SCHOOL NOTES

Seventh and Eighth Grades

Our attendance for this week has been perfect. Alvin Cholger, who has had the measles, and several others who have been home on account of illness in the family, came back to school Monday.

We are starting our composition work in the eighth grade. So far, we have been writing descriptions. Irvin Burtzloff has had the best one.

Our spring posters came in Monday and we have some good ones.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

Millard and Ivan Webb, Herbert Cholger, Levi Ulman and John Citpak are back in school again after several days absence. We still have quite a number absent.

We are all very glad to see signs of spring. Quite a number of boys have their pockets filled with marbles. That always seems to be a sure sign.

The Ford is still leading in the race. It seems to be moving a little slower than it did. We expect to overtake the Ford in a short time.

Mr. Bogue gave the Thorndike McCall Reading test to us last Friday. Everyone is anxious to learn his score.

Third and Fourth Grades

Norman Kasischke still holds the leadership for third grade spelling.

Some of the children who were absent because of measles are back in school, but we still have a number of people absent.

The Ford is still leading in the arithmetic race, though there have been days when it hardly moved. We hope to get up more speed soon.

Primary

Our attendance is improving. We have only eleven absent this week.

Jack Coyle is in Bay City having treatment for his eyes.

We have added robins and woodpeckers to our bird list this week.

We were very pleased to have Mrs. Dease visit us.

MRS. CLARENCE MOORE

Mrs. Clarence Moore, wife of Clarence Moore formerly of this city now living at Detroit, died March 14 at St. Mary's hospital at Detroit. Death was caused from inflammation of the brain. She had been ill since January 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have been married two years and nine months.

The funeral services were held at the residence at 2537 Ferry Parke avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Interment was made at Evergreen cemetery, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schreiber of this city attended the funeral.

"ROSE OF THE WORLD"

If you are a Kathleen Norris enthusiast, and a picture fan, then you must see "Rose of the World," the Warner Bros. classic of the screen which comes to the State theatre on April 1 and 2, with Patsy Ruth Miller in the leading role.

Not only because is it the film version of one of Mrs. Norris's most dramatic stories, and directed by Harry Beaumont, but because it has one of the most sparkling casts of any recent screen production, "Rose of the World" is the perfect screen entertainment.

TO MR. AND MRS. THEATRE GOER

I want to tell you about my "book-er." Believe me he's a bearcat when it comes to giving us pictures. I have just received my complete list of bookings for April and the old saying of "Soup to Nuts" holds good, for he has something of all kinds in the month. First it starts out with "Rose of the World" written by Kathleen Norris and when Kathleen writes a story it's always good. Then comes Sally O'Neill's latest picture, "Mike," and it's a knockout. Sally is the latest find on our screen and she is going to pass them all. I cannot go into detail, but will say that you will also see Geo. O'Brien, Buster Keaton, Jackie Coogan, not to mention Syd Chaplin, the man who starred in "Charlie's Aunt." Then comes Lon Chaney, Leatrice Joy and Irene Rich and others. Now do you blame me for being proud of my book-er?

MICHIGAN BOOM PREDICTED

Michigan is to have a real estate boom similar to that recently witnessed in Florida, in the opinion of H. N. Duff, chairman of the Securities Commission, who explained that every effort is being made to prevent it from becoming too wild and imaginative. Speculation on a huge scale already has developed along the west coast of the state. Values of property from Michigan City to Mackinac have doubled, tripled and in some cases increasing ten-fold during the winter. Price increases so far have been largely due to competition of real estate concerns that want to be in on the ground floor when the main boom starts.

"The boom probably will extend to all lake and resort property in the state, if prosperity of the industrial centers continues," Duff said. "We are not planning to discourage it, but simply to see that it is not accompanied by misrepresentation of the sort that damaged Florida."

"We believe the Michigan resort areas are much better prepared for a great influx of outsiders than was Florida. Transportation is adequate and hotel accommodations are ample for any but the most extraordinary demands."

The foregoing Lansing dispatch taken from the Detroit Times reflects a condition which is being felt at Tawas City. Several pieces of real estate have changed hands within the past few days and several large real estate deals are now in negotiation.

FARMERS OF COUNTY TO OBSERVE FORDSON DAY

Farmers of this vicinity have been invited to attend a special demonstration of Fordson Tractor power which has been arranged for Next Saturday, March 27.

