Money

We are grateful to our many friends who have been so loyal to us, and their own interests, during the past weeks when distrust of larger institutions was general in other sections of the country.

While we have not felt the stringency in getting currency and have not required notice of withdrawlas when needed. We have brought to our aid every possible resource and advantage so that we might be "ready with the cash."

Our strong position in the financial world has enabled us to meet every demand, and accumulate in our safe double the amount of currency usually required.

To those acquainted with conditions in other parts of the country, which are fast improving, we are sure that our motto of "Not how Large, but how Strong" appeals at this time.

The contest for the republican nomination for the presidency next year has been complicated by the open announcement of Senator Foraker, of Ohio, that he is a candidate. This brings on an open fight between the Tatt, or administration faction and the Foraker faction in that state. Foraker is conceeded to have a strong hold on the party in Ohio, and it looks very doubtful is Taft can secure his own delegation. This certainly would be a serious

Rev. Sam Bettes, St. Clair county's eccentric cowboy preacher, struck Hazelton, Ind., last week and the morning after his sermon at the German Baptist church secured the arrest of the members of the choir, three young women and three young men, for chewing gum while he was preaching, says the Detroit News. The specific charge against the sextette is disturbing a religious meeting. Bettes had been invited to the pulpit by the pastor and the church was well filled. He suddenly deser-ted his text and directed the attention of his hearers to the choir, at the same time unmercifully scoring the latter. The warrants next morning caused something of a sensation in the Hoosier town.

Great Season For Farmers.

In a compilation of the agricultural exports for the fiscal year, end ed June 30, 1907, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, in his annual report, shows that the farm products sent out of the country were valued at $1,055,000,000, or $79,000,000 above the high record for 1906. Plant products made up four-fifths of this total, cotton alone amounting to $482,000,000. Animals and animal products—mostly packing house proheal the worst cases of Scratches, Galls, ducts-were exported to the value of $255,000,000. The live animals exported were worth $41,000,000 and the dairy products $6,600.00.

Agricultural products valued at $627,000,000 were imported during the past fiscal year—$403,000,000 worth of plant products and $224-000,000 worth of animal products. The principal items among these imports were: Sugar and molasses, $94,000,000; coffee, $78.000,000 fibers, $62,000,000; packing house products (mostly hides and skins), $96,000,000; silk, $71,000,000 and wool $42,000,000.
