WOOL PROTECTION

Suppose you make a mistake when you buy your Fall or Winter suit—

Suppose you get a cotton mixture.

It will look all right when you try it on and take it away—but after you've worn it a while you will find out it fades, loses shape and wears badly.

It will then be too late—you'll find you've made a mistake.

For your own sake don't.

Wool—all wool—wool clear through—that is what men's clothing should be made of. Then it keeps color, keeps shape and wears—as it should.

That is what CLOTHCRAFT suits and overcoats are made of—wool.

That is why we have selected CLOTHCRAFT suits and overcoats to offer you—for your lasting satisfaction.

CLOTHCRAFT will be your protection.

Guaranteed to us by the manufacturer—we can guarantee it to you—wool every time—wool all the time. Absolutely wool without a shred of cotton.

CLOTHCRAFT suits and overcoats sell at from $10 to $25.

There are no others—at such prices and all wool.

SICK PEOPLE SHOULD INVESTIGATE

I Know the Diseases of Both Sexes Like an Open Book. I have Been Curing Them for 49 Years. In fact, My Entire Life Has Been Devoted to Curing Where Others Have Failed.

I Have Changed Hundreds Upon Hundreds of Nervous Wrecks Into Fine, Strong Men and Women. I Accept No Case I Cannot Cure.

I ESPECIALLY invite all discouraged and disappointed ones who have been treated without a cure to write me fully and frankly about their case. It will cost you nothing to write me, and I will gladly tell you your condition, truthfully, honestly—accepting no case that I cannot cure—holding out no false promises. I have spent my whole life in the study and cure of chronic diseases, and my study and investigation have been blessed by the discovery of many new and marvelous methods of treating disease. Forty-nine years ago I graduated from the Western Homeopathic Medical College of Cleveland, O., for two years. I was then a physician at the Alma Sanitarium, Alma, Mich. I have spent many long years as a specialist, treating chronic diseases of all kinds with wonderful success, and am now owner of one of the largest sanitariums in the country, giving my entire time to the treatment of Nervous Diseases of both sexes. I cure the worst forms of Epilepsy, St. Vitus Dance, Paralysis, etc.

My long experience in diagnosing cases and my understandings of the different diseases that I treat enable me in almost every case to prescribe by mail a perfect, thorough cure. All correspondence in plain envelopes and is strictly confidential.

I CURE NERVOUS TROUBLES—Wasting Away, Loss of Vitality in Both Sexes. Whether from excess or overwork, I promptly and positively cure, no matter how long standing.

I CURE BLOOD POISON—I cure Blood Poison in the first, second and third stages—driving the poison from the system, take taint from the blood; curing pimples, copper spots, sores in the mouth, tumors and ulcers.

I CURE FITS—Epilepsy, St. Vitus Dance, Paralysis, etc., by striking direct at the cause, restoring the diseased nerves to perfect health.

I GUARANTEE TO CURE, to stay cured, liquor, morphine, cocaine, nicotine or cigarette habits. Most cases treated at home.

Call and see me or write to either Sanitarium as below.

No matter what disease you are suffering from, write me fully today. I will answer at once, and my advice, which costs you nothing, may be worth hundreds of dollars—live itself—to you. If I cannot cure you I will tell you so. WRITE TODAY.

TAWAS CITY, MICH. Nov. 27 1908

Congressman Townsend, of Jackson, has announced himself as a candidate for U. S. Senator, to succeed Senator Burrows, two years hence.

The cost of taking the next census is estimated by Director North in his annual report just issued, will be $12,930,000.

John J. McCarthy, of Standish, former representative from this legislative district, is slated for a soft snap under the new auditor general after January 1. His work will be to look up probate records in the northern counties.

In his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, Postmaster General Meyer gives the total receipts for the year as $191,478,633, and the expenditures $208,351,886, showing a deficit of $16,873,252, the largest in the history of the department. The deficit of 1908, it is estimated, again will exceed $16,000,000.

Congressman Loud has been using a lot of space in the papers of the district during the past two weeks to show what a wonderful run he made, and showing where he received more votes than did Taft. After a careful reading of his article we fail to see where he mentioned that his own county, Iosco, gave him nearly 100 less votes than it did Taft.

