In a slow first half Tawas City played on even terms with the northern team, with half time score reading 18 to 5 with the locals enjoying a slim three point lead.

Better pass-work, more accurate shots and a better conditioned team proved the downfall of the Mikado squad as Coach Carl Libka's Tawas City team, in the final half, piled up 11 field goals and six free throws for 28 points, to pull ahead of Mikado, who scored five field goals and one foul shot for 11 points in the last half.

Quick Work Prevents Blaze at Iosco Jail

At about midnight Wednesday cries of "fire" from prisoners in the cell block aroused Mrs. Ivan O'Farrell, new matron at the Iosco county jail, and her 18 year old son, Dale. She quickly called the Tawas City fire department and Deputy Sheriff Harry Pelton, who was at his home in East Tawas. Smoke poured from a ventilation shaft in the wall between the cell block and the sheriff's living room. Upon investigation a small smoldering fire was found in the dust which had gathered at the bottom of the shaft. Apparently a cigarette stub or lighted match had been thrown through a grate covered opening into the shaft on the prison side of the wall. The fire was extinguished before any damage had been done. Eight prisoners were in the cell block.

JUDGE DEHNKE HAS SERVED 21 YEARS AS CIRCUIT JUDGE

HON. HERMAN DEHNKE

Fifty people, who included members of the bar and the county officers and their wives from Oscoda, Alcona and Iosco counties, honored Circuit Judge Herman Dehnke with a dinner last Monday evening at the Holland Hotel.

The event was the 21st anniversary of Judge Dehnke's appointment as judge of this circuit.

Governor Fred Green appointed Judge Dehnke to the office on January 3, 1928, to succeed Judge Albert Widdis who had resigned to go to California. He has served in that office with distinction for more than three terms.

Following the dinner Monday evening a program was given which included addresses by Attorneys William R. Barber, of this city and Melvin Orr of West Branch, and a skit put on under the direction of prosecuting attorney Russell Hughes of Harrisville. In this Judge Dehnke was featured as "Mr. District Attorney of 1928." Parts in the skit were taken by members of the bar of all three counties.

A gift to Judge Dehnke from the entire group was presented by Attorney Herbert Hertzler. In receiving the gift, Judge Dehnke responded with a talk containing enjoyable reminiscences of the days when he was a young lawyer and school teacher. Mrs. Dehnke was presented with a beautiful corsage. Group singing was a pleasing part of the program.

Rooms Needed For Winter Sports Guests

Housing Chairman Urges the Listing of Room Accommodations

"The big problem to be met during the coming winter sports activities is housing," states A. L. Johnson, chairman of the Silver Valley Housing Committee. If you have a room available. Mr. Johnson urges you to call the Chamber of Commerce, telephone 608.

To emphasize the need of room accommodations, Mr. Johnson told of a few of the many groups which have requested accommodations this season.

McKenzie High School, 120 seniors, January 15 and 16. Third season.

Agrop of 50 from Redford. The 3rd annual trip for the 400 in the Lutheran caravan of the United Lutheran Churches of Detroit.

A mixed group of 150 college students from the Upsilon Nu Chapter at Michigan State College, East Lansing.

"It is important that we be prepared to accommodate these visitors and make their trip here a pleasant one," said Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. Louis Anderson is in Ann Arbor this week.

KATHLEEN NORRIS

Husbands Errant

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"FOR YEARS," writes Mrs. Robert James of Albany, N. Y., "your syndicated articles have been my Sunday sermon. But recently I was shocked by the immorality of your position, taken in an article entitled 'When the Wife Discovers the Existence of a Mistress.'"

"You advised the wife to save the marriage at all costs and to preserve the home, assuring her that her husband eventually would repent his ways and return to his family."

"To me this is the worst possible solution of this problem, in its effect upon the mother, father, the four children and the community," this spirited letter continues. "In condoning her husband's sin, the wife is as guilty as he, in my opinion. Even when he terminates this affair, she has rationalized his action and he will repeat it. It will not be his conscience that ends the matter, for he has none or it would have functioned in the past two years."

"Such affairs do not remain secret and the sons of the family will have small chance to grow into good husbands with this example before them. And even though the wife considers herself last, the role she is expected to play is surely insufferable."

It Takes Courage

"Yes," Rosemary James concedes in conclusion, "it does take courage to face a divorce, the Question of the office sweetheart wretchedness of separation, the sole responsibility for four children, but it is the only recourse for a woman in her position.

"The integrity and sense that have made him a business success may influence him to return to a badly-treated wife. Doesn't a great responsibility for these errant husbands lie right there in the control of the wife? Wouldn't an attitude of absolute unforgiveness be salutary all round? Doesn't he deserve it?"

