The gun, not the same cheap make but a better one, can be bought of any Tawas City dealer for nearly a dollar less and the farmer admits it.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend to the friends and neighbors our most sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our husband and father.

MRS. WILLIAM MYLES, MRS. WILLIAM SHAW, JOHN MYLES, GEORGE MYLES, W. D. MYLES.

Was Well Received.

"Satisfaction" is a short expression of what Dr. James B. Watson's lecture, "Pluck, Patience and Perseverance" was to his audience at the Baptist church last Sunday evening. A gifted orator and a quaint Quaker humorist Dr. Watson wins from his first sentence the attention of his audience, and holds it with such a pleasing presentation of rich thought that the end comes with regret to the listeners. Dr. Watson's great personality has endeared him to the people of Tawas to such an extent that he will ever be a welcome visitor to our city, and a return visit will tax the capacity of the largest building in our city.

Dr. Watson is planning a great life's work in the establishment of an industrial school for boys. He plans to purchase a vast tract of timbered lands in Cuba and there establish a school which will give a large number of boys who would otherwise have a doubtful chance of education the opportunity to work and to learn. Dr. Watson aims to make this great work a monument to the memory of his son who has been taken by death.

Supt. C. B. Chaffee of our city schools says: "This is to certify that Dr. James B. Watson gave his address 'Pluck, Patience and Perseverance,' as the first number of our lecture course, in the Baptist church on Oct. 13. The church was crowded and the pathos with the humor of the speaker made the lecture of an hour and a half seem very short to those who heard him. All were well pleased and many have expressed a desire that he be secured for our course next year."

Dr. Watson delivered his sermon on "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man," at the M. E. church Sunday evening to a large and appreciative audience composed of the congregations of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches who had united for this occasion.

The audit of the county finances in Presque Isle county for the past 10 years has just been completed and it was found that $14,000 has been misappropriated. It is intimated that further examination would show even worse for previous years, but the gang who rule the board of supervisors in that county defeated further investigation by a vote of 9 to 8.

The democrats of the tenth congressional district have failed to place in nomination a candidate for congress against Congressman Geo. A. Loud. This is not so much of an endorsement as it is owing to the fact that there did not seem to be anyone willing to go up against the big republican majority in this district.

"As a matter of principle the republicans should vote their ticket straight," is the advice of the "canned" editorials being "doped" up to the people by the republican press of the state. The people of Michigan have been voting the republican ticket straight for many moons, and as a result the expenses of the state have increased 153 per cent during the past 14 years and a bunch of professional politicians have entrenched themselves at Lansing, and are growing rich at the expense of the taxpayers. It is about time that the people of the state let the question of "principle" go and voted to clean house "good and plenty."

$3,459,860,311 for Pensions.

Washington, Sept. 30.—The net decrease in the pension roll of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30 last, amounted to 12,470, the largest decrease ever known in the history of the country. These facts are brought out in the annual report of Commissioner of Pensions Warner, which has just been completed.

In the report the commissioner expresses the opinion that there will be a still more marked decrease during the present year.

During the year there were added to the roll 33,569 new pensioners and 1,405 restorations and renewals, making a total addition of 34,974. The total number of pensioners on the roll during the year was 47,444, leaving the number of pensioners June 30, 1906, 985,971.

The maximum number of pensioners in the history of the bureau was reached January 31, 1905, when it was 1,004,196, since which date there has been a steady decrease, aggregating to June 30, 1905, 18,225.

Death was the principal cause of the decrease of the past year, the number of names dropped on that account being 43,300. Of these, 29,208 were those of survivors of the civil war, leaving 666,453 survivors of that war still on the roll.

There are still four pensioners on account of the revolutionary war, one a widow and the other three daughters, 660, all widows, on account of the war with Spain, and 11,472 on account of the Mexican war. Of the Mexican war pensions, 3,984 are to survivors.

For County Clerk.

