BI-COUNTY FIELD AND TRACK MEET AT FAIR GROUNDS TODAY

The annual bi-county field and track meet is being held at the Tawas Fair Grounds Friday (today). Representatives in the events are entered by Harrisville, Oscoda, East Tawas, St. Joseph and Tawas City.

The morning events include the field and track events for both boys and girls, beginning at 9 o'clock, and for the boys at 10 o'clock.

The important event of the meet is the championship baseball game, in the afternoon, between Tawas City and St. Joseph at the Tawas Beach diamond. Tawas City received the lion's share, last Tuesday, of a 9 to 5 score, in their struggle with East Tawas. This was the best baseball game played by any teams this season, and by taking that game the Tawas High boys are privileged to play off the final game, for the pennant, with St. Joe. These teams are evenly matched. A good game is expected.

Here Comes the Bride

FORECASTING THE 1927 CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

The Isoco County Chautauqua will be held July 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 at Tawas City. The following is a forecast of the program:

First night—Washington's Southland singers will present a program in two parts, the first part being devoted to semi-classical and popular, modern songs with instrumental accompaniments; the second part will be a southern plantation scene in front of negro quarters in which the old darkey tunes and plantation melodies will be featured with banjo and accompaniment on other stringed instruments which help bring out the unusual harmonies peculiar to the race. The company is under the personal direction of Howard C. Washington, one of the foremost musicians and composers of his race. This is the company which has been made so popular by its phonograph recording and its radio broadcasting.

Second day, afternoon—We are privileged to present by special permission of the author, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, classical drama "The House of Rinnin" the scenes of which are laid in Old Damascus. Rich and colorful costumes and robes of the period are faithfully reproduced. This masterpiece portrays the conflict of Paganism and the religion of the Old Testament, of peace and war, of love and hate, of loyalty and treachery, and the ultimate victory of faith. All are features of the play.

Night—In contrast to the biblical drama of the afternoon, there will be presented a modern mystery comedy, "Wandering Spooks," a play that is filled with thrills and chills and laughter; in which suspense and doubt are constant, and yet which in its unfolding reaches a happy ending. This three act play insures two hours of thorough enjoyment. Both of the plays on this day are produced by the System's Dramatic Director, Arthur MacMurray, who will, himself, take important roles in each.

Third day—In the afternoon and in the evening musical programs will be presented by the Humphreys Symphonic Ensemble, featuring the best in musical literature. Selections from the Old Masters will be interspersed with the better music of modern composers. Featured in this organization are two young musicians of great promise, Mitchell Humphreys, violinist and Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, and his brother, Sigurd Humphreys, flutist and composer. It is particularly appropriate that on this day two such young musicians should be featured, because this, the third day, is to be known as "Youth Day."

LARGE NUMBER WITNESS MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

A very large number witnessed the Memorial Day exercises given Monday under the auspices of Jesse C. Hodder Post, American Legion, at the Tawas city cemetery.

The day opened with the reveille at eight o'clock. The flag at the court house was raised at that time. "Colors" was sounded by Post Bugler, R. M. Bogue. A color guard was in attendance under command of Sgt. H. Rutterbusch.

At nine o'clock the gun, quad, colors and color guard marched to the cemetery and the following program at the Memorial mound followed:

Roll call.

Song, "America."

Invocation, Rev. Sommerfield.

Post Commanders Address, Ernest Burtzloff.

Recitation, Dorothy Bigelow.

"Flanders Field," Delta Leslie.

"America's Answer," Elsie Mueller.

Address, Rev. J. Roberts.

Decoration of the mound.

Benediction, Rev. G. T. Jones.

Taps.

Decoration of graves.

A meeting of Jesse C. Hodder Post will be held next Monday evening. All members should be present.

LEST WE FORGET

Out of 104 or more Sunday meetings of the year, the L. D. S. church remembered the Memorial Day service of May 29th. Elder A. Morgan of Twining was the speaker, and used for his text, "Lest We Forget." He made several points too valuable to be left to memory.

"We would under no circumstances buy an automobile without a demonstration. A Christian organization, a school, a lodge, only prosper to the extent of how convincing demonstration it presents for its claim of superiority over others of its kind. Individuals are making a daily demonstration whereby they are judged by their fellowmen. We should practice hourly lest we forget."

