TAWAS CITY, MICH., SEPT. 6, 1907

The merchant who sticks to newspaper advertising rather than try all sorts of schemes is wise. Programs and such forms of advertising do not bring the returns that the newspaper brings.

The amount of money which the government is called upon to redeem in the course of the year reaches an almost fabulous amount. In 1904 for instance, it totaled $912,000,000. This redemption is either for the purpose of securing clean, fresh notes or to get change of some other denomination.

Post office inspectors last year collected $59,000 in $10 fines from persons who placed written messages on the inside of packages of merchandise on which postage was paid at one cent an ounce. Most of the cases were found to be technical violation of the postal laws, the offense being due to ignorance.—Ex.

Originally the capital stock of the Pullman company was $1,250,000. It has been increased at various times, until now it is $100,000,000. In 1898 after having paid 8 per cent dividends annually for years, it declared an extra dividend of 20 per cent. It is still paying 8 per cent a year, but this and the multiplication of the capital stock do not represent the full measure of the favored monopoly's profits. On July 31, 1906, the company's total surplus was no less than $27,122,020.—New York Press.

Is it best for the republicans of Michigan to shut their eyes to the fact that the last legislature was so entirely owned by the republicans that gross carelessness existed in the passage of laws, and that some of the more prominent acts have been set aside by the supreme court, or is it wise to note that too much recklessness by a republican legislature will breed discontent and disgust and bring about a defeat of the republican party. The people are republicans but are not willing to pay too much for the purpose of electing a lot of careless, grossly negligent men to represent them.—Millersburg News.

American Farmers' Earnings Beat Record

New York, Sept. 2.—The American farmers' earnings are $1,000,000,000 greater this year than last, according to a report on crops which will be published in the next issue of the American Agricultural. This big gain will be entirely due to the increased prices on farm products, as the production in general will be fully 10 per cent less in quantity than in 1906, which was the bumper year. "The farmer was never in so healthy position as he is today—financially, socially, politically, mentally, and spiritually," says the report. "The increase in the value of his real estate has been prodigious. He owes less money than ever before. He has greater assets than ever. Again, the farmers want are greater. He is in the market for more and better breeding stock, farm implements, household goods and other merchandise."

If Not Now—Then Later.

There is a growing suspicion in the minds of the people that the proposed revision of the state constitution is merely a scheme to promote graft—to raise the salaries of lazy and inefficient officials and make it easier for politicians to rake the shekels from the public crib. They who propose to do the revising show no enthusiasm for real reform. They do not want an ideal state government. They sneer at the initiative and referendum and the recall. Yet without these provisions a constitution does not represent the spirit of the age; and to speak contemptuously of them is an insult to an enlightened public—as if the average man were not competent to decide what is best for him, and should get a third-rate lawyer to determine for him. The people should not delegate their rights and powers any further than is absolutely necessary to make the management of public affairs practicable. All know how hard it is under present conditions to get representatives and senators to carry out the wishes of those whom they pretend to represent. Who does not remember how long it took to get a correction of the tax iniquities? For session after session members of the legislature disregarded the wishes of their constituents and violated their own pledges; and not until Governor Pingree took a cudgel and drove the reluctant rascals to it did they enact the law that brought the railroads to time and put eight million dollars into the state treasury. With the initiative and referendum in force the people could at any time have whatever legislation they desire. These things will not come through this constitutional convention, but they will come some time.—Water-vliet Record.

Society's Ways.

Mary will have to be asked to play when she goes out in society. A proud mamma will attend to that. And Mary will play, with faithful accuracy, something from Chopin or Beethoven or Mendelssohn, and the young people will watch her chubby fingers thoughtfully and wonder when the selection will come to an end. They will applaud, too—when the end is reached—for that is good manners, and everybody likes Mary anyhow. And then—well, Lucy Smith, who has never taken lessons, will roll up to the piano and begin a "coon song," hands and feet will beat time all over the room, half the listeners will hum the refrain; everybody will see the difference between the piano as a penance and as a pleasure, and only Mary's mamma will make unpleasant side remarks about the degeneracy of popular taste in music.—Success.

In the Woman's World.

The leading dress article for October in the New Idea Woman's Magazine takes up the question of a year's supply of petticoats and goes into the subject at some length, giving valuable advice as to what constitutes a reasonable and suitable supply. The latest innovations in separate flounces, fitted yokes, new petticoat materials and trimmings are taken up and dealt with from a practical standpoint. Four helpful articles of timely interest to the housekeeper are on "Tomatoes in Can and Conserve," "Practical Points on Soup Making," "Utilizing the Cheaper Cuts of Meat," and "Hints for a Healthy Kitchen." "The Planting of Fall Bulbs," contains a great deal of useful information for the garden-lover; and the puzzled hostess will find "New Fortune Telling for Hallowe'en," and "The Festival of Maids" and "A Workingman's Party," full of bright suggestions for entertaining on the witching eve of Hallowe'en. A new department of advice "For the Girl Who is going to the City" has been started by the editor in response to numerous questions concerning different cities and what they have to offer the country girl who wishes to earn her living.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by G. S. Darling and J. M. Wuggazer & Co. druggists. 50c.