This question of the office sweetheart often arises and will continue to arise, Rosemary, as long as men spend only rushing and weary hours at home and devote their bright, well-groomed, interested and important hours to business. It will arise as long as wives take only a financial interest in their husband's affairs, lamenting loudly when there must be retrenchment, criticizing and comparing notes, sure that Bill could be as successful as Harry Smith or Bob Fisher if he would get rid of Jones, move his office, advertise more, be less of a Milque-toast and more assertive.

The Office Wife

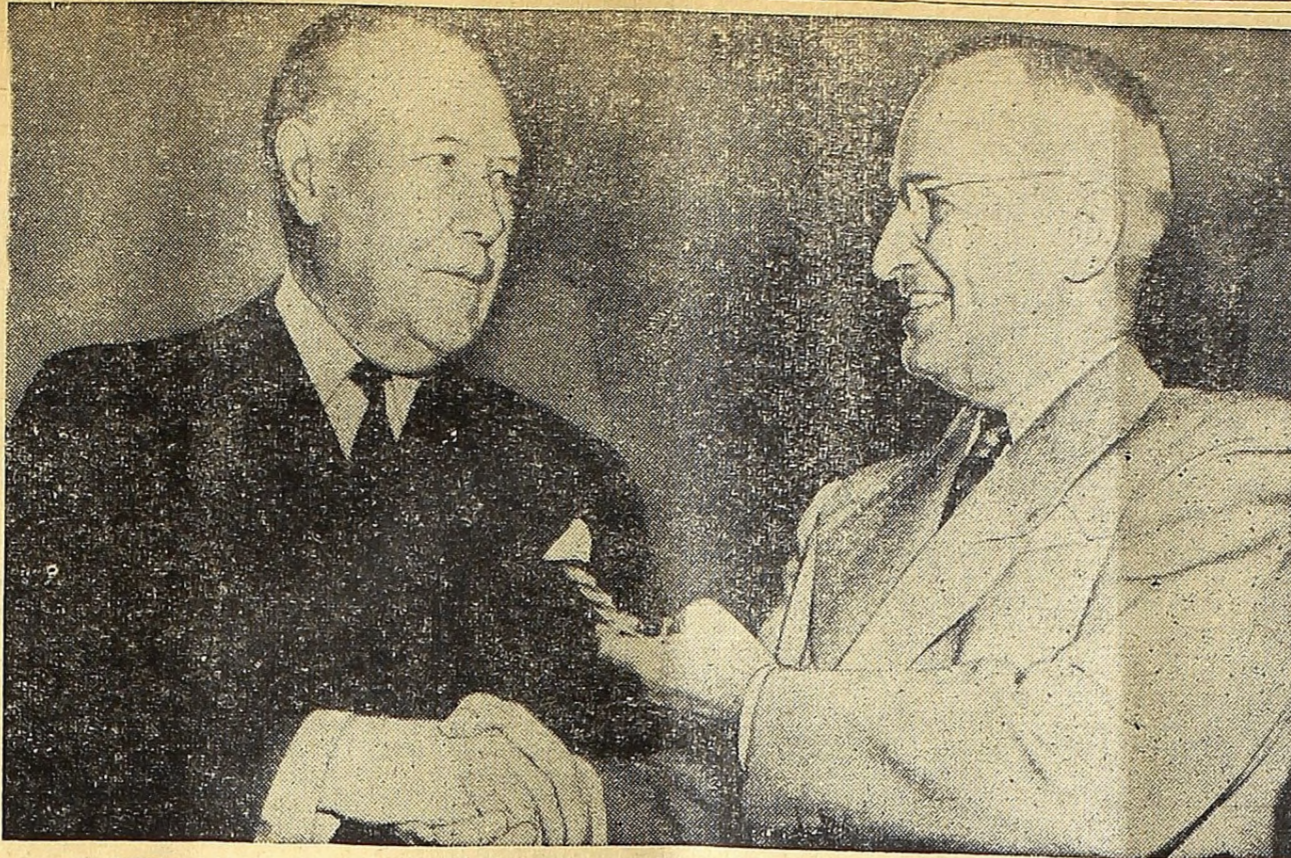

Miss Wilson, in the office, on the other hand, is intelligently sympathetic. And he weakens, because he is only a man, getting on in the forties, rather out of things as far as the problems of home and children are concerned, often tired, often puzzled, often wishing his wife knew how hard it was to earn the $50 she so simply spends on little Mary's coats.

