LOCAL TEAM WINS IN PITCHERS' BATTLE LAST SUNDAY

STANDINGS	Won	Lost	Pct.
Alpena	6	0	1000
Tawas	7	2	778
Oscoda	3	6	333
Twining	3	7	300
Alabaster	2	6	250

Last Sunday's Results
Tawas 8—Oscoda 7
Twining 9—Alabaster 1 (six innings)

Next Sunday's Games
Tawas at Alpena
Oscoda at Alabaster

With some of the reserves taking the place of absent regulars, the Tawas team went to Oscoda and used Urban and his Oscoda supporters rougher than the home team could paste Jackson and company of Tawas and the Tawas team emerged from the fray with a one point lead.

Jackson wavered in only one inning, the seventh, when he walked a man with the bases full but had his mates supported him in good style he would have scored a shut-out. The reserve players were a little weak on defense but sure took advantage of every opportunity on offense to run the score up high enough to win. By winning Sunday's game Tawas remains in the race for first place.

A deplorable incident occurred during the game, when Stan Noel picked up a bat dropped by an Oscoda player and tossed it toward the Oscoda pile of bats. A small boy ran toward the bats and the thrown bat caromed off the others lying on the ground, the handle hitting the boy in the elbow. A fan and a ballplayer thought the act was intentional and struck Noel with their fists. Players separated the boys and the game was resumed.

Next Sunday Tawas journeys to Alpena for what will be the big game of the season. If they lose, their chance for first place is very slim but a win will make them a favorite for the cup. The players are expected to leave early Sunday morning so as to arrive in plenty of time to be rested before the game. If the fans from here will go up they are assured of a good game.

Twining displaced Alabaster Sunday and Alabaster is perched on the bottom rung of the league ladder.

RENO BOY WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Norman Sibley of Reno township has won a free scholarship at the Michigan State College. This honor was won through exceptional achievement in boys' handicraft, and is very gratifying to his many friends.

The Reno Ripsaw and Ruler Club was organized at the Reno school last fall under the leadership of their teacher, Romanzo Hall, fifteen boys finished their work and received the certificate of achievement. Norman Sibley easily won first prize in the club. Chas. Robinson took second place followed closely by Edward Parker for third place. The club was complimented very highly by Mr. Kettunen, the state club leader for their work and the splendid way in which they carried on their work to the end.

Shortly afterward it was learned that Norman Sibley had won first prize in the county, this gave him the privilege to represent the boys of the handicraft clubs of Isosco county at the boys' and girls' club meeting at Lansing.

Recently Norman received notice that he had won state honors, this entitles him to a free scholarship to the Michigan State College anytime he wishes to enter.

Osman Ostrander received fourth place in state honors for second place handicraft work.

The boys of Isosco county will have to take off their hats to Norman and Osman for bringing these high honors to our county and then roll up their sleeves and see that these honors stay in the county next year. Get dad's old saw, fix up that old hammer, scare up a few old boards and then work. It takes a lot of grit and work but that is the way these boys got there and so can you. Start now to be champion for 1927.

BARKMANS' OPEN NEW STORE MONDAY, AUGUST 9

During the past year, while the Barkman building on First street opposite the D. & M. depot has been in process of construction, there has been much speculation as to the purpose for which the building was to be used. The secret is now out, as in this issue of the Herald the Barkmans make an announcement of the opening of the new place of business next Monday, August 9th.

The business will be operated under the name of the Barkman Mercantile & Outfitting Company and will be in charge of Nathan and Julius Barkman. They will handle a line of merchandise of all classes and their stock will at all times be kept strictly up-to-date to keep pace with the fast changing styles of the times. The large well-lighted store room will enable them to display the stock to the best advantage and there will be few establishments in Northeastern Michigan that excel it in variety or quality. They will also make a specialty of selling all kinds of goods from samples, which they will carry from some of the leading manufacturers and dealers in their lines. A little later they expect to organize a corps of salesmen to sell their goods in other towns in this section of the state.

The new building, measuring 54 by 100 feet, is of modern construction and admirably fitted for the purpose for which it is to be used. It has eight large display windows containing 58 linear feet of plate glass stretching entirely across the front of the building and these display windows would easily contain the entire stock of some small stores. Additional light for the store is obtained by a series of small windows along each side. At night the store room is lighted by eight 500 watt lights, the glare softened by large white globes.

Modern sales methods are used throughout the store, there being shelving but all goods are displayed on tables and racks, the furniture occupying the floor space on one entire side of the room. All goods are plainly marked with the selling price and terms, the company making a specialty of time payments, and this method saving much time for clerks and customers by enabling the buyer to determine the price of a certain article and the terms without consulting a salesman. Clothing, rugs and other merchandise susceptible to such methods, are displayed on commodious racks, giving the customer an opportunity to examine the style, texture, etc., at his leisure.

An inspection of this modern mercantile establishment is urged by the company. They wish to especially call the attention of the public to their time payment plan on merchandise. A large and successful business for the Barkman Mercantile & Outfitting Company is predicted.

We are glad of having this another opportunity of inviting you to these services. It may be the last for you, will you not come and take part with us in the worship of God. You are entirely welcome.

We have a wonderful bible study class every Thursday evening in the church, and we are at present studying bible prophecy, which is certainly very interesting. Come and bring your friends.

ALWAYS EAT FRESH BREAD

Always Order Fresh Goods from The Barkman Mercantile & Outfitting Co.

As we are going to open up our new Mercantile Building across from the depot at Tawas City under the name of the BARKMAN MERCANTILE & OUTFITTING CO. on Monday, August 9th, we wish to inform the general public our aim and policy in conducting this new enterprise.

In the first place a great change has taken place in the handling of merchandise and all classes of goods. Most of the goods that are used, especially in wearing apparel, are subject to a quick change in style, and people want goods that have style, snap and quality, and the same principle is also applied to House Furnishings of all kinds, so in order to give the general public fresh goods at all times that have snap, style and quality we decided to put up a large, well finished and lighted Store Room where goods can always be seen to the best advantage in the day time or evenings.

Therefore our policy will be to carry a certain amount of staple goods of all kinds in stock and make a specialty of selling all kinds of goods from samples that we will have from the leading and best Manufacturers and dealers in the country and in time we expect to also organize canvassers to take orders in towns along the D. & M. R. R.

We will also specialize in having departments made up in our building to sell all classes of goods at five, seven-fifty, ten, fifteen, twenty and twenty-five dollars.

We also wish to state that we will organize a new service department whereby we will be able to furnish any class of goods that are not carried in stock through our experience and general outside connections with the best concerns.

Under the present conditions with parcel post and express and through the use of the telephone and telegraph service, goods can be shipped in a very short time, and you are assured at all times of fresh, up-to-date goods.

We are also going to surprise the public by giving it easy payments on any goods bought from us, which will be fully explained when coming to look over our store building and stock.

The business will be in charge of Nathan Barkman and Julius Barkman and we will at all times try to give the general public good value in all kinds of goods and prompt service. Do not forget the opening date, Monday, August 9th, 1926.