"Lest we forget the living soldiers are as much heroes as their unfortunate comrades. They made their demonstration, for they were there."

The greatest monument we could erect for our soldier boys would not be one of marble or of granite. It would be ourselves, filled with gratitude showing appreciation, and ever ready with a helping hand. Lest we forget that real coin is a necessary element in preparing a Decoration Day service, a collection was taken up and turned over to the Legion treasurer.

MAY FETE

The children of the Ward school, under the supervision of Mrs. Anschutz, presented a festival which would have done credit to a privately trained group.

The circle which represented the pink rose could not bloom with only "Rain" interpreted by Dorothy McDonald, until Sunshine, gracefully depicted by Effie Prescott, scattered her beams on the rose.

Merton Leslie and Norman Musolf out looking for fairies, fall asleep in the woods. They are awakened by the Queen, Patricia Braddock, who touches their eyes with a flower and thus they see Earth, Rain and Sunshine fairies of her kingdom.

The little Briar Rose is seated in the center of the circle, she cannot be released until Prince Charming, Wilbur Roach, with a gleaming sword dashing cuts the thorns which hold her.

The closing number, all the children with pink and white streamers successfully wound and unwound the May Pole.

COUNTY EIGHTH GRADE COMMENCEMENT

The county eighth grade commencement will be held in the Community Building at East Tawas next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, central standard time. The address will be given by C. A. Rinehart from the State Department of Public Instruction. Mr. Rinehart is well known in the county and we hope a large number will be present to hear him at this time.

The county spelling contest will also be held at this time. The three pupils, who won out in each township are asked to be present to represent their township at the contest.

CHURCH SUPPER SUCCESS

Again we have to thank the ladies and their many friends of our church for their work and generosity manifested in their efforts which certainly helped to put our supper in such a splendid way, on Memorial Day in the Methodist Episcopal church.

New York to Paris With Mobiloil

In this epoch-making flight, Captain Lindbergh insisted that Gargoyle Mobiloil "B" be used to lubricate the Wright Whirlwind engine of the "Spirit of St. Louis."

Thus another chapter is written in the vivid history of American aviation in which Mobiloil has played its part.

When Commander Byrd flew to the North Pole—he used Mobiloil "B." When Bennet took Byrd's plane on the tour of the states in 1926—he used Mobiloil "B." When Lieut. Maughan in 1925 flew across the United States "from dawn to dusk"—he used Mobiloil "B."

For a continuous efficient performance of your car use Mobiloil products. We sell them.

Vibration Eliminated from Star Four
Many forms of snubbers and shock absorbers have been invented and used to eliminate road shocks before they reach the automobile body and disturb the occupants; but it has been left to the engineers of Durant Motors, Inc., builders of the Star Four to adapt this principle to eliminate motor vibration.
The Star Four is the first in the low priced field to adopt rubber suspension. Blocks of resilient rubber absorb every vestige of motor vibration.
This new achievement of the Star Four provides velvet smooth performance at high gear speeds from 15 to 50 miles per hour.
The illustration is a front view of the Star motor with two of the four points of rubber suspension shown. The block of live rubber "A," which entirely surrounds the motor extension "B," is supported at its outer ends in brackets riveted to the frame.
Thus all metal to metal contact between the motor and the frame is eliminated and vibration is prevented from passing to the body of the car and passengers—giving a smoothness beyond comparison.
This marvel of smooth silent performance is now on display at our show rooms at Whittemore and Tawas City. We invite your inspection.

PLEASING VOICE OVER TELEPHONE IS REAL ASSET

Many Factors Involved in Good Personality as Reflected by Tone and Accent

Your voice is your telephone personality. A pleasing and interesting voice that sounds perfectly natural on all occasions is a valuable asset. People who possess telephone personality have learned to control their voices so that, even if they are angry or excited or mentally distressed, they do not allow these emotions to be put on the wire and passed along to some one else who is not responsible for them.

The voice over the telephone, if it is the right kind of voice, can do a multitude of things. It can acquire friends for its owner; it can sell goods, make convincing arguments, assist in the education of children, pass along information, conduct business and even preach salvation. But if it hasn't been properly cultivated it can do none of these things.

One of the worst types of telephone voices is the one that employs the "I don't care" tone. Then there is the cold, formal tone in answer to a simple request, the nasty, sneering tone, the flippant, nobody-home tone and the colorless lack of interest tone which is like shaking hands with a person who merely extends his fingers in your direction.

Lack of concentration is one of the chief faults in talking over the telephone. If a person is indifferent, or lazy, or if he is trying to do something else at the same time that he is carrying on his telephone conversation, even if he succeeds in doing it, his voice betrays to the party at the other end of the line that he is not paying entire attention to the conversation. This is apt to cause resentment and is especially unfortunate in business houses where a person who calls up and places an order by telephone should receive the same considerate attention that he and she would receive if calling in person at the place of business.

FACTS about used car allowances

Most new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? ... Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? ... Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

- 1 Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; but sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 Judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car.

WHEN YOU are ready to trade in your present car, remember that after all you are making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of a new car.

"THE PRICE OF HONOR"

"The Price of Honor" is the name of the new screen feature which comes to the State Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a film version by Dorothy Howell and was produced by Columbia Pictures Corporation. In its featured roles are such well known players as Dorothy Revier, Malcolm McGregor, Wm. V. Mong, Erville Alderson and Dan Mason. Advance reports describe it as a gripping drama dealing with the unfairness of convicting a man on circumstantial evidence.

FORECASTING THE 1927 CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

In the evening following the musical program, a film story in two reels, "Danny Asks Why," will be presented. This is one of the famous Judge Willis Brown stories, dealing with youth and will create an atmosphere for the personal appearance of Judge Brown in his lecture, "The Challenge of Youth." This famous jurist is nationally known for his work with youth and has one of the sanest, most practical and at the same time simplest programs for youth.

Fourth day—In the afternoon a vocal musical program will precede the dramatic interpretation of "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" by Olive Kackley. This famous drama which was the favorite starring vehicle of Sir Forbes Robertson, will be artistically and entertainingly interpreted by Miss Kackley, who has endeared herself to Community Chautauqua audiences.

Night—A three act comedy drama, "Let's go Somewhere" will be presented by the Kackley players with Miss Olive Kackley and Leo S. Rosenkrans in the leading roles. This play which is built around the idea of the unrest of the younger generation, has beneath the surface of genuine comedy and entertainment, much to think about.

Fifth day—In the afternoon and the evening, Vernon Stone and Electra Platt, known from coast to coast as "Royal Entertainers to his Majesty the American Citizen," will provide programs of rollicking fun. Both of these artists are musicians of ability and comedians extraordinary. Mr. Stone is a cousin of Fred Stone, the comedian, famous for his clean, wholesome musical comedies on the legitimate theatre stage. Electra Platt, who in private life is Mrs. Stone, is his equal as a comedian and is the author of several volumes of delectable humor. This company was purposely placed on the last day so that all sides sore from laughter might then have a rest to recuperate.

Night—"My Six Years in the Jungles of Malaya" will be the subject of a very unique lecture by Carveth Wells Mr. Wells is a native of Great Britain. He was sent into out of the way places of the earth by the British government to survey highways and railroads. His unique experiences, his delightful sense of humor and pleasing personality and fit him to entertain and at the same time inform the most exacting audience. Mr. Wells is a fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of London, a member of the Institution of Civil Engineers, of the Evolutionary Club of the Circumnavigators Club and the Adventurers Club. He has the ability to instruct painlessly and the uncanny faculty of making the truth sound dust covered and while he tells of startling animal and plant creations of Malaya which has been called the toasty turvy land of the world, he challenges his hearers to check his statements in reference books to prove that there are fish that climb trees, worms that sing, deer that wear their horns in the pan and other fantastic creations. The Chautauqua will close with another inimitable program by Vernon Stone and Electra Platt.

"CACTUS TRAILS"

Fans who like fast western drama will have their last chance tomorrow to see Bob Custer in "Cactus Trails." The story maintains the high level of all of Custer's recent productions with an unusual theme in its handling of the coming of the oil wells into the cattle country, the peace officer, and has an excellent leading lady in Marjorie Zier, with a capable supporting cast. Director Pere Pembroke has handled both the story, action and the characterizations skillfully and deserves much of the credit for the production.
