CLOTHCRAFT VALUE

If you could visit every clothing store in the country you couldn't find in any of them such value—as you'll find in a CLOTHCRAFT Fall and Winter suit or overcoat right here and now.

CLOTHCRAFT means style, up to the minute—perfect workmanship—handsome patterns—correct models.

There's full value in every CLOTH-

CRAFT suit or overcoat.

And if you want good wear—and clothes that look right all along—then you want clothes made of wool.

CLOTHCRAFT garments are made of all wool materials—guaranteed every shred of fabric.

Of course, in some other makes of clothing you will find some of the points of excellence—some of the value.

But, remember this—

CLOTHCRAFT suits and overcoats are the only ones guaranteed all wool and selling at from $10 to $25.

That sounds like full value—it is—and the most value—the best for the price.

Don't wait.

There's a big deal for CLOTHCRAFT. Come before the big selections melt the value.

COMMON SENSE

If we were to tell you that we were selling all the goods in our store at less than cost, and expected to remain in business,—you would have right to think that we were telling you something that George Washington would not tell.

We are selling, (with the exception of a few specials,) our goods at a fair profit, as all real business men do. But we have purchased our immense stock direct from the manufacturers for cash, and at prices which enable us to sell them to you at a price which is low yet affords us a fair profit. We rightly assume the name of "Leader of Low Prices," and maintain it by giving you more and better goods for less money than you can get elsewhere in the State of Michigan.

Come where you get Real Bargains every day in the year and not just once in a while.

The East Tawas Oak and Decoy Duck Co. have their machinery nearly installed and are about ready to start their new factory. They will manufacture launches, canoes, oars, paddles and decoy ducks. While the start will be on a limited scale there is no reason why the plant should not develop into an extensive institution, as there is unlimited demand for the goods made, and they will have no trouble in securing any amount of desirable timber in this immediate locality. The site is situated in the large brick boiler house on the old Holland & Emery site.

Norman Emmons, a farmer residing near Ellington, Tuscola county, was the victim of the hunting accident on Guiley creek, in Plainfield township, on Wednesday last week. The party was composed of four neighbors from that locality. They had seen four deer enter a swamp, and had started to "drive" it. Emmons started down one side of the creek and his friend Elvin Balch on the other. Balch saw something moving and thinking it one of the deer shot, the ball striking Emmons high up in the body and penetrating one lung. The wounded man was taken to camp, and Dr. Cowie of Hale summoned and the wound dressed. He was taken to Hale Thursday and on Friday to his home. While the wound is a serious one hopes for his recovery were entertained.

Italians in the United States last year sent to Italy $59,785 postal orders aggregating $19,000,000; $17,000,000 went to Austria-Hungary and $10,000,000 to Russia.

Great as the advance in fire-proof construction has been during the last ten years, there has been no decrease in the use of lumber, according to a statement issued by the bureau of forestry.

The next house of representatives will contain 219 republicans and 172 democrats, a total of 391, two more than last year. This is a net loss of four for the republicans and a gain of six for the democrats.

At the beginning of the campaign Thomas R. Marshall, Governor-elect of Indiana, said he would accept no contributions in financing his political contest. In spite of this, letters containing money were frequently received, the total being about $3,000. Mr. Marshall has accepted none of this money, and he is now returning the contributions.

The American navy now leads the world in accuracy of shooting; six years ago it was behind the navy of every first class power. Six years ago the standards for firing heavy turret guns—which are now a battleship's sole weapon of consequence in battle—was once in five minutes; the average of hits on the target now in use would not be once an hour. At present these guns fire an average of one and a half shots a minute; they hit the target once a minute.

Although defeated in the gubernatorial election Mr. Hemans is more popular today than ever before. He is especially strong in Kent county, as shown by the recent vote, and he has lost nothing by his defeat in the way of prestige or esteem. The state is the richer because of him and the men of his stamp in its citizenship. Even as members of a minority party they are to be reckoned with in affairs of state and are respected and influential.—Grand Rapids Press.

One of the interesting features of the election returns was the socialist vote, which showed a marked reduction from the record of 1904, particularly in the three principle cities of the country in which socialism is supposed to be the strongest. An Associated Press dispatch from Chicago says: "Chicago socialists, who polled 45,000 votes in 1904, were given less than 19,000 votes in the police returns and the most sanguine do not expect that the revised totals will exceed 21,000 votes for Debs, Cincinnati and Cleveland also listed as strong socialist centers to the leaders of the party polled a greatly decreased vote.

