CHARTER GRANTED FOR BANK AT TAWAS CITY

Word was received here Monday from the Banking Commission that a charter had been granted for the establishment of a state bank in this city. A meeting of the stockholders of the new bank was in progress Thursday evening when the Herald went to press. This meeting was called for the purpose of completing the details of the organization.

The incorporation of the new state bank are C. W. McPhail of Grand Rapids, C. H. Macomber, L. A. Chichester, and Gilbert A. Currie of Midland and C. H. Ridgley of Whittemore with a number of Tawas City people interested as stockholders.

The following communication was received Thursday morning by N. C. Harting, attorney for the depositors in the Ealy & Co. receivership, relative to the bankruptcy held Tuesday before the United States court at Detroit:

A general hearing and discussion of all pressing matters precipitated by bankruptcy petitions, was held before Judge Tuttle yesterday at Detroit. There were present all of the attorneys who have filed bankruptcy petitions, also the attorneys for the receiver.

The questions discussed were whether the situation could be improved by appointing the present receiver now acting under the state court, as receiver in bankruptcy, also, whether a separate receiver in bankruptcy should be appointed for the Millington bank as desired by the attorneys who filed the bankruptcy petitions against that bank. Consideration was also given to the question whether the present receiver under the state court would have sufficient authority to protect the creditors pending the election of a trustee in bankruptcy, if no receiver in bankruptcy were appointed.

The Judge decided that the interests of the depositors would be served by permitting matters to rest as they are for the present. He will be holding court in Bay City on January 11, and he stated that all further proceedings in the bankruptcy case would be stayed at least until that time. No receiver in bankruptcy will be appointed, but the present receiver under the state court (The First National Bank of Bay City) will continue in authority under the orders of the state court, in the expectation that the Federal court, through Judge Tuttle, will, if necessary, approve and confirm whatever is done for the interest of the creditors. This will enable the present receiver to go ahead with the sale of property and relieve it from the embarrassment which has resulted from the possible conflict of authority between the two courts.

It will be at least four weeks before the trustee in bankruptcy can be elected, and there will probably be no substantial change in the situation during that period.

ENLARGE ROACH GARAGE SHOW ROOMS

Wilber C. Roach is enlarging and remodeling the show and car sales room of his garage this week. He says that he will add another popular line of cars to his auto sales business which now includes the Dodge make. Detailed announcement of this will be made in a short time. The Roach garage is the only one steam heated between Bay City and Alpena and this proved especially advantageous during the past two weeks.

John Kelly, who has been at the head of the repair department for the past 12 years, resigned on Monday of this week. He was succeeded by Norman Ruckle.

Mae Murray, star of "Valencia," Dimitri Buchowetzki's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature coming to the State Theatre Sunday and Monday, is one of the best known stars of the screen. Born in Portsmouth, Va., she first won fame as a stage dancer with the Ziegfeld Follies, and as the "Nell Brinkley Girl" of the stage. The screen then beckoned her, and among her outstanding successes were "A Deliculous Little Devil," "Peacock Alley," "The French Doll," "Mlle. Midnight," and lately "The Merry Widow" which she followed with "The Masked Bride" and "Altars of Desire."

Charles Groff and son, Henry leave Friday (today) for a week's visit in Flint with relatives.

To All the World

THE SAVIOUR'S BIRTH

"For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord." Luke 2:11, R. V.

Today we listen for words from many lands. The words of the text were addressed by a messenger from the heavenly country. Was this message only for kings and Princes? No, it was for the common people as well. It was the shepherd that heard the angel speak, the Pharisees, Sadducees and scribes had been passed up in this heavenly announcement. Yes, Caesar and the king would have known and heard the tidings had they been in tune with God. Simeon, Anna and others that had been living in fellowship with God had been looking for the Messiah that would redeem Israel. The great mass of mankind did not know that the hour had arrived for God to come to earth in the person of his blessed Son. Right here let me say that Christ is coming the second time according to the scriptures, yet the world at large does not seem to be looking for his coming. Are you?

God had for ages been preparing the world for the great advent, the coming of his Son as the babe of Bethlehem. We find the promise of the coming one in the days of Eve. It was her seed that should bruise the serpent's head. In calling Abram and in the dealing with his sons and the people of Israel God was always working toward the one end of the redemption of man through his own son. Israel brought to the world the great truth of the idea of one God. Other nations had their God or Gods. In Israel religion and a holy life went together, while the heathen did not connect the two together. A man might be religious and yet not be living a moral life. Israel was the storehouse of God's truth, the recorders of his word, and his holy people, through whom the Saviour was to come into the world. The world for centuries has persecuted the Jews, yet today they stand as a memorial as a witness to the truth of God revealed to Abraham of old. Salvation is of the Jews. Your Saviour, the world's only Saviour, came into the world through Mary, the Jewish princess, of the time of David. These people at large did not expect their Messiah at this time, though God had been preparing the nation for the great advent through his many revelations to Israel. The Greeks and Romans were also used to prepare the world for the coming of the Saviour and the spreading of his Gospel.