The total amount of pensions paid by the United States between 1866 and 1908, inclusive, was $3,654,663,364.42, and the cost, maintenance and expenses of the organization for the payment of these pensions during the same period were $122,574,462.96, a total of $3,777,237,828.38, exceeding the amount of money in circulation in this country in 1907 by more than $1,120,000,000.—Army and Navy Life.

Estimating the length of legislative session at six months, the new state constitution will cause an increase in the salaries of the 133 members of nearly $35,000. Other salary increases provided for by the new organic law will amount to upward of $15,000 more. It is expected, however, that in the future legislative sessions will be shorter and that other legislative expenses will be reduced by reason of the new salary arrangement.

According to the annual report of the Isthmian canal commission the total expenditures on the "big ditch" to date is $84,572,998.55. Of this amount the work of construction and engineering has taken $66,365,320.26, on the government of the zone, buildings and highways $3,758,896.24 has been spent. Sanitation and hospitals have cost $8,008,614.50 while the remainder is divided between purchase of real estate, purchase of Panama railroad stock, loan to Panama railroad, salaries, etc. An available balance of $36,391,470.03 remained on hand July 1, 1908.

It would seem that "the half has never been told." The more the facts become known, the worse things appear as regards the condition of the state treasury. The state officials first claimed that there were sufficient funds with which to pay all expenses, then they admitted there was not enough for all, but plenty to meet the amount required for the primary school funds. It now develops that there is only half enough for this purpose, and the worst feature of the matter is that these funds, which the law provides cannot be used for any other purpose, has been used to pay a lot of deputy oil inspectors, game wardens and other petty officials, who devoted the most of their time for several weeks before election in a frantic endeavor to re-elect the "machine" for another term so as to hold their jobs. The people gave them another term and of course the same old "state house gang" will continue to absorb the state funds as fast as they come in.

Exit Gompers?

Immediately after the election this fall, numerous newspapers of a certain class all over the country, and especially in Michigan, began foretelling Samuel Gompers' end as leader of the labor forces of the country. The labor unions and their members were a magnificent lot of fellows—which they are—and they would not allow him to voice the sentiment that they had already expressed in their conventions. Keefe of Detroit, vice president of the same organization of which Mr. Gompers is president, took the other side of the question politically, and he was lauded as a great man and the logical successor of Gompers who did not have the ghost of a show to be re-elected president of the Federation of Labor.

Last week, the federation held their meeting at Denver, and with but one dissenting vote, Mr. Gompers was re-elected amid great enthusiasm, and his course approved, while Keefe was condemned for opposing the action of his state convention.

Millions For Barrels.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The farmer with his potatoes and his apples, the miller with his flour and meal, the hardware man with his nails, the cement manufacturer, and the many other users of the faithful slack barrel, that combination of staves, hoops and heading; which is not intended to hold water or something stronger in the fluid form, used forest products last year having the enormous value of $15,800,253.

The average man would little suspect that the humble barrel plays so important a part in the expense accounts of the American farmer and manufacturer, yet figures compiled by the census bureau in co-operation with the United States forest service develop this interesting truth. Moreover, statistics taken directly from reports from cooage mills in all parts of the United States show an increase of $1,569,638, or 11 per cent, in the value of last year's product over that of the previous year.

In distinct contrast to tight cooage stock, which in the main requires oak timber for its raw material, slack cooage stock, particularly staves and heading, utilized in greater or less degree, most of the commercially important trees in the country, and for this reason its manufacture was far more widely distributed than is the case with that of tight cooage stock. Twenty-one species of wood contributed to the total slack stave production last year. Nearly two-thirds of the output, however, was manufactured from the four species, red gum, pine, elm, and beech, in the order named.

The figures disclose an interesting movement in the industry in the substitution of less expensive woods for those which for many years were drawn upon most heavily for slack stave material, but which, owing to growing scarcity and advancing cost, are rapidly being displaced. In 1906 elm staves were manufactured in larger quantities than those from any other wood, and constituted nearly one-fourth of the total production for that year, with pine and red gum occupying second and third places, respectively. Last year gum jumped to first place, pine to second, while elm, with a falling off 36 per cent in production, dropped to third place. Beech, maple, spruce, chestnut, and ash followed in the order named.

