SCHOOL NOTES

High School
This is again our busy week of examinations.

The modern history class is now working on biographies of great men. Last Thursday afternoon, Mr. Sanderson, general superintendent of the Gypsum plant at Alabaster, gave a very interesting lecture on the gypsum industry before the junior and senior high assembly. He traced and explained from the formative stage through the various processes of quarrying, grinding, drying etc., until it reached its useful stage. Emphasized the uses to which gypsum is put and the fact that the Alabaster quarry contains the purest type, therefore supplying two-thirds of the glass works of the United States. Mr. Sanderson brought with him gypsum in various forms to be added to the laboratory supply of material. The tyewriting class is now taking another series of special tests. Several students have made a decided gain in speed and accuracy. The class as a whole shows an improvement of seven and one-half percent since the last tests were taken. Lucille Snyder still leads, having written 36 words per minute.

Seventh and Eighth Grades
We were invited upstairs last Friday afternoon to hear a very fine talk given by Mr. Sanderson of Alabaster. We were all very interested. We finished our spelling contest which we started some time ago between the seventh and eighth grade. Marcella Low and Irvin Burtzloff spelled down the whole room. Irvin won in the finals. We are reading Michael O'Halloran by Gene Stratton Porter in our room now. Everyone seems to like it. This week, which is examination week, always means work.

Fifth and Sixth Grades
We are having examinations this week. Some pupils are showing a marked improvement in their work. The fifth and sixth grades have entered into an arithmetic race with the third and fourth grades. Each room has a large race track 400 miles long. Each group is represented by their favorite automobile, and the car advances one mile for every perfect paper in arithmetic. The cars have not been voted on at the time of this writing, but you may be sure that the cars must have speed, power and accuracy. The drivers must keep themselves in good condition in order to start in time and finish in time. They must know how to think quickly when they come to the rough places in the road. Watch the paper to see which car is ahead.

Third and Fourth Grades
We have finished reading the book "Heida," by Johanna Syri, which we have been reading for morning exercises. Everyone liked the story very much. We are going to read "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" by Alice Hegan next. The fourth language class is now studying and writing descriptions of various kinds of dogs. The third and fourth grades have been having contests for speed and accuracy in the addition combinations. At present each class has won two contests, so the next one will decide the winners. Our attendance charts are showing too great a number of black marks. Some are due to the measles epidemic. We are sorry that so many are due to tardiness. Those who had perfect spelling lessons all last week were Norma Kasischeke in the third grade, and Melvin Groff, Arthur Wendt and Norton Ulman in the fourth grade. (Continued on last page)

Lack of knowledge concerning the Volstead Act should not be a bar to citizenship, rules a Michigan judge. "Many of our best families," states the court, "don't seem to know that such a law exists."

CLAIRE M. SHAW
Claire M. Shaw died Thursday afternoon, March 4, at Grand Rapids, while on the way to her physician. Miss Shaw had been in ill health for some time and had gone from her home in Battle Creek to Grand Rapids and had entered a hospital where she remained for five weeks. Two weeks previous to her death she had been discharged from the hospital, apparently fully recovered. Heart disease was the cause of death. Miss Claire M. Shaw was born in 1884 at Tawas City. She attended the public schools and on the completion of her school work she taught school for several years, two years at Hale, two years at Alabaster and two years at Grayling. About three years ago she entered Tuller's Department store at Battle Creek and was made head of the drapery department. She was well known as an authority on interior decoration. The surviving relatives are, one brother, George H. A. Shaw, editor of The Pigeon Progress, and one sister, Mrs. Martin Wilsma, of Grand Rapids. Now that we're in the World Court wouldn't it be a good plan to voice our protest against Europe sending any more speakers over here to tell us we're a gang of dollar chasers?

