JOB'S STRUGGLE TO FAITH IN LIFE AFTER DEATH

LESSON TEXT—Job 14:13-17; 17:13-18; 19:23-29.
GOLDEN TEXT—For I know that my redeemer liveth—Job 19:25.

If life ends at the grave, it has comparatively little meaning and its struggles and sorrows are hardly worth bearing. Job, living in all probability about 1,500 years before Christ, did not have our knowledge of the resurrection of Christ and the assurance that He is but the "first fruits of them that slept" and that we too shall rise (see I Cor. 15:22, 23). But in the midst of suffering, discouragement and spiritual conflict, he looked with the eye of faith all the way beyond the grave.

The background of our lesson is found in Job's experience with his three professed comforters, who speak thus:

"Eliphaz: But who ever perish being innocent (4:7)? Be glad that you are being corrected (4:17). Job: Answer my question and I will keep still. Show me where I am wrong. What does your 'proof' prove (6:24, 25)?

"Biddad: Do you think God perverts justice (8:3)? Ask the wise men of the ages. Consider what our fathers taught (8:8). Job: It is all the same; God destroys the righteous with the wicked (9:22).

"Zophar: Do you expect to understand God? Put evil away (11:7, 14). Job: I know as much as you do (13:2). Your burning remarks are cold ashes (13:12). I would like to reason it out with God (13:3). I have stated my case; I am righteous (13:8).

"The three friends have not helped him, but Job struggles on alone with the problem."—Dr. Carl S. Knopf.

I. Uncertainty—"If a man die, shall he live again?" (14:13-17).

Job, while maintaining that he was righteous, felt that his sufferings must indicate that God was displeased with him. He thought he might best seek refuge in Sheol (R. V. in place of "grave" in v. 13), the abode of the dead. But suddenly he turned again to the hope which was dear to his heart; namely, that somehow there must be a blessed future life with God.

He asked the question, "If a man die, shall he live again?" The fact that he quickly lapsed into despair indicates that he was not certain that the answer to his question was "Yes." How blessed it is that we know, for have we not heard the voice of the One who, standing before a grave in Bethany, said, "I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live" (John 11:25)?

II. Hope—"Where, then, is my hope?" (Job 17:13-16).

Eliphaz had again sought to set Job right by accusing him of vanity, impatience and pride (chap. 15). Job answered (chaps. 16 and 17) that his friends were worse than useless as comforters, being so sanctimonious in their assurance of his wickedness, when in fact he was only a man who was on the verge of despair, but still holding to his faith in God.

Job cried out, "Where, then, is my hope?"—undoubtedly thus expressing his bewilderment, bordering on complete despair. Yet do we not even in the question see that he still had hope? The man who has given up says, "There is no hope"; but Job continued to hope against hope, crying out, "Where is my hope?" knowing full well that his only hope was in God.

There is a lesson here that we do well to learn. Whatever our situation may be we shall find that God is there and that we may trust Him.

"Does all the world seem against you And you in the battle alone? Remember, at 'Wit's End Corner' Is where God's power is shown."

III. Faith—"I know that my redeemer liveth" (Job 19:23-29).

What blessed vision and what glorious faith! Job lived in the time of Moses or before. He had no New Testament—no old Testament—but he did have God, and by faith he believed that God was to make Himself known to man here on earth as a living Redeemer.

We say that we know because we have the record of His coming; of the Son of God incarnate; of His bearing our sins on Calvary; of His death and resurrection again; of His ascension to be with the Father, and His coming again in glory and power. Job, however, had to reach through doubt and darkness to faith in life after death. How much richer should be our faith, infinitely more precious, stirring us to loving obedience and service for Christ our Redeemer.

A Blessed Inheritance

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you.—I Peter: 1, 3, 4.

200-Mile Lights
No Double Joints
Ban Animal Flesh

The brightest lights ever created by man are the 800,000,000-candlepower carbon-arc searchlights that are owned by the United States army. Their beams, when directed vertically into the night sky, can be seen for a distance of two hundred miles.

There are no such things as a double joint in a human being, a revolver silencer outside of fiction or a blood test through which it is possible to determine whether an unknown parent of a child is of the white or Negro race.

Many orthodox Brahmins of India are so fearful of pollution by animal flesh that they take a purifying bath even after receiving a letter from a meat-eating country.—Collier's.

SWEET and summery as a basket of flowers, this frock (8729) is perfect for warm afternoons. In printed silk, or flower-patterned cottons like voile or batiste, it will look so cool and fresh and feminine, with its open-topped sleeves, heart-shaped neckline, and frills that put all the emphasis up at the top, an effect always becoming to slim figures. The skirt has the liting grace of circular fullness.

And notice how little detailing is required—just a few gathers at

Sea Bed Reveals History

In 10 feet of sand and mud on the Atlantic ocean bottom scientists can read a million years of history of the Ice age. Samplings have been taken from the sea bed across the North Atlantic with a cannon-like tube that is shot by gunpowder into the floor as it touches bottom. From these samplings the United States Geological Survey scientists have found evidence of advancing and retreating ice, of one-celled animals and of periods of volcanic activity, the latter indicated by layers of ash thrown off perhaps by eruptions in Iceland.—Popular Mechanics.

THIS HAPPENED IN MICHIGAN LESS THAN A YEAR AGO!

OUT WEST they call them "twisters." Here, in Michigan, we call them windstorms—and wherever the wind blows hard, there is damage and plenty of it! Protect yourself, now, against the financial consequences of a windstorm in your section of the state! A policy with the reliable State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Company costs so little ($1.50 a year for $1,000.00 worth of protection) that you can't afford to be without one. Don't wait 'til it's too late! There's a State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Company agent in your community! He's your neighbor!
