If you live until next spring you will witness one of the greatest astronomical sights of the centuries. Halley's comet that comes into view only once in three-quarters of a century and that was here last in 1835 is due to visit us next year and astronomers the world over are even now watching for its appearance in the far heavens. It is supposed to be within the orbit of Jupiter at present and traveling at the rate of a million miles a day. It will not get to us how ever, not nearer than 20,000,000 miles, but at that distance it will make a most splendid appearance.
There is an old saying that "It is difficult to eat hay with a spoon," but there is some prospect that in the near future a lot of the American people will be doing that very thing and finding it less difficult than has been supposed, says an exchange. It has long been known that alfalfa hay is one of the most nutritious feeds for all kinds of live stock. So valuable is it as an article of animal food that alfalfa mills are now being erected in the west which grind the hay into meal, and the meal is then pressed into cakes and sold for food. Now some food shark has discovered that a very palatable breakfast food may be made from alfalfa meal, and that it also makes a very good sort of a pancake. So before very long we may expect to see hay on bills of fare, though the time may never come when the man who sleeps in a hay-mow will be able to eat his bed for breakfast.
The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful. Sold by Red Cross Pharmacy.

Kinney said the words which united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Otilia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Groff, of this city, and Mr. Joseph P. Stepanski, two well known and popular young people of this city. In the evening a large number of the friends of the happy couple gathered at the home of the bride's parents and gave them a most enjoyable reception. The bride was the recipient of numerous valuable and beautiful presents. The young folks will soon be settled in the Frank King home, which Mr. Stepanski purchased some time ago. The Herald unites with their many friends in extending congratulations.
Operated on.
Arthur McElmurray, 23 years old, of Whittemore, went hunting Tuesday morning and as a result is now in Mercy hospital this city, recovering from the effects of an operation. It was no gun, loaded or unloaded, that put McElmurray in his plight. The young man stumbled while going through the woods and sustained a strangulated hernia. Dr. McColl, of Whittemore, attended him, as he was suffering intensely. His condition was such that the Whittemore physician took him to Bay City on the first train. At Mercy hospital Drs. Virgil Tupper and McColl operated. McElmurray will recover.—Bay City Tribune.
Laid at Rest.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Mark took place from the home of Mr. Geo. Harper, her son-in-law, yesterday afternoon. Wilson and Mrs. Frank Creeman, granddaughters of deceased, Toronto; Mrs. A. M. Bell, Auburn N. Y. and Mrs. J. B. Palmer, East Jordan, Mich., daughters could not be present. Mr. Wm. Newby, Mr. S. J. Barrett, Mr. E. Daniel, Mr. R. E. Nelson, Mr. Alfred Smith and Mr. C. W. Kelly, acted as pallbearers.—Guelph Mercury.
Obituary.
Mrs. Frederick Latham died at the family home in Grant township October 6th, 1909, aged 62 years, 9 months and 19 days. She had been a patient sufferer since June 1st. Ellenor Margaret Barackman was born December 18th, 1846, near Streator, Illinois. She was united in marriage to Frederick W. Latham in 1876 and moved to Michigan. They resided at the "Old Sand Lake House" until they moved to their farm on the Hemlock Road about 28 years ago, where she resided until her death. She was one of the pioneer residents of this section. Besides the bereaved husband she leaves to mourn her loss, five sons, two daughters and several grandchildren, also a brother and sister living in Illinois, and a large circle of friends. She was a most devoted wife and mother, and a faithful friend. She won many by her kind and cheerful disposition and her many good qualities. The funeral was held from the Baptist church, Rev. J. B. Brown officiating, and was largely attended. God's plans like lilies pure and white unfold;
We must not tear the close shut leaves apart—
Time will reveal the claynes of gold.
And if through patient toil we reach the land
Where tired feet, with sandals loosed may rest.
When we shall know and clearly understand,
I think we shall say, "God knows best."

State Teachers' Association at Saginaw Oct. 28-29-30. The state superintendent expects all LIVE teachers to be in attendance. Hope our teachers are all live ones.
Shall we have a course of entertainments and lectures this winter? Reader, the question is one which you must help answer. Do you want one? Will you buy a ticket, just one?
Teach the fundamentals; leave off the frills. Teach independence; do not lean on the text book. Teach the boy to be a "manly man," the girl to be a "womanly woman;" help the boy and girl to build a character.
What a difference in people! Some teachers, as soon as they get a long term certificate and feel that they won't have to come before the school authorities for a certificate or a renewal for some years or perhaps never, proceed to crawl into their shells and take no part or at most a very listless part in teachers' associations, institutes, reading circle, and any other means organized for promoting good school work.—Moderator Topics. MICHIGAN STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION
The meeting of the teachers of the state at Saginaw Oct. 28-30 will be a record-breaker. The live, energetic, enthusiastic teachers of the state will all be there.
Not only is the Michigan State Teachers' Association great in point of enrollment, but the program arranged for the inspiration and entertainment of the teachers attending is of such a quality as to place it easily at the top of the list of such meetings.
So well recognized has the value of these meetings become, that in many of the cities and villages of our state, the school boards urge their teachers to attend, and even go so far as to pay their expenses as an inducement. In short, the time is coming, and is even now at hand, when no teacher or prospective teacher who desires to be classed with those who are earnest and ambitious in their work, can afford to absent themselves from these meetings, even though it costs them something to attend.