Harry J. Featherston asks the support of the voters of Isosco county for the office of county clerk, and if favored with the election he assures to the people an administration of the affairs of that office as satisfactory as any in its history. He does not ask for a life lease of the office, but will be well satisfied with the customary two terms.

Mr. Featherston was born in Avon township, Oakland county, October 3, 1873. He graduated from the Pontiac high school with the class of 1894, being president of the class. For six years he taught successfully in the schools of his native township, also holding the office of school inspector. He came to Isosco county in 1902, engaging in the lumbering and saw mill business at Hale.

Mr. Featherston's clean personality and fitness for public office was early recognized by the people of Hale and he was chosen as a member of the school board, and since the organization of that district as a graded school some two years ago, he has been president of the board. In the spring of 1905 the people of Plainfield township elected him to the office of supervisor, and last spring re-elected him by an increased majority. As a member of the county board of supervisors he is recognized as a careful, economical and efficient official. He is a man of clean personal character and exceptionally well qualified for the office for which he asks your support.

ELECTION REFORM NEEDED

So That People Can Vote For Men and Not Mere Party Labels.

The democratic party deserves the credit for the Australian ballot system of voting in Michigan, and at the time that law was passed it was considered a long step toward progress, but there is still something else needed, and that is the elimination of the circle at the head of the ticket, which would cause voters to vote for men and not party labels. If such a law had been in force two years ago, no such man as John T. Hoffman could have been elected sheriff of Wayne county. His crookedness as coroner was fully understood, and thousands of voters cut him from their ticket, but there were many other thousands who did not scrutinize their ballots, and merely voted the "G. O. P. party label," and Hoffman went in with the whole ticket bringing discredit and dishonor on his party. Here is one plank on the democratic platform on which Charles H. Kimmerle is running for governor:

"We demand an amendment to the election law by eliminating the cross at the head of the ticket and in place thereof requiring the placing of a cross before the name of each candidate for whom the voter desires to vote."—Democratic State Platform, 1906.

Democracy stands for majority rule, every man's vote to be counted. In counting votes large numbers are thrown out because of mistakes due to ignorance or misapprehension of the voter as to how to mark his ballot or the misinterpretation of the law by the election board, the complex provisions of the law resulting in the disfranchising of a large percentage of the voters. The ballot should be made so plain and simple that mistakes will be reduced to a minimum. This can be attained by adoption in substance of the Massachusetts law, whereby the cross at the head of the party ticket is eliminated, the voter to place a cross before the name of every candidate for whom he desires to vote. It would require a little more time to do this, but it would be time well spent. It will relieve the voter of fear of mistake, and many extreme partisans may thereby be induced to read the names of the candidates upon their own ticket. In Massachusetts, where the voters are no more intelligent than they are in Michigan, less than one-half of one per cent of the votes are thrown out by reason of mistakes, while in Michigan many times that number are not counted by reason of mistakes on the part of the voter.

PRIMARY REFORM.

Democracy Favors Honest Corrections of Primary Laws.

The history of the Australian ballot is being repeated. In 1889 the machine offered a farcical Australian ballot act to hoodwink voters and disgust them with the law. The act failed to provide a secret official ballot, the all-important feature. The sham was so hollow that at the first opportunity the people, irrespective of party, elected a bona-fide Australian ballot legislature (democratic) and an official ballot and secret voting were provided for.

The position of the democratic party on direct nominations has been consistent and persistent: "We therefore declare the supreme issue in the state at this time to be the destruction of 'boss' rule, the restoration of political power to the people, and its employment for the good of all, instead of for the advantage of the few. To this end we are in favor of legislation by which primary elections of all parties for the direct nomination of candidates shall be held at the same time and places under the supervision of public officials and regulated by law."—Democratic State Platform, 1902.

"We favor the nomination of all candidates for office by direct vote of the people and will do everything in our power to secure legislation directly to that end."—Democratic State Platform, 1904.

"We favor the nomination of all candidates for office by direct vote of the people and will do everything in our power to secure legislation directly to that end. We denounce the present primary election law as a fraud and sham, and pledge ourselves to enact a primary law, simple and workable, that will not, in its operation, deprive any voter of his franchise."—Democratic State Platform, 1906.

These planks honestly construed mean direct nomination of all candidates from governor to coroner by an official secret ballot cast in official primaries held on the same day by all parties. Such a law would correct the evils of the convention system, and restore to the people the power that belongs to them.

Franchise Extension Act.

Act 328 of Public Acts of 1905, known as the "Franchise Extension Act," makes possible perpetual franchises for corporations by a renewal of their own action. It confers upon all corporations eternal life. It may be a good law as to the ordinary business corporation, but it is pernicious in its special favor to quasi public corporations. It is a pro-corporation measure which indicates upon its face the influence which prompted its passage.

"Our state government needs readjustment upon lines of greater economy and better business methods."—Democratic State Platform, 1906.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Donald Ross died at his home in this city last Friday, after several weeks illness. The deceased was born in Kinloss, Ont., June 14, 1848. He came to Michigan when 18 years of age and for the past 30 years has been a resident of Tawas City. He married in 1883 to Miss Elizabeth Humes, of Glen Haven, Wis., who, with two daughters, Mrs. Eva Shafer and Miss Mabel, also a daughter by a former marriage, Miss Nellie Ross, now residing in Canada, survive him. The deceased was highly respected by a large circle of friends who unite in extending sympathy to the bereaved family. The funeral was held from the M. E. church Monday afternoon, Rev. N. Dickie officiating.

20th Century Club.

The 20th Century Club met with Mrs. R. Babcock last Saturday afternoon and the time was pleasantly and profitably spent. Mrs. Willard Robinson was elected first vice-president to fill vacancy left by resignation of Mrs. James Hamilton. This being the first meeting, the hostess served a dainty lunch at the close of the program.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Willard Robinson and the following program will be given:

CHILDREN'S DAY
Roll Call—Sayings and Doings of the Little Ones
Lullaby Mrs. Estler
Paper—"Children's rights from a child's standpoint." Miss Jessie Robinson
Paper—"Children's rights from a mother's standpoint." Mrs. Braddock
Song by one of the little ones.
Reading—"On Babies," (Jerome K. Jerome) Mrs. Nisbet
Current Events Mrs. Downer

Bill Bone, Humorist.

Bill Bone, "the humorist, the poet of the heart and home," will furnish entertainment for the Tawas City lecture course on Wednesday evening, Oct. 31. This is what they say of him:

"More and more the people are demanding naturalness and originality from platform entertainers. School-trained elocution has had its day and is giving way to the man who 'speaks right on' out of a full heart. Bill Bone is presented with full confidence that he will surprise and delight all who hear him. He is a man of pleasing personality, a poet of the heart and of the home, while to the beauty of his happy songs he adds an artist's presentation and a humorist's fancy. He says something in every selection. Like Irving, he ridicules the follies of society, but leaves his victims in good humor; like Cooke, he tells men the truth about themselves, but in a way that wins their love. His programs are a unique blending of humor and pathos—wholesome, ennobling, stimulating—touching the heartstrings of sentiment and filled to the brim with the spice of life—variety. Mr. Bone will not only delight his audiences while he is before them, but will send them home with higher ideals and nobler aims. For full evenings, where he is at his best, or for star numbers on a program, Mr. Bone is incomparable."

Now is the time for those who have not already provided themselves and friends with season tickets to purchase one on general principles of economy. Admission at the door for the two entertainers will be 35 cents each, and for the Columbian entertainers and the Old Plantation Quartette, 50 cents each, making the total price at the door $1.70, all of which may be enjoyed for $1 if tickets are purchased before Oct. 31.
