Rev. M. A. Graybeil, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Bay City, will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church in this city next Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.
It is not our desire to use the columns of the paper to dun our patrons, but just at this time we are much in need of every cent due us and therefore make this request, that allowing us will confer a special favor if they will pay us at least a portion of the amount during the next ten days.
W. L. Smith, the photographer, returned from Bay City Wednesday, bringing with him the balance of his gallery outfit. He has decided to locate at East Tawas permanently. Mr. Smith is a first-class photographer and we bespeak for him a liberal patronage. He is located in the Emery gallery.
Another old land mark of this city is disappearing. "The Old Homestead," occupied for many years as a saloon by Mike Murphy, is being torn down, and will give place to a new store building. The property is now owned by Collie Johnson, who purchased it a short time ago from the Beck Brewing Co.
The commissioner of the general land office has cancelled homestead entry number 9619 of Christ Groh for N. W. 1/4 of N. W. 1/4 of section 15, township 23, north of range 7 east, for failure to submit proof within seven years from date of entry. The land is now vacant government land and subject to entry.
One of the worst wrecks in the history of railroading occurred on the Pere Marquette road near Salem last Saturday when an excursion train bearing hundreds of the employees of the shops at Ionia, and a regular freight met in a head-on collision. Thirty-two persons were killed outright and over one hundred injured. Others have since died, and the death list will reach forty. The responsibility for the wreck has not yet been placed.
The following sad news is from the Hutchinson, Minn., Leader, and the bereaved mother will be remembered as Miss Lulu Goldie, formerly of this city: "Universal sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pendergast in their loss of their sweet little Genevieve, aged two years. While at their summer home at Lake Hook last Friday she was attacked with spinal meningitis and soon lapsed into unconsciousness. Doctors were summoned but their skill was unavailing. The funeral was held the following day."

Two Pretty Summer Homes.
Yesterday we had the pleasure of calling at "The M's", the two pretty summer cottages recently completed by P. B. Martin and Dr. Noah Myers, of Springfield, Ohio. These gentlemen were fortunate in securing one of the most desirable of the many beautiful spots on the shore of Tawas bay for summer homes and have erected thereon two pretty and commodious cottages. They are located at the western limits of the city and make a big addition to the appearances of that section.
The families are now enjoying the invigorating bay breezes, and the children find special delight in the beautiful beach and fine bathing, while P. B. and the Doctor are looking after the improvement of the places in general.
That the beach below this city is destined to become lined with pretty summer homes seems a certainty, and in this connection it would seem advisable for our city government to get busy and make some of the needed improvements to the streets and ditches in that part of the city. We have it from pretty good authority that several more cottages are contemplated for next season.
One of the pleasing effects in Mr. Martin's cottage is the furnishings, which consist of antique and mission furniture, much of which has been in the family for generations.
Charles A. Jahraus.
Another candidate is in the field from this county for the republican nomination from the 28th senatorial district as a delegate to the coming constitutional convention in the person of Charles A. Jahraus, of this city, who has entered the contest at the solicitation of his friends.
Mr. Jahraus was born at Hamilton, Ohio, in April 1859, and has been a successful attorney in this county for the past 20 years, and has filled the office of circuit court commissioner, two terms as county clerk, and three terms as prosecuting attorney in a most satisfactory manner to the people of the county. His large experience especially fits him for a position in the convention to revise the constitution of the state and he would make an ideal representative. His many friends hope to see him secure the nomination.

How About the Third House.

The supreme court handed down an opinion last week that members of the present legislature are ineligible to election as delegates to the constitutional convention. As we understand this decision, it applies only to members of the senate and the house of representatives. There is, however, a third house of the legislature whose members are fully as anxious to go to the constitutional convention as the senators and representatives were before the court's decision.

