will be supremely happy.

The new primary law is proving a bonanza to the newspapers in the counties where it is in operation, as the candidates for offices have to "come down with the dough" in order to get their names before the voters.

The balance in the state treasury at the close of the fiscal year Saturday night was $11,740,500.57. Of this a large proportion belongs to the primary school fund which will be distributed in November, so that by the time the legislature meets the amount of available funds will not be exceptionally large.

An exchange says: Small men with small purposes do not help to make a town lively and progressive. The man who never contributes to public enterprise or voluntarily assists in supporting any of the public enterprise is not worth coaxing to remain in a town, and should be decided to move out if it is always a matter of congratulation. It's units and not mere ciphers that counts for something. "Be a unit."

It is surprising to see such conservative papers as the Washington Star, the Baltimore Sun and the Chicago Tribune urging South Carolina to send Benj. R. Tillman back to the senate. They assert that the senate not only needs Tillman, but needs more of them with Tillman's ability, patriotism and immunity from corruption. Tillman is the greatest statesman in the senate today, and he cannot be bullied, bribed or bought.

The more pleasing and pleasant our government can make farm life the better it is for the government. Our cities are overcrowded with worthless loafers who might be honorable and respectable farmers. The rural route is one of the things that have been provided to make farm life more desirable and attractive, and as we all have to live off the farmers nothing should be left undone that could be done to make the farm inviting.

It makes us very tired indeed to have merchants insist on our urging the people to trade at home and not send away to mail order houses or big city stores for their goods, and when we go around to settle our accounts have presented to us a bill head printed away from home or receive copy for an ad written on a letter head which never "traded at home." Yes, we believe in it, but those who cry so loud and persistently should certainly be first to set the example.

The trade territory of a town is not at all dependent upon the distance to neighboring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If a town does not reach after the trade it will come only as fast as it has to, and it will grow as it is forced to. But if the merchants go after business in the surrounding country, advertising in every possible way, and making good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an ever-increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation for being awake and it will forge to the front. It is the men in the town and not altogether the men living within a certain number of miles from it that makes the town.

France Supplants England as the World's Banker.

France is now playing the role of the world's banker; England lost her claim to the title when she went to war in South Africa. A generation ago, one had to go to London to feel the pulse of the international money-market. To-day, one makes a better diagnosis in Paris.

The strides toward financial supremacy which France is making have been most rapid in the past five years. In that time French investors have taken up many million francs of foreign obligations. They furnish Great Britain with much of the capital that went to finance the Boer war; they loaned enormous amounts to Russia, practically supplying the money needed in the struggle against Japan; they provided Germany with $1,000,000,000 marks in 1904-05 to carry on her tremendous industrial enterprise; they took a liberal amount of the last Japanese loan, over half of the Russian loan of last April, and finally, they supplied borrowers in the United States with fully $150,000,000 during the tight-money period of last winter, and are now financing the bond and note issues of some of our greatest corporations.—From "France As an Investor," by Charles F. Spence, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for July.

Twenty Year Battle.

"I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. New Train on the D. & M. Ry.

The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. will put their summer train schedule into effect on June 25th. The usual summer trains will be run between Bay City and AuGres (Point Lookout); also between Bay City and Linwood Park and Tawas Beach; the other trains will run about on the same schedule as at present, except that the schedule on train seven will be greatly shortened up so as to make it the fastest north bound night train from southern Michigan to the northern resorts, including Mackinac Island, Point Aux Pins (Bois Blanc Island), Les Cheneaux Islands, St. Ignace, Mackinaw City, "the Soo" and Georgian Bay; this train will leave Detroit at 9 p. m. arriving at Cheboygan boat docks at 6:30 a. m. and will carry, as at present, a through sleeper, from Detroit to Cheboygan. This train will connect at Detroit with solid train from Cincinnati, which in turn receives connections at Toledo and other places from many roads in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois, as well as from St. Louis and other points.

The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. and Pere Marquette Lines are making an aggressive campaign for northern resort travel and they expect to receive a large share of the business. One thing that will be in their favor is that their trains arrive at and depart from Cheboygan boat docks within twenty-five feet of where all the steamers make their landings. The D. & M. people claim they are in better shape to make fast time than any of the north and south roads in Michigan in view of the fact that their road is 94 per cent a straight line with practically no grades; their rails weighing 80, 85 and 90 pounds to the yard. The new passenger locomotives weigh 92 tons and have six 73 inch drivers, and are therefore able to rise to and emergency in the way of speed that they may be called upon to perform.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by G. S. Darling and J. M. Waggazzer druggists. Price 50c.

If you know of an item or a piece of news, tell us about it. That is what we want. But a newspaper man sometimes experiences more difficulty in gathering news than one would imagine. This was the case when a reporter in a neighboring town, a few days ago, was sent to write up a fire in a residence. Going to the door he inquired for the lady of the house. The maid said she was out. "Are any of the family at home?" inquired the scribe. "No, they are all out," was the reply. "Well, wasn't there a fire here last evening?" "Yes," said the hired girl, "but that's out too."

"Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the local newspaper publisher daily hears. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request thinks the granting scarcely worth saying "thank you" for. A newspaper is a peculiar thing in the public's eye. A news gatherer is stormed at because he gets hold of one item and is abused because he does not get another. Young men and often young women, as well as older persons, perform acts which become legitimate items for publication and then rush to the newspaper office and beg the editor not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party doing the same thing they were guilty of, forgetting apparently their late visit to the printing office.