But these aren't my reasons, Rosemary, for advising wives to sit tight and be sweet, interested and busy and to ignore what they either can't excuse or face. It is for her own happiness to do so. It is for the good of society, which forgives a husband's peccadilloes with maddening complacency. Even her boys someday will forgive their father. From the beginning they secretly will side with him and resent the lopsided life with Mother alone. They will resent her appeal to their sympathies.

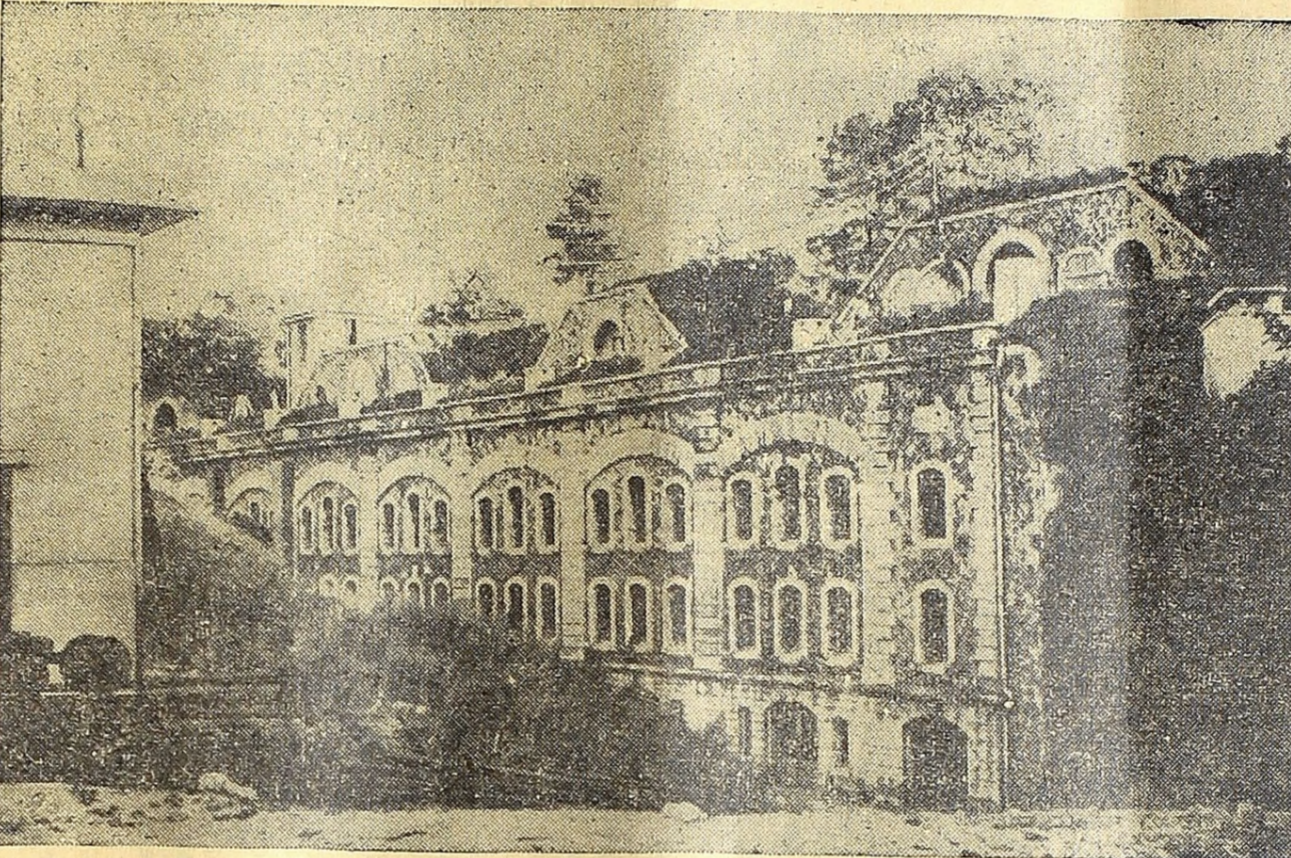

Forgiveness under these circumstances is a hard pill to swallow and many a woman angrily chokes on it and tears the whole fabric of her life to pieces rather than "let Bill get away with it."

But that is an expensive mistake, nine times out of ten. Ten times out of ten, if there are children. Children will forgive either parent anything, as long as the home atmosphere remains safe for them. The grownups' love affairs don't concern them.

