The W. S. Haxton 5-acre fruit farm in the Hover-Kennebec valley, Washington, yields $3,000 a year net from peaches alone. The above picture shows Geneva Story, daughter of C. W. Story, secretary of the Kennebec Land Company, and Robert Haxton, son of Mr. Haxton. Peaches, pears, cherries, grapes and other fruit are shown in this picture. Notice the way the little lad is standing, braced in poise, in order to hold up the bunch of grapes.

By special invitation the 20th Century Club, of this city, spent a social afternoon with Mrs. W. B. Murray, of East Tawas, yesterday, and the ladies report a most delightful time.

Collie Johnson has located a saw mill in Plainfield township and is prepared to do all kinds of bill sawing. See him if you want anything in that line.

If you want the Herald all next year and the Farm Journal for the next five years all for $1.50, get your subscription in before next Monday night, as this great offer will expire then.

Harry LaBerge and his friend, Phil Henderson, came up from Ann Arbor, where they are attending the U. of M., last Friday, to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. James LaBerge.

Sepator A. C. Carton returned Wednesday from Lansing where he spent Christmas with Mrs. C. and little son. He reports the boy as being much improved in health. Mr. Carton will return tomorrow so as to be on hand at the meeting of the legislature next week.

The Farm Journal is chock full of gumption, and has the largest circulation of any farm paper in the world. It is good everywhere. We offer for a short time a combination subscription, to advance paying subscribers to the Herald a year ahead, and the Farm Journal for the balance of 1906, and all of 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910 and 1911, both papers for the price of one. Can't do it after December 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Look, are now comfortably settled in their new home in this city, having recently moved from the farm in Tawas township. The farm has been transferred to their son, Otto, who will hereafter conduct it.

Otto Cornac, the young man who lost his legs a few months ago, while engaged as brakeman on the Rose City train, left Wednesday for Chicago, where he goes to have a pair of artificial limbs fitted. He was accompanied by J. M. Wuggazer.

Be sure and read our great combination subscription offer of the Herald for a year and the Farm Journal for the balance of 1906, and all of 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910 and 1911, five years, both papers for the price of one. Just walk up to the captain's office and draw the greatest prize you ever drew. Do it now.

From far off California comes the news of the marriage of a former well-known and highly respected Isoco county school teacher, Miss Rozilla McKenzie, who was united in marriage at Lakeport, Cal., on Wednesday, Dec. 19, to Mr. M. Mathews, of that city. The Herald unites with her many friends in extending congratulations.

Special Notice.

Having several thousand dollars on our books for old Herald accounts, old and new saloon accounts and other accounts, if not paid to M. Murphy by Feb. 1st 1907, same will be assigned to an attorney for collection.

Vol. XXIV, No. 1.

Today the Herald starts on another year of its existence, having just closed the most successful twelve-month in its history. We could devote much space to singing the praises of the paper and its editor but prefer to leave that to others. Suffice to say, the paper is what our patrons make it. So long as the people of Iosco county continue their liberal support, so long will the Herald continue to grow and improve.

The year just closed has been most satisfactory to us. Liberal advertising and job patronage has been extended us by the business men of the county, and many new subscribers from all classes have been added to our list, all of which is greatly appreciated. It is the aim of the Herald to serve all classes be they rich or poor, and regardless of creed. The Herald stands for Iosco county and desires to use its influence in aiding in the development of every corner of the best county in northern Michigan.

We desire to extend our appreciation for past patronage and to assure all that we will endeavor to merit everything passed our way in the future. With the best of wishes for a most prosperous and happy New Year, we are

Faithfully yours
THE PUBLISHER.

What We Hear.

