The Bay City Tribune is busy these days congratulating itself on its success in keeping on both sides of the light for the republican nomination for governor so that it does not have to "eat crow." There are a lot of republican papers in the state who were not so long headed and their efforts to square themselves with the Warner machine are most amusing.

Another Fatality.

Last Saturday morning, at Alpena Junction, occurred a sad accident which resulted in the death of Edward Ruel, one of the most popular conductors on the D. & M. As we learn the particulars Mr. Ruel went from East Tawas on the night passenger to take his train, the north bound freight, on from Alpena at 5 o'clock Saturday morning. In getting off from the passenger train at Alpena Junction he fell and his right arm went under the coach wheels severing it at the elbow. He was carried to the Globe hotel, where his injury was attended to by physicians. Apparently he was doing nicely until blood poisoning set in on Tuesday and his death occurred at about 9:30 Tuesday evening.

Mr. Ruel was 38 years of age and has been in the employ of the D. & M. company for many years. He is survived by a wife and two young sons, besides a large circle of relatives and friends who sincerely mourn his sad death. The remains were brought to his home in East Tawas Wednesday, and the funeral will be held today.

Went Hunting; Leg is Off.

Frank Hill, a young, single man, son of J. E. Hill, farmer, living three miles from Auburn, accidentally shot himself Monday morning while hunting near Standish, and yesterday afternoon one leg was amputated at the knee by physicians at Standish as a result of the accident. Hill had shot himself just below the knee, the full charge, unscattered, striking the bone and tearing it to pieces. He was found by other hunters about half an hour after the accident occurred, and was almost unconscious from pain and loss of blood. Last night he was said to be extremely weak.

Hill left Auburn Sunday night and slept at Standish in order to get an early start in the marshes. He had gone about a couple of miles when the accident occurred. A physician in an automobile took him to Standish, where the amputation was found necessary.—Bay City Tribune.

The news of the above sad accident is received with much regret by the large circle of friends of the family in the Tawasites.

Bryan on Trusts.

Because the private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable, the democratic party favors its extermination. It pledges itself to the vigorous enforcement of the criminal law against trust magnates and officials.

It is impossible for the republican party to enforce the present criminal law against trust officials; these officials are intimately connected with the republican party in the present campaign. Take, for instance, the chairman of the republican speakers' committee, Mr. Dupont of Delaware. He is the defendant in a suit which the government brought and is now prosecuting. Mr. Dupont is charged with violation of the anti-trust law. Why should he be put on the executive committee and then be given control of the speaking part of the campaign?

If you talk to a republican leader about penitentiary punishment for offenders, he favors fining the corporation on the ground that it is impossible to convict individuals, but when you urge fines you are told that fines are unjust to innocent stockholders. We favor both fine and imprisonment, but we think it is better to prevent monopolies than first to authorize them to prey upon the public and then try to punish them for doing so. Mr. Taft favors control of trusts instead of extermination but after years of experience the people have learned that the trusts control the government.—William J. Bryan at Indianapolis.

A Pitiful Plea.

A staff of correspondents of the Indianapolis News who has been "feeling the pulse" of the republican leaders and "nosy around" the Chicago headquarters reports that the plan of campaign mapped out for republican spell binders provides that the issues shall be ignored and a calamity cry raised. He says:

A man who is high in the councils of the party said today: "If we had to fight out the campaign on the issues Bryan has raised—tariff reform, publicity of campaign contributions, regulations of the trusts, guaranty of bank deposits, etc.—we would, I believe, stand to lose. But we intend to put those issues in the background by making Bryan himself the real issue. We think we can convince the people that the election of Mr. Bryan would prolong the present financial situation. We shall make our appeal to every man whether he be at the head of a corporation or be working for a corporation, that if he wants to see prosperity return he must vote the republican ticket."

We may believe that the republican managers are desirous of avoiding the issues. Their pledge to the tariff sheltered trusts to privilege the collection of a "reasonable profit" alone is sufficient to condemn the republican party and its candidates if discussed. For it is a pledge to a small class of capitalists to authorize them by law to levy tribute upon the public. The "reasonable profit" is not to be paid by the republican party—the republican politicians that promised it will not go down in their own pockets to provide the money. What they have promised to the trusts is the legalized privilege of compelling the consumer, be he republican, democrat, socialist or prohibitionist, to pay monopoly prices for the products of the protected trusts. The people are to pay the "reasonable profit" and the tariff sheltered trusts are to get it, as they have been getting it since the captains of industry found that by ceasing to compete among themselves they could "hold up" the consumer while the tariff barred competition from without, which otherwise would be invited by the arbitrary increase in prices.

The calamity cry, however, while it may serve to divert the people's attention from the plan to pick their pockets is essentially weak. Obviously if the election of a republican administration would restore "prosperity," why should "prosperity" have collapsed under a republican administration? To give force to the appeal to elect Taft and restore "prosperity" it is required that the republican party shall repudiate Roosevelt and his administration. For if Taft can restore "prosperity," Roosevelt ought to be able to do so. Why then, has Roosevelt failed to act?