The attorneys of the railroads and their allied interests form a numerous and extremely influential branch of the state legislature. The people of Michigan are lucky indeed that the constitutional convention bill, "cooked up" by the politicians in and just on the outskirts of the legislature, framed for the purpose of making it easy for politicians to be nominated, will be of no avail for the three-dollar-a-day men who aspired to ten-dollar-a-day jobs of their own creation. It is now up to the people to see that the fifty-and-one-hundred-dollar-a-day men who also aspire to these ten-dollar-a-day jobs for the advantage there would be in the control of the convention to their clients are elected to stay at home. The railroads and public utilities of Michigan are great interests and their prosperity is of large importance to the people. It is only, however, as their interests are identical with those of the people at large that they should be protected in the constitution and statue of the state.

Railroad companies and all other corporations which live by means of special privileges and the use of governmental authority have their rights only by sufferance. It is their function to serve the people, not to control them. For this reason and because of the unhappy history of legislative sessions of the state of Michigan it is important that railroad attorneys and attorneys for other special privileged interests should not be elected as delegates to the convention.—Civic News.

Approach of Tariff Revision.

Tariff revision must come in the near future. One after another former stand-patters and rank protectionists have been forced to acknowledge that a revision of the present tariff laws must occur soon. Even the national association of manufacturers declared itself in favor of revision and such conservatives in the United States senate as Allison, Lodge and, surprising as it may seem, Boss Aldrich, favor new tariff schedule. It is understood that Pres. Roosevelt, on at least one occasion, has fully made up his mind to urge congress to tackle the tariff, but the determined opposition of Speaker Cannon and some others induced the president to wait, and give preference to some other measures that seemed to demand urgent attention. With the approach of another presidential campaign the republican party is forced to take positive ground on the tariff question; otherwise its position of power will be jeopardized before the county.—Orange Judd Farmer.

The Local Paper

It is the local press which serves you in every emergency. There you go in trouble. It is there you go in prosperity, says the Henderson, (Ky.) Journal.

If you want to boom any manufacturing enterprise, any railroad project for the development of your town, for your lodge to increase your influence, or if your lodge desires to add to its membership or to erect a new hall or in any way advance its interests, the local press is immediately appealed to for help. So it is with our churches. If it is a picnic or a festival, a new carpet or an organ, the local press is found to be useful in furthering every good object. If a raid is to be made on sin by the ambassador of Christ the columns of the local paper are used freely and gratuitously in advertising the revival meeting. The candidates and politician find also the importance of the local press.

Clearly there are many reasons why the local press should be cultivated. Yet spite of all these facts the people most interested in the local paper are sometimes the last to give it their support and are frequently known to take several metropolitan papers and shut out their local paper altogether. If there is anything in the argument about the advantages of home trade, surely it makes a strong appeal on behalf of the local press because the money for the labor is always expended where the paper is printed, and if paid out with one hand for subscription, advertising or job printing it comes into the other hand and thus remain with you. If by any means you freeze out your local paper and leave yourself at the mercy of the foreign, you would find out more fully than words or arguments could explain why the local paper should be cultivated.

Ban on Corsets.

Press dispatches announce that Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt has assayed the role of reformer. It is not the railroads, the corporations nor the nature fakirs that have fallen under the ban of the first lady of the land. According to an intimate friend, the president's wife has decided to discard her corsets. All of the feminine instruments of torture in her wardrobe will be thrown into the garbage heap and she will hereafter wage unceasing warfare against them. If Mrs. Roosevelt is successful in her crusade, the corsets will be relegated to the limbo of antiquity along with the hoopskirts and the bustle. As a result, the wasp-like waist bids fair to go out of fashion, and the Venus form, long admired but seldom emulated, is to have its inning.

Mrs. Roosevelt's actions as a sartorial reformer is not without precedent. When Mrs. Cleveland was America's first lady, she placed an eternal taboo on the bustle and put the ban of official displeasure on that hideous instrument of deformity. At that time the bustle had grown to enormous size and caused the American woman to assume a resemblance to the hump-backed ship of the desert. Mrs. Cleveland's example was speedily followed by the nation's femininity and the bustle became a back number.

The opposition of Mrs. Roosevelt to the corset is based on hygienic facts not unrelated to the subject of race suicide. She believes that the compressing of vital organs by means of stays has become a positive menace and a crime against future generations. Such a crusade will not be without its effect in the financial world, since millions of dollars are invested in corset manufacture in this country, and any attempt to bring these articles of feminine attire into disrepute will not be accomplished without a determined fight on the part of the vested—or "corseted"—interests of the nation.

