MUST BRING OWNERSHIP PAPERS

Applicants for auto licenses must have certificate of title when making application before a license can be given, states F. F. Taylor, register of deeds, and newly appointed branch manager for the sale of auto licenses, and all applicants for licenses for commercial cars must also have scale weight receipts. It will require over one ton of plates to supply Isosco County. The plates arrived Tuesday.

"The license plates for auto's for the year 1927 will be on sale beginning Monday, January 3, 1927 at the Register of deed's office in the court house, Tawas City," said Mr. Taylor.

"The license plates for autos for all come at once on the first day or the few succeeding days. Will take care of all as fast as possible but in order to not delay you, get your application blank at any garage or my office and have same filled out completely as per instructions and bring same with certificate of title and you can get your plates. Be sure and bring your title. All commercial cars must have scale weight receipt in addition to application blank and title."

MRS. JOHN PRESTON

Mrs. John Preston of this city, who had been very ill for the past seven weeks, passed away at her home at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Preston have been residents of Tawas township and Tawas City for the past 53 years.

Emily M. Merrill was born at Manchester, England, August 20, 1850 and came to Michigan in March, 1873. She was united in marriage to John Preston in this city May 17, 1873. Two children were born, Harry Preston now of Flushing and a daughter, Lucy, who died at the age of 4 years. She is survived by her husband, John Preston, son Harry Preston and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Winnifred Proper of Flint, and four grandchildren.

The funeral was held Thursday from the Christ Episcopal church at East Tawas at 2:00 Rev. Edinger officiating. Burial in the Tawas City cemetery. The O. E. S. attended the funeral in a body as Mrs. Preston was a member of that order.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Preston and children Jack, Ruth and Elmer of Flushing and Mr. and Mrs. James Preston of Flint.

The many friends of Mrs. Preston extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Preston.

ABBEY-BRADDOCK

PICTURE A GREAT WARNING TO MEN

Norma Shearer's new picture, "The Waning Sex," will be at the State Theatre Sunday and Monday Jan. 2-3 with Conrad Nagel, and is a great warning to men.

"The Waning Sex," directed by Robert Z. Leonard of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, shows just how clever these merry young widows are in laying snares for the unwary male.

When Mary Booth, played by Mary McAlister, spills a bowl of soup into Conrad Nagel's lap, everything looks innocent enough. But when she asks him to slip on a bathrobe while she dries and presses his trousers, the plot thickens. A bachelor without his trousers in a widow's cottage? rather compromising, what? Supposing someone should call. Someone does call, but the convicting trousers suddenly disappear, making an hilarious angle to the story.

The supporting cast of the picture includes George K. Arthur, Charles McHugh and others.

Fifteen have signed for stock in the new bank, principally Isosco County men. The following is a list of the stockholders: C. W. McPhail of Grand Rapids, C. H. Macomber and L. A. Chichester of Midland, Jos. Danin, Edgar Louks and C. H. Ridgley of Whittemore, Edw. Trudell N. C. Harting, Chas. Moeller, Ernest Moeller, Burley Wilson, Chas. L. McLean and Wilbur C. Roach of Tawas City and W. T. Hill and Loren Klenow of East Tawas.

The Isosco County State Bank has been organized with a capital stock of $25,000.00, divided into shares of $100.00 each. This stock was purchased at $110.00 per share, making a surplus of $10.00 per share.

JAS. MARK ARRANGES MUSIC FOR CONSERVATION SONG

Jas. F. Mark of this city arranged the music for Michigan's conservation song, "The Home of the White-tailed Deer," which has recently been published by Herman Lunden of the department of conservation. This song which has been enthusiastically received at the various sportsmen's and conservation meets was contributed to the cause wholly by Isosco citizens. The words were written by Jas. McGillivray and first presented by Rev. Charles E. Edinger, baritone, of East Tawas.

The song makes its appeal for conservation of the state's natural resources through love for wild life and the great out-of-doors.

A NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE The Land Beyond

I believe it was the great Benjamin Disraeli who said: "Man is not the creature of circumstance; circumstances are the creatures of man." Into the lives of most men comes an urge—an impulse to journey out and see what lies beyond the local horizon, to prospect other never lands and to create a new world of circumstances. The story of a man's success is a record of such impulse acted upon—a fortune founded in "The Land Beyond."