How absurd the calamity cry and how pitiful the "prosperity" plea!—Saginaw News.

Watch the Child Who is Nervous.

The nervous child is always a source of great anxiety to its parents, and more especially so when attending school. It should be kept under the keenest observation (without the child's knowledge, however, that it is under such close scrutiny, as this is apt to increase its nervousness) in order that the very first signs of graver trouble—displayed by peevishness, irritability of temper, sleeplessness, night cries, twitchings, etc., etc.—are not overlooked. These are Nature's warnings that the child's capacity is being over-taxed, and in danger of breaking down in one direction or another. Unless a parent feels competent to deal wisely and well with such a child, it should be kept in constant and sympathetic touch with the family physician.

The question of exercise is an important one. Boys seldom require any encouragement in this direction, as their natural tendency is to indulge in all sorts of out-of-door play, and it is sometimes necessary to hold them in check lest they overdo. Girls do not have sufficient exercise in the open air.

The distinction between the sexes is drawn too early in life. After school hours girls are usually given work to do, under the mistaken belief that this work means future accomplishments, much mischief to girl's health is done. Take music; how few become accomplished players, yet think of the vast amount of nervous energy expended in this direction! How infinitely more sane to send the child into the open air and sunshine, to romp and to frolic, to gain health and strength for the proper development of those functions which make of her, this little girl of yours, the most highly specialized organism in this wonderful world of ours! Most mothers are justly ambitious that their girls should excel in one thing or another, but they often lose sight of the fact that a healthy body is of paramount importance. Of what avail is any education, if the girl becomes unfit to take her proper place in life?—The October New Idea Woman's Magazine.

Citizenship.

If sixty years' residence in the country, doing duty in the civil war, committing a homestead and voting for every republican president from Lincoln to Roosevelt, does not make a man a citizen, then C. A. Sherwood of North Yakima, Wash., west of Spokane, wants to know what more is required. Mr. Sherwood was not permitted to register for the primary election by City Clerk Brooker on the ground that he was born in New Brunswick and had never taken out his naturalization papers. He says his father was naturalized and brought him to the United States from St. John N. B., when he was a small boy. He enlisted in the army in Minnesota and cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln at the second election. He not only voted at every presidential election since then, but has also exercised his franchise in Washington since 1893 and participated at many elections, including the last at North Yakima. Mr. Sherwood says he will not permit any one to deprive him of his vote and will make a test case.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed, a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Jas. E. Dillon's and G. S. Darling's drug stores 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Teachers Examinations.

The following is the schedule of examinations for Isosco county for 1908, to be held at Tawas City, October 15-16. Reading, "The Rayven.—Poe. Jno. A. CAMPBELL, Commissioner.

C. W. Story Dead.

Deep sorrow was brought to the relatives and many friends of Chas. W. Story Wednesday evening when he answered the call to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler e'er returns," and Kennebec reluctantly parted with one of its most valuable and highly respected citizens. Although Mr. Story's condition had been serious for several days and his friends were apprehensive of the result of his illness it was thought that he was showing signs of improvement. He was relieved of his suffering about 5:30 and the news spread rapidly as inquiries regarding his condition were frequent.

Deceased was a member of the firm of Story & Leitch, agents for the White Bluffs Land Company with offices in this city. Since coming to Kennebec Mr. Story has surrounded himself with a host of friends who are grieved at his departure and expressions of sorrow and regret were heard on every hand Wednesday evening and Thursday when the news that he had passed away had circulated. His death was the topic of conversation among the majority of the residents and nothing but praise for his strong character was heard everywhere.

Chas. W. Story was born in Cincinnati Ohio, April 11, 1862. He attended the public schools and business colleges of that city. He was united in marriage to Theodora Larwell September 4, 1888, who survives him. To them three children were born,—Guy, Clifford and Geneviva, all of whom are living and at home.

Besides his wife and children Mr. Story leaves his father and mother, and sister, Mrs. Gilbert Taylor, of Owosso, Michigan.

He united with the Baptist church at Tawas, Michigan, May 5, 1888, and was a consistent Christian until the time of his death, August 5, 1908.

Mr. Story was recognized as one of Kennebec's successful business men and this is the same reputation he maintained in his former home.

Funeral services will be held from the residence at three o'clock. Deceased was a member of the Kennebec Lodge No. 162, F. & A. M., which lodge will attend the services in a body.—Kennebec Wash.) Reporter.

Dated at Tawas City, Aug. 12, 1908. JAMES LABERGE, Chairman. LEN J. PATTERSON, Secretary.

To Clean Furs.

Furs may be readily cleaned at home by rubbing them with bran. Light is more troublesome than a darker kind, but it is worth the trouble and costs so little! Buy a pound of bran at a grocery or feed store. Divide it into two portions, placing one in the oven to heat. Spread the fur on table, put paper underneath, and rub it well with cold bran. Shake free of bran and brush with soft hat-brush. Then rub the hot bran quite evenly into the fur, going over it with infinite patience. Afterward brush, then hang in the air. If the lining be soiled clean with a little gasoline, being careful not to dampen the fur.—New Idea Woman's Magazine for October.