While slack stave and heading production was reported last year from practically all the states engaged in the manufacture of lumber, a considerable percentage of the stock, in fact, being turned out as a by-product of lumber, the industry was to an extent localized, the five states of Pennsylvania, Missouri, Michigan, Arkansas, and Virginia, in the order named, contributing 56.8 per cent of the total production. The distribution of the industry of hoop manufacture is much more limited than that of staves and heading, and is due primarily to the fact that this commodity is made chiefly from elm timber. Ohio led in the quantity of hoops manufactured, closely followed by Indiana, the output of these two states forming 67.3 per cent of the total production.

Abbey Syrup

Across a huge mass of snow and ice poised on the brink of a precipitous mountain, a party of climbers, roped together, are cautiously threading their way. At any moment a puff of wind or a false step may start the avalanche down the mountain, and hurl the travelers into eternity. You would certainly consider the situation of the adventurous travelers dangerous, wouldn't you?

And yet you are in similar peril yourself if you are neglecting that touch of bronchitis or asthma, that cough or cold, which may lead to terrible consequences. Why not take effective measures by purchasing a bottle of Abbey Syrup. Cloister Sancto Paulo, a remedy which has simply astonished Europe with its marvelous results in the cure of all forms of bronchial and lung disease?

Abbey Syrup is an infallible remedy and though harmless in itself, is a radical cure for coughs and colds, asthma, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, and whooping cough, influenza and all chest, throat and lung troubles.

This is the original remedy and is sold and personally recommended in Tawas City by C. H. Prescott & Sons, and G. S. Darling, and in East Tawas by T. O. Gates and J. E. Dillon.

We extend our apology to the young people and wish them a happy married life.

Railroads Heading for the Alaskan Copper Fields.

Roads at three separate points on the Pacific Coast are projected, and are now being constructed, to reach the Yukon country. These roads are the Alaska Central, at Seward City, at the head of Resurrection Bay; the Valdez-Yukon Railway, at the head of Port Valdez, and the Copper River & Northwestern Railroad, at Cordova, Bay. These three points are within a radius of 200 miles on Prince William Sound. The completion of any one of these three roads to Fairbanks, the metropolis of the Tanana Valley, or to Eagle City, on the Yukon River, near the boundary line between Alaska and the Canadian Northwest means the development of three or four agricultural mining states like Iowa, Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Montana in Central Alaska.

But the builders of all these roads have in view something far less remote than the possibilities of central Alaska. They are all aiming first to secure the enormous freight tonnage that must result from the tapping of the great copper belt and coal fields that almost parallel the coast for 150 miles, beginning with the islands on Prince William Sound, extending northeast across the Copper River to Mount Wrangell, Alaska's sole active interior volcano. These are the richest known copper fields in the world. In an area of some 200 miles there is in sight what competent mineralogists estimate as $1,000,000,000 worth of copper. There is scarcely an explored district ten miles square within this entire belt that does not show more or less high grade ore.—From "Alaska's Railroad Development," by Frederick H. Chase, in the American Review of Reviews for December.

Obituary.

Elizabeth Anne Porter was born in Ireland, Dec. 12, 1830, and died as the result of an accident, at Ausable, Mich., Nov. 20th, 1908.

She came with her parents to America, when about 12 years of age. She was married on New Year's day 1854, to John C. Canfield with whom she shared life's joys and sorrows for more than half a century, he having predeceased her to the heavenly home on March 26th, 1906. To them was born 5 children, 3 daughters and two sons, one son and one daughter dying in infancy. Those remaining are Mrs. W. H. Spencer, of Chicago, Mrs. C. E. Snyder, of Ausable, and T. J. Canfield, of Alpena.

She was born of good, old Presbyterian parentage and was carefully reared under the faithful teaching of that faith, but for the best 22 years of her life she was a devoted and consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church whose services she always attended when strength would permit and when advancing age and declining strength made such attendance difficult and oftentimes impossible, she spent many, many hours with her bible and in prayer communion with God.

She was a faithful, devoted christian wife and mother and has gone to the reward of the faithful.

The funeral services were held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Snyder, on Monday, Nov. 23rd, Rev. A. W. Luce officiating, and her form was laid to rest in the cemetery, to await the resurrection morning.—Osceola Press.

A Substantial Order.

According to the membership statement for the first ten months of the year 1908 ending October 31, and just completed by Head Clerk C. W. Hawes, of the Modern Woodmen of America, that society has made a net gain in beneficial members of 64,827, and a net gain in insurance force of $93,027,000. That is to say, during the first ten months of 1908 there have been 129,300 members adopted for each 1,000 members in good standing on January 1, last, the net gain being 73.66 members for each 1,000 members in good standing on January 1, 1908.