Shortly, a New Year will have taken its stand in the vast line of the centuries. But what does it hold for you? Better things in many ways probably, for the outlook is that there still will be prosperity among the people. As for other things that go to make up happiness, a good thought with which to start the New Year is that life is what we make it, and real happiness lies fundamentally in the things that are Eternal. Time is giving us a new deal. Profit by the mistakes of the past year and begin the New afresh.

The start of a New Year is always fascinating, because it opens the door of the unknown. The curtain rises on a new act of the eternal drama, life. The plot is not cut and dried in advance. You, are one of the actors, help to shape it. Many who starred in previous acts will retire to the back of the stage—or be carried out through the wings, stilled forever. The leading roles are always changing. Who will come into the limelight in the months ahead no one knows, for the future is veiled.

More than any of the past the coming one holds promise for great spectacular events in man's penetration of the unknown land beyond. A most powerful under current became evident in humanity during the past twelve months is a spiritual awakening and a renewed interest in the hereafter, and in our purpose here on earth.

Shall we, in the coming year, talk with Mars or Venus by radio or mental waves? Shall we discover new powers that have been lying dormant in us? All of us have been vaguely conscious that such latent powers exist. Occasionally they are manifested by mysterious happenings that no one can satisfactorily explain. The world war, that titanic struggle was the forerunner of something new and tremendous. Great forces shook civilization to its foundation. Leading up to what? We may know before the end of another twelve months. It is for us to go forward across the threshold of the unknown into the Land Beyond. And, I am sure that finally in our great dilemma, we shall be bound to turn, as the great Apostle Paul was, to the only source left, and that is God, not only for knowledge, but also for power—not only for ethics, but also for dynamics. And we, like him, Paul, shall be later able to say that in spite of persecution and suffering, we are "More than conqueror through Him that loved us."

Here, then, is a secret for a New

BOYDS WILL APPEAR HERE JAN. 5

The Boyds and Katherine Gutshell will appear on the local lyceum platform at the State Theatre, Wednesday evening, January 5. This sterling company has appeared before popular and critical audiences for a number of years.

Blanche Ferman Boyd is a soprano. E. Henri Boyd, a baritone. Mr. Boyd is one of the cleverest of readers, and the two present costume sketches which at once interest and captivate. Both are pianists.

Katherine Gutshell is a concert pianiste of high rank and reputation. She has attained enviable prominence in New York City, New England, and of late years in the Middle West, both as a recital artist and maker of Q. R. S. and Duo Art piano rolls. She is an artist of skill and experience and has an unusual appreciation of the tonal beauty of music, rendering classic as well as the best modern compositions with fidelity, sympathy and feeling so necessary to true expression.

CHAIN BANK HEAD FIGHTS BANKRUPTCY

Lloyd G. McKay, of Isosco County, has filed an answer in the local district court contesting the bankruptcy petition filed by Edward, Trudell and others against the Ealy-McKay banks at Tawas City, East Tawas and Hale, and against J. McNair Ealy, Lloyd McKay and others.

The defendant denies insolvency at any time on his part or on the part of the banks at Tawas City, East Tawas and Hale. He further denies that Lloyd McKay has waived the right to administer the partnership business of McKay and Ealy.

Together with the proceedings, an application was filed seeking a trial by jury of the case.—Detroit Free Press.

Mrs. Martha Murray, Luke Murray and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Murray and son Gregory have returned to Flint after spending the Christmas holidays in the city.

Year of victory over evil within and without, realizing the power of the Living Christ.

In a closing word then, dear friends, let us throw away the old calendar and hang up the new. Let us help to make the coming year the best of all in history. And, as we go forward into the path of the unknown land beyond let us, in the words of that inspiring hymn:—

"Keep step with the Master, nor halt by the way,
Whatever he commands, oh haste to obey.
Arise at His bidding, press on in His might;
While walking with Jesus, you're sure to be right."