"Take heed what ye hear" as to slanderous reports and insinuations. There is a vast amount of defamation in the world. Perhaps we have all suffered more or less by it, hence one would think we might be prepared to estimate it at its real value. But notwithstanding our own experience in regard to its evils, how prone we are to listen to what evil tongues may say of our neighbors! though jealous enough for our own reputation we seem to have little concern for that of others. We should remember that we have no more right to hear what evil tongues have to say, than evil tongues have to say what they ought not. We could not give the tongue of slander a more pointed and successful rebuke than to refuse to listen to it. If we are watchful of our ears, others would be constrained to bridle their tongues. If all men were deaf and blind there would be no slander, because there would be none to hear or read it, and the unruly member would of necessity be kept in order. But now there are hearers and readers, and hence the tongue and pen must be guarded. Idle words are often the cause of inestimable mischief. A good name is rather to be chosen than riches. But the tongue of slander may rob us of our good name and leave us poor indeed. What havoc has been made of the peace and happiness of individuals, of families, of neighborhoods by an evil tongue! What were but trifles are swelling into importance by repetition and thus difficulties which a single word might have explained and healed, increase in magnitude and at last become incurable. The tongue will be evil while the heart is wrong, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The best remedy for an evil tongue is a new heart, but as even the best of us are sanctified in part, we must adopt such a remedy as will meet the evil from whatever source it may come; and this is the remedy: Take heed what ye hear. We must refuse to listen to what the evil tongue says. Listening to slander is so nearly related to slander itself that, if we give place to the one, we are likely to be infected with the other. The listener is partaker with the speaker; therefore, at all times, now and ever, take heed what ye hear—don't hear anything, and don't repeat everything you hear.

Courage for the New Year.

Have the courage to start right and keep right.
Have the courage to turn from evil and to cling to that which is good.
Have the courage to prefer comfort and propriety to fashion in all things.

Have the courage to wear your old clothes until you can pay for new ones.

Have the courage to discharge a debt while you have the money in your pocket.

Have the courage to obey your conscience at the risk of being ridiculed by men.

Have the courage to own you are poor, and thus disarm poverty of its sharpest sting.

Have the courage to wear thick boots in winter, and insist upon your wife and daughter doing the same.

Have the courage to do without that which you do not need, however much your eyes may covet it.

Have the courage to speak to a friend in a "seedy" coat, even though you are in company with a rich one, and richly attired.

Have the courage to speak your mind, when it is necessary you should do so, and to hold your tongue when it is prudent you should do so.

Have the courage to show your respect for honesty, in whatever guise it appears; and your contempt for dishonesty and duplicity, by whomsoever exhibited.

Have the courage to "cut" the most agreeable acquaintance you have when you are convinced that he lacks principle. "A friend should bear with a friend's infirmities, but not with his vices."

Have the courage to stand by your convictions, be both courteous and firm, making no compromise with evil, not turning into by and forbidden paths; choose the right, reject the wrong; be good and do good and you will have a Happy New Year.

Waking Children.

Some people cling to the old custom of making their children go to bed and rise at certain hours. It is all right for them to have a certain hour when they should go to sleep, but this idea of waking children too early in the morning is cruelty itself. School children must be up on time but nature tells the home tots when they have had enough sleep, and they are good-natured after a long healthy rest. When children are dragged out of bed, they are cross, dull and mope half the day. It is time enough to enforce this rule when it is a necessity, but sleep is better for the growing child than an early breakfast which is not relished.

President Roosevelt Rebukes Corporate Greed.

"I am glad to have you give the widest publicity to my previous utterances on child labor," President Roosevelt told the editor of the Woman's Home Companion when he was asked for an authoritative statement outlining his attitude on child labor reform. The president's statement, which bears his signature, appears in the January number of the Woman's Home Companion, and contains this ringing declaration:

I am pleased to go on record in the strongest possible terms as in favor of stringent legislation by both state and national legislatures, for the purpose of doing away with the evils of child labor. I believe that the recent action of the legislature of Georgia, a state which leads the new south industrially, in placing on its statute books a child labor law which contemplates the gradual adoption of a standard approximating that of the best legislation either north or south, makes it now incumbent on Congress to provide an adequate child labor law for the District of Columbia and the territories. With the single exception of Nevada, the District of Columbia and the territories are the only American communities which have no legislation at all on this subject. Suitable action by Congress for the area over which it has exclusive jurisdiction will speedily bring those states where protection for children is inadequate or merely nominal to a realization of their duty to improve their legislation and to render its enforcement effective.