TOURIST ASSOCIATION TO RECEIVE $500.00 FROM COUNTY
The board of supervisors met Monday and Tuesday of this week. Board was called to order at ten o'clock by Chairman Ernest Crego. Supervisors Anschuetz, Colvin, Dickinson, Horton, Lossing, McMullen, Mielock, Putnam, Piper, Robey, Schreiber, Schoderer, Tanner, Trudell and VanPatten were present. The inspector of jails reported that 26 prisoners had been confined in the county jail in the following manner: Eight violators of the liquor law, three for driving while drunk, two for drunk and disorderly conduct, one for non-support, one for breach of contract, two for stealing automobiles one insane case and seven tramps. The board appropriated $500.00 from the general fund to be given to the East Michigan Tourist association. This appropriation was made by a vote of eight to seven. The board voted to have a map made of Iosco county, printed copies to be sold to the public at a cost not exceeding 50 cents. It was decided that the old heating plant and building should be sold. The purchasing committee was authorized to advertise for bids. The special committee authorized to investigate the fill on the Hale-Long Lake road, reported and expressed their opinion that a considerable saving would have been made by building the road around the so-called sink hole, thus avoiding the fill. A motion prevailed that the county clerk secure information from the Bureau of Animal Industry relative to the inspection of cattle for tuberculosis and the cost to county for said inspection.

While "Lightnin" was being filmed at the West Coast studios of William Fox at Hollywood, Lloyd Bacon, son of the late Frank Bacon, who created the role of Lightnin' Bill Jones" on the stage, visited Jay Hunt, portrayer of the role in the picture version. Young Mr. Bacon was amazed at the close resemblance Mr. Hunt bears to his distinguished father and he declared him to be a perfect double. He said the Fox star looks enough like his paternal parent to be a brother, and after watching him in several scenes, he also said his acting mannerisms were very similar to those of the revered Frank. Lightnin' will be the attraction at the State theatre for two days beginning Sunday, March 14. (Continued on last page)

PENNY SOCIAL AND CARNIVAL HOWLING SUCCESS

The biggest and jolliest social function ever staged in Tawas took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ferguson, Tuesday evening. It was the penny social and carnival, given by the Dorcas society of the Baptist church. The rooms were transformed into booths representing a typical indoors carnival, with balloons, Japanese lanterns, flags of all nations and our beloved red, white and blue in profusion. Judging from the patronage, the Queen Anne Beauty Shoppe, with Marion Hamilton and Alta Leslie as accomplished artists, was a very popular attraction. Anxious crowds waited to gain entrance. After waiting for hours, one man sent in a written request for an appointment, but of no avail. The Rocky Road to Dublin under the able management of F. R. Dease proved to be a very exciting and rocky ride for old as well as young, about 200 trips being made. Great hopes were built up and air castles shattered, when the past present or future had been told by Mesdames Colby and Bigelow, who were attired in gypsy costumes. Close observance revealed the fact that the fair sex are not the only curious ones regarding what the future has in store for them. Licenses for fishing were granted by Mrs. Leslie, a typical black mammy. Considering the strings of fish carried away from the fish pond, one would conclude that both herring and trout were biting. There were sweets for the sweetest at the pretty candy booth in charge of Mrs. Rapp. Although the temperature was zero without, the mercury climbed fast within, but was soon brought down with ice cream and pink lemonade at the beautifully trimmed booth of Mrs. Quick. No carnival is ever complete without "hot dogs." Mrs. Tuttle's cleverly decorated booth surely attracted the crowds throughout the evening. St. Patrick's booths were appropriately decorated and presided over by Misses Van Horn and Campbell, also the Japanese booth where Mrs. Boomer dispensed the choicest tea and wafers. We are sorry to relate that to keep order, it was necessary for Officers Prescott, Colby and Bigelow to bring so many of our law-abiding and respected citizens before the Honorable Judges Colby and Bigelow for such charges as flirtations, theft, fishing without a license, etc. Nevertheless, judging from such remarks as these from those present—"Best time I've ever had in Tawas," "Who in the world ever thought of all this," "If we had any more people here, where would we put them," the affair was a howling success for which we wish to thank the many friends in the Tawas.

"YOU ARE ENTITLED TO KNOW THE FACTS" DODGE BROTHERS, INC.

Only STEEL could meet a test like this!

A Dodge Brothers Motor Car . . . A speeding truck racing down hill and out of control . . . A collision . . .

Take one look at this photograph. It is not pretty, to be sure, but it will convince any sensible man that all steel construction is the only safe construction for a motor car body.