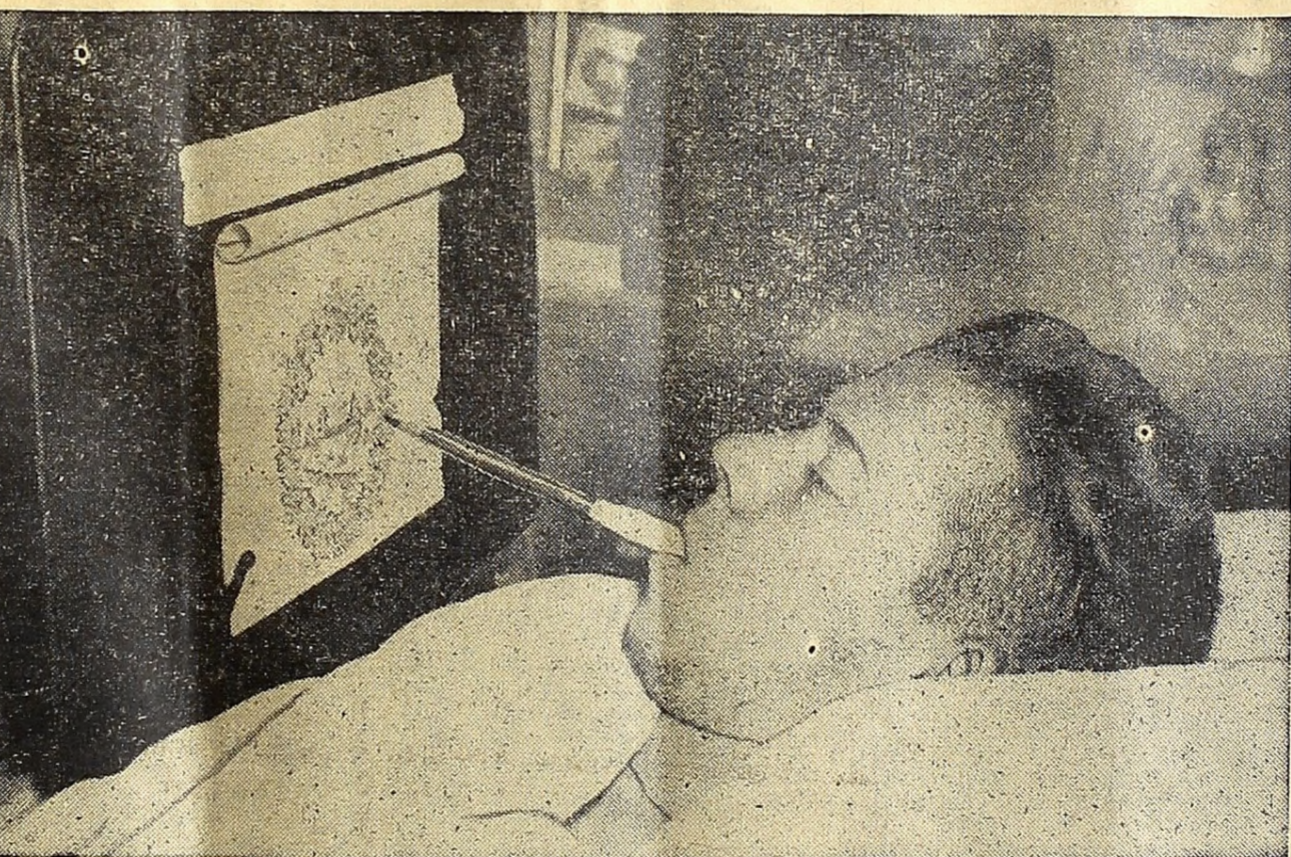

What Rosemary forgets is that this situation is bad anyway. It is as bad for the flattery-hungry husband as for her, in the long run. If she keeps attractive, forgives and waits, he has to make all the concessions. The intrusive sweetheart doesn't get him. He is the one who eventually must change, apologize, come back. She has avoided all the indignities of divorce, alimony, children's criticisms, old friends' partisanships, self-defense, loneliness and change of base. She has held to the home and promises whatever he has done.

In the picture, the President is congratulating the 74-year-old ex-U. S. steel executive following a presentation ceremony at the White House. Taylor was appointed emissary to the Vatican by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The appointment caused considerable discussion and disagreement among prominent church leaders, some objecting that Roosevelt had violated the policy of separation of church and state.

HIGH COURAGE . . . The war left young Jimmy Wallace of Chicago, Ill., little but a mind and heart. But, totally paralyzed from the neck down, this Vaughn hospital patient uses what is left of him to the hilt. He has taken up drawing and is shown here working on his Christmas greeting, which he illustrated with a snow-covered cottage surrounded by holly wreath. Each stroke takes a mighty effort for he draws with a pencil held between his teeth. Jimmy first seized the nation's imagination by praying on a huge six-foot rosary, hung over his bed.