A Western Wonder.

There's a bill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by G. S. Darling and J. M. Wuggazer & Co. druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Notice to Tax Payers.

Notice is hereby given that the tax rolls of the various wards of Tawas City are in my hands for collection, and that persons desiring to pay their taxes will find me at my residence each evening during the week, and all day each Saturday, during the month of December, to receive the same.

The Farm Journal is a boiled-down, hit-the-nail-on-the-head paper, cut to fit the wide-awake farmer and villager. We club with the Farm Journal, and have an attractive combination subscription—Farm Journal five years, our paper one year, both for $1.50.

There is a great deal in writing an attractive advertisement. Do you give your advertisement your best attention? If you expect to do a large business on the fact that you know so many people, you will get left. The ones you don't know are in the great majority. How are you to reach them in the most favorable manner at the least expense? By placing an attractive advertisement in the newspaper.

In sending us a renewal of his subscription, Ira Odell, of Richmond, Va., says: "We must shake hands with old friends at Tawas, and the best way we can do it is to keep our credit good with the Herald. Our old friend F. C. Baker, is in the grocery business at Fair Oaks, and is doing well."

Wanted—A hustler and good reliable man to sell hospital tickets in Tawas City, East Tawas and Isosco county. Address with references Lock Box 14, Onaway, Mich.

A party of Onaway men were out hunting Monday when Charles Whaley, aged 21, became separated from the rest and they took him for a deer, firing 17 shots before the mistake was discovered. One shot from the gun of his brother, Bert, took effect in the young man's hip and it is doubtful if he recovers.

The citizens of any prosperous town are always public spirited and united. Stand together, work for the interests of the whole town. Always stand ready to do your part. Don't spend your time in prophesying failures, but help to make every enterprise a success, be it great or small. Be energetic and enterprising and your example will be imitated.

The Fraser House, at Bay City, was destroyed by fire at an early hour last Sunday morning, entailing a loss of about $130,000 partially covered with insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, and it spread so rapidly that many of the inmates had narrow escapes. John McLean, the hotel fireman, was so badly burned that he died the next day. The Frassr house was opened to the public in 1867 and has long been considered the leading hotel of that city.

Capt. W. C. Davison, of this city, closed a deal this week whereby he purchases from Powell & Mitchell, of Marquette, the tug Ward which he will use here in place of his tug Westcott which has become too small for his work in and out of this harbor. The Ward is much larger, and a staunch and seaworthy craft and in every way will be much better fitted to handle Capt. Davison's work here. We have not learned what disposition, if any, has been made of the tug Westcott. Capt. Davison expects to bring the new tug down before the freeze-up.—Grand Marais Herald.

Nearly all the watch signs, probably ninety out of 100, have hands set at 8:18, but comparatively few people know why this is. It is no accident. W. K. Washburn, of New York, was painting a sign for a jeweler of that city when the news of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, April 14, 1865, was received in New York and the latter ordered the painter to put upon the dial the hands at the exact time when the fatal shot was fired, namely 8:18, and so they have continued ever since. Whenever you see a sign after this, recall the fact that it points to the fatal moment.

There are too many boys and girls in the country and city, more in the latter than in the former, who are prone to look upon work as beneath them. There are thousands of them on the threshold of maturity who retain the same views and habits which found encouragement in their earlier years. What becomes of this class of people? Some of them awaken and after a desperate struggle overcome the habit and learn to work, to save, and to prepare for the inevitable rainy day. Many of them however, drift and drift until they become acceptable recruits in the hobo army. Then they speedily reach the conclusion that things are mighty unequal in this world; that the advantages are all with the rich, and that a poor man has no show.

Looked at in a philosophical light, there is no special reason why the first day of January should be different from any other day. It is not the actual beginning of the year; the twenty-first day of March, the first day of spring, more fitly deserves the honor. But the wisdom of our ancestors is in the selection of the day and it will probably never be changed in Christendom. Practically, the date makes no difference. As a matter of fact, we used to celebrate New Year's day, prior to 1752, thirteen days later than we do now, on account of the change in the calendar, which took effect in that year. The Russians still preserve the old-style calendar, and the Hebrews keep a New Year's day based on the Mosaic chronology. The date, therefore, makes little difference, but the day is of considerable importance. As far back as history runs, it has been the custom to mark the death of the old year and the birth of the new by appropriate ceremonies.

