The East Tawas Bakery is being moved to the Sumpner building, and will have a most desirable location. Mr. Turner is a first-class baker and is building up an excellent business in the Tawasites.
Daniel McElhannon, of East Tawas, offers his ice business, also his house and lot in that city for sale. Here is a nice business and a desirable home for some. Mr. McElhannon contemplates leaving at Onaway.
Having taken the agency for Brown's Herb Tablets, I will keep a supply at my residence on the Meadow road, one mile west of Tawas City, and at James Hamilton's grocery store, Tawas City, Mich. E. Proctor.
The advertiser should learn a lesson from the boards that railroads have put up at railroad crossing. No matter how familiar the people may become with these signs, they never take them down. Neither should the advertiser stop because the people are familiar with his ad.
J. F. McLennan, and his mother, Mrs. McLennan spent a few days this week visiting relatives and friends in this city. Mr. McLennan, who has held a position in the government printing office at Washington for a number of years, has been sent to Manila, P. I., to assume a position in the Bureau of Printing there.
The Herald force has been handicapped this week by the injury sustained by Miss Lucinda Nash, our compositor, last Friday evening while returning to her home in East Tawas, on the E. & M. train. A sudden severe stopping of the train participated her against the hot stove, badly burning her right hand.
The names of a number of our subscribers who are owing one or more years subscription, and who failed to arrange a settlement, have been discontinued. This action was necessary on our part to comply with the ruling of the postoffice department and we hope that the accounts will be promptly settled and their subscription renewed.

Miss Grace Davison, who is a student at the M. A. C., is spending the spring vacation at her home in this city.
When buying work shoes buy the best. Weyenberg's water-proof are without equal. James LaBerge, of East Tawas, sells them.
Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGary, who removed to Alpena about a year ago, are again residents of this city, and their many friends are glad to welcome them back.
Going to buy a new range this season? If so, don't do it until you have seen the line shown by Andrew Merschell, of East Tawas. They are the best, and are sold right.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers have shipped their household goods to Pine River, where they will make their future home. Their many friends in this city regret their departure but wish them health and prosperity in their new home.
Dr. C. V. Crane performed a very delicate and apparently successful operation on the 9-weeks-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nellens. The little one was suffering from and abscess on the kidney, the operation removed a pint of puss, and the little one is doing nicely.
Mrs. Lillie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGary, died at the family home in Alpena, March 30, of consumption. The deceased was born in this city and was 25 years of age, and is survived by two little sons, her aged parents, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death.
That the township officers know where to get their election printing done right, both as to quality and price, is evidenced by the fact that the Herald has been called upon to print the tickets for thirteen of the voting precincts of the county, besides several township financial statements. We have worked night and day this week, but hope to get back on schedule time next week. We are again forced to leave out considerable matter this week.

Tawas City Democrats.
At the democratic city caucus and convention held last Monday evening the following candidates were placed in nomination:

Notwithstanding the storm on Friday evening, a large audience gathered to witness the baptism of eight happy converts. It was a most solemn and deeply impressive service throughout.
The "Wayside Cross" will be read by a male quartette at the services Sunday evening.
Death Was on His Heels.
Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for cough and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at G. S. Darling's and J. E. Dillon's drug stores, at 50c and $1 per bottle. Trial bottles free.

