TAWAS CITY, MICH., JULY 13, 1906

William R. Hearst announces that he is not a candidate for the democratic nomination in 1908, but will give his hearty support to William J. Bryan.

The total earnings of railroads in Michigan for the months from Jan. 1 to June 30 was $21,180,999 this year, as against $19,437,210 for the same period last year.

Having been beaten in his race for the nomination for state senator, the Alpena Farmer now says that Harry K. Gustin will contest with I. N. Canfield for the nomination for representative. There must be some good reason why Gustin is so anxious to break into the state legislature this year. It surely cannot be solely because there is to be a United States senator elected for all the candidates have announced that there was to be no money used.

Why not make the best of things as they come to us? There are certain ones in this town who have been complaining of hard times ever since we knew them. They could not enjoy the last few weeks of a warm winter for fear the fruit buds would start and then be killed. They know that crops will be a failure this year. There is always something disastrous going to happen. It is just as cheap and you will be worth more to your family and the town if you will look on the sunny side of life.

The socialists of Colorado have nominated a full state ticket headed by William D. Haywood for governor. Haywood is now in jail in Idaho, accused of being implicated in the murder of Gov. Steunenberg of that state. He is secretary of the Western Federation of Miners and was arrested a few months ago at his home in Denver and hustled out of the state of Colorado without even the formality of requisition papers, and has since been held without a trial on the confession of a man who is a self-confessed murderer, perjurer and about all the other crimes on the calendar.

We like to work and we like to see others work, but we just arise to remark that when we get to be worth as much money as some we know, work with us will cease. We could never discover why men sixty and seventy years of age and worth from forty to one hundred thousand dollars should continue to toil, from early until late and in all kinds of weather. We like to see a man provide something for their family after they are gone, but the average boy is better off if not left too much property. You who have labored your three score years should stop work, and enjoy life the few short years you have left to remain with us.

The socialists of the state have nominated the following state ticket: Governor, James E. Walker, Muskegon; lieutenant-governor, Philip Engle, Detroit; secretary of state, William Wilen, Hancock; treasurer, Edwin Ruthven, Grand Rapids; auditor general, W. E. Best, Bay City; attorney general, Jas. H. McFarlan, Flint; superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Etta Menton, Flint; commissioner of the state land office, H. A. Hedden, Albion; member of the state board of education, J. Eugene Andrews, Dowagiac. The socialists propose to put up an aggressive soap box campaign and hope to pass the prohibitionists in the race for votes this fall.

The Real Race Suicide.

The movement to suppress child labor is not a problem in human pity—it is something larger and more serious than that. It is an attempt to rescue the race from deterioration. Society is menaced by a system in industry that reduces wages, throws men into idleness, dissolves the home into its constituent parts and lays on each member the struggle for existence.

It is a glory of our modern industry that it ever tends to lift the heavier burdens from human shoulders, laying them upon shoulders of iron and steel. But this tendency is not all glory. It also explains the ever-increasing demand for cheap child labor. The ignorant, the weak, the inefficient, the little children can often profitably replace the stalwart man, and the wife and child enter the factory, not always to assist the father in earning a livelihood, but oftener to compete with him and drag his wages down. This revolution in the problem of wage-earning tends to reduce individual wages from an amount sufficient to maintain a family as the unit in society to an amount sufficient only to maintain an individual as the unit. Thus we are developing that exaggerated individualism which destroys even the mutual interdependence of the home and hurls into the face of the baby that ancient edict—"He that will not work, neither shall he eat."

That many serious minded laboring people look with alarm upon this growing tendency to adapt the factory to the size and ability of the little child, is evident from the growing reluctance of men whose trades are being captured by ignorant and inefficient child labor to bring offspring into a world which cannot promise a life of the simplest comforts in reward for hard labor. Here is the real danger of that "race suicide" so vigorously condemned by President Roosevelt; for while the man of virtue and strength is deterred from propagating his kind because of the jeopardy in which his children would stand, the vicious and ignorant, the physically unfit and the discouraged are not deterred by any such consideration, but, regardless of consequences, continue to propagate and swell the proportion of those who will be from birth to death a heavy liability against society.

Success on the Farm.

There are many standards of success as measured by the different classes of people. Some think that money is success, some prize position and name more than anything else, but success means something different with almost every man. It can be rightly defined as the attaining of that which one has set out to attain.

What should be the standard of success in the farming profession? Should the man who has acquired the most land and money be considered the most successful man? It were better to consider the man who makes his home and farm life pleasant and at the same time profitable the greatest success. The successful farmer is he who makes his farm the most productive, raises the best crops, helps his neighbors and friends to do better, and has a love for his profession. He it is who does not consider his work a drudge, but is happy in making Mother Earth bring forth her fruits. He may not pile up dollars and add acres to his farm, but he is still a successful man. That man is greatest success who gets the most enjoyment out of life and does the most good at the same time, and there is no better place to live a successful life than on the farm.

Follies of Wealth.