One of our citizens accidentally ran across his wife standing in front of the mirror and making all manner of faces at herself. "What in the world are you doing?" he asked. I am trying to practice a look of "astonishment," said his wife. Some of my friends are going to give me a surprise party tonight.

The drinking of an abundance of water will prevent appendicitis, because appendicitis is the result of constipation and constipation is the result of insufficient bile and insufficient supply of liquids. That's what an exchange says anyway. If anybody wants any further reasons they will have to go elsewhere, for we're not here to run the doctors out of business.

The Farm Journal is chock full of gumption, and has the largest circulation of any farm paper in the world. It is good everywhere. We offer for a short time, a combination subscription, to advance paying subscribers to the Herald a year ahead, and the Farm Journal for the balance of 1906, and all of 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910 and 1911, both papers for the price of one. Can't do it after December 31st.

20th Century Club.

Farmers' Institute.

Secretary John Sullivan, of the Isosco County Farmers' Institute Society informs the Herald that the dates set for the regular winter meeting of the society are January 11th and 12th. The program is being arranged and every effort will be made to make this the "best ever." Our farmers should prepare to attend and take part in this meeting.

The one day institutes which were to have been held at Alabaster and Whittemore in November, but were postponed owing to the inability of state speakers to attend, will be held at Alabaster on January 17, and at Whittemore, January 18.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface, this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at G. S. Darling's and J. M. Wuggazer & Co.'s druggists.

Land For Sale—In Isosco county, Michigan to close an estate. The west half of the northwest quarter of section twenty-two (22) in township twenty-three (23) north, of range six (6) east, containing eighty (80) acres more or less. Write to W. H. Mrs. E. Colgrove and son took dinner Christmas day with her mother at Tawas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour were suddenly called to Minnesota by the death of Mrs. S.'s father.

A large crowd attended the dance Christmas evening at E. Colgrove's hall. Another will be given New Years night.

Dr. Walter Cowie and family spent Christmas at the home of Dr. A. H. Cowie here, and then Dr. A. H. and family went to South Branch and made a visit with Dr. Walter.

The Christmas trees at the churches were a success in every way. The church and hall were prettily decorated with nature's green, the trees were well filled and fine programs rendered.

The school entertainment at the hall seemed to be well received, the pupils acting their parts as well as could be expected. Standing room was at a premium and many were unable to get in at all.

Our new merchants, Kline Bros., who recently purchased the stock of J. W. Spooner, are putting in a big line of new goods and are doing an excellent business. They are wide-awake business men and a big addition to our town.

John Weishuhn and Miss Addie O'Brien were united in marriage at Turner Dec. 24, 1906. They were accompanied by Turner, H. H. Hammond and Miss Grace McKeen. The young people are favorably known and highly respected and the good wishes of their friends are extended to them. They expect to reside in town.

A very pretty Christmas wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chaney Livingston, Sunday evening, Dec. 23, 1906, the contracting parties being their youngest son, Fred C., and Miss Rosa B. Brandall, both of Hale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Lowe of the M. E. church at 6 o'clock p. m. The best man was H. H. Hammond and the lady of honor Miss Grace McKeen. The young people are well known in Hale and are highly respected. The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of pale blue silk trimmed with white satin and all-over lace. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and holly and after the ceremony the happy pair led the friends, about seventy-five in number, to the dining room where a bountiful supper was served. The out of town guests were the grand parents of the groom, also Mr. and Mrs. Puffer, all of Fairgrove. The young people were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. They will reside in Hale.

Whittemore.

T. J. Spooner, funeral director.

Fire insurance. L. A. Chichester.

C. H. Dillenbeck, funeral director.

Our merchants report an excellent holiday trade.

W. H. Price was at Tawas on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Smith ate dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Arn, of East Tawas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arn, of Rose City, had Christmas dinner at the home of Mathias Jordan.