Republican Convention.

The republican county convention for the nomination of county candidates convened at the court house last Tuesday, and while every ward and township in the county was represented by a full delegation and the representatives were present from all parts of the county, the convention was remarkable for two things—lack of enthusiasm and the absence of many of the familiar faces usually seen at these gatherings.

The convention was called to order at about 11 o'clock by Chairman John McFarlan, of the county committee, who called Willard J. Robinson, of this city to the chair as temporary chairman. Dr. Miller, of Oscoda, was elected temporary secretary. Charles Curry, of Tawas township, and Lyman McAuliff, of East Tawas, were tellers, and the usual committees, including one of five members to select delegates to the different conventions, were appointed by the chair, after which a recess was taken until 1 o'clock.

The convention reassembled shortly after 1 o'clock and proceeded to the order of business. The various committee reports were received and adopted. The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported in favor of making the temporary officers permanent; and the committee on credentials reported full delegations from all precincts. The resolutions reported by that committee were rather tame, lacking the usual "hot stuff". They endorsed President Roosevelt's policies and pledged the convention to the support of Taft, Warner and Loud, and urged the nomination of Senator A. C. Carton for the nomination of state land commissioner. They were weakly adopted without a perusal of applause.

The special committee to select delegates reported the following, all of whom were elected:

State convention delegates: J. E. Dillon, John McFarlan, J. A. Campbell, and P. E. Shein, Alternates, A. W. Black, Dan McQuaig, Dr. N. J. McCall and W. J. Robinson.

Senatorial delegates: Edwin Rawden, Chas. T. Prescott, Chas. Pinkerton, Will McGilvary, Reuben Wade, and Willam Allen, Alternates, John McFarlan, H. M. Belknap, E. A. Crandall and F. F. Taylor.

Representative delegates: C. A. Jahraus, J. C. Dimmick, W. J. Grant, N. J. McCall, Dan McQuaig and G. C. Karus. Alternates, B. F. Oakes, F. H. Loud, Dr. Miller, and John Alstrom.

The balloting for candidates for county officials was then taken up and a number of surprises developed. Contests were made on judge of probate, sheriff, clerk and treasurer, and in each case where the present incumbent was a candidate he was successful.

The first ballot for judge of probate occasioned much surprise by the showing made by Collie Johnson who switched from the race for sheriff to that of probate judge last week. He received 14 votes on the first ballot, Judge Wier 14, C. R. Jackson two and J. M. Walker one. On the second ballot Johnson received 15, Wier 14, Jackson and Walker one each. The third ballot resulted in the nomination of Wier by a vote of 17 to 14 for Johnson.

George H. Hadwin won the nomination for sheriff on the first ballot, receiving 18 votes to 13 for David Davison.

John A. Mark was nominated for clerk for the sixth time receiving 23 votes to eight for Gustave C. Karus, of Baldwin.

Harry W. Stockman secured the nomination for county treasurer by a vote of 16 to 15 for Joseph Dimmick, of East Tawas.

The remainder of the nominations were made by acclamation and the ticket is as follows:

Probate Judge—A. R. Wier.
 Sheriff—George H. Hadwin.
 Clerk—John A. Mark.
 Treasurer—Harry W. Stockman.
 Register of Deeds—E. A. Crandall.
 Prosecuting Attorney—Edwin Rawden.
 Circuit Court Commissioner—A. W. Black.
 Surveyor—H. M. Belknap.
 Coroners—John Armstrong and Dr. Miller.

Tawas City Schools.

Everything is spec and span these days.

Senior class has six girls and one boy.

The fifth and sixth grade room is crowded.

"Silence is the soil in which thought grows" is true not of the "pin drop" silence but of a busy silence.

The pupils of the high school building are entertained these days by the rap rap of the carpenter's hammer as he repairs the roof.

Non residents enrolled in our high school are, Maud and Madge Noble, Ruth and Willena Deacon, Ruby Laidlaw and Winifred Preston.

The enrollment by rooms is as follows: Ward primary, 43; primary, 33; third and fourth grades, 26; fifth and sixth grades, 53; Seventh and eighth, 32; and high school 45.

Nearly everyone is working, but a few think there is time enough. Those who do not improve the time will be paid accordingly. Excellent or even good marks can be given the boy or girl who is in the school every day and attending strictly to business.

Parents should see to it that the children get a good start for school. Janitor Davis is quite punctual in ringing the bells. We hope to have few, very few, cases of tardiness this year. The tardy boy becomes the tardy man whom no one cares to have in the store or work shop.

Parents who have children five or six years old who they intend to have start in school this year, are especially requested that they start them at o.c.e. The primary teachers cannot form new classes every week. In most schools not more than two weeks is allowed for beginners to enter. This is the second week. None should enter after next Monday.