"Dollar Wheat"

As is usually the case, dollar wheat arrived after the crop had been transferred from the farmers' bins to the big warehouses and elevators, and too late for the growers to reap any benefit from the advance. Crops have a habit of doing this, and there is seldom a substantial advance in the prices of a farm commodity until it is well out of the producers' hands. It is exasperating to the farmer to find that some man in the grain pit, who never raised an honest bushel of any crop in his life, has cleaned up $1,000,000 or so by buying wheat at eighty cents and selling it for $1, and that too without actually handling a single grain. Those who plow the stubble and sow the grain, and toil in the harvest time to glean the increase are the ones who are entitled to the gain. And this will come about when farmers generally shall have reached the happy situation where they will be able to hold their crops for the best market, and to secure the benefits of the higher prices. Conditions have greatly improved in this respect within recent years, and when the practise becomes universal American agriculture will have reached the place in which it belongs, as not only one of the noblest but one of the most gainful occupations in the country.—Farm Journal.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean, smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at J. M. Wuggazer & Co's and G. S. Darling's drug stores. Price 50c.

Republican Convention.

The several counties in said district are entitled to representation as follows:

Alcona, 3; Clare, 7; Crawford, 3; Gladwin, 5; Iosco, 7; Ionia, 7; Ogemaw, 6; Oscoda, 1; Roscommon, 2.

GUY E. SMITH, EDWIN RAWDEN,
Secretary. Chairman

Long Live The King!

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the proven remedy. Guaranteed at J. M. Wuggazer & Co's and G. S.  The laws of this state are very strict, altho we regret to say the enforcement of them is very slack, relative to allowing obnoxious weeds going to seed. The man who allows Canada thistles and other weeds to go to seed not only decreases the value of his own land but that of his neighbor.

The professor is an excellent school teacher, and he and his wife are estimable citizens that the town is loth to lose.

 I have an Irish acquaintance whom I always suspected possessed a heart of gold. Recently he did me a great kindness and in thanking him I remarked, "I'm afraid I shall not have a chance to do you a favor like this." "Well, me boy," he replied, "then do someone else a favor." This Irishman's church is not my church for I haven't any church, his creed is not my creed for I haven't any creed, but the religion which is "his rule and guide of faith" is good enough for me and if there were more of it in the world there would be, in the world more hearts of pure gold. —Exchange.

A GIGANTIC ALTERATION SALE

Walther's Great Department Stores will be Overhauled and Remodeled from End to End

Walther's Great Department Stores will be overhauled and remodeled from end to end. For more than a year Mr. Walther has had under consideration extensive improvements to his seven big stores on Water street, between Fourth and Fifth. He finally decided to make these important changes and the plans and specification have been in the hands of the architect for some weeks and will soon be in readiness, and just as soon as arrangements can be made to dispose of sufficient amount of stock to enable the carpenters to work advantageously they will start on the plans. There will be a new system established throughout the store, shelving and partitions will be torn down and new ones erected, the entire seven stores will be handsomely decorated. This will be one of the handsomest and most convenient stores in which to trade in the state. Every person who has lived in this part of Michigan for any length of time is acquainted with Walther's Great Department Store and their honorable methods of doing business. From a small beginning by upright and careful dealings they have gained the confidence and the well wishes of the buying public and now enjoy one of the largest and best patronages of any store in the country, in fact, their trade has grown so rapidly that it became absolutely necessary to make the majority of the aforesaid changes in order to handle the great increase in stocks required by the business. Monday, July 29th, we will start one of the greatest sales held in the valley. We must close out at least 75 per cent of our present stock to make room for carpenters.

