If the "blitz" strikes this country the women of Washington will be prepared to do their bit in the way of defense. Several hundred have already been enrolled in Camp No. 1 of the "Green Guards of America," an organization which will take up first aid and ambulance corps duties in time of war—duties for which they have started training. Members of the newly formed "Guards" are shown here in their dark green uniforms and over-seas caps.

PRAISING GOD FOR HIS BLESSINGS

LESSON TEXT—Psalm 103:1-5, 10-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.—Psalm 103:2.

We live in difficult and confusing days with much on every hand to discourage us. We look about us in vain for any encouraging sign. The result is that unless we exercise care the temptation will overtake us who are Christians to fall into the bitter, complaining attitude of the world, forgetting the benefits which God has bestowed upon us, forgetting His mercy and grace, and, in this hour of trial, telling the world by our life, if not by our lips, that we have lost our faith in God.

It is easy to praise God when all goes well, when we see His blessing upon us; but the Christian should recognize that praise is a vital part of his daily fellowship with God, an expression of his appreciation of all that God is and does for him. Psalm 103 has in all generations been a favorite of Christian people when passing through deep waters and fiery trials.

I. Praise for Personal Blessings (vv. 1-5).

Our relationship to God is a personal one, and His blessings are personal. Praise also is a personal soul exercise to which we need often to stir ourselves. We need to call on "all that is within" us to bless and praise the Lord.

"Forget not"—how prone we are to do that very thing. We remember the things we ought to forget and forget the things we ought to remember. We have become so accustomed to the many blessings of God that we accept them as a matter of course.

Note that the chief of all blessings is the forgiveness of sin (v. 3). The spiritual is far more important than the physical, but that too is included. Only God can heal our diseases, whether by means or by direct intervention. He also meets with true satisfaction every right and normal desire of man, whether it be physical, social, mental or spiritual. That calls for praise from the depths of our beings.

II. Praise for Forgiveness of Sin (vv. 10-14).

We may "put on a front" when we deal with our fellow men, but there is no use in thus trying to fool God. He knows us for what we are—"frail children of dust, and feeble as frail." We are not able to meet our own little problems; how can we do anything with the sin question?

The mercy of God, high as the heavens, is revealed nowhere in such overflowing measure as in His dealing with the sins of "them that fear Him" (v. 13). For them He has the pity of a father, but He has more, for He has the authority and power to cast our sins as far from us as the east is from the west, and how far that is no one knows.

Observe that His mercy is only for "them that fear Him." "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble" (James 4:6, I Pet. 5:6, 7). Whosoever will may come and receive of Him abundant pardon. Why not come now?

III. Praise for Everlasting Loving-kindness (vv. 15-18).

Man and everything that man makes or does is transient, and will one day pass away. What a fool that man is who lives only for the things of this world which are destined to wither like the grass! How tragic to come into eternity and to face God empty handed and condemned for one's own selfishness and folly, when He is willing to show unto us that "loving-kindness" which is not only for this life, but also for the life that is to come.

As we praise God for this great and blessed gift, shall we not be moved to go out and seek to win others to Him?

In closing this brief study of the One Hundred Third Psalm may we again suggest that in these bitter days which so sorely try the hearts of men, we lift our souls up to a high spiritual plane by praising God. When Hardley Page was making a flight through the Orient a large rat was attracted by the smell of food and entered into the airplane. Later, when Mr. Page was in mid-air over a mountainous country where he could not land, he suddenly heard the sound of gnawing behind him. He knew that the rat might so damage his plane as to cause disaster. Then he remembered that a rat is not made for high altitudes. So he began to soar. Soon the gnawing ceased and hours later when his machine landed he found the rat lying dead beneath the engine. It is a blessed truth that Satan cannot endure the high altitudes of praise. He quickly departs from the soul whom he finds rejoicing in this high and lofty spiritual atmosphere. "Try praise," for "praise changes things."

dart-fitted so that it melts into your middle just beautifully. These are simple details, very easy to do, but they make all the difference in the fit of your slip, and therefore in the fit of your frocks. There are seven easy steps in your detailed sew chart. Make yourself a whole wardrobe of slips like this, light and dark, of satin, lingerie crepe or taffeta, and some batistes and linens for your coming cottons.

To make fruit waffles add crushed pineapple, candied cherries and chopped candied orange peel to your favorite fritter batter.

Metal teapots sometimes give a "musty" flavor to tea made in them. To prevent this, store a lump of sugar in the pot. When you're ready to use the pot rinse it in boiling water.

Save your kitchen towels this way: Place a roll of paper toweling near the sink. Use the paper to clean greasy pans, to wipe up spilled foods and to wipe out the sink strainer.