MOUTH NO PLACE FOR COINS.
Danger of Practice Too Frequently Indulged in by Women.
"Women are addicted to many pernicious habits," observed a physician, "but I cannot conceive of one that is more idiotic than the placing of coins in the mouth while the purse or money bag is being opened. Most women do this, especially in the street cars, and are doubtless unmindful of the fact that they are thereby inviting dangerous throat and lung troubles. I have often watched women holding coins between their lips, and have been very strongly tempted to utter an admonishing word. Only today I saw a beautiful girl give a conductor a dime. Sitting opposite to her was a dirty-looking man, whose hands looked as if they hadn't been washed for a week. He gave the conductor a nickel and the conductor handed it to the young woman in change for her dime. She placed it between her lips while she opened her money bag. Why does not some ingenious woman introduce a small pocket or some device in the feminine wardrobe that will take the place of the lips for holding coins? Certainly she would be a benefactor to her sex."
Cited from the Bible.
Octave Chanet tells a story of an old dandy in Florida who was anxious to learn to read, so that he could read the Bible. He said that if he could read the Bible he would want nothing else. A friend of the narrator taught him to read. Some time afterward she visited his cabin and asked his wife how his Bible reading was getting on. "Laws, Miss Fanny," said this person, "he's suttinly kin read fine. He's done got outen de Bible an' into de newspapers."
Work and Play.
According to the very wisest man that ever lived there is a time to work and a time to play. When working time comes every muscle may be put in motion, every nerve brought into play, every particle of brain force utilized. When resting time arrives, it should be devoted to storing up energy. Rest ought to be complete, absolute. There is no use laying aside one's occupation, unless that signifies cessation of worry and those activities of brain which wear out the body.

FRIGHTFUL DEGREE OF COLD.
Frost's Intensity Hard for Dweller in Temperate Climes to Realize.
It is difficult for us to form any conception of the degree of cold represented by the 89 degrees of frost recorded on certain parts of Russia. Sir Leopold McClintock tells how in one of his Arctic expeditions a sailor was foolish enough to do some outdoor work at precisely this temperature. His hands froze and when he rushed into the cabin and plunged one of them into a basin of water so cold was the hand that the water was instantly converted into a block of ice. At 25 degrees, Dr. Kane says, "the muscles and under lip form pendulous heads of dancing ice. Put out your tongue and it instantly freezes to this icy crustacean. Your chin has a trick of freezing to your upper jaw by the luting all of your beard; my eyes have often been so glued as to show that even a wink was unsafe."
Effective Repartee.
About three o'clock one morning, according to Toby, M. P., T. P. O'Connor was orating in the house of commons to 12 or 15 members lying cold in various stages of drowsiness. Sir Patrick O'Brien was among them, and now and then rescuing himself with a start from falling asleep, audibly engaged in conversation. "I protest against this disorderly conduct," exclaimed Mr. O'Connor at length; "the honorable baronet is constantly interrupting me." "Sir," replied Sir Patrick, with a graceful bow, "the honorable gentleman misinterprets my motive. I interrupted, it is true. But it was with the intention of waking the honorable gentleman's audience."
When Do We Dream?
There has been much discussion as to whether one dreams only on falling to sleep and during the act of waking up or whether dreams take place at any time during sleep. While not definitely determined as yet, the evidence seems to be rather in favor of the view that one may dream at any time during the night, or the whole night, through. Dreaming is common to perfectly healthy persons, and in itself is no evidence of disorder.—Dr. Frederick Peterson, in Harper's Magazine.

Governor Cummins, of Iowa, sums up the political situation as follows: "Taft on the first ballot, Bryan without a serious contest, and then a hard close fight between Taft and Bryan for election to the presidency, with Taft a winner by a much narrower margin than McKinley won by in 1896."

An ingenious inventor has patented an electric foot warmer which is in the shape of a pair of light felt overshoes. An electric battery supplies the source of current and insulated wires are the heating element. When the "boots" are pulled on a touch of a button starts the current and the foot is soon comfortable in a genial warmth.

There is a strange mountain in the Death Valley region of Nevada. It is known as Mount Blanc, and consists entirely of borax. Mount Blanc is approximately 1,500 feet high and two miles in diameter. Frank M. Smith, of Oakland, owns the mountain absolutely, and thereby is said to control the visible supply of borax in the world. The market value of this borax where it lies is something more than $100 per ton. Experts estimate that the mountain contains at least three billion tons of borax. This mountain, standing at the north end of the Funeral range, within a stone's throw of Death's Valley, says a western writer, "makes Smith easily the richest man in the world, from a point of resources. But this borax deposit is merely a lining for the pot of gold that rests in the Funeral range."