This stock must be moved within the next few weeks as our repairs must be completed in time for our fall business and in order to close out this great quantity of merchandise in so short a time we realize that it will be necessary to cut the prices wide and deep to make it an object for you to buy at once, not only for your present needs but to lay in a stock for the future. This sale will go into history as one of the most remarkable price cutting events on strictly high grade, reliable merchandise ever conducted in Michigan. We have no place to put the goods, consequently we must close them out. We want every patron of this store to come and bring relatives, neighbors and friends. Tell them what this great department store has done for you in the past, and tell them that at this great alteration sale they will be able to buy cheaper than they ever bought before.

The Yacht Races.

The Tawas Beach Yachting Association annual races will begin next Wednesday, and it is claimed this will be the best regatta in the history of the association.

Interest is both more diffused and more intense than before—the power boat races and the 16-footers having climbed to the pinnacle occupied by 21-footers as an attraction. Commodore Harry T. Wickes has offered a handsome solid silver cup for the 16-foot class, and it is expected to have at least twelve or fourteen entries. Six certainties and two more probabilities in this class will enter from the newly built fleet of the Bay City Boat club.

Spray, the wonderful 21-footer, has been definitely promised for the regatta and the usual Detroit fleet, with additions, will be there, including Borealis, new last season, and housed in Detroit, although owned by Bay City and Alpena yachtmen. The power boat races will be decidedly interesting from the fact that Arrow, owned by Arthur Shawl, of Bay City, will probably meet the original Secret, built and owned by Charles J. Trudell, of that city.

Arrow, although she swept Put-in-Bay clean of all competitors last week, has by no means a cinch on championship claims as long as she has not met the Secret model boats. The original Secret holds a record of 25.3 mile-per-hour gait and it is up to Arrow to equal it. The boats may possibly meet on the river there before the Tawas regatta, but an effort will be made to hold them apart for the Tawas event. Mystery, another Bay City boat with a record of 17.9 miles per hour with 8-horsepower engine, is to have a 25-horsepower machine installed and she is being hurried in order to participate in the Tawas event.

The 16-footer race will be held the afternoon of the first day, Wednesday, July 31. There are two cash prizes totaling $50, and the Wickes solid silver cup. Thursday morning the power boat race will be held for the Bay City Tribune cup and $75 in two cash prizes. The cup is now held by Two Howards, a 20-miler, formerly of Bay City but bought last fall by Detroit parties. The free for all handicap Detroit and Mackinac cup race will be sailed in the afternoon. The cup can be held only by yachts from D. & M. points but all yachts are eligible to the $150 cash prizes. St. Elmo, of Bay City, now holds the cup. Borealis will probably be her contestant.

The 21-footers will go it Friday morning for the Detroit Free Press silver punch bowl trophy and $150 in cash prizes. A special cruising class race for $40 will be sailed in the afternoon. Saturday morning a free for all handicap will be run for $105 in cash prizes and in the afternoon a double cat boat and a dinghy race will be on. A smoker will be held Wednesday night; the annual ball of the association Friday night and the annual meeting, supper and smoker Saturday night.

Many Handsome Prizes Will Be Given.

The committee on premiums and prizes on Saginaw's semi-centennial and Lome week, Aug. 18-24th, have arranged to give many prizes on almost every conceivable event. Not only on the floral, industrial, automobile and kindred features, but upon fraternal and woman's spheres as well. There will be cash prizes of $250.00 for fraternalists, drilling only, and many other fraternal prizes. They are assured that crack drill teams will be there from all over the country, and representing almost every fraternal order known. That all should have a chance for a prize, there will be numbers of prizes for appearance, distance, percentage of membership present, etc., etc. 20,000 fraternalists are expected.

In "Woman's World" the ladies exhibit there will be beautiful prizes as well as cash given on every phase of woman's work, needle, fancy, plain, cooking, butter, gardens, and in fact anything of interest to the housewife. No entry fees, and anyone in state eligible.

This exhibit will include demonstrations from all over the country in the pure food sections and will no doubt be very interesting.