The opening game of the 1926-27 basketball season, for the local independent teams, took place at the Community building, East Tawas, Monday evening. The boys lost to the Saginaw Triangles, former state champions, by a score of 47-16, while the Tawas City Independent girls took the lion's share of a 20-10 score in the struggle with the fast Oscoda six.

During the first quarter of the game while the local boys were getting acquainted with the downstaters, numerous tries for goals were made without success and with the sound of the quarter gun found that the Triangles managed to loop five free throws and three field goals for a total of 11 points. But before the finish of the second quarter the locals decided to shoot the loop regardless of the incessant misses, and Kennedy and Siglin managed to cage three goals from the field for 6 points, this, however failed to "slump" the tally of the downstaters, and both teams scored regularly throughout the remaining two quarters of the game.

The fact that the Triangles were former state champions is not altogether accountable for their win, but just plain hard luck shots for the locals and this was noticed the period between the first two guns when Noel and Evril tried repeatedly for field goals without success. Many comments were made regarding the good work of the boys against such great odds. Watch the local five, they are soon to meet high class teams from Alpena, Gaylord, Grayling, West Branch and Bay City.

The Independent girls team excited the fans with plenty of excitement throughout the game. Each team taking the lead and in turn losing it until the third gun, when the local guards held the opponents basketesters to one field goal while the local forwards looped six field goals for a total of 9 points, making the game finish as a victory for Tawas City, score 20-10. The local team had many comments on their fast plays and good team work. The girls team was made up of former High School stars, who were at one time challengers for the title of state champions with a Saginaw team. This is their first game when all the team were present for some time.

The boys game was refereed by Rev. Fr. Brogger. Quarters—10 minutes. The Oscoda-Tawas City game was refereed by Mrs. Charles E. Edinger. Quarters—8 minutes.

What is the most important question about your house?
Appearance?
Location?
Arrangement?
Decoration?
or
COMFORT!

HOME BUILDERS Look Ahead!

These are the important questions about any house. Get the answers before you build or buy

- [1] Will this house be winter-warm?
No house built with only ordinary materials can keep out winter's cold. Ordinary building materials do not effectively stop heat. Celotex Insulating Lumber practically stops heat. (See the chart.) It makes homes winter-warm.
- [2] Will this house be summer-cool?
Just as furnace heat leaks out in winter, so does the sun's heat leak through in summer. Celotex, built into your home shuts out this heat. It makes a refreshing difference in temperature.
- [3] Will it be quiet and restful?
If you have ever lived where every closing door and upstairs footstep could be heard all over the house, you will know what a blessing Celotex can be in deadening sound alone.
- [4] Will it protect health?
Celotex prevents cold floors, damp rooms, sudden temperature changes. Think of the protection this means to precious health!
- [5] Will it be economical to heat?
Celotex Insulating Lumber cuts your fuel bills approximately one-third, year after year.
- [6] Will it be inexpensive to keep up?
Cracked plaster, plaster showing lath marks, etc., mean big redecorating bills. These troubles are eliminated when lath is replaced with Celotex.
- [7] Will it be durable?
To be durable a house must be strong. Tests prove that Celotex, as sheathing, is several times stronger in wall sections than wood lumber.
- [8] Will it be easy to sell?
Building authorities agree that heat-leaking houses are fast going out-of-date. Five years from now nobody will want to live in such a house. Nobody will think of building such a house. Nobody will want to buy one. Insure the resale value of your home, with Celotex.

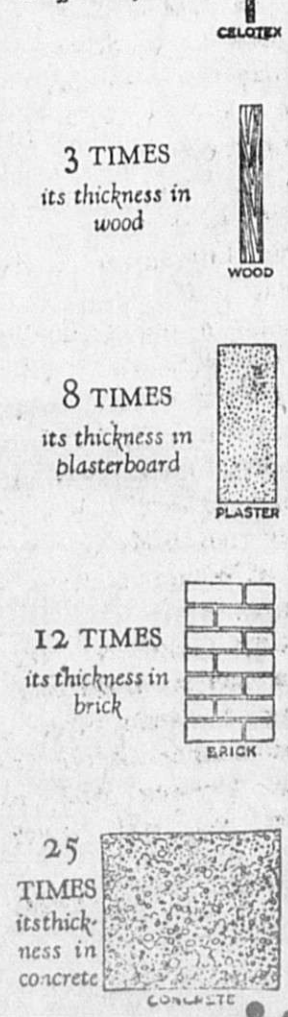

Look Ahead!
Heat-leaking homes are going out-of-date, say leading building authorities. Nobody wants to live in them. Nobody should think of building them.