In the last ten years the people of the United States have paid to the railroad companies more than $17,-

000,000,000. Of this sum $5,500,000 represents earnings in excess of all operating expenses. During these ten years the public, through the medium of freight and passenger rates, has paid over $2,600,000 to the holders of railroad bonds, and $1,600,000 more has been distributed to stockholders in dividends. These statistics are respectfully commended to the consideration of these railroad managers who are forever whimpering about the inestimable service that the railroads render to the country. It is true enough that the American people could not get along without the railroads, but it is even more true that the railroads could not get along without the American people. All the obligation to be just, fair and considerate is not on one side—Lansing Journal.

A Silly Boast.

An Iowa man has boasted that he had voted one ticket for more than forty years. That is, he thought it was a boast; really it was confession.

It is a confession that for forty long years he has been content to let some one else to do his thinking for him. For forty years he has been the blind sheep following the tinkling bell. He has put sentiment above sense; party above patriotism.

Political parties are manipulated by human beings and so make mistakes just as men do. No party has ever existed forty years without making a mistake. Instead of using his influence to correct the mistakes of his party this man helped to exaggerate them.

Our national destiny will not be worked out by any political party alone. The initiative for progress must come from the thinking men, who will keep their line by holding the big stick of their support and influence over it. The independent voter, the man who thinks, has it in his power to put the professional politician out of business. He has it in his power to tear the party props from under Boss Graft.—Grand Rapids Press.

Legislators Come High.

A Lansing dispatch says, since the grand jury investigation and the indictment of two members of the legislature for alleged graft there is considerable discussion in Lansing of legislative expenses. Some interesting figures, showing the expenses of the last legislature, are found in the auditor general's report for the fiscal year ending last June.

It is shown that the total expenses of the state senate were $56,912.53, of which only $18,258 was the per diem of members. The remainder was for the pay of employes, mileage and incidental expenses, so that the salaries of the senators were really only about one third the cost of the session. The report shows that while there are but 32 senators there are 61 employes attached to the senate staff, and that while the salaries of the senators aggregated $18,258, those of the employes amounted to $30,751.

Senators received $557 each, which was at the rate of $3 per day for every day of the week, from the beginning of the session to the end, not a senator being docked for absence or for Sundays, altho the constitution says that members shall be allowed $3 per day for the time actually in attendance or when absent on account of sickness.

The house expenses were $104,554.67, the members being paid $61,702.20 and the officers of the body $35,955 the balance being for incidental expenses. The total cost of the legislative session was $164,103.20, of which about $76,000 was for the salaries of members. Members received pay for 179 days.

Activity in Politics.

A Washington dispatch says: Following the receipt of telegrams from four citizens of Gloucester, Mass., by President Roosevelt, Postmaster General Meyer and Senators Lodge and Crane, complaining of the alleged political activity of Postmaster Charles D. Brown, of Gloucester, Meyer has forwarded a letter to Postmaster Brown, calling his attention to the department circular relative to political activity in the federal service.

In the telegrams attention is called to the continued activity of the postmaster of Gloucester in attempting to influence the voters at the coming primaries. The postmaster general advised Postmaster Brown of the complaint. The circular to which he calls attention provides that "no person in the public service has any right to use his official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body; no person in the executive civil service shall use his official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the result thereof."

It also calls attention to the paragraph of the postal laws and regulations providing that "officers and employes of the postoffice department and postal service are not precluded from exercising their political privileges, but must not use their official positions to control elections or political."

Proposition to Farmers and Others to Reforest Cut Over And Wood Lands.

The Detroit & Mackinac railway company have, for the past three years, experimented with a forestry nursery on its Tawas Beach property. At the present time, they have on hand a large number of the following kinds of trees for transplanting.

White pine, Scotch pine, western yellow pine, spruce and western white cedar.

They desire to dispose of these trees and will give them to parties who will transplant them and see that they are properly taken care of. It is especially requested that the farmers on and adjacent to the line of the D. & M. Railway make requisition for these trees, for the purpose of setting them out for reforesting some of the lands that they have cut over on their farms.

The trees will be delivered at the beds. The trees will be ready for delivery as soon as the frost is out of the ground, which will probably be about April 1st.