Operation vittles stepped aside to let Santa take over the whole show, providing a heartwarming contrast to blockades and cold war. The plane carried more than 20,000 Christmas gifts for children in the German capital.

FARM ACCOUNTS

Farmers in Isosco county will find that the revised farm account book issued this year by the Michigan State College farm management department is simple and easy to keep.

County Agricultural Agent, Harold R. Clark pointed out the advantages of the new account book as he urged farmers to begin the new year by keeping a good set of financial records.

Among the features of the book is the new continuous farm inventory which eliminates the need for transferring the inventory record each time a new book is started. All it takes once each year is just a few minutes to bring the inventory up to date. At the close of each year he inventory supplement can be slipped out of the old book and fastened into the new book.

The filing of a federal income tax report has been made simpler and easier with a new section that gives specific instructions.

Elsewhere in the book, space is set aside for production and livestock breeding records.

The farm account books may be obtained from the county agricultural agents Office in the Federal Building at East Tawas. Mr. Clark will offer assistance in starting an account book for anyone who requests it.

New Chevrolet for '49

Tested and Proved...

on the world's toughest Proving Ground

When you see the 1949 Chevrolets, a glance will be enough to tell you they're new—all new—in line and contour, in beauty and style. And when you look inside, and under the hood, and beneath the chassis, you'll see that their newness is not merely in outward appearance, but in design and engineering and construction as well.

But, to a lot of people, the 1949 Chevrolet is already old. They know what it will do, and how exceedingly well it will do it—they know all about its performance, its comfort, its power, safety, durability and economy. They are the engineers and technicians of the General Motors Proving Ground—the largest, most completely equipped, outdoor testing laboratory in the automobile world.

Here, before a single new 1949 Chevrolet went into production, experimental models were tested—made to show that they possess, in greater measure than ever, all those qualities on which Chevrolet has built its leadership.

In short, the General Motors Proving Ground tests are your assurance that your new-model Chevrolet has proved its worth through many months and many, many thousands of miles of rough handling.

Soon you will see the new Chevrolet—and when you do, you will see a car not only new, but tried and true.

Check the Price - check the Policy - "Buick's the Buy!"

EVER since this '49 Buick made its bow, we've been telling you it's a buy.

We've invited you to match it—feature by feature and dollar for dollar—with anything else offered to you. You can start with the delivered prices shown here.

But don't stop with that. Check the policy under which Buicks are sold—and see for yourself that Buick means a better deal as well as a better buy!

Briefly, our Four-Square sales policy is this:

- 1. NO PRICE PADDING! We guarantee our prices to contain nothing but charges that were standard practice in figuring prewar delivered prices. You receive an itemized bill of sale showing all charges. And we display our prices in our showroom.

- 2. NO "LOADING" OF UNWANTED ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" you do not want.

- 3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. Selling used cars is part of our business. Naturally we like to take cars in trade. But you do not have to sell your car to us! We will take your order, and deliver your car, without requiring a car in trade!

- 4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETERS." We will not knowingly be party to a sale of Buick cars to any individual who operates in the "gray market." Our interest is entirely in delivering cars to bona fide customers.

In other words—you know exactly where you stand when you buy a Buick. What you get—what you pay—all the details of the deal open and aboveboard.

So we repeat: Check the price. Check the policy. Buick's the buy any way you want to look at it.

MIRROR of your MIND Keeping Promises By Lawrence Gould

Should you hold a person to a promise he regrets?
Answer: That depends to start with upon whether it is one he CAN keep. If someone has promised to pay you a debt and you know that he has the money, you can hold him to his promise, though this may cost you his friendship. But to demand that another person shall continue to give you his love because he has vowed to do so is another matter, since his power to keep this promise largely depends on unconscious forces which he cannot control. If these work against you, your insistence will make them resist all the harder.

Will "emotionally disturbed" people become insane?
Answer: This is much like asking whether someone who is sick will die—it depends on the severity of the disturbance. Anyone whose desires conflict with the dictates of his conscience will have warring or "disturbed" emotions, and of course, this is the case with nearly everybody. Only when the conflict is so painful that the person cannot stand it any longer and "escapes" into hallucinations or delusions—for example, that the accusations of his conscience are mysterious "voices"—does he become insane or "psychotic."

Do twins write and spell alike?
Answer: Not invariably, reports a psychologist from Uppsala university, Uppsala, Sweden, after studying the records of 530 pairs of twin school children between 8 and 15. Both fraternal and identical twins tend to have similar handwriting, but while the "identicals" are also alike in their ability to spell, the "fraternals" differ more and more as they grow older. The report suggests that this is because spelling and imaginative composition depend more upon heredity than writing, and only "identicals" have the same "genes."