On October 31, 1908, the society had 944,801 beneficial members in good standing, carrying $1,523,715,000 insurance. In addition there were 35,508 social (uninsured) members, and 16,000 benefit certificates issued and outstanding on which adoptions had not as yet been reported by clerks of camps. Altogether, the society's membership reaches the grand total of 996,899, or 3,101 short of 1,000,000 members, in absolute good standing.

During the first ten months of 1908, 931 new local camps were chartered. The camps in good standing on October 31 numbered 12,790.

During the ten months a total of 114,730 new benefit certificates have been issued—99,451 to applicants in old camps, and 15,279 to charter members in new camps. The adoptions during the ten months aggregated 113,792, representing insurance to the amount of $156,792,500. The lapses per 1,000 members during the ten months aggregated 51.17, computed on the average membership. The death rate per 1,000 members was 5.73.

Taken altogether, comparing the society's gains with gains made by other societies, and life insurance companies, and the statement heretofore made will continue to read, "The Modern Woodmen of America leads all others."

A New Lodge.

A new lodge of the modern Brotherhood of America, a fraternal beneficiary society, was instituted at East Tawas last week. The work was done by State Manager D. N. Davis, of Detroit, assisted by District Deputy, W. G. Davey. The new lodge started with a charter membership of 23 members, and the following officers were chosen:

President—Benj. Cobett, Vice Pres.—Albert North, Treasurer—L. N. Kleno, Secretary—Joseph Misener, Chaplain—March Walker, Physician—Albert Steady, Conductor—Earl Walker, Watchman—Max Walters, Sentry—George Davey, Trustees—George Sadgeman, O. S. Burton, Charles Wesendorf.

A New Railroad.

M. D. Olds, owner of about 30,000 acres of timber lands south and east of Choboygan, is having a railroad surveyed into his holdings from his mill in that city. The road will be about 20 miles long and will tap one of the largest standing timber belts left in Michigan. Mr. Olds did not intend to begin cutting in the tract so soon, but the fire swept through it this fall, making it necessary to get the timber off at the earliest possible moment. The railroad will be made standard gauge and will probably become a permanent fixture, opening up a large territory that is sure to become a valuable farming district. The road will likely be extended to Alpena, taking in Rogers City and the shore towns.

Medicine That is Medicine.

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions." says W. C. Kriestler, of Hallday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at G. S. Darling's and J. E. Dillon's drug stores.

FREE Handsome Holiday Spoon

The cut shows an elegant Coffee Spoon that is novel in design and sure to please. On the front appears the open fireplace with a stocking and without which no Christmas is complete. The tree is loaded with good things and distinctly seen above the narrow part of the handle, on which appears in plain letters the words "Merry Christmas." In the gold bowl we see old Santa Claus with his flowing locks and his grey beard swinging his whip threateningly over the back of his fleet reindeer. Altogether it is a most pleasing picture and proper emblem of Merry Christmas.

Here's to the Boston "Herald" for dropping its comic supplement! Perhaps other great dailies will have the sense, courage, and good taste to follow that excellent example. These cumbersome, tawdry, vapid and silly sheets long since lost any fun or wit that they ever possessed. They are a discredit to the paper that issues them, an insult to the taste and intelligence of readers, and an influence positively degrading in its tendencies. In short the Sunday daily could be decreased in size by a half and prove a valuable saying to forests and to the folks.—Moderator Topics.

Wellington at Waterloo said: "Hard pounding, gentlemen, but we will see who can pound the longest." When a friend asked Lincoln if he really meant to finish the war during his administration, the great tribune replied, "Can't say sir," and, on being further pressed as to his intentions, doggedly answered: "Peg away, sir; peg away!" Pegging away did it. Grant in the wilderness grimly said he would "fight it out on this line if it took all summer," and fight it out he did. In relentless determination and invincible persistence lay the secret of Grant's success as a soldier. Just as in these qualities are found that impelling force which places men in the front ranks of action and enables them to overcome and vanquish all difficulties that lie in the way. The history of the race from time in memorial proves that only through indefatigable zeal and a stubborn persistence born of an invincible determination to advance in the life struggle can the ideal be attained.
