A Brilliant New Line of Cars

America discovered the value of this brilliant new car with a swiftness only rivaled by the car itself. Everything about it appeals to the mood of the hour.

Its amazing pick-up-from 0 to 25 miles thru gears in less than 7 seconds! Its effortless mastery of distance at a mile a minute! Its trim, streamline beauty -finished in the smartest colors.

The way it grips the road at sharp turns—cushions passengers over rough roads-travels in "high" up steep grades!

Its economy at the curb-171/2 feet of parking space suffice! Its economy on the road-25 miles per gal-Ion at 25 miles per hour!

Who didn't have a "DREAM," vision toward which to work and

And not to drift with the stream.

But it isn't enough to dress, and sit Just planning-there's work to do, And you've got to pitch in and tackle it To make that dream come true.

Or while you are dreaming, the other

Is going to sail in and win, And write his name all over the map That you had the chance to begin.

It's easier-sure!-to sit around And simply dream away The days and years-but I've never

Any joy in the easiest way

So roll up your sleeves with a smile and say: "Here's right where I start in To make my own dream true TODAY, menced on or before August 15, 1927 And I'll be the one to win!"

So DREAM-by all means-but then go out -And hustle the whole day through,

And then there won't be the slightest About making your dreams come

So here's to the man who buckles in

With vigor-and so succeeds In being happy and able to grin-As he turns his "dream" to DEEDS! (Copyright.)

WHEN I WAS TWENTY-ONE BY JOSEPH KAYE

At 21-Sir John Martin Harvey Had a Hard Time With Sir Henry

"A T TWENTY-ONE I was with Sir Henry Irving, with whom I remained for fourteen years. He taught me all I know, and looking back upon the path I have traveled I realize how stupid I must have been in my early days. I remember my pride when I was selected for the part of the attendant in 'Much Ado About Nothing,' the first play I appeared in at the Lyceum. I had no words to speak but I determined that I would impress Sir Henry in particular and the public in general, with the attire of that mes-

"Alas for the dreams of youth: No therein. sooner did Sir Henry catch sight of me than he pointed a long, lean forefinger and with that dreadful prelimary, 'Ha-hem!' of his, growled, "Take out that boy!' I fear I must have offended his artistic eye, as I did at another rehearsal when, being slightly out of place, he rapped out. 'Don't stand there-get back-get back. SCHOOL NOTES

Seventh and Eighth Grades The seventh grade is glad to have Donald and Ruby Tinglan join its class. Now the enrollment is twen ty-four-just twice that of the eighth grade. For penmanship, the pupils have secured folders in which to keep their drills.

We are now reading for morning exercises, "Roy Blakely, Lost Strayed, or Stolen."

Fifth and Sixth Grades Dorothy Davison gave our geography class a splendid report on "Wh Chicago is the Second Largest Cit in the United States."

Vance Webb is the only one in th sixth grade who received on "A" of his arithmetic examination.

Those in the fifth grade who re ceived "A's" are: Ray Cox, Nelda Mueller, Thomas Thompson, Ray mond Yanni, Erma and Otilia Ziehl At the close of the first month o school the fifth grade has seven tardy marks and the sixth grad has two.

We are reading "The King of the Golden River.'

Third and Fourth Grades

are determined to win.

The fourth graders are drawing maps for geography. Richard King has made a very good one.