Those interested should communicate early as possible with Mr. C. W. Luce, General Superintendent Detroit & Mackinac Ry., East Tawas Mich.

Farm For Sale.

I will sell my farm containing 67 acres, 55 acres under cultivation, good two story frame house with stone cellar, large barn, stables and sheds, and a good orchard. Reason for sale, old age and disability. Inquire of HERMAN FAHSELT, R. F. D. 1, Tawas City, Mich.

KEEP IT OUT.

The Dinged Old Paper is no Good Until you get Into Trouble.

An editor has no heart, he merely has a measly little old chicken gizzard, without the redeeming qualities of sand in his crop.

The newspaper man is the most insignificant man in any community until some one does a dirty trick, and then he looks as big as a box car in the fog. While a fellow is going with his head up under blue skies the newspaper man may, like the public, be —, but just let a fellow be caught hugging his neighbor's wife, beating some widow, robbing a hen roost, or some of the kindred pleasantries, and he will labor up seven flights of stairs to tell the editor what a good friend he has always been to the paper, and for the sake of his innocent wife and children, to keep it out of the paper, and nine times of ten the chicken-hearted editor will do it.

News is the legitimate stock in trade of a newspaper man, and when he loses his stock in trade he is a bankrupt, and it is mighty bad taste for anyone to come to him and ask him to suppress a legitimate bit of news, no matter what the character of it, as long as it is fit to be sent into the family circle, and there are but few newspaper men who will send through their columns anything else.

But the average citizen has come to learn that the editor has a weak side, and that an appeal on behalf of mothers, sisters and daughters are a mighty potent influence with the editor, and average newspaper man is really glad that he is possessed of such a faculty as pity and regard for suffering humanity, but it is mighty little credit he gets for it after the storm has passed, for as is the same old liar and gabbler of truth, after all is said and done, when if he told the truth and nothing but the truth, as he positively knows it to be, there wouldn't be enough judges to attend to the divorce cases and the petty thieving cases that come under his watchful eye, and if he told but half the truth as he knows it, there would not be the disgusted cry, "why in the dickens don't you print some news?"

The newspaper man is glad to suppress things that will hurt the feelings of others, but he does hate to be cussed for such suppression when he does it out of the kindness of his heart. Be just to the newspaper man and he will be generous.—Selected.

Notice of Registration and Primary Enrollment.

To the Electors of the city of Tawas City:

Notice is hereby given that the board of registration and primary enrollment of the city of Tawas City, by virtue of the statutes in such cases made and provided, will meet on from 8 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the city hall in the third ward, in accordance with a special act of the legislature of 1899, for the purpose of completing the list of qualified voters of said city as required by law, and at which time and place all persons entitled to the elective franchise whose names do not appear on the register of electors for the ward in which such person resides, must register their names therein to entitle them to vote at the general election to be held on Monday, the 6th day of April, A. D. 1908, also for the purpose of enrolling the names of all legal voters, members of whatever political party, who may make proper application for such enrollment.

HOW APPLICATION MUST BE MADE.—There are two ways in which proper application for enrollment can be made:

FIRST—A written application can be made and signed by the voter desiring enrollment in his own hand writing and presented in person to any member of the board of enrollment on any day before the day of enrollment. Blanks for this purpose can be had from any member of said board of enrollment.

SECOND.—On the day of enrollment application must be made in person to the said board of enrollment.

It shall not be necessary for electors who were enrolled under Act No. 181, public acts of 1905, to again enroll under the provisions of this act, if they reside in the same voting precinct.

Any person duly enrolled who has changed his residence to another voting precinct may be enrolled in the new precinct and vote therein, provid-

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says C. Farthing of Mill Creek, I. E. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then that my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I have been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at G. C. Darling's and J. E. Dillon's drug stores. 50c.

Judge of Probate.

Ganderbone's April Forecast.

The April rains will put a bit of Irish in the lawn. And a new and brighter augury will paint the east at dawn.

The brown thrush will return to sing its song at even lush, and the hind-eyed cow will moult and rear a new and redder pluck.