Annual Excursion to Detroit, Toledo, Port Huron, Bay City, Ohio and Indiana.

Via Detroit & Mackinac Ry., Thursday, Oct. 3d, Bay City, Port Huron, Detroit and Toledo, tickets good for 15 days; those to Ohio and Indiana points good for 30 days. Rate from Tawas City to Bay City $2.00; to Port Huron, Detroit and Toledo $4.00. Fare to Ohio and Indiana points is the low rates to Detroit or Toledo plus about 1½ cents per mile in each direction beyond Detroit and Toledo. Bay County Fair

At Bay City. D. & M. Ry will sell tickets at one fare for the round trip, children half fare. September 10th to 13th inclusive, good returning any time up to and including September 14th. See D. & M. agents.

Thirty-Third Annual Fair.

Iosco County Fair takes place week after next, Sept. 17, 18 and 19, and from present appearances promises a good time to all who will be present. The railroads will sell return trip tickets for one fare good until Sept. 20th, so that every one in the county from Bay City to Alpena, Rose City, Lincoln and Prescott may attend.

The horse races are going to be first class, an extra purse of $250 having been raised by the merchants of the county added to the regular purses, insuring a mighty good string of outside as well as local horses, and lovers of a good horse race will get their money's worth.

An automobile race open to autos owned in the county is also on the program, and for a substantial prize.

A dancing pavilion will also be provided for the young people who care for dancing.

A good vaudeville show is also spoken for with minstrel show attachment, which will give pleasing and varied matinees, two performances each afternoon.

A feature of the fair this year will be exhibits by the merchants of the county, who by exhibiting their newest and best goods, wares and manufactures, will thus attract the attention of the people to all that is new and useful, and at the same time advertise their own wares, thus imitating the state fair, which is given for just that purpose.

The farmers generally have also shown a strong disposition to show their produce and stock and by doing so will materially assist the association this year to handle the financial question without the heavy expense heretofore attached to a long and heavy cash premium list, which left the association in debt each year at the end of the fair and without means to pay its dues and keep up the grounds. The officers and directors of the association are working hard and cheerfully with this end in view and expect to see their efforts appreciated.

The fair will be good, the fun and entertainment the best ever and profitable besides, and the county at large and neighbors should join and have a good time by attending.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

The Lawyer's Experience With a Man of His Own Profession.

"When I was younger than I am now," says a lawyer who is still somewhat this side of middle age, "I had a position in the office of a man who has a big reputation. Naturally I felt my responsibility. It was plain to me that the head of the firm had outlived his usefulness, and I used to feel sorry to think what would happen to him if I ever left him. Sheer magnanimity made me overlook a lot of things.

"I wasn't treated in that office with all the deference due me, but I stood it till one day somebody went too far. Then I marched into the old man's private office and laid down the law to him. I told him I wasn't going to endure such treatment another day. I was going to quit, that was what I was going to do, and I was going to quit right then and there. I unburdened my mind freely, and then I stopped to give him a chance to apologize and beg me not to ruin him by leaving. He didn't look up from his desk. He just said to me in a polite kind of a way:

"Please don't slam the door when you go out."—Washington Post.

SCHOOL NOTES

LAVINA COX, Editor
LOIS TAYLOR, Assistant

Russel Rollin is absent on account of sickness.

Howard Rollin was absent Wednesday afternoon.

Forty-eight pupils enrolled in the intermediate room.

George Baxter was absent Wednesday on account of sickness.

School opened this week Tuesday and we are all again very studiously engaged.

As we are unable to procure all the books necessary, we cannot do all of our work.

For the first time in many years the intermediate room enrolls more girls than boys.

Third and fourth grades are making lists of the fruits, flowers and insects to be found in September.

Thirty children are enrolled in the first primary, ten in the chart class and thirty-two in the second primary, all interested in their work.

In the high school there are nearly as many young men as young ladies, Good for the boys! This means that they appreciate the advantages which the school offers.

The normal will open Monday, Sept. 16, and we are expecting a large class. It is desired that all who have not communicated with the superintendent in regard to entering will do so at once. No person can enter the class later than the second Monday.

On our second day's work, the zoology class were presented with a live bill-fish by Charles and Henry Brown. It will be kept alive in aquarium for a few days and its habits studied. We are always pleased to have subjects given us for nature study, and as a class we thank them.

The enrollment by rooms to date is as follows: Primary, ward 40, central 30; 3rd and 4th grades, 32; 5th and 6th, 48; 7th and 8th, 36; high school, 44; making a total of 230. No room is crowded as yet but there are a few more to enter. The teachers of the public and German schools met Thursday afternoon and compared their registers with the census report, so as to locate any of school age who have not yet entered. Their names will be given to the truant officer and they will be looked up.