The philosophy of the Greek had come more and more to be centered in man himself, from the material to the inner life of man. He was becoming conscious of his own sinful nature. The Greek language had become a world tongue, through which the Gospel of the one born in Bethlehem should be preached to the world of that day. It was a warless world at that time. The Roman government had provided periodic census. It was during an enrollment that Joseph and Mary came to Bethlehem, where Christ was born as foretold by the prophet Micah 700 years before the babe lay in the manger cradle. "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the clans, yet thou shalt be chosen because thou shalt be the birthplace of the Saviour." (Micah 5:2)

William Phelan, an early pioneer of Ioco County, died Friday, December 17 at the home of his son, Louis Phelan, of this city. He had been failing in health for some time. Death was due to old age. The deceased was 91 years, one month and four days old at the time of death. He was laid to rest in the family lot in the Tawas City cemetery beside his wife and two children, who preceded him to the great beyond some years ago. Services were held at the home of his son where he had made his home for the past eight years. The deceased was born in Hammond, St. Lawrence County, New York in 1835. He had been a resident of this county for 58 years, having come here in 1868 when this city was a small hamlet, one store and a post office. He bought a large portion of north part of the city, cleared it and had it platted into lots. He also built several roads leading into the wilds of the country then and saw many a hard day in doing so. He held many township offices and later in years devoted most of his time to farming. He is survived by four children, Mrs. A. E. Yerden of Detroit, Mrs. Robert Mattison of Bay City, Claude O. Phelan of Dexter, N. Y. and Louis Phelan of this city. He has one brother in Hammond N. Y., one sister in Watertown, N. Y. and eight grandchildren.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY

He was a man of retiring disposition and was most highly respected by all who knew him and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in their loss of a loving father.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

"The Story That Never Grows Old" In writing this my Christmas Message to you this year, I am taking for my text that most wonderful message of the angel from heaven which announced the birth of our Lord on that first Christmas night long ago. "Unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour which is Christ the Lord." Oh! there have been many great days in the history of this old world, but that first Christmas day dawned with a hope that has kept man's heart aflame with joy through all the long years.

It was a great day in the annals of human achievement when the first human was transmitted over the first telephone. It was spoken by Alexander Graham Bell and called his assistant to him from another part of the building. Since that first call untold millions of sentences have been heard over the telephone. Men have travelled vast distances in answer to its calls. The wheels of great industries have turned at its commands. Everything that man can say to man has been carried over its wires, and the thoughts and actions of nations have been influenced through its use, but the immortal sentence of our text, which was broadcasted by the angel from heaven on the first Christmas night, has influenced and changed the destiny of untold millions of souls.

Oh, the record is old, and the world is old, and some of us are old, but the charm of the Christmas story never grows old. There are the shepherds tending their flocks, unconscious of what is to come to pass, when suddenly the angel of the Lord, in glistening glory, bursts upon them with the most marvelous message ever given to human ears: "Unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour which is Christ the Lord." Then, out from the clouds of heaven, came the angelic hosts praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

In the realm of human effort science writes achievements; romance records marvels; and history registers facts. But never was there written a marvel more wonderful than the facts recorded in the bible regarding the glorious love of God in giving his only begotten son for the salvation of a lost and ruined world of sinners. The Christian church throughout the world as set apart a day to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, a great event which gave a Savior to a fallen race.

And On, dear friends, it is to this wonderful Saviour, this wonderful redeemer, this wonderful friend, that I point you here and now. Oh! make him yours this Christmas time! Open the doors of your heart and soul and crown him King forever. Then, when he comes in his glory with his angel legions and the hosts of his blood-bought Saints, we will stand enraptured and raptured until heaven's archangel leaves his palm of light and gives the signal. And our joy will know no bounds as the earth and heavens ring with song— "Let every kindred, tongue and tongue On this terrestrial ball, Bring forth the royal diadem And crown him Lord of all." Rev. George Smith, Minister.

TWO KILLED, ONE FATALLY HURT; TRAIN HITS AUTO

Fred Gauthier and Harold Woods were instantly killed and Alfred Wolter was fatally injured at three o'clock Friday afternoon when the northbound Detroit and Mackinac passenger train hit their automobile at Siegel's crossing in this city. Wolter was taken to the Samaritan hospital at Bay City where he died early Wednesday morning.

Wolter, who was driving and his two companions, Fred Gauthier and Harold Woods who were in the rear seat of the car, were returning to their homes in Tawas township. While approaching the fatal grade crossing they saw the approaching passenger train. Their car was travelling slowly, but when Wolter attempted to stop, the brakes failed to work and he tried to turn the car into the ditch. The rear end of the car swerved onto the track and the pilot of the locomotive crashed into it. Gauthier and Woods were instantly killed. Wolter, in an unconscious condition was brought to the Tawas City station. Wolter soon regained consciousness and it was found that he had suffered fractures of the leg and arm, serious injuries to the head and possible internal injuries. Dr. John W. Weed was called and the injured man was taken to his office at East Tawas for examination and treatment preparatory to going to the hospital.

Fred Gauthier, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonidas Gauthier of Tawas township, was born December 16, 1906. He was 20 years of age. He is survived by his father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth AuBuchon and Mrs. Archie McCordell of Detroit and Adolor and Jule of Tawas township. The funeral services were held Monday from St. Joseph's church at East Tawas and interment was made in the St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. Fr. Brogier officiating.

Harold Woods is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hollenbeck of Turner. The remains were taken Sunday to Turner and from there to St. Clair for burial.

Alfred Wolter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wolter of Tawas township, was born in Arenac County, September 6, 1905. The family came to Tawas township about three years ago. He is survived by his parents, one brother, Maynard, and a sister, Tena. The remains were brought Wednesday afternoon from Bay City. Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon (Friday) from the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. George Smith will officiate.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved families.

Families Live Together
 In Damascus it is the custom for families to live together. In fact, the sons when marrying bring their brides to the house of their father as a matter of course.