Quality—That's What Counts

In this enlightened day and age everyone wants to buy right and as a rule knows where to find a quality dealer. It is that show-me attitude of the buying public that has compelled progressive manufacturers in all lines to improve the quality of their products. "Dirr cheap" clothes no longer have a place in the tailoring world. This is a quality age. Rock bottom prices, up-to-date fashions, attractive woolen patterns, are three essentials, but most important of all is Quality in materials and Quality in workmanship. If the garment is lacking in either of these respects, it is dear at any price and most everyone knows it.
Order your Fall Suit or Overcoat while the line is complete. 400 late patterns to select from. You'll get 100 cents in Quality for every dollar you spend.

To Investigate Prison Labor.

Lansing, Oct. 21.—Acting in accordance with an act passed by the last legislature, providing that a commission be appointed by the governor from among the members of the three prison boards of the state to investigate the problem of prison labor, the commission has named Edward C. Anthony, of Nagaunee; Leonard Freeman, of Fenton, and J. W. Adams, of Kalamazoo.

At the present time a very large majority of the inmates of the three prisons are employed upon contracts and the result has not been a financial success as far as the state is concerned. The Ionia reformatory, with a prison population consisting of young men has never been self-supporting, though the chair company employing the prisoners has paid large dividends. The Jackson prison has but a comparatively small number of its inmates employed on state account, and of these those employed in the box factory have not a financial benefit to the state.

The commission will undoubtedly gather some interesting statistics in making their investigations by finding out what other states are doing to take care of their prisoners and of the cost of keeping them.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substance and always gives prompt relief. Sold by Red Cross Pharmacy.

Will Prosecute all Trespassers.

Lansing, Oct. 18.—Trespassers on state lands will be prosecuted wherever sufficient evidence is obtained to warrant legal proceedings, according to Glen R. Munshaw, the newly-appointed supervisor of trespass, and he says he has the backing of the state land commissioner and the attorney general in this matter.

The state has over a million acres of land, a large portion of which is subject to trespass, and it has been a problem to know what system to adopt whereby the best results may be obtained, considering the limited number of men who have to cover this vast territory, but by means of a systematic search and the co-operation of the local authorities in each county, satisfactory results are anticipated.

Mr. Munshaw has divided the state into districts, and he has instructed his agents to take the deputies who are working under them and begin in a certain county and cover it thoroughly, township by township, making a vigorous search for trespass. On blanks especially prepared the agent reports in detail any trespass found, and from the facts obtained in this manner the commission directs the procedure.

In the past trespass has been looked upon by the authorities in most localities as something foreign to their interests, but the assistance which the trespass board has been receiving from them during the last few months would indicate that the different counties are beginning to look upon the state's position in a different light.

Out of the 22 prosecutions which have been disposed of within the last few months, there have been 16 convictions, one disagreement and five acquittals. While it has been the policy of the state land commissioner to prosecute all cases where there was any warrant for so doing, there are only a small number of the trespass cases where complaint is made or where prosecution would be warranted, owing to the conditions surrounding each case.

That Small Check Law Again.

If you owe a debt below a dollar and want to pay it with a check after January 1 next, don't be afraid of Uncle Sam getting after you, but if you issue any kind of a check for less than one dollar and expect it to pass as currency, to be used in lieu of Uncle Sam's money, then you might as well figure that you have invited trouble from the government. The law which has been causing so much consternation is not, it appears, yet understood. The law referred to is Sec. 178 of the new penal code, approved March 4, last, and goes into effect January 1, 1910. It is not a new law, but a reproduction of an old one in codifying, revising, and amending the criminal code of the U. S. It does not make it unlawful to issue a check for a less sum than $1, except it be "intended to circulate as money or to be received or used in lieu of lawful money of the United States."

A bank check is an order on a banker to pay a particular sum of money. It is not designed to be put into circulation as a substitute for money, and, therefore, there is no conflict with this ancient law in issuing such checks for any amount, however small. This has been the construction placed upon this law by the treasury department from the passage of the Act in 1862 down to the present moment.—Bay City Times.

Then it is that Chamberlain's Liniment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liniment takes out the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by Red Cross Pharmacy.

Choosing a Christmas Present.
When you make a present of a periodical to a friend or a family you are really selecting a companion to influence them for good or ill during a whole year. If the acquaintances of your sons and daughters were to talk to them aloud as some periodicals talk to them silently, how quickly you would forbid the companionship! In the one case as in the other, the best course is to supplant the injurious with something equally attractive and at the same time "worth while." A food can be wholesome and utterly distasteful. Reading can be made so, too. But The Youth's Companion not only nourishes the mind, but delights it, just like that ideal human associate whom you would choose. The Youth's Companion fills that place now in more than half a million homes. Can you not think of another family in which it is not now known where it would be joyfully welcomed?
If the $1.75 for the 1910 volume is sent now, the new subscriber will be entitled to all the remaining issues of 1909. If desired, the publishers will hold these back or send them at Christmas time, together with the Christmas Number and The Companion's new "Venetian" Calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold.