John T. Rich's Sacrifice.

In his old age, and for the purpose of saving, the political neck of Fred M. Warner, ex-Governor Rich went out on the stump, and denied the truthful statements of Lawton T. Hemans that the state treasury was barren. Immediately after election, however, Mr. Rich as state treasurer began to make arrangements to borrow $750,000 to pay the running expenses of the state until taxes come in, and when his attention was called to a section of the constitution prohibiting the borrowing of more than $50,000, the ex-governor and present state treasurer said: "We must have the money." In becoming state treasurer and in defending Gov. Warner's political record ex-Governor Rich has made a great sacrifice.—Lansing Journal.

Postal Deficit.

Talk about postal deficit. Is it any wonder that the expenses of the postal department exceed the receipts? The following Washington dispatch certainly contains food for thought. Especially when it is remembered that a large portion of the personal mail of every congressman goes under a government frank, in addition to these tons of campaign documents.

"The government printing office was an important factor in the recent presidential campaign. This institution turned out for the republican and democratic parties 7,418,700 copies of speech delivered in congress, surpassing all previous records by 8,000,000 copies. The total weight of campaign speeches printed since the beginning of the sixtieth congress exceeds 400,000 pounds, or about 14 carloads. The printed sheets would completely cover 45 square acres of ground and if each page could be laid end to end a bicycle track 948 miles long could be obtained."

Losing Time By Saving It.

It is easier to be on time than to be late. It seems easier to be late, and so we fall into the same old trap here that the devil uses everywhere,—that of substituting seeming for fact. Many a man or a woman goes on through life without ever discovering that chronic tardiness means chronic—and unnecessary—trouble, when chronic promptness would be easier, and avert all the trouble. We think we are going to save ourselves a few minutes for something else by putting off the doing of a promised piece of work until the last, break-neck moment; but we find that this last-minute method costs us more than the few minutes we thought to gain. It does cost an effort of the will to take up work, or to start to keep an appointment, or to get out of bed in the morning, in ample time to insure no tardiness. But that is all it costs: will-power; and that cost is always gain. Whereas the costliness of being behind time is a dead loss.—Sunday School Times.

The "White Death."

One of the most important crusades inaugurated in this country during recent years is that against tuberculosis—the "white death." All over the country "tuberculosis exhibits" are being given with a view to educating the people as to how the plague may be successfully combated. These exhibits educate the people by visual lessons in methods of sanitation, and warn against the so-called consumption cures that are offered by charlatans who wax rich upon the fears of stricken and often well nigh hopeless people. These exhibits are made doubly interesting by lectures and illustrations and awaken a determination to seize every opportunity to remove the causes that result in tuberculosis. Municipalities and states are lending every encouragement to the crusade and already the beneficial effects are being felt. One of these exhibits recently given in Lincoln showed some startling statistics that immediately halted the attention of visitors. One was that 2,000 children in Lincoln and 75,000 in Nebraska would die of tuberculosis before they arrived at the age of forty years unless proper safeguards were taken immediately. Another statement showed that tuberculosis is costing the state of Nebraska $75,000,000 a year through the loss of the activities of wage earners and producers. It is gratifying to note that fraternal societies, insurance companies, trades unions, charitable organizations, medical societies and religious bodies are co-operating in the great fight against this dread disease.—The Commoner.

The Spirit Of Christmas.

Yet, after all, as Christmas dawns a change does come over men. It steals upon them gradually, taking them, as it were, by surprise. Their steps grow light, they walk briskly, laugh even, and have a cherry word for each other. Somehow the streets for that one day seem suddenly to swarm with happy people. Everybody has become tolerant, sympathetic; the groucheiest man in town has become agreeable; the hardest creditor lenient, the severest judge merciful. There is time for reconciliation, for forgiveness and kindly feeling toward all the world. It is seen, indeed, that miracle of great mystery and beauty. The hearts of men are full of love and laughter they have become somewhat like the little children.

Why is this? What has happened? Can the mere printing of a calendar with a certain day in red figures do it? Can any mere superstition have lasted so long, display so long, display such remarkable vitality? Can any sentiment, even though it be universal, accomplish so much? No, it is not that; it is because, for whatever reason, men have suddenly concentrated their thought on the great idea that Jesus brought into the world; whether they think he brought it from heaven or found it on plains of Judea does not matter; men everywhere are dwelling on it, and from their united hearts have sent forth a wave of love that rolls around the world, and for a day, at least, the brotherhood man has come to pass. Who needs an introduction to speak to a stranger on Christmas eve? What difference does it make on Christmas morning if the man does belong to another party or to another economic class? Who cares whether he is in society? Who looks down on him because he is poor? Suppose he is a criminal, in or out of jail, what of it? He is seen to be a man, a human being, just like the rest of us, though perhaps with greater sorrows and greater temptations than our own. Men have risen above such things; they have heard for an instant the angels' song; for an instant their faces glowed with a new and wonderful light and they have turned to each other with brotherly greetings on their lips.—Brand Whitlock, in the December New Idea Woman's Magazine.

