THANKSGIVING MESSAGE FOR OUR READERS

Rev. H. Z. Davis of the Tawas City Baptist church gives the following Thanksgiving message for the readers of the Herald:

On life's journey there come special opportunities for profit and advancement; and one of these in our land is Thanksgiving Day. There are times when the autoist takes his auto to a garage for adjustments and gladly pays for such adjustments because it pays to keep the car running smoothly; so Thanksgiving Day is a favorable time for man to readjust himself to his lot and surroundings by counting his blessings and giving grateful expression for the gifts of life that have come to him from God through the material world, through his fellow man, and directly from God, the giver, directly or indirectly, of all good and perfect gifts.

Gratitude is a mark of superior culture and civilization. One of the marks of a pagan is ungratefulness. When I was a boy, Indians often came to my father's door asking for food. Two things I noted about them, one that they were never satisfied with the amount they received, and the other was, they never said thank you for the gift. They were uncivilized pagans, that accounted for it. Even when a dog that says thank you, in his way, with a smile, for the gift we give him, we recognize that he is superior to the dog that does not.

Gratitude is not only a mark of culture and civilization but is also a developing factor of that superior culture and civilization. It helps to produce the super man and woman. It yields a super contentment. The uncontented man is the one who does not see what he has or its worth but whose eyes are fixed on what he has not and cannot get. Gratitude leads us to invoice what we have, and the man who does this honestly will conclude that he has much more than he deserves and that his lot should be a happy one.

Gratitude links a man in his thinking with God, the giver of all good gifts. It thus lifts him up from the sordid life of living with things and for things that perish with their use, to live with and for a personal God who loves him, protects him and provides for all his needs. Such a man grows strong, courageous, refined and in the art of living; and content with the bounties of a beneficent God.

The man who gave expression to the 103rd Psalm was such a man:—"Bless the Lord, O my Soul; and all that is within me bless his holy name. Bless the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies; who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's."

May Thanksgiving tide bring to the readers of the Herald, and all others, that vision of life, that through God, will lift you out of self and link you in thought and life to the God of the Psalmist: the true and living God. "Whatever my lot, He hath taught me to say, 'It is well: it is well with my soul.'"

P-T. ASSOCIATION

Our second meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association met last Friday evening at the school. An interesting program was rendered. The chief topics of the evening were based on club work.

Mr. Pettit, superintendent of the Prescott school, gave a very inspiring talk on "Hand-I-Craft Club Work." Mrs. Chas. Schuster based her talk on the good derived from a girls sewing club and our president, Mrs. W. Curtis, gave an instructive talk on "Aims and Value of a Parent Teachers Association in a Community."

We now have a working force of eighteen members and much interest and enthusiasm are being shown. We feel that much good will be derived from this organization in our school.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The Twentieth Century club met in the lobby of the Masonic hall on Saturday afternoon. After a short business session the parliamentary laws were read. A pleasing duet by Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Mark ended the regular program and Miss Worden as hostess, delightfully entertained the club with a splendid description of the trip east through the White mountains and other interesting places which she and Miss Bradley, with 17 others, visited during the summer. She had many post cards and snapshots of views taken that were passed around as she explained the trip. Novel guessing games were played while the social committee served a delicious pot luck luncheon.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Thanksgiving Day this year should mean much to the American people. We are blessed with a reasonable degree of prosperity and the outlook for the future is encouraging.

In spite of the many handicaps under which our government operations are carried on, our people, as a whole, are making steady advances in the cause of good government. The progressive spirit which they repeatedly manifest in relation to the public service, demonstrates their faith in American institutions and the stability of constitutional government.

For these great blessings and the many good things that are ours, it is most fitting that we should render united thanks to Almighty God, the giver of all that is good.

Therefore, in pursuance of our time honored custom and in accordance with the proclamation issued by the President of the United States and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of Michigan, I hereby designate Thursday, November 27, 1924, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this thirteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-eighth.

Alex J. Groesbeck, Governor.

H. N. Butler & Co.'s big sale of winter merchandise will end Thanksgiving eve. As they are discontinuing their shoe department, some exceptional bargains are being offered.

DAD has always wanted an open car. He likes freedom. He wants speed—and flexibility. He loves to open 'er up on a smooth country road and feel the wind whiz past his face.

But Mother . . . she wants comfort and protection—she's thinking of that rainy day when the youngsters have to go to school.

And here at last is a new-type car to meet this old-time family problem.

It's a glorious—joyous—free, airy open car when you want it.

Then when it storms it may be changed to a comfortable, weather-tight enclosed car with complete protection from wind and rain.

Thirty seconds is all it takes—simply lower the roller side enclosures, without even leaving your seat. You've never seen anything like it before.

The Duplex body is framed and shaped in steel. Upper and lower sections are integral. Thus its construction is substantial and its beauty lasting.

It banishes once and for all the trouble of attaching the old-type curtains—makeshift at best.

No more hurried efforts hunting for the right curtain while the storm beats in.

No more exposure, through holes torn in them, while trying to obtain, for the emergency, the protection given by a closed car.

To the man unwilling to sacrifice the thrill of open car motoring—to the woman who wants closed car protection right at her finger tips—this car offers a wonderful new adventure—it marks a new era in fine car possession.

In justice to yourself—see the new Duplex now. Only Studebaker makes it.