We are all glad to hear that Mrs. John McNally who has been ill for some time is greatly improved at this writing.

Miss Katie Pavelock who has been working at Belding silk mills for eight months came home Saturday to spend the holidays.

R. Wade, of the Hemlock, informs us he has about 300 feet of pine and Norway lumber he will ship from Meivor during the winter.

Wm. Kane, jr., returned from Ludington Saturday where he has been for the past six months. Bill says there is no place like home in the winter.

Townline Topics.

School has closed for a two weeks vacation.

Quite a few of our boys were home for Christmas.

Charlie Lang spent Christmas with his brother Frank at Laidlawville.

Miss Sarah Sinclair, of Flint, is spending a week with friends here.

The M. E. Sunday school have elected Wm. Groff superintendent for the coming six months.

Miss Fannie Webb came up from Bay City to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Webb.

Louis Gauthier came down from Hale and spent Christmas with his children. He returned Wednesday.

A big sleigh load from here drove to Alabaster Monday evening to attend the Christmas exercises given by the school, under the direction of Misses White and Martin. A fine program was rendered.

Hemlock Slivers.

Miss Edith Dempsey is home from Alabaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McCarl are the parents of a fine son.

Little Nora Long is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Gwalia Hickingbottom is spending her vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Irish are spending a few days on the Hemlock.

Mrs. J. K. Crissman and Laura went to Romeo for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Force have again taken up their residence on their farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pringle spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Irish spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Summer-ville.

Will Bart is convalescing after a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazier and family spent Christmas with relatives at East Tawas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Culham, jr., held a family dinner at the old home on Christmas day.

Raymond Rodman arrived home from Battle Creek Monday to spend his vacation with his parents.

Mr. G. W. Ferrister and family entertained her brothers and family from Whittemore Christmas day.

The Hemlock has landed the cheese factory! It will be built on the southwest corner of W. B. Long's farm in Grant township. Walter King of Tawas City has the contract to put up the building, and will begin work next week. It will be ready to run about April 15.

We were well entertained with Christmas trees and programs. Grant school district No. 2 holding theirs Friday afternoon, Vine school district No. 9 Friday evening, Greenwood school district No. 3 Saturday evening and the S. S. holding one in the church Christmas eve. All were well attended and the programs enjoyed by all.

Wilber Warbles.

Wm. Scott came down from the Branch and spent a few days.

Flossie Miller is spending the Christmas holidays at the home of her parents.

Raymond Smith has a position in the barber shop with Nels Brabant at Tawas City.

A pleasant party for the young people was held Christmas night at the home of John McMullen.

Mrs. Mary Sehad has sold her farm to L. Klenow, of East Tawas, and will make her home in East Tawas now.

The Christmas entertainment given by district No. 1 at the school house on Friday evening last was a decided success, and was well attended. Much praise is due both teacher and pupils for their program. County Commissioner Campbell and E. L. Clary, of Whittemore were present. Mr. Jennings, of Hale, also attended and his sister, the teacher, accompanied him home to spend the Christmas vacation.

Baldwin Breezes.

Wedding bells are ringing.

Mr. and Mrs. August Colger visited at the home of Gustave Karus Sunday.

M. V. Saunders, of Glenmie, visited Baldwin friends Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Dilworth is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dilworth.

Charlie Pierson and Will Schuster came up from Bay City to visit their parents during the holidays.

Andrew Karneski returned Saturday from Bay City, where he has been working for a couple of months.

Miss Anna Westcott has been dangerously ill the past week with congestion of the lungs. We are pleased to learn at this writing that she is improving nicely.

As the Christmastide rolls around each year and you feel deserted and lonely just lay your sorrows to one side and think how you can help brighten up other lives. Buy a goose or a turkey and share it with your neighbors, it will taste much better and you will enjoy it much more than if you had to cook it yourself. May Christmas and New Year's happiness follow such a man as this

Notice—I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any pay debts contracted by my wife, Ethel Melvin, after this, 21st day of December, 1906. Edward Melvin, Siltom Mich.