That is why Dodge Brothers introduced the all steel body more than eleven years ago, and this year greatly improved and perfected it.

In fact, Dodge Brothers are convinced that the day is not far off when wooden motor car bodies will be a curiosity. People will shudder at the thought of having ridden in them and will thank Dodge Brothers for the greater safety, durability—and beauty, too—of all steel construction.

A steel body will stand up under impacts that would crush the average body to bits. Steel cannot splinter. Steel cannot burn. Steel is an armor of protection on the crowded, hurrying highway.

The car will continue to be a "four". No reasonable buyer will be distracted from the issue of QUALITY by mere CYLINDER propaganda.

Outwardly, nearly all types of bodies appear to be all steel. In reality, however, most of them are simply frames of wood covered by a metal shell.

Dodge Brothers Motor Car bodies are steel through and through—steel reinforced by steel—battered and braced by steel—even the frames and running boards are steel.

And slender, stronger steel corner posts replace the customary bulky posts of wood, affording full, unhampered driving vision on all sides—a safety feature of the first importance!

Travel in safety! Powerful, quick-action brakes, a chassis world-famous for its sturdiness, and a body of steel—these explain the enviable reputation for safety enjoyed by Dodge Brothers Motor Car—and the enviable feeling of safety enjoyed by the one who drive it.

Ford For the First Time $500 Buys a Closed Car

If you plan to spend over $500 F. O. B. Factory for an automobile, you can get the year-round comfort and convenience of a Ford closed car.

The price advantage which the public enjoys in purchasing Ford cars is the result of volume production. In 1920, when the Ford Motor Company was producing approximately only a million cars a year, the Ford Touring Car sold for $575. Today, with production on the basis of nearly two million cars a year, the Tudor Sedan, a high quality all-steel closed car, can be purchased for $520—$55 less than the Touring Car sold for six years ago. Open car prices are correspondingly low.

While this program of price reduction has been carried on, important refinements and improvements have been made in Ford cars. The latest improvements include new and attractive body lines—a lower center of gravity, closed cars in color, all-steel bodies, new brakes and new style fenders.

However, the basic features of Ford design have not been changed. Three point motor suspension, planetary transmission, dual ignition system, torque tube drive, multiple disc-in-oil clutch, splash lubrication, thermo-siphon cooling system—outstanding features of automobile design—have all been retained, regardless of cost.

Tidal Wave's Movements

In general it may be said that the rate at which a tide wave proceeds depends on the depth, the formula being: Rate of the advance of the tide equals the square root of the acceleration of gravity, multiplied by the depth of the water. Therefore, in a deep channel the tide progresses at a more rapid rate than in a shallow channel.

MARCH 22, 1923

1,000,000

DECEMBER 16, 1925

1,500,000

On March 22, 1923, Buick celebrated the building of the millionth Buick. Approximately eighteen years were consumed in the accomplishment.

On December 16, 1925, Buick reached the million and a half mark. A million Buicks in eighteen years—the next half million in two years and nine months.

At the present time, public demand calls for more than 20,000 Buicks every month. This means the next half million in the hands of Buick owners, within two years.

These bare figures tell a graphic story of Buick's continuous advance in public regard. The great acceleration of demand, at the present time, speaks strongly of the increased value and desirability in the Better Buick.

Leadership belongs to Buick because a nation familiar with many motor cars has given it to Buick.

The American public wants "finer transportation at lower cost", and Buick provides it!

Among the NOTABLES

THOMAS KIRKBRIDE

THE story of the life of Thomas Kirkbride is to a great extent the story of the new treatment of insanity in this country. It seems almost unbelievable that, up to a short time ago, very little about insanity was known, and insane people were treated worse than criminals.

In the early days of Egypt and Greece and Jerusalem, however, lunatics were treated somewhat after the enlightened fashion that Kirkbride used—treated kindly, given a certain amount of manual labor, kept in beautiful surroundings with good music to listen to and pretty things to look at.