Insulin Helpful in Mental Cases By Dr. James W. Barton

BEFORE shock treatment was discovered, it was estimated that, at the rate mental disease was increasing, in less than 50 years one-half the people of the world would be needed to care for the other half.
 Then came the discovery of shock treatment—insulin, metrazol, electric—and it was felt that there would be a lowering of the rate at which mental illness was increasing. This has proved true.
 Unfortunately, there have been some cases in which the usual insulin shock treatment has been too severe, and mental specialists have found it necessary to stop this kind of treatment. It is gratifying to know that army research workers, by reducing the dose of insulin used but using it oftener, now can treat many of these cases safely and with excellent results.
 In "Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry," Dr. D. S. Sullivan states that treatment with insulin, given by the intensive subshock technique, not only is effective in producing an improvement in the symptoms, but also completely stops the symptoms for certain periods. In addition, it brings about apparent recoveries of the psychotic or mentally upset patients seen in the army.
 The majority of the patients treated were suffering from the double personality or dream-state type of mental illness. Many of the patients had been psychotic or mentally afflicted three or four months before reaching the hospital from overseas.
 Despite this long period with mental symptoms, the majority responded well to the intensive subshock insulin treatment.
 "Intensive insulin subshock treatment, consisting of adequate subshock reactions twice a day, seven days a week for three weeks, should be used in all mentally disturbed states of the severe anxiety-tension type with severe depression."

HEALTH NOTES

In Great Britain there are more cases of rheumatism in proportion to population than in America. This may be because there are fewer dentists or because of the damp climate.
 There are millions of people who have normal eyes and require no glasses who, however unknowingly, do some damage to their eyes or fail to obtain the satisfaction their normal eyes can give them.
 Orthopedic physicians, chiropractors and podiatrists all state that the greatest single cause of painful feet is poor-fitting shoes.
 Painful and aching feet are just as much a handicap in life as is a painful or aching head.

Government Revamping

SHORTLY after the 81st congress will have convened it will have received the recommendations of the Hoover committee for the reorganization of the executive branch of the federal government.

In that report, and its recommendations, there is no particle of partisanship. Every recommendation it contains aims only for better government administration at less cost to its citizens. If congress will act on it in the same spirit in which the recommendations have been prepared, these recommendations will be enacted into law. The American people can hope that congress will forget partisanship in its consideration of the report.

IF AND WHEN it is enacted into law it will reduce the present multitudinous number of bureaus, administrations, departments and what have you, now manned by well over two million federal employees. It will greatly simplify the operations of the administrative branch of the government and end the overlapping and conflicting authority of the countless bureaus and departments authorized by presidential orders or by acts of congress.

IT WILL REDUCE the cost of administering the federal government by approximately three billion dollars each year. Such a sum is not hay even in these days of wild government spending.

For that reason, it for no other, every citizen should be intensely interested in the action congress takes on that report. It means three billion dollars less to pay each year for those who make income tax returns, large or small, and by everyone who buys commodities. It is the consumer of commodities who, in the end, pays the taxes.

THE COST of operating the government comes from each one of us, the poor as well as the rich. Any tax paid by productive industry is a part of the cost of production and is included in the price of the commodity the consumer pays.

To members of congress—senators and representatives—that three billion dollars represents a million, federal jobs. That is patronage, rewards to the faithful. Each job represents votes, the votes of the holder of the job, of his relatives and friends. Such votes count materially in the election of senators and representatives. Will those who have profited in votes from those jobs reduce their chances of re-election by canceling the jobs?