It is a deplorable yet palpable fact that excessive expenditure has become so general among the very rich that it is the rule rather than exception; indeed, it is difficult to find among the great mass of examples many which stand forth in sufficient relief to deserve special notice.

Entertainments that a few years ago would have created a sensation and called forth the wonder and the criticism of the whole county, are now so commonplace as to be of little interest to any but their participants and scarce worthy of notice save in the society column of the newspapers.

The feasts of Lucullus would be cheap and tawdry today, for the modern society woman spends more on her wardrobe in a year than all queens of Europe combined a hundred years ago; and the luxury indulged in by some of the very rich exceeds the pomp of kings.

An extremely wealthy woman who died recently in one of our western cities has possibly the most expensive casket on record. She was afflicted with a cancer and was aware for some months before her death that she was doomed; this coffin, made by her order, was of sterling silver, heavily chased, with handles and plate of solid gold; it cost $2,800 and rests in a $500,000 mausoleum she had erected for her husband.

It is conditions of this sort that breed red anarchy in the most conservative; it cannot engender kindly thoughts in the mind of the consumptive father, slaving 18 hours a day that his children may starve, yet not die, to see lavished upon a dog, in a week, an amount that would keep his family in affluent luxury for a year—Smith's Magazine.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Mever, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at G. S. The above cut illustrates the new improved ROASTING PAN, which we are giving away free with $40 Cash Trade

This pan is so constructed that by turning the little removable crank on the end the contents of the pan can be evenly and thoroughly basted without opening the pan or burning the hands. It also insures equal cooking on all sides, instead of having part of the roast burned to a crisp while the other side is underdone, as is often the case with other methods.

Remember, we give one of these new improved Roasting Pans with every $40.00 cash trade.

A word to you sonny—you little twelve or thirteen year old boy who is smoking cigarettes on the sly. What do you want to be when you grow up—a stalwart, healthy, vigorous, broad-shouldered man or a little, puny, measly, no 'count, weak-minded dude? If you want to be a man, strong like a man, with hair on your face, brains in your head and muscles in your limbs, you just let those cigarettes alone. If you want to be a thing, pitied by your folks, despised by the girls and held in contempt by the fellows, keep right on smoking and end your days in the insane asylum.

A local newspaper is absolutely necessary to any community. It is the home paper that keeps the people of the community in touch with each other by giving them all the news of their own neighborhood and county. For that alone they are of value and worth far more than the small subscription price. They keep the local pride and progressive spirit aroused and in various ways are worth far more to a community than a community ever spends on them. The daily paper, with its large news service and quicker facilities, may, in some instances overshadow the weekly, but the weekly home paper fills a place in the hearts of the people that a daily cannot fill. It comes to your home as an old and tried friend while the daily enters as a stranger.

New Train on the D. & M. Ry.

The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. will put their summer train schedule into effect on June 25th. The usual summer trains will be run between Bay City and AuGres (Point Lookout); also between Bay City and Ludwood Park and Tawas Beach; the other trains will run about on the same schedule as at present, except that the schedule on train seven will be greatly shortened up so as to make it the fastest north bound night train from southern Michigan to the northern resorts, including Mackinac Island, Point Aux Pins (Bois Blanc Island), Les Cheneaux Islands, St. Ignace, Mackinaw City, "the Soo" and Georgian Bay; this train will leave Detroit at 9 p. m. arriving at Cheboygan boat docks at 6:30 a. m. and will carry, as at present, a through sleeper, from Detroit to Cheboygan. This train will connect at Detroit with solid train from Cincinnati, which in turn receives connections at Toledo and other places from many roads in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois, as well as from St. Louis and other points.
The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. and Pere Marquette Lines are making an aggressive campaign for northern resort travel and they expect to receive a large share of the business. One thing that will be in their favor is that their trains arrive at and depart from Cheboygan boat docks within twenty-five feet of where all the steamers make their landings. The D. & M. people claim they are in better shape to make fast time than any of the north and south roads in Michigan in view of the fact that their road is 94 per cent a straight line with practically no grades; their rails weighing 80, 85 and 90 pounds to the yard. The new passenger locomotives weigh 92 tons and have six 73 inch drivers, and are therefore able to rise to and emergency in the way of speed that they may be called upon to perform.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Board:
I would like to call your attention to the matter of using the court house for stores and other entertainments. I understand it has been the practice to use the building for this purpose. I learn that not very long since during an entertainment a gasoline stove was tipped over and came near being the cause of burning the building. We are insured for $50,000 on this court house should burn under such a condition would it not vitiate our insurance and probably loss in a legal contest if we were forced to take such a risk?

If the building should burn under such circumstances would not the county be the loser?
I call the attention of the Board to the matter, perhaps they do not all know the situation fully.
GEO. N. CARLETON.
Moved by McDonald supported by Dutton, that communication be received and spread upon the minutes and sheriff be instructed not to allow court house to be used for other than county purposes. Carried. Yeas 21—nays 0.