In the Middle Ages, all this was forgotten and lunatics were thought possessed of devils. They were subjected to the cruelest of tortures, put in chains in dark dungeons, and regarded with abhorrence. Up to but little more than a hundred years ago, they were confined with criminals in prisons. Then a few enlightened souls began to work for them, and secured separate asylums for them and proper treatment.

On July 31, 1800, Thomas Kirkbride was born in Morrisville, Pa., of a family whose ancestors came over with Penn., and of the religion of the Friends, who always led in intelligent charity. First as head of the Friends asylum in Philadelphia, and then of the Pennsylvania hospital, he made a specialty of insanity and its treatment. Kirkbrides, in Philadelphia, is named for him. He was the first to insist on separate buildings for the sexes, and raised money to treat and cure cases. He died in 1883.

STATE THEATRE

Boss Trooper Glad to Help Film Players

Down on the Mexican border, where Victor Schertzinger filmed many outdoor sequences of "The Golden Strain," Fox films production, based on a Peter B. Kyne story, which comes to the State theatre on March 16 and 17, there is a man popularly known as "Jim Crow" and he is one of the most beloved soldiers in the services of the American Government. His last name is Rhea, the colonel commanding the Tenth Cavalry, and he loves to be called "Jim," though many of his intimates call him by the fuller appellation.

This man, when he learned that Uncle Sam had given Fox Films permission to use famous old Fort Huachuca for the Peter B. Kyne locale made known his intentions to cooperate to the fullest degree.

"Jim Crow" Rhea was so kind to the boys and girls of the Fox organization that they felt they wanted to do something for him. And yet, when Colonel Rhea heard about a little present they were going to offer him he frowned on the proposal and let it be known that his hospitality was offered with an open hand—but that hand was closed when it came to a question of reciprocity. He gave freely, but he asked nothing in return save the love and friendship of the company.

Rin-Tin-Tin

Rin-Tin-Tin, the wonder dog of Warner Bros. Classics of the screen, which comes to the State Theatre on Saturday, March 20, in "Below the Line," is a German shepherd dog, popularly known as a police dog. He was born in the advance zone of the A. E. F. in France in 1918, named after Rin-Tin-Tin, one of the "lucky" dolls of the war. He was adopted by Lieut. Lee Duncan, who brought him to the United States and trained him. His starring pictures have been "Where the North Begins," "Find your Man," "The Lighthouse by the Sea," "Tracked in the Snow Country" and "Below the Line."

AN ABBREVIATED STORY

THE STANDEE

"WON'T you sit down?" she said, after they had talked a while of this and that, and Lois Coffee's elopement, and that and this. "Won't you sit down?"

"No, thanks," he replied easily. "I've been watching people sitting down so much lately that I've lost all desire to sit down myself."

And they continued chatting about whether there is really a future life, and the difference between a Cossack and a hassock, and one thing and another, and then she said, "Really, you must sit down."

"Oh, that's quite all right," he smiled blandly. "I seldom sit down, even at home. When my folks see me sitting down they exclaim, 'Why, you're sitting down, aren't you!'"

And he stayed till after eleven, airily passing off eight more invitations to sit down, and the next morning he called up Googer's Equitation Palace and explained that he didn't feel equal to taking his second riding lesson that day.

Taxation in Plainfield Township

Several questions have been asked regarding amount of tax paid to the several different funds, by the people of Plainfield, and I will try to list them that all may know—

Township tax	$2641.82	Drain tax	2000.00
Library tax	158.80	Drain tax at large.....	1205.40
Cemetery tax	200.61	School & one mill tax..	9844.40
Light tax	246.37	Rejected tax	1361.39

The above added to the list of last week that included the highway and bridge tax combined, makes a grand total of $39745.46.

We hear a great deal of discussion along the line of this rejected tax, and will say that our treasurer settles this week and next week we shall endeavor to tell you how it occurs, who it is assessed to, and how the township is reimbursed for the part paid to county and state.

On Saturday, March 20th we will have a special sale on white granite ware, it will be possible to get a nice dish for as low as one cent. Don't miss this chance.

We have two Pennsylvania Cord Tires clincher, 31x4, the regular price is $21.65 each, and we will parcel post them to any place in Iosco county, the pair for $30.00. Just the thing for the Ford roadster.