The event is in observance of Fordson day and will be staged by Wilbur C. Roach, local Ford dealer, in cooperation with distributors of farm implements adapted to Fordson tractor power. The demonstration will be held at the Roach Garage at Tawas City. An invitation has been extended to all farmers in this locality.

Fordson day will be observed by Ford dealers throughout the United States, with demonstrations such as are to be held here.

"STEEL PREFERRED"

Five years at the same studio. Ten years in the industry. "Steel Preferred" united two of the best known screen comedians.

Charlie Murray and Ben Turpin, who appear in the Metropolitan Pictures Corporation production of "Steel Preferred" which comes to the State theatre next Sunday, spent five years at the Sennet-studio and yet never appeared in the same picture until this picture was produced.

It had always been the hope of both to play in the same production, and when Turpin retired to private life recently, the realization seemed to have vanished forever.

GOODWIN RAPS STATE ADMINISTRATION AT LEGION MEET

Members of Jesse C. Hodder Post American Legion, were treated to an exceptionally interesting presentation of state Legion and state civic affairs at the special meeting Monday evening, when Edwin Allan Goodwin of Bay City, former 10th district Republican chairman, addressed the Legionaires on "Sincerity, Safety and Sanity." Mr. Goodwin whose boyhood was spent in this county, has been a guest for a few days of County Registrar Geo. A. Pringle. He was secured as an added attraction to the Legion meet. He deplored the "tendency toward political party extinction," urging that party platform pledges "take the nature of pre-election contract between candidates and voters, providing advance notice of policies expected to be pursued, allowing for measures as for men."

The speaker rapped the action of the closing-day special legislative session in passing a resolution under executive duress, to give the governor use of unlimited public funds for trunk highway maintenance. The law specifically provides that all appropriations must be by bill passed by both houses and signed by the governor," he said. "When such a bill—the Atwood bill—was defeated, this unlawful resolution was forced through. It was an affirmative impulse towards general law violation." "Public debt is merely the aggregate debts of individual citizens on governmental account. Eventually each citizen must pay with interest his or her proportionate part of the whole," he said. "At this time when Michigan is mortgaged for fifty million dollars principal and thirty million dollars interest, for highways, it is regrettable that running expenses of the state should mount to their present heights. The state administration next preceding the present administration levied for routine expenses approximately $15,000,000 to $18,000,000 per year direct property tax. There were no other important levies. The present administration for (Continued on page five)

MRS. ELZIE EWING

Mrs. Elzie Ewing of Hale died last Friday at Detroit, where she had been taking treatments for cancer.

Hazel Reilly was born at Long Lake at Long Lake, and was 36 years, ten months and 14 days of age at time of death. When a child her parents moved near Londo lake, five miles west of Hale and she has lived there since. She was united in marriage to Elzie Ewing on November 17, 1908. To this union six children were born, three of whom preceded her in death. Her husband, and three children, Clare, age 14, Elsie, age six, and Fremar, age four, are left to mourn the loss with her aged father, William Reilly, two brothers, Henry of Jackson, and Walter of Hale, and four sisters, Mrs. George Guest of Detroit, Mrs. Elnor Keith of Rogers City, Mrs. Jesse Shellenberger of Hale and Velma Reilly at home and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held at the Hale Baptist church Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery.

"BUNKER BEAN"

Harry Leon Wilson, author of "His Majesty, Bunker Bean," the Warner Bros. classic of the screen which comes to the State theatre on March 30 and 31, is also the author of "Merton of the Movies," "Ruggles of Red Gap," "Ma Pattengill," "Professor, How Could You," "Oh, Doctor," and the "Spoilers." In collaboration with Booth Tarkington, he wrote "The Man From Home" and other stage successes.

"MIKE"

During the filming of "Mike" the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture coming to the State theatre on April 4, 5 and 6, Marshall Neilan the director, and his company lived in three Pullman cars on a siding off the main line of the Santa Fe railroad, near San Bernardino. The so-called camp also included a dining car with a full crew. There were no living accommodations near the location, and it was impossible to motor there every day from San Bernardino. Hence the necessity of living in the train.

The story of "Mike" concerns desert railroad life and the principal characters are the entire population of the tiny section workers' town, most of whom live in revamped box cars.

The cast of "Mike" includes Sally O'Neill, Neilan's newest film discovery, Ford Sterling, Charlie Murray, Muriel Frances Dana, Frankie Darro, Junior Coghlan, Ned Sparks and others.

This new policy does not affect our time payment plan on new Ford cars which is unusually liberal.