Chicago's Great Stock Show.

The management of the Chicago International Live Stock Exposition, to be held this year from Nov. 28 to Dec. 10, has made many improvements for this show and again demonstrated its liberality by installing a new heating system in the sheep section, whereby this department will be comfortably warmed.

All sheep judging will be done in newly built, light and commodious rings, one on the south side of the main building and another on the north side, both on the exhibition floor, thus obviating the necessity of taking the sheep to the floor below as was done last year.

New modern lights have been installed in every division of the show, making all the buildings as bright as day.

Transportation facilities to the International amphitheatre have been greatly improved by the completion early this year of the Stock Yards branch of the electric elevated road. The street railway system has been completely re-modeled, and altogether the transportation service has been so greatly improved that all railroad depots, hotels, stores and places of amusement are now within easy access for all visitors to this great show.

Something New for the Farmers.

"The Michigan Farm Laws with business forms and model business letters" which we are furnishing to our subscribers, is the greatest book of its kind ever prepared for the farmers of Michigan. The price is $2.00 and it is well worth the money, but we have made such arrangements that we can furnish the Tawas Herald for one year and the book both for $2.25. This offer is good to both new and old subscribers who pay their subscription one year in advance. We want every farmer in the community to have a copy of this valuable book. Don't wait but get it now.

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine, 25c at J. E. Dillon's and G. S. Darling's drug stores.

Stray Sheep.

Strayed from my farm in Burleigh, on Nov. 4, a 4-year-old buck sheep, with black face and weighing about 175 pounds. Send information to N. P. St. James, Whittemore, Mich.

VISITS WITH UNCLE BY

Beating "The Times." Brown had a line on the story. All he needed to work out the details was the woman's name. And the exasperating realization that the story wasn't a story at all without this, humiliated him.

Worse still, the superintendent of the asylum coldly refused to divulge the secret. That she was prominent there was no doubt. Brown had caught a glimpse of her as she was hurried from the carriage. In that one fleeting glance his trained eye had told him the woman was of the prominent class. The curt dismissal of the official accentuated his suspicion. There might be something big behind the air of protection and mystery woven about the case—and whatever came, he must lift that veil and scoop the Times. As he stood irresolute upon the steps of the institution, a second carriage drove up rapidly and stopped at the asylum gate. His heart gave a sudden thump as a young woman of 20 stepped hurriedly from the vehicle and started up the walk.

"Good morning, Miss Whitlock." The young woman stopped abruptly. In her haste she had not seen him.

As realization of his identity came to her, there swept across her face a look of surprised dismay—a tell-tale pallor that plainly connected her with the tragedy which he was trailing.

Her reply was lost in confusion—a halting trepidation that left him in doubt as to whether she would proceed or turn backward, seeking safety in flight.

"Oh, Mr. Brown," she pleaded, words coming to her in a flood. "I beg of you, don't print this story of my mother! It is too terrible for us, even now!"

Great tears welled in her blue eyes, in the depths of which, fathoms deep, seeking to read the answer to his prayer, Brown's heart had tumbled weeks before—eyes that were not made for sorrow nor for tears, but for laughter and for love!

As she stood there pleading before him, the miserable business in which he was engaged sent the iron into his soul. To print the story meant to lose her; to heed her plea meant dishonour to his newspaper, failure of duty—perhaps, dishonor!

She saw in his face the struggle that was passing in his heart. Drawing in her breath quickly, her eyes flashed through the tears. Slowly, deliberately, she cried:

"If you print this story, I shall hate you! HATE and DESPISE you!"

For a moment he did not speak. "You cannot know," he began finally, with a look of sorrow in his face, "how it hurts me to have to—"

With a cry of despair she passed him, sobbing. The door of the asylum closed behind her.

Next morning The Tribune scooped The Times. Brown had done his duty—not sensationally, but as an upright man true to his task. He had closed the door against love, he had blown the light of hope from his heart and erased the picture of home and happiness from his dreams.

Silvers of Thought.

The other fellow's job always looks "as easy as shooting fish."

Spiked baseball shoes are great for stretching and laying carpet.

Blind pigs are bound to prove that there are blind policemen around.

Christmas comes but once a year—but a woman has to fight moths all the time.

The average person who takes up automobiling as a pleasure develops into the class that enjoy it as a frenzy.

If a girl merely smiles and says nothing when you tell her you hear she is engaged, she isn't—but if she denies it and gets mad, she is.

Anyone knowing of a magazine or newspaper that gives away a nice winter overcoat with a year's subscription, please notify me. I want to subscribe.

There is only one time in his life when a man feels happier than he was with his first pair of copper-toed boots—and that time is when the doctor tells him "it's a boy and weighs ten pounds."

Tempting.

An advertisement in a German newspaper contains this tempting offer: "Anybody who can prove that my taproot is damaging to health will at once receive three packets gratis."

Cuts the Fuel Bill in Half

For Soft Coal, Lignite or Hard Coal

As you know fully one-half the carbon available for heat in soft coal is gas, the entire gas supply used for fuel and illumination in many cities and towns being made from common soft coal. The ordinary stove in burning soft coal allows this gas half of the fuel to pass up the chimney unburned, thus wasting it as a heat producer.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, by means of the patented Hot Blast draft and other patented features, distills this gas from the upper surface of the coal, utilizing it as a heat producer along with the fixed carbon or coke in the coal, thus burning all the coal. This is why

Cole's Original Hot Blast

Saves the Dollars and makes a ton of common $3.00 soft coal or lignite do the work of $9.00 worth of hard coal.

Your old stove and imitation Hot Blast are not air tight, do not save the escaping gases and do not give you a warm house at night. You cannot afford to say to yourself "My old stove will have to do this winter." The old stove is eating up the price of a new stove every year. Not only that, but on top of the cost is the unsatisfactory result it gives. It is always out the coldest morning.

Even Heat Day and Night—Fire Never Out

Cole's Hot Blast is so perfect in construction that fire keeps all night, and when the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before. No other stove does this. Fire, therefore, never goes out, and the rooms are kept at an even temperature all the time.

OUR GUARANTEE

- 1—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal or slack.
 - 2—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with its heating surface.
 - 3—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before, without attention.
 - 4—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal 9 hours without attention.
 - 5—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
 - 6—We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air tight as long as used.
 - 7—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.
- The above guarantee is made with the understanding that the stove be operated according to directions, and set up with a good flue.

For Hard Coal—Saves Half

The perfect control over the drafts, the slow economical combustion, and the large positive radiating surface make Cole's Original Hot Blast the most economical and the best Hard Coal stove made.

Cole's Hot Blast is the modern heater and will save its cost in fuel every winter. Buy one for your home now.

Would You Lose $50.00 in Fuel to Save $1.00 on the Cost of Your Stove?

That is what you do when you buy a cheaply constructed, putty jointed, showy made imitation stove. Like all successful inventions, Cole's Original Hot Blast has many inferior imitations, avoid them. They all lack the patented features and careful construction, which make the Original Hot Blast a great success. They do not stay tight and soon open seams and cracks which render them worthless as fire keepers. See the name "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago" on the feed door. None genuine without it.

The Otterbein Quartette.

Kenneth Bruce, supt. of Florida Chautauqua says: The Otterbein Male Quartette have just finished their fourth engagement at the Chautauqua. The quartette has an entirely new personnel and Mr. Engle is to be congratulated on the reorganization of his quartette, as the members in both solo and quartette selections far exceed the predecessors which formerly made up the organization. The work of the first tenor, Mr. Richards, is exceptionally fine. He has the rare power of entering into the humorous and descriptive selections with fire and enthusiasm, and he adds much to each concert. The humorous impersonations of Mr. Engle are also very pleasing. The Otterbeins have just added a new "peal of bells," and this feature is a very attractive part of their program. Their rendition of the hymns, introducing the beautiful religious song "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," which was rendered on the bells and by the quartette in unison, one of the most artistic productions given on our platform. We have engaged the Otterbeins for the coming season. At Congregational church next Monday evening.

White Pine Men Roused.

Bay City, Nov. 17.—The fight for the reduction of the $2 tariff on rough lumber will be reopened by the white pine lumbermen of the state. F. E. Parker of this city, as commissioner, will represent them before the ways and means committee of congress at the preliminary hearings on the tariff revision. The other lumbering interests of the country, with the possible exception of those of Wisconsin and Minnesota, will oppose the reduction.

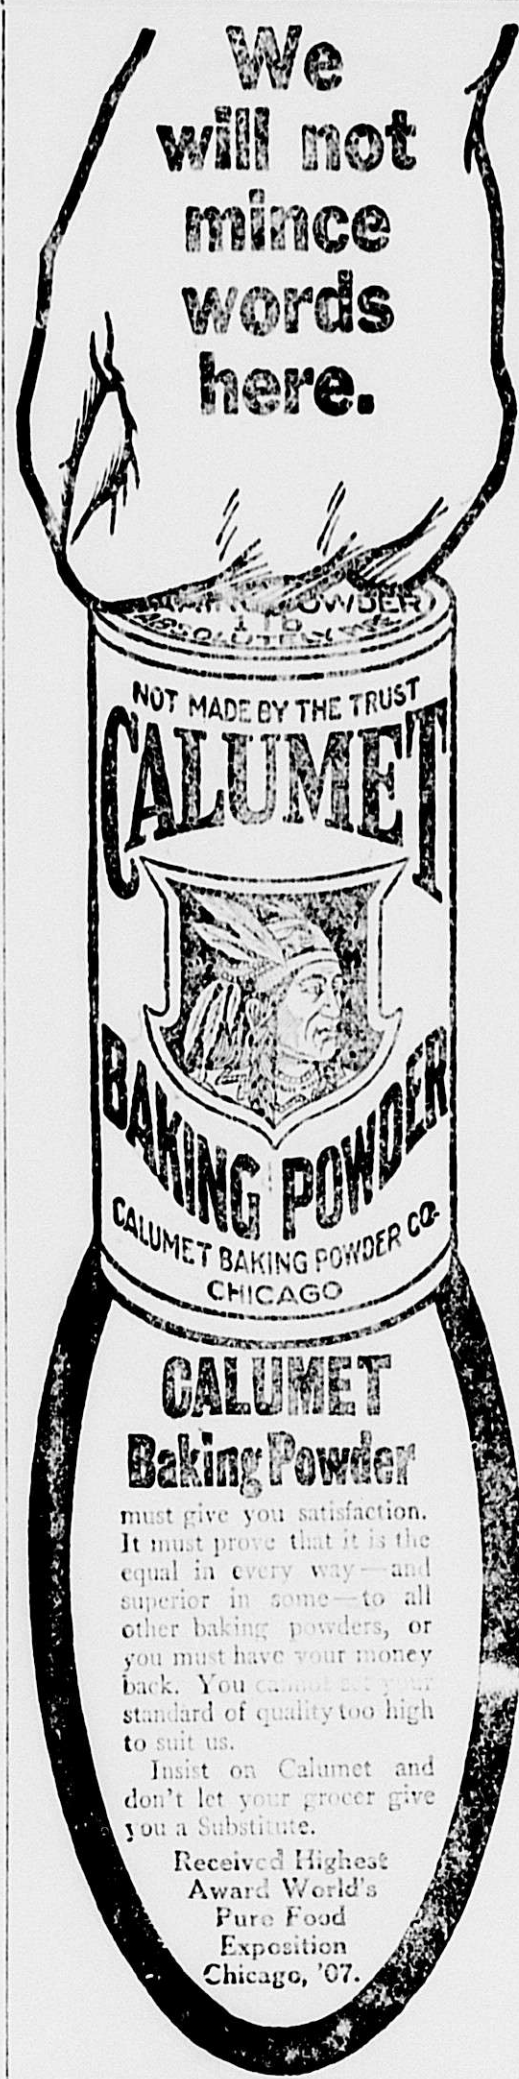

The Michigan white pine men have only Canadian pine with which to run their mills and more than 100,000,000 feet is shipped yearly into Bay City, while smaller quantities go to Saginaw, Grand Rapids and interior towns. With the tariff removed, it is believed this amount would be tripled. The white pine men are afraid. The white pine men declare the amount shipped from Canada, while benefiting Michigan would do no harm outside the state.

How is Your Digestion.

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market to-day." This great tonic and alternative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at J. E. Dillon's and J. S. Darling's drug stores.

Skating On Thin Ice.

Scores of Skaters Meet Their Death Every Winter Through Disregard of the "DANGER" Sign.

The congested air-passages with the irritation produced by incessant coughing are the best breeding-places for the deadly germs of pneumonia and consumption. Mortality arising from these terrible diseases is on the increase, and yet they can be arrested in their early stages.