BETTER GRANGE SPEAKERS.
A New Idea Being Worked Out by Michigan State Grange.
Many grange states have their lecturers' conferences and county deputies' meetings, but it remains for Michigan state grange to institute a conference for grange speakers. Such a meeting was held a few weeks ago, which was presided over by the state master and was really a school of instruction in the fundamentals of grange doctrines and their presentation in concise and forceful language—a sort of normal class for teachers and speakers. The purpose of the state master is to furnish speakers for Pomona granges, so that at least two may go to each small grange county and from three to five to each larger grange county during the year to interest the present members of the order and to make them feel that they belong to an important organization in the order—namely, the Pomona grange—and to give assistance to the Pomona lecturer in order that the Pomona grange programme may be in every way superior to that of the subordinate grange. Although the Pomona grange pays nothing into the state grange treasury, it is recognized as the gateway of access to influence upon the vital grange life of a country. It is in a sense a substate grange. About two-thirds of the expense of sending out such speakers will be borne by the state grange and the other third by the Pomona.
Michigan has herein set an example worthy to be followed by every other grange state. There is too much aimless speaking at Pomona granges and grange picnics. A few good stories, followed by a more or less practical talk, followed by more good stories, seems to be the ideal which a good many grange speakers have before them, but there is too much real, solid work to be done, too many real, helpful topics to be discussed, to warrant any state grange in sending out men who are inclined to make an interesting talk simply pleasing for the hour.

GRANGE FOR GOOD ROADS.
A Purely Grange Road Bill Now Before the New York State Legislature.
The New York state grange legislative committee has had a new bill prepared amending the Fuller-Plank law, so that poorer towns will receive a larger share of state aid and grading the towns according to the average assessed valuation per mile of road rather than the valuation per town. In its grading of towns for state aid under the money system the grange bill uses the assessed valuation as equalized by both the board of supervisors and the board of equalization.
There were numerous good road bills before the legislature, but none of them took account of the inequalities that appeared in the working of the old law. The grange bill proposes to give towns with a valuation of less than $5,000 per mile a 100 per cent addition to that which they raise themselves; those between $5,000 and $7,000 valuation, 90 per cent; between $7,000 and $9,000, 80 per cent; between $9,000 and $11,000, 70 per cent, and between $11,000 and $13,000, 50 per cent. A limitation is fixed for towns with $25,000 per mile valuation not to exceed $25 per mile annually, and towns with a mileage valuation exceeding $25,000 will not be permitted to draw more than one-tenth of 1 per cent of their total valuation. This is purely a grange good roads bill.
Newspapers Help Grange Work.
Editors of country newspapers are well disposed toward the grange. They will use write-ups of meetings of local granges if they are furnished them; they will announce the programme in advance; they will lend valuable aid to the grange movement. But they expect reports to have something in them. They want grange news, too, not stuff ten days' old. Every grange should have a local press correspondent who should be selected with special reference to his fitness for the work.

Organized For Business.
The Penobscot (Me.) Pomona Grange company was recently organized and has a capital of $200,000 for the purpose of dealing in groceries, grains and feeds and all kinds of farm supplies. It also intends to buy and sell farm produce on commission, and there is a possibility that a cold storage plant will be erected in Bangor by the same company in the near future.
The legislative committee of the New York state grange could find no good roads bill at Albany that met grange requirements, so they made one of their own.
Talk grange among your farmer neighbors! All farmers should stand shoulder to shoulder these days for the principles the grange is seeking to uphold.
The national grange executive committee held a joint meeting with the special committee on grange insurance at Albany, N. Y., on April 25.
State Master Hill of Pennsylvania has sounded his slogan for 1907—a Pennsylvania membership of 100,000.
Grange fire insurance was never so popular and profitable as now.

Don't Use a Scarecrow
To Drive Away the Mail Order Wolf
You can drive him out quickly if you use the mail order houses' own weapon—advertising. Mail order concerns are spending thousands of dollars every week in order to get trade from the home merchants. Do you think for a minute they would keep it up if they didn't get the business? Don't take it for granted that every one within a radius of 25 miles knows what you have to sell, and what your prices are. Nine times out of ten your prices are lower, but the customer is influenced by the up-to-date advertising of the mail order house. Every article you advertise should be described and priced. You must tell your story in an interesting way, and when you want to reach the buyers of this community use the columns of this paper.