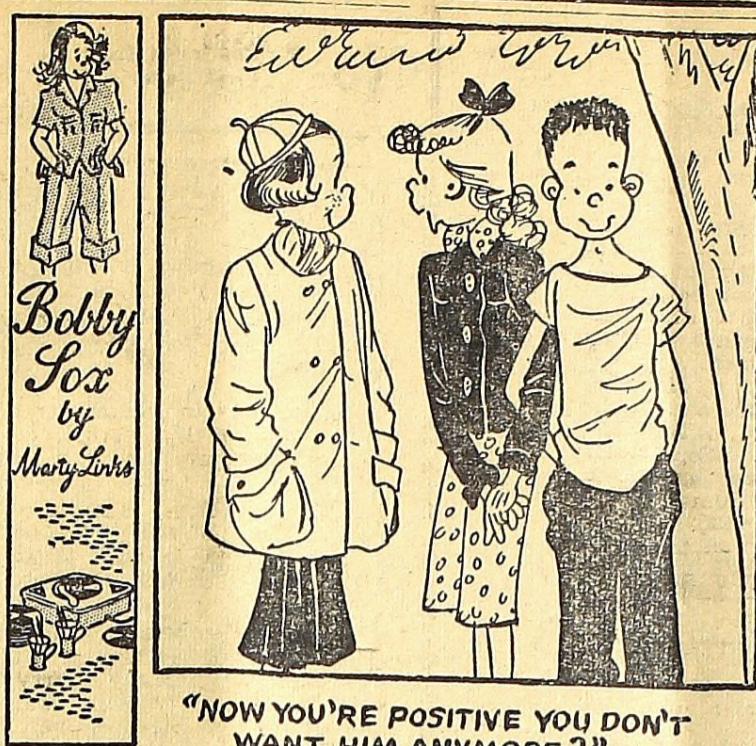

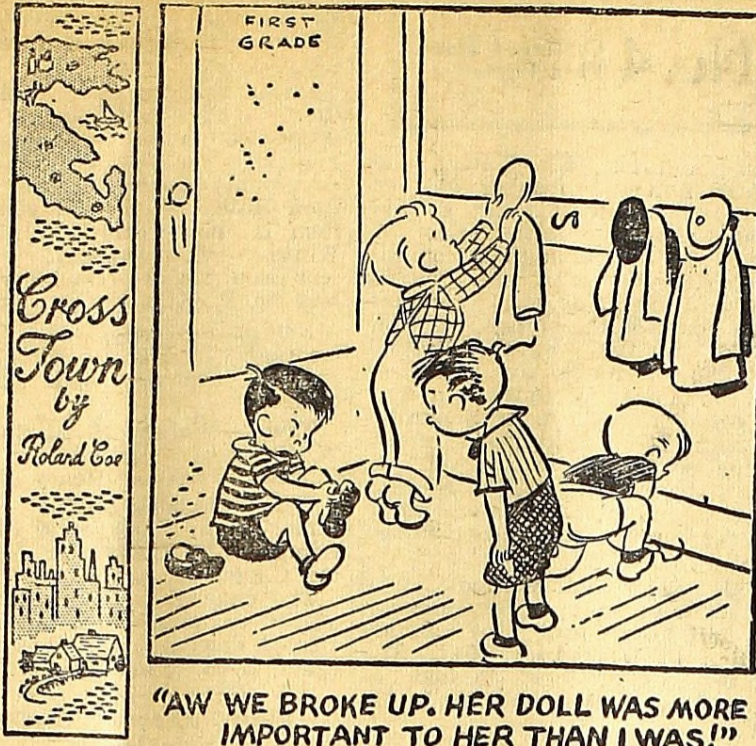

ACTION BY congress on the recommendations of that Hoover committee will go far in determining whether or not the government of the republic is firmly based. Is it a government "of the people, by the people, for the people," or do those we send to Washington as our representatives think more of themselves and their personal interests than the interests of those they are chosen to represent?

A government that operates in the interests of congress, rather than in the interest of the people is headed for totalitarianism—the police state—a government of bureaucracy by bureaucrats and not a government of, for and by the people. The enactment into law of the Hoover committee recommendations will assure us a continuance of the freedoms we have enjoyed in the past insofar as they are affected by the administrative branch of the government.

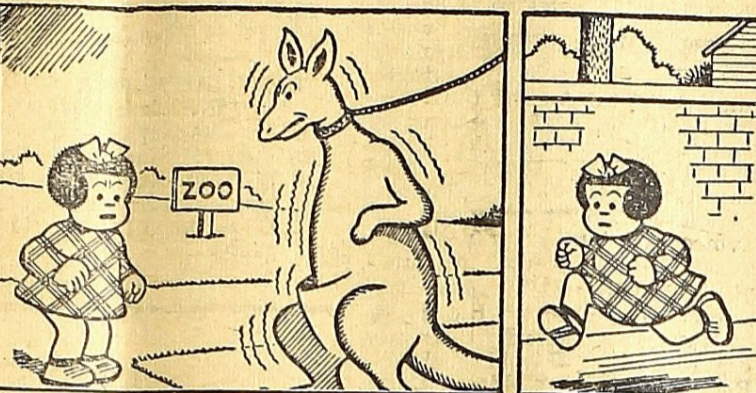

To the Sea in Ships

Following World War I it was necessary (?) that we have a big, elaborate Atlantic passenger liner. We revamped the Leviathan at a cost of a couple of million dollars. After some three years we sent the big ship to the bone yard because she was losing more money than we cared to waste. Now the maritime commission must (?) have the largest and finest Atlantic passenger liner ever built. At a cost of a mere 67 million dollars the commission has let a contract for a new ship that will be larger and more elaborate than any other that has ever sailed the Atlantic or any other ocean. That despite the fact that the big liners operated by England operate at a loss, and that Atlantic travel is shifting rapidly to air. But what is a mere 67 million dollars in these days of extravagant government spending?