HOW CELOTEX IS USED

Celotex is used in outside walls as sheathing replacing wood lumber and eliminating the use of building paper. On inside walls, plaster is applied directly to its surface. This eliminates the use of lath. Celotex is manufactured from tough cane fibre. It is 4" wide; 8 to 12' long; 7/16" thick; weighs 60 pounds per 100 square feet. It is sawed and handled like ordinary lumber.

HEAT-STOPPING VALUE OF CELOTEX COMPARED WITH OTHER MATERIALS

Happy New Year.

Here is what we have in coal. Kentuck block and L. A. egg coal. Make the hottest fire and last as long as any coal on the market.

The doctor opened the door of his operating room and asked who had been waiting the longest. "I have," promptly spoke up Mr. Roach, "I am the garage man who fixed your car about four months ago."

We carry the following feeds Ground oats, ground rye, corn and oat chop, middlings, scratch feed and mash. Oil meal, cotton seed meal, meat scraps and oyster shells.

When you are short of milk call on John Klenow—he's never short because he feeds Wonder Dairy feed, sold by the Wilson Grain Co.

Junior partner to pretty stenographer, "Are you doing anything on Sunday evening?"

Steno hopefully, "No, not a thing."

"Then try to be at the office earlier Monday morning."

Ed Smith of Alabaster was in town yesterday. He purchased a quantity of corn for his hogs. He has a fine bunch of hogs. Corn fed pork is the best.

Have We Reached The Danger Line in Taxation?

AMERICAN railroad taxes are mounting to new Alpine heights this year, the latest estimate for 1926, being that they will aggregate somewhere between $400,000,000 and $420,000,000, which may be expressed in various ways, although meaning the same heavy load:

- That they will average from $1,005,800 to $1,150,675 a day.
- That they will involve a charge per hour between $45,659 and $47,945.
- That from six cents to six cents and four and a half mills out of every dollar taken in will go towards taxes.
- That the railroads in 1926 will have to devote more than the net earnings of one mile out of every four for the payment of taxes.

The national government has cut down the national debt from January 1, 1920, to January 1, 1926, by about $2,500,000,000—four and a quarter billions.

In the same interval, the debts of state and local governments have increased by about 6 1/2 billions—$6,750,000,000.

During this period of federal debt reduction, the state and local governments have been incurring obligations 20 times as fast as they paid off the old debt. During this same period, debts of state and local governments combined have been incurred 4 1/2 times as fast as they were before the war.

The total public debt of all forms of government in this country is higher than at the peak of the war debt in 1919.

The national debt is being reduced at the rate of three quarters of a billion dollars a year—$750,000,000.

State and local debt is being increased at the rate of more than a billion and a quarter dollars a year—$1,250,000,000.

From January 1st, 1920, to January 1st, 1926, national government expenditures were reduced about two billion dollars—$2,000,000,000.

During the same period current expenditures by state and local governments increased more than two billion dollars a year—$2,000,000,000—and they are still increasing.

Rising taxes are one of the initial moving forces of the vicious circle of rising costs, Labor asks for higher wages, Producers and distributors pass along the accumulating burden to swell the family budget of the ultimate consumer. This, too, involves higher rents (or home ownership cost), higher food, fuel and clothing costs, etc.

After all, railroads are like any other industry. The farmer does not look forward to his tax bill with more anxiety than does the railroad.

Have we not reached the danger line?
Is it not time to retrench state, county and local expenditures?

Support for Grapevines
The bureau of plant industry says that copper wire may be used to support grapevines. While the copper wire is more expensive at first, some believe that it is cheaper in the long run, as it endures longer than galvanized iron, which is used more universally. The galvanized iron wire needs to be removed in about three years. No. 10 wire is the size which is used for vineyard trellis.

CURWOOD'S LOG CABIN COMPLETED
The finest log cabin in America, located on the South Branch of the AuSable river has recently been completed. It is the property of James Oliver Curwood, famous novelist. The Roscommon news says:
In building this log manor in the style of the seigneurial seats of power where lived the French over-lords of the New France that once stretched from the Gulf of Mexico to Hudson's Bay, and from the Appalachian to the Rocky Mountains, James Oliver Curwood has provided himself with the "atmosphere" in which he will write his next several novels. These will deal in the romance attending reign of France in the new world, from 1750 to shortly before the American Revolution.

The manor, though built throughout of native logs, is too pretentious to be called a "log cabin." The old cabin located nearby, in which Mr. Curwood did much of his work while writing of the lives and adventures of the Canadian Northwest Mounted, was well suited to that type of story. Now however, with his skill turned to historical romances laid in a period where, with all the discomforts of life in a new world, the niceties and courtesies of the social life of the Old World at the height of ancient French power was maintained, he has carried out in detail the physical likeness of one of the centers of life in New France of the period to be covered in the new historical romances, of which "The Black Hunter" is an example.
The manor, situated on the highest point of a plateau overlooking the valley of the AuSable, is constructed of great logs of Norway pine. The whole surrounding countryside was scoured to find the timbers for the cabin, for in Michigan's cut over lands the great trees that once crowded each other for space have been cut years since, and such logs as were needed for the manor were hard to find.

Parcel Post
Parcels have been carried by the Post Office department since its establishment. Prior to 1912 the limit of weight was four pounds. The parcel post law was enacted August 24, 1912, and this act provided for the extension of limits of weights of parcels and provided zone rates. It also contained provisions for the establishment of C. O. D. and insured services.

Wooser From Afar
Some years ago when the last pair of white-tailed eagles were nesting in Scotland, one of the birds died. There was not another eagle of that species in the country, yet within a few days the remaining bird had signalled her loss to a continental bird and it came over and they mated.

Introducing
The cab drew up in front of the imposing marble mansion, and he jauntily alighted. Upon his swarthy, bronzed countenance there glowed the sparkle of health, and there was the vigor of youth in his stride. Leisurely climbing the steps, he rang the bell. The door was flung open a few seconds later. "Taxi for Blotzwitter," he said.

Believe It or Not
A strange custom is practiced among the people of Monomotopa. When the sultan sneezes the fact is published from the palace by a signal and instantly every subject within radius of the sound raises a shout, which is imitated and passed on.

Amazon Is Widest
The Amazon river is the widest in the world. It is between one and two miles wide where it enters Brazil and gradually increases in breadth to fifty miles at its main mouth. Where it enters the sea the distance across the water from headland to headland is fully one hundred and fifty miles.

Prosperity and Success

"For then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." Joshua 1:8

How? Read the whole of verse eight.

"The ungodly---are like the chaff which the wind driveth away." Psalm 1:4

We Present Norma Shearer IN

"The Waning Sex"

A snappy picture of a girl who thought a career better than Romance.

You never saw a picture so full of rich human comedy. You never saw Norma Shearer more charming, more brilliantly showing her amazing talents, than as the beauty who fought with modern weapons to hold her man. Norma Shearer's brilliant successor to "His Secretary."

Also Fox News and Comedy

1-Day Only-1 Tuesday, Jan. 4 (Merchant's Night)

We Present Huntley Gordon, Mae Busch IN "The Truthful Sex"

Crossed Wires—and then the fun began! The wife seeking a new thrill found shame and sorrow. A misunderstanding husband sees his folly—almost too late. A grand slam at modern marriage in this jazz mad age.

SPECIAL! Starting this date, that famous adventure serial, "THE HOUSE WITHOUT A KEY."

Wednesday, Jan. 5 "The Truthful Sex" will be shown in connection with the LYCEUM NUMBER The Boyds and Katherine Gutchel Concert Artists and Entertainers

Thurs. and Fri., Jan. 6-7 We Present Priscilla Dean in "West of Broadway" A novel picture of golf and guns is the big story of life in the open spaces where men are real he-men and golf instructors are women. You'll get a kick out of this one. Plenty laughs. Plenty thrills. Also Comedy