W. H. Woodmancy Dead.

W. H. Woodmancy, who died Thursday from paralysis at his home, 217 Stanton street, aged 80 years, was a great traveler. He made several trips to the Holy land when a young man and was in nearly every country in the old world. In 1847 he was among the first gold hunters to go to California overland. He visited Salt Lake City and was personally acquainted with Brigham Young. He had a contract for building part of the first railroad ever constructed in New York state. He never tired of telling some of the thrilling adventures he had out west in the pioneer days of gold digging with the Indians.

Mr. Woodmancy was a resident of Bay City in 1867 for a short time. He resided in East Tawas 15 years and located in Bay City last August, buying considerable property in the south end. He was born in Syracuse, N. Y. in 1827 and always enjoyed good health until stricken with paralysis ten days ago. He is survived by a widow and one daughter, Mrs. S. H. Addison, of Stanton street. The funeral took place Monday at 2.30 p. m. from the house.—Bay City Tribune.

Your committee therefore recommends that the Clerk notify the Thorne Electric Co. of the above named defects and request them to put in and construct proper guys for poles and also furnish and put in proper ropes or cords for lowering and raising arc lights within (30) thirty days from date of said notice, and that he be and hereby is ordered to send said Thorne Electric Co. a copy of this resolution.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire providence of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at G. S. Our base ball team expect to go to Tawas on the 13th inst for a game.

Mrs. Ed Louks was quite badly hurt during the ball game on the Fourth, by being hit in the eye by a thrown ball.
Our celebration on the Fourth was a big success and the largest crowd ever attending a celebration here, all the neighboring towns being well represented. The day was ideal and every thing passed off without trouble or serious accidents. The East Tawas band furnished excellent music, and plenty of amusements were furnished to occupy the time of the visitors.
The ball game between Tawas City and Whittemore proved the feature of our celebration. It was a hard fought battle and resulted in a victory for our boys by a score of 11 to 9. Both sides played some ragged ball and the locals cinched the game in the first three innings by bad throwing on the part of their opponents. After the third innings the boys found Tawas settled down and we failed to register afterwards. Belknap pitched a good game for Whittemore striking out 12 men. For Tawas Luedke did the flinging and while he struck out five men, our boys could not place the ball safely. Elmer Pierson and Nels Brabant umpired. The score by innings was as follows:

Whittemore	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Tawas City	5	4	2	0	0	0	0	0	11

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Iosco County:
Your committee on Public Buildings, Supplies and Repairs respectfully report as follows:
We have the fence at the side of the driveway into the jail yard removed and have estimated the cost of putting a cement curb in place of the fence and find that it will cost $200.00 to have this done and we recommend that your committee be authorized to have this curb put in. We are of the opinion that the curb should be about eighteen inches high and nine inches out of the ground. The water supply for the court house yard and jail ought to be installed. We are of the opinion that the curb should be installed which will provide an adequate supply of water for all purposes in and around the court house and jail. We recommend that your committee be authorized to either put in a new system as will insure a good water supply for all purposes. The court house, barn and woodwork on the jail need painting very badly, and we recommend that your committee be authorized to do this work at such times as they deem best and at the best possible price obtainable.

How To Save Your Strength Time and Team in Plowing
GOOD plowing means lifting a good weight of soil, turning it clear over and doing it easily and fast. You can lift anything if you get the right "push" on it. And an Oliver Plow cuts clean and deep, lifts easily, turns the soil at a proper angle, and throws it off so that it falls clear over of its own weight. This is because an Oliver Plow is shaped and balanced in keeping with practical working principles. It conforms to natural laws of leverage, friction and gravitation. And this results in true "Lightness of Draft." The Oliver Plow shown below is always sharp, because so shaped that it sharpens in going through the soil. Its mold board scours easily, being extra smooth, bright and impervious to rust. These are some of the reasons why an Oliver plow will help you save time, strength and your team. But there are other reasons. Take this "State of Michigan Plow," made in two sizes and called the—
Nos. 98 and 99
Observe the parts we have described. Also the heavy braced steel beam which no jar can loosen. Notice how every part is centered toward the pull. Not an ounce of power is lost. It is adapted to the heaviest work and will plow any kind of soil and plow it thoroughly. The wings and slips are reversible and self-sharpening by use. It is fitted with our non-breakable steel standard. You can have your choice of jointer hanging or rolling coulters. And bear this in mind—we make all the parts of Oliver Plows in our own factories. The materials are worked by our own exclusive processes. Every plow is most carefully inspected before shipping. This year we are putting better material into Oliver Plows than we have ever before been able to get. Their finish is finer. But practical results in the field are what have given us our prestige—maintained for nearly fifty years. Oliver invented the chilled plow. All others are imitations. We make more plows every year than any other concern in the world.
Over Two Million Oliver Plows are now in use.
We offer you more for your money than you can get elsewhere—quality and quantity production explains it. Look into this. It will pay you well. See your dealer today. If he hasn't the Oliver, don't think of buying until you write us direct. That will give us a chance to see that you are well served. Why not attend to the matter at once? You can't do it too soon.