Five years has levied a direct property tax equal to that levied by the preceding administration, and in addition has invented and levied the occupation tax which brings in $6,000,000 per year, and the gas and weight taxes bringing in $8,000,000 more per year. This extra $14,000,000 was expected to result in lowering the direct property tax inasmuch as almost to dispense with it. Yet the direct property tax remains as before around $18,000,000. It, and the $14,000,000 corporation and gas taxes both disappear. Even this huge sum does not meet the demand of the state's running expenses. The state has been going behind and now is in debt at the rate of $2,000,000 a year for the past five years. The total running expense deficit this has nothing to do with the bonded debt for roads—is $10,000,000. Of this sum, $9,000,000 is owed to counties and townships in unpaid and overdue state awards. The other $1,000,000 and interest at seven per cent is owed to Hon. James Couzens to whom the state administration has mortgaged the state fair grounds.
"In an effort to extricate the administration from this unhappy situation, the governor has attempted to repudiate the millions owed to the counties and townships. Fortunately this attempt was defeated. Michigan might not gain a reputation for jumping its board bill or refusing to pay the maid her wages. The people may at times be a bit reckless, but for the most part are honest. These counties and townships can use the millions we owe them. However, when taxpayers cannot collect that which is due them from the state, they must go to their own pockets that much deeper. To use $18,000,000 and $6,000,000 and $8,000,000 totalling $32,000,000—per year to run the business of the state, though the preceding administration accomplished the same thing at a total cost of only $18,000,000; and in addition to go behind $9,000,000 to counties and townships and finally pawn the state fair property for another million—somehow this gives the taxpayer an uneasy feeling as to what he may expect in the future. Of course, as long as government depends administratively on human instrumentality there will be errors. It is not a question of perfection, rather the degree of perfection.
"Since adjournment of the special session and opportunity for deliberate consideration, it becomes increasingly difficult to discover the wisdom of laying out, grading and paving the two ends of a 25-mile super-highway, wider Woodward, when there is an eight-mile stretch in the middle that the state does not own. Irrespective of the cost of acquiring this right-of-way, the work was commenced on the two ends, thus obliging the state to deal with the owners, the Grand Trunk railroad, on terms which the railroad would dictate, or lose the money already invested in the improvement. With great sums already invested we even yet do not know what it will cost to provide the railroad with a new right-of-way in place of the one which we have contracted to take over. Instead of first submitting the proposal to the legislature, the work on the road was started. When we had gone so far that we could not turn back the deal was laid before the legislature, not for judgment and decision, but for ratification.
"The survival of law must surely be an issue when again anominating primary comes around. If the state government may violate the law of debtor and creditor; if it may refuse obedience to the law requiring payment to counties of $2,000,000 a year on its indebtedness; if it may refuse to comply with the law which makes mandatory the use of $5,000,000 per year for maintenance of non-trunk line roads; if it can disobey law which requires that a fixed cash sum be in the state highway sinking fund; if it can refuse to give itemized account of the expenditure of $23,000,000 for roads in 1925—if these examples of disrespect for law and indifference of the people's elected law-makers is to continue, it must eventually end in the breaking down of government of law and result in government by the most powerful. One may address himself to these subjects in terms of utmost moderation and temperateness, with charity and respect, which of course is a matter of refinement, but has nothing whatever to do with the merit of matters considered. There is need now more than at any time in the experience of any of us, for a return to an administration of state government that is sincere, earnest, cautious, moderate, safe and sane. What Calvin Coolidge appears desirous of doing for the nation should be entrusted to someone likeminded to do for Michigan—until our people have a chance to get their breath. Looking to the past for assurance, one must have abiding faith in the final judgment of the people as affecting the future. The people do not reach important conclusions in haste; they are inclined to endure long and patiently—but they never have been, and we trust they never may be, willing to make Plymouth Rock a doorstone to the sepulchre of a dead Liberty."

February Surpasses the Greatest January!
What the public thinks of Dodge Brothers Motor Car is impressively reflected in current sales.

Yet February, with actual retail deliveries of 18,516 cars surpassed it by 24 per cent!
Midsummer business in a month of Winter Storms!
A $10,000,000 investment in new buildings and equipment has brought new high production records but still there are indications of a serious shortage.

Hunt Meteorites by Mail

This may seem a novel method of searching for rare meteoric finds, but it has proved to be efficacious. The curator of geology of the United States national museum corresponds with the nearest postmaster to a reported find, and the latter is usually able to put him in touch with persons who can give reliable facts.