The pockets of kitchen aprons are constantly catching on door handles, nails, etc. Try putting the pockets in the center of the apron. The pockets can be reached by either hand and cannot catch on anything and tear.

To cool a pie quickly as soon as it comes from the oven place it on a colander and the air can circulate under it so that it will cool quickly.

Standard food measurements: Two cups of solid fat equal one pound, as do two cups of granulated sugar, 2 3/4 cups of confectioner's sugar, 2 3/4 cups of dark brown sugar, 3 3/4 cups of regular flour or four cups of pastry flour. Three teaspoons equal one tablespoon. Sixteen tablespoons equal one cup. Two cups make a pint.

YOU can't just wear any old slip and expect your small-waisted frocks to have the smooth, suave, round-bosomed line they should have. Here's a design (1892-B) especially planned to do its part toward figure-flattery, and to fit as only a slip you make to your measure can fit. The top has bosom gathers to give you a little extra fullness. The waistline is

Good Counsel

To awaken each morning with a smile brightening my face; to greet the day with reverence for the opportunities it contains; to approach my work with a clean mind; to hold ever before me, even in the doing of little things, the Ultimate Purpose toward which I am working; to meet men and women with laughter on my lips and love in my heart; to be gentle, kind, and courteous; to approach night with weariness that woos sleep and joy that comes from work well done—this way I desire to waste wisely my days.

HIGH PRICES

Do Not Go WITH ADVERTISING

Advertising and high prices do not go together at all. They are extremely incompatible to each other. It is only the product which is unadvertised, which has no established market, that costs more than you can afford to pay.

Whenever you go into a store and buy an item of advertised merchandise, it doesn't make any difference what you are getting more for your money—more in quality and service—than you would get if you spent the same amount for something which was not advertised.

Too Cautious

A lion escaped from a circus and ran wild through the countryside. Immediately a party was formed to hunt for the ferocious beast. Before starting the sheriff took the members of the party into a saloon.

"Have a drink, boys, before we go on the hunt."

All accepted except Herman Schultbunder.

"Come on, take a whisky, Herman," cried the sheriff.

"Not me," answered Herman; "it gives me too much courage."

Increased Interest Taken In Health Unit

The Iosco County Child Health Council is increasing its membership. This is an organization of people who participate in the activities of the Children's Fund nurse, give lay support to the local Health Unit, and promote adult health education in Iosco county.

The Child Health Council was organized when the Couzen's Fund placed their first nurse in the county and the Health Unit was organized. We now feel that this organization has outgrown the small group who have promoted it from its beginning, and are therefore increasing the membership by asking an organized group in each church, in each benevolent organization, Grange, etc., to delegate a member to act on the Child Health Council. The report of the delegate will give his organization an insight into the activities and accomplishments of the local health unit and the council. The council meets the second Tuesday of every month at 2:30 p. m.

The first meeting of the 1940-41 year will be held at the Auditorium of the Tawas City High school on September 10, at 2:30 p. m., at which meeting a report of the last year's activities will be given by Dr. Sue Thompson, and Mr. Mayer, the new sanitary engineer in the health department, will be introduced. A program is to be arranged further, and a short business meeting will be held.

Political Notice
As the date for the opening of the public schools in Northern Michigan approaches, the people of this section should not forget the splendid and heroic work performed by Senator Callahan. In fact, if it had not been for his great fight for the rural and small town schools, many of these schools would not be able to open and operate, and the teachers, school officials and the parents of the pupils in this section should not forget him when they go to the Primary, September 10.

Senator Callahan's work for Northern Michigan's Institutions is so outstanding that he is commended by the people and the press all over the state.

Vote for MILES M. CALLAGHAN for State Senator at the Primary September 10.

Bowling

Tawas City Recreation
Our six new alleys are better than ever after this summer's reconditioning and laquering as you will notice by the several high scores every week.

LAST WEEK'S HIGH SCORES
Geo. Schminke, Detroit 206
Robt. Wurusky, Detroit 241
Ed Scott, Saginaw 253
Meta Luedtke 157
Dr. J. Austin 200
Alma Moeller 181
Mildred Quick 157
Harold Moeller 256
G. T. Bremmer, Saginaw 201

Prizes are being given for high scores for men, women and children every week.

A bowling ball will be given for the first 300 or 299 score bowled on these alleys.

Some 15,000,000 men, women and children were responsible for the bowling boom. The membership in the American Bowling Congress in 1935 was 3,558 leagues, and in 1940 14,727 leagues. It can be seen that exercise is essential for good health.

East Tawas Recreation ATTENTION BOWLERS
There will be a meeting next Wednesday, September 4, for the bowlers and sponsors of teams for the coming season of 1940-41, at the East Tawas Recreation at 7:30 p. m.