The program for "A Fool's Day" will be more elaborate than usual. Mr. Roosevelt will give a dinner at the White House to those who think he isn't going to run again.

And then there will be doings in the presidential race, for everybody will be accelerating the pace. The host of Mr. Johnson will put up a cloud of dirt, and Mr. Bryan will put on a most terrific spurt.

Whereat the very earth will rock, and sod and bits of loam will obliterate the sky each time the sting is driven home.

April was named for Venus, the Roman goddess of spring. She was the mother of Aeneas, and attended the first Mothers' Congress with that young man in her arms.

The baseball players will resume with letters on his suit. And the fan will sit out in the sun and violently root.

The straw hat season will come in, and the oyster will go out; the last few flocks of blackhead cukes will sort of hang about; the spring election will reflect red fire against the sky.

The program for "A Fool's Day" will be more elaborate than usual. Mr. Roosevelt will give a dinner at the White House to those who think he isn't going to run again.

The milliners will meanwhile show those gorgeous Easter hats, with large soup bouclies pinned to them.

The national convention of the Populist party will begin at St. Louis, April 2. Wages have been asking why it was set for so late in the month.

The sweet Elyra will to church in rustling silks and tulle. Which she will lift up to her knees in passing little pools.

ECZEMA

Cured in less than four weeks.

Those who have had experience with this stubborn disease can hardly believe at first that Wonderful Dream Salve can and does cure Eczema.

There is no doubt about the matter whatever. A great many letters are on file in our office from grateful patients, telling of the quick and easy way in which Wonderful Dream Salve has removed all traces of this torturing skin affliction.

Mr. John T. Kealey, a well-known business man, located in the Stevens Bldg., Detroit, Mich., was recently cured of a bad case of Eczema of fourteen years' standing. After treating with many doctors and taking many remedies without relief, Mr. Kealey was induced to try Wonderful Dream Salve, and in four weeks was entirely cured. He says:

"I certainly consider this a remarkable cure, inasmuch as I have spent hundreds of dollars in the fourteen years of annoyance with this troublesome itching skin ailment. I have since the cure of my case tried all other cures, some of them even more remarkable than mine, which go toward demonstrating the value of Wonderful Dream Salve as a great skin healer."

Try it now, if you have not tried a box of Wonderful Dream Salve. If it fails, your druggist will refund your money. Isn't that fair enough? Keep it in your home for Chills, Chapped hands, Piles, Cuts, Burns, Frost-bites, Boils and Sores of any kind. You will never use anything else.

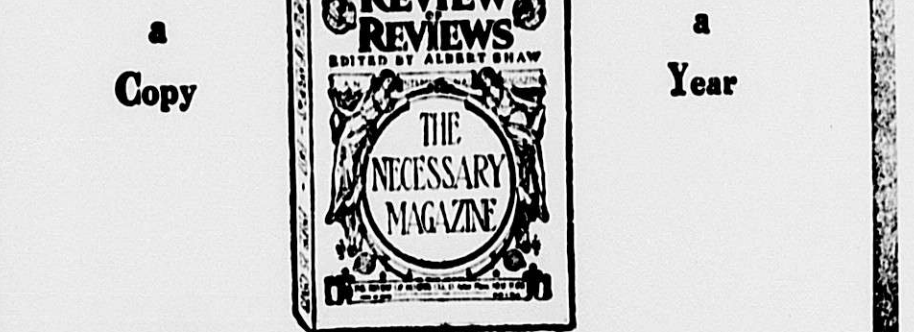

25c a box at your druggist or mailed prepaid direct.

The Review of Reviews

offers busy people an education in current events that is concise, comprehensive and authoritative at a minimum cost of time, effort and money

ALL THE MAGAZINES IN ONE

With Dr. Albert Shaw's monthly "Progress of the World," with the cartoon history of the month, with the timely contributed articles on just the question you are interested in, with the gist of the really important articles of all the other magazines of the world served up to you, and reviews of new books—one can keep intelligently up with the times at a minimum cost of time, effort and money.