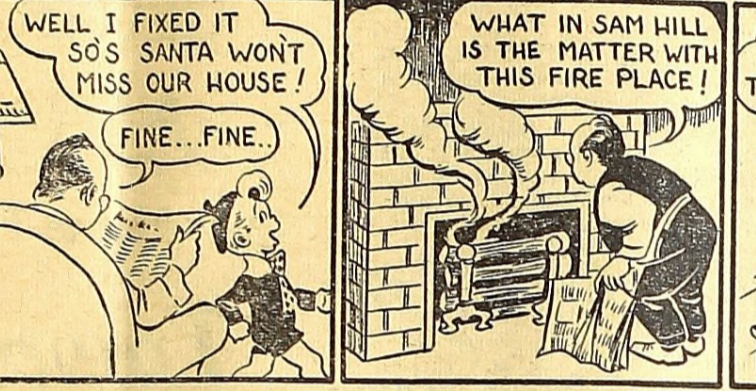

If the next war is to be fought in the air rather than on the sea or land, why all the vast expenditures on a navy or a land army? The fact that the "high brass" of these two old services are demanding the money is no reason they should have it. We could not defeat Russia on land, but we could defeat her in the air; with planes and bombs we could do the job. Give us air power for both defense and attack, with atomic bombs. That is the job that is up to congress at the present time.

Urged to File Performance Reports

Iosco County farmers are urged to file performance reports listing the conservation practices carried out in conjunction with the 1948 agricultural conservation program. These reports must be filed with the Iosco County AAA office on or before January 15 in order to qualify farmers for assistance payments carried out during 1948, according to Earl M. Partlo, chairman of the County AAA Committee.

No farm-to-farm canvass will be made to obtain these reports and, therefore, the responsibility for getting this information to the county AAA office rests with each farmer who participated in the 1948 ACP program and who desires payment for practices carried out.

ers as to the value of the services of such an agent, but said they now realize the help these programs are to all.

Mr. Clark stated that while farm crops are important, the best crop in the world today are the young people, and the aim of the 4-H Clubs was to help them use Head, Heart, Hands and Health for the betterment of the community. There are one and one-half million 4-H members in United States and four hundred and fifty in Iosco county. Besides farming, they have other projects, as wood cutting, and electrical work, with sewing and home economics for the girls. Recreation is not forgotten, with camps for summer and winter sports. Prizes are awarded on Achievement Day, with training record and conduct determining the winners. Their great need is for workers to aid in these projects and Mrs. Clark hopes he may find more in the county willing to offer their services.

The hostesses were Mrs. Bert Stoll, Mrs. Victor Marzinski, Mrs. Herman Moehring and Mrs. Berkeley Smith.

The next meeting of the club will be the Anniversary banquet to be held January 19th at one o'clock at the Holland Hotel. Mrs. James LaBerge is in charge of reservations. Mrs. Arthur Bloesing is chairman of the decorations committee and members may bring guests.

mittie in 1946. Mr. Waters, although a new member of the county committee, is not a new person connected with AAA. He served on the community committee for several years and during 1943 and 1944 was loan representative for RACC, an agency connected with the Farm Program. The two alternates have served on the community committee in their respective townships for a number of years. Mrs. Byrd needs no introduction to the farmers of AAA county having worked with AAA from its infancy and being secretary-treasurer since September, 1940.

The new committee took office immediately upon their election and will serve until the annual election in December, 1949. The county AAA office is located at Tawas City in the old bank building.

AAA COMMITTEEMEN NAMED

A total of 151 votes were cast by the Iosco County farmers voting in the annual election of community AAA committeemen conducted by mail this year for the third time in the history of AAA elections, according to Earl M. Partlo, chairman of the Iosco County AAA Committee. This total compares with 123 votes cast last year and 123 votes cast two years ago when mail balloting was first instituted.

The ballots were counted on Thursday, December 23, by an impartial election board consisting of the following: Harold F. Black, of Reno township, Waldo I. Curry of Tawas township and Earl M. Partlo of Burleigh township.

Final tabulation revealed that 36 percent of the 416 eligible voters in the county participated in the election of the committeemen and convention delegates.

Following is a complete list of the newly elected community AAA committees by townships: chairman, vice-chairman, regular member, 1st alternate and 2nd alternate, respectively:
